This is an attempt to make certain that my assets are rational and legally distributed. The work here is to serve as my last will and testament in case of my death during my vacation to the Baltic states aug 28 to sept 21, 2001.

Glen Clanton

Special conditions that undergird my decisions

1) My present wife Janet L. Clanton and I were married on April 11, 1987 with an important agreement.

Janet had three houses and many other assets.
I had one house and we agreed that we would live in my house. She could do whatever she wished with her houses and other assets.

She manages her investments and has freedom to do as she wishes.

I do the same even though we live off my retirement. She has a will and that is fine with me.

This agreement means that I must assign my assets different from her wishes.

2. Janet has signed off legally on some of my retirement accounts. The record is clear.

3. I will not deal with Janet's assets here

   If my wife survives me, she (Janet) should become owner of this property. If she does not survive me, my children Russell G. and Gigi should each own 50% of my house. My step children, Brenda, Mike, and Dorothy will inherit from Janet's houses.

2. My retirement accounts

      about $170,000
      This account is willed to my first wife Laura Nell Hipscomb with Russell and Gigi serving as secondary beneficiaries.

3.) My wife Janet and I maintain separate bank accounts
   If Janet survives me, then my accounts at AmSouth, 6161280, 760 5272 and 8285864 should go to her. If she does not survive me then Russell and Gigi should split these accounts 50-50.
