ORDER TO PROBATE

This cause came to be heard on the 20th day of June, 2012, before Randy Kennedy, Probate Judge, upon the Petition of Frances Sullivan requesting that a paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Maud Ellen Sullivan, deceased, be admitted to probate only as a muniment of title.

Whereupon, the Petitioner produced a paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Decedent, said paper writing bearing date of October 1, 1995, having the name Maud E. Sullivan signed thereto as testator and subscribed by Ruth Cammuse and Charlene Lyle as attesting witnesses.

And, it appearing from the testimony of the aforesaid Charlene Lyle, taken upon affidavit as authorized by and in accordance with Tennessee Code Annotated § 32-2-110, that: she did subscribe her respective name as an attesting witness to said paper writing; that said paper writing was written in the lifetime of Decedent, and published, signed and subscribed by Decedent in the presence of the attesting witnesses; that Decedent was then of sound mind; and that, at Decedent's request, said attesting witnesses signed said paper writing in Decedent's presence and in the presence of each other on October 1, 1995.

And, it further appearing that: the other attesting witness, Ruth Cammuse, is alive but no longer has capacity due to dementia; and that said paper writing is uncontested by all devisees and heirs-at-law such that said paper writing may be proved as authorized by and in accordance with Tennessee Code Annotated § 32-2-104.

And, it further appearing that: said paper writing bears the true signature of Decedent; that Decedent's usual place of domicile and residence at the time of death was Davidson County, Tennessee; and that Decedent died in Davidson County, Tennessee, on January 20, 2004, at the age of 77 years.

And, it further appearing that: said paper writing does not name an executor or address bond, inventory or accounting; and that all devisees and heirs-at-law consent to the naming of Petitioner as Personal Representative to serve without requirement of such.

And, it further appearing that Decedent owned an interest in a parcel of real property in Davidson County, Tennessee at her death.

And, it further appearing that Decedent had no personal estate and no formal administration is required.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that said paper writing is the true, whole and Last Will and Testament of Maud Ellen Sullivan, deceased; that the same is hereby admitted to probate as a muniment of title; and that the Clerk is directed to file and record the same, and that no formal administration is required.
