HELEN MARY BLAKELY	)	IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT
VS.	)	FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
BEN KEYS BLAKELY, SR.	)	NO. 66858

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 6th day of February, 1973, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the petition heretofore filed, pro confesso timely taken, the testimony of witnesses in open court, and interrogatory of witnesses subsequently filed with the court; from all of which it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the petition are well taken and are sustained by the proof and that the Defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the Complainant and the Defendant be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved and that the Complainant be vested with all of the rights of an unmarried woman.

It is further ORDERED that the custody of the minor children of the parties shall remain with the Complainant herein and that the child support order heretofore contained in the Agreed Order signed by the Defendant be made permanent.

It is further ORDERED that the Defendant will pay the premiums and keep in effect two life insurance policies on his life, one with the Lafayette Life Insurance Company and the other with the Veterans Administration, and will retain as beneficiary to such policies his children and Helen Mary Blakely, the Complainant. In the event that Helen Mary Blakely remarries, her name will be removed as a beneficiary from such policies.

It is further ORDERED that the 1962 Volkswagen automobile be divested out of the Defendant and into the Complainant to the end that she be sole owner of the same.

It is further ORDERED that the house and lot located at 676 Harding Place, Nashville, Tennessee, and all of the furnishings therein be divested
