LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

MAUD HOWELL HENDERSON

I, the undersigned Maud Howell Henderson, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, hereby make, declare and publish this my Last Will and Testament, revoking all former Wills and Codicils made by me.

ITEM ONE: All estate, inheritance and succession taxes assessable by reason of my death on account of any assets, including life insurance proceeds, passing under this Will or otherwise, and any penalties and interest thereon, shall be paid by the executor without charge or apportionment against any beneficiary or transferee.

ITEM TWO: I give all my personal effects, such as clothing, jewelry, household goods and any automobiles owned by me at my death to my husband, Gerald D. Henderson, if he survives me; otherwise in equal shares to my two children, Gerald Deane Henderson, Jr., and Ellen Howell Henderson Seeley, if they both survive me, to be divided between them as they may agree, but if they do not agree upon a division within ninety (90) days after the executor qualifies, the executor shall make the division, or if one be then dead then these articles shall go to the child who survives me.

ITEM THREE: I give, devise and bequeath the residue of my estate of every kind and wherever located, including any void or lapsed legacies, as follows:

(a) If my husband and both of my children survive me, my husband shall receive one-half and each of my surviving children shall receive one-fourth; or if my husband and only one of my children shall survive me, my husband shall receive one-half and my surviving child shall receive one-half; or if my husband survives me but neither of my children survive me, my husband shall take the entire residue.

(b) If my husband Gerald D. Henderson does not survive me my entire residuary estate shall go in equal shares to my two children if both survive me or all to the survivor living at my death; but if neither of my children shall survive me then the entire residuary estate shall be disposed of as follows: (1) one-half per stirpes to the descendants, surviving me, of my said son and (2) one-half per stirpes to the descendants, surviving me, of my said daughter; provided, however, that if my said son has no descendant surviving me the one-half allotted to his descendants shall pass per stirpes to the descendants, surviving me, of my said daughter, and provided, further, that if my said daughter has no descendant surviving me, the one-half allotted to her descendants shall pass per stirpes to the descendants, surviving me, of my said son, as I intend to make a complete disposition of the residuary estate, and provided, further, that any legally adopted child of my said son or of my said daughter, and the descendants of any such adopted child, shall be treated and considered hereunder exactly as if such adopted child had been the child of the blood of my said son or daughter as the case may be; provided, however, that the portion going to any minor beneficiary shall be held in trust, with all powers in the trustee respecting its use for the support, education and funeral expenses of the minor beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of twenty-one (21) years or dies, whichever is sooner, and the trust assets then remaining shall be delivered over to the beneficiary or the estate of the beneficiary as the case may be.

ITEM FOUR: I nominate and appoint my husband, Gerald D. Henderson, as executor without bond, and if for any reason he does not become or ceases to serve as executor, his place shall be taken by First American National Bank of Nashville, Nashville, Tennessee, which is excused from giving bond. The executor is fully empowered to sell, mortgage, lease, transfer and convey assets belonging to my estate and to divide in kind or in cash or partly in kind and partly in cash, and valuations made reasonably and in good faith by the executor shall be conclusive upon all parties.

This Will is typewritten on three (3) pages.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this my Last Will and Testament, and declared and published it as such in the presence of witnesses, this 1st day of October 1966.
