LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Tish Bowers, declare this my Last Will and Testament, revoking all Wills prior to this Date 5-5 1998.

I direct that my funeral expenses, any unsecured debts and all estate and inherirance taxes be first paid out of any funds left by me at my death, in the event sufficient funds are not left by me, I hereby authorize my Executrix, at her discretion, to sell such of my property, personal or real, as necessary for payment thereof. I also authorize her to select a vault in a mausoleum for my remains, if not done so prior to my death.

Any remaining possissions that have been passed down to me by my family shall be offered to my Aunt, Mary Pillow and cousins Paula Linton, Phyllis Williams and Mary LaRue Groft or the survivor(s) of them at the time of my death.

I leave the rest of my estate to Emily A. Mitchell. If Emily should predecease me, her portion shall be divided equally between her daughters, Marsha Busby and Shannon Mitchell or the survivor of them at the time of my death.

I appoint Emily A. Mitchell Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament. If she should be unable to serve, I appoint her brother, Thomas C. Appleton, as Executor. I direct that no bond be required of either of them.
