ARTICLE III

Disposition of Tangible Personal Property

I may leave a written statement to dispose of items of tangible personal property. If this statement is dated and either is in my handwriting or is signed by me, my executor shall distribute the described items of tangible personal property to the distributees entitled to them.

I give all the rest of my tangible personal property, including, but not limited to, clothing, jewelry, glassware and silverware, articles of personal adornment, books, pictures, motor vehicles owned for personal use, household furniture, equipment and furnishings, recreational equipment and personal effects, together with all policies of insurance thereon, to Julia C. Goodin in fee simple and absolutely.

If Julia C. Goodin fails to survive me, then I give all of the rest of my tangible personal property, including, but not limited to, clothing, jewelry, automobiles, household furniture and furnishings, recreational equipment and personal effects, together with all policies of insurance thereon, according to the value of such personal property, such value to be determined by my executor, to my children, share and share like, per stirpes.

If any beneficiary is less than eighteen (18) years of age at the time of my death, my executor shall deliver, without requiring bond, to such beneficiary or to the person with whom such beneficiary is residing at the time of distribution, so much of the beneficiary's share of such tangible personal property as may be deemed appropriate, in my executor's sole discretion, and the receipt of the beneficiary or of such person shall be a full and final discharge of my executor for the property so delivered, and my executor shall sell the remainder of the beneficiary's share of tangible personal property and add the proceeds therefrom to my residuary estate.

All costs of safeguarding, insuring, packing and storing my tangible personal property prior to its distribution and of delivering each item to the place of residence of the beneficiary of that item shall be deemed to be expenses of administration of my estate.

The term "tangible personal property" shall be construed as not including any such property that, in the determination of my executor, is (i) held primarily for investment purposes or (ii) used in connection with any business in which I may be engaged or in which I may have any interest at the time of my death.

ARTICLE IV

Disposition of Residue

I give the residue of my estate, together with any insurance thereon, to Julia C. Goodin in fee simple and absolutely. If Julia C. Goodin fails to survive me, then I give her share of the residue to my children, share and share alike, per stirpes.

ARTICLE V

Uniform Transfers to Minors Act

If any beneficiary under Article IV of my Will has not reached the age of twenty-one (21) years at the time that distribution is herein directed to be made, I direct that such beneficiary's share be converted into qualifying property and paid over and delivered to a suitable person as custodian for the beneficiary under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

B. Waiver of Bond for Executor. I direct that no bond shall be required of any executor named in this will.

C. Powers of Executor. In addition to any inherent or statutory powers she may now or hereafter have, I hereby expressly authorize and empower my executor in her sole and absolute discretion:

1. To sell, mortgage, lease, pledge or exchange any real or personal property of which I may die seized, at public or private sale, at such times and in such manner as my executor shall deem best and to make all needful conveyances, deeds, and transfers necessary to pass a full, perfect and complete title to any part and the whole thereof.

2. To collect and compromise all debts, demands, and claims of every description that may be due or owing, or in any way belonging to me or to my estate, as well as any liabilities to which I or my estate may be subject.

3. If I am the owner of any business, whether as a sole proprietor or holder of a majority of the outstanding stock of a corporation, my executor may continue the business as long as she shall deem it to be in the best interests of the beneficiaries, and may exercise all powers with respect to the business which I could if I were living. This shall include, but not be limited to, the power to sell or liquidate the business at such price and on such terms as she shall consider proper; to name or change officers, directors or employees, and to expand, limit, alter, incorporate, merge or reconstitute the business in any way she deems advisable. In the absence of actual notice to the contrary, she may accept as correct financial or other statements rendered by the managers of the business or corporation from time to time as to its condition and operations. If the business is retained or continued by her, she shall receive such compensation in addition to that to which she would otherwise be entitled as executor as well as reasonably compensate her for additional services in the management and operation of the business. The executor shall in no way be liable for any loss resulting from such retention or continuation, or from the operation of the business or the acts of its officers and directors, except where such loss is the result of her misconduct or gross negligence.

4. If I have not left written instructions regarding my funeral and burial, my executor shall plan and arrange my funeral and burial. My executor shall be authorized, but not required, to purchase a monument or gravestone that she deems suitable and appropriate.

D. Nomination of Alternate Executor. If, because of death or for any other reason, the executor nominated above should fail or cease to act as executor under this will, then

ARTICLE VII

General Administrative Provision

Application of Any Insurance Payable to Executor or Estate and Benefit Plan Proceeds; Exempt Property. Notwithstanding any other provision of this will, no exempt property shall be subject to the payment of any of my debts or expenses unless my executor shall choose in said executor's discretion to waive any exemption and apply such exempt property to such uses. If any life insurance proceeds are paid to my executor or my estate I direct that said proceeds shall pass under the provisions of this will and not as may otherwise be directed by the laws of Iowa; provided however, that any such life insurance proceeds shall remain exempt from claims of creditors unless my executor in said executor's discretion chooses to waive such exemption. Notwithstanding any other provision of this will, in no event shall any payments received from a qualified pension plan, profit-sharing plan, employees' trust, individual retirement account, or other type of employee or self-employed benefit plan be used by my executor to pay any of my charges, debts, costs of administration or taxes, or be used in any other way to benefit my estate unless in any event such payments would be a part of my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes.

ARTICLE VIII

Rules of Interpretation

For the purposes of interpreting this will and in addition to the other interpretive provisions contained herein, the following rules of interpretation shall be applied:

A. Laws of Iowa. All provisions of this will, including its validity, shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of Iowa.

B. My Intentions With Respect to the Treatment to be Given Under This Will to Any Persons Born or Adopted After I Have Signed This Will. Any person born or adopted after the making of this will shall be treated the same under this will as though such person had been born or adopted at the time of the making of this will.

C. My Intentions With Respect to the Payment of Debts and Charges. Notwithstanding my authorization herein to my executor to pay the expenses of my last illness, funeral and burial as well as my debts and charges from my estate, it is my intention that any indebtedness which is secured by a mortgage or security interest upon any property, or interest therein, which is owned by me at the time of my death (in joint tenancy or otherwise) shall not be paid out my estate and any such property shall pass subject to any such indebtedness and that nothing contained in this will shall require the prepayment of any installment indebtedness if it is not in the best interests of my beneficiaries to do so; nor shall anything contained herein require the payment of any debts or charges which my estate would not be legally obligated to pay.

D. Partial Invalidity. Should any part, clause, provision or condition of this will be held to be void, invalid or inoperative, then I direct that such invalidity shall not affect any other clause, provision or condition of this will. The remainder of this will shall be effective as though such void clause, provision or condition had not been contained in it.

ARTICLE IX

Survivorship

Wherever in this will it is provided that any person shall benefit hereunder if such person shall survive me, that person shall be deemed not to have survived me if he or she shall die within thirty (30) days after the date of my death.

ARTICLE X

Common Catastrophe

If any beneficiary under this will and I shall die under such circumstances that render it difficult to determine who survived the other, my will shall be construed as though the beneficiary predeceased me.
