FINAL DECREE OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause came to be heard on the 10th day of May 2006, before the Honorable Muriel Robinson, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, and upon the Complaint for Divorce filed by the plaintiff, Catrina Martin (hereinafter referred to as "Wife") and the Answer and Counter Complaint for Divorce filed by the defendant, Christopher Lynn Martin (hereinafter referred to as "Husband"), statements of counsel, testimony by the parties and witnesses and the entire record herein, the Court finds that the parties are declared divorced pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated §36-4-129, and each party is restored to all rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Wife is granted a divorce on the grounds of Inappropriate Marital Conduct pursuant to T.C.A. §36-4-129, and she is restored to all of the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Wife is granted a judgment for $360.00 for her wedding ring sold by the Husband for which execution shall issue.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that Wife is granted all of her personal property currently in her possession free and clear of any claim by Husband.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that Husband is granted all of his

J. OTHER

The following special provisions apply:

1. The parents will phase-in the child's time with his father over a period of a few months in order to allow the child to get accustomed to being away from the mother and with the father. During the phase-in period, the child's time with the father will be 3 (three) hours every other weekend, normally on Saturdays from 12 Noon to 3:00 PM. The father will make every effort to minimize the number of scheduled visitation weekends when he works; but in the event he does work on a Saturday scheduled for visiting with his son, he will notify Ms. Martin by telephone as soon as possible, and the back-up day and time during this phase-in period will be Sundays from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM.

2. Prior to starting school, the following provisions shall be made for the daycare and/or evening care for the pre-school aged child or children:

Each parent shall make arrangements to care for the child when the child is in his/her care. Mother currently leaves the child with her family members while she is at work, but she eventually plans to enroll the child in a day care program while she is working. Should she do so, absent a new child support order integrating those costs into the child support amount, parents will share the costs of Mother's day care expenses for the child in connection with her job, pro rata, in accordance with their income, currently: Mother 47%, and Father 53%. Mother shall send a receipt for all such child care expenses to Father on a monthly basis, and Father shall reimburse Mother for his share within 30 days of receiving such receipts.

II. DECISION-MAKING

A. DAY-TO-DAY DECISIONS

Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care of a child while the child is residing with that parent, including any emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of a child.

B. MAJOR DECISIONS

Major decisions regarding each child shall be made as follows:

Educational decisions:	[X] mother	[ ] father	[ ] joint
Non-emergency health care:	[X] mother	[ ] father	[ ] joint

The [ ] mother [X] father will furnish IRS Form 8332 to the parent entitled to the exemption by February 15th of the year the tax return is due.

Other:

[1] NOTE: The child support schedule assumptions in the guidelines (140-2-4-.03 (6)(b)) assume that the parent receiving the child support will get the tax exemptions for the child.

Copy

C. PROOF OF INCOME AND WORK-RELATED CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Each parent shall send proof of income to the other parent for the prior calendar year as follows:

- IRS Forms W-2 and 1099 shall be sent to the other parent on or before February 15th.
- A copy of his or her federal income tax return shall be sent to the other parent on or before April 15 or any later date when it is due because of an extension of time for filing.
- The completed form required by the Department of Human Services shall be sent to the Department on or before the date the federal income tax return is due by the parent paying child support. This requirement applies only if a parent is receiving benefits from the Department for a child.

The parent paying work-related child care expenses shall send proof of expenses to the other parent for the prior calendar year and an estimate for the next calendar year, on or before February 15th.

D. HEALTH AND DENTAL INSURANCE

Reasonable health insurance on the child or children will be:

[X] maintained by the mother
[ ] maintained by the father
[ ] maintained by both

Proof of continuing coverage shall be furnished to the other parent annually or as coverage changes. The parent maintaining coverage shall authorize the other parent to consult with the insurance carrier regarding the coverage in effect.

Uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses, which may include but is not limited to, deductibles or co-payments, eyeglasses, contact lens, routine annual physicals, and counseling will be paid by [ ] mother [ ] father [X] pro rata in accordance with their incomes. After insurance has paid its portion, the parent receiving the bill will send it to the other parent within ten days. The other parent will pay his or her share within 30 days of receipt of the bill.

If available through work, the [X] mother [X] father shall maintain dental, orthodontic, and optical insurance on the minor child or children.

Copy

E. LIFE INSURANCE (Required for parent paying child support)

The [ ] mother [X] father [ ] both shall insure his own life in the minimum amount of $100,000.00 by whole life or term insurance. Until the child support obligation has been completed, each policy shall name the following as sole irrevocable primary beneficiary: [ ] the other parent [X] the other parent, as trustee for the benefit of the children, to serve without bond or accounting, [ ] other : _____.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The child or children are scheduled to reside the majority of the time with the [X] mother [ ] father. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to:

[X] Mediation by a neutral party chosen by the parents or the Court.
[ ] Arbitration by a neutral party selected by parents or the Court.
[ ] The Court DUE TO ORDER OF PROTECTION OR RESTRICTIONS.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by [ ] written request [X] certified mail [ ] other: _____.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.

Copy

D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations;
(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not open or censor;
(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any event of hospitalization, major illness or death of the child;
(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any school records customarily made available to parents. (The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and upon payment of reasonable costs of duplicating.) These include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;
(5) The right to receive copies of the child's medical health or other treatment records directly from the physician or health care provider who provided treatment or health care. (The keeper of the records may require a written request which contains a current mailing address and the payment of reasonable costs of duplication.) No person who receives the mailing address of a parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;
(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about the parent or his or her family by the other parent to the child or in the presence of the child;
(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extra-curricular activities, and the opportunity to participate or observe them. These include the following: school activities, athletic activities, church activities and other activities where parental participation or observation would be appropriate;
(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than two (2) days, an itinerary including telephone numbers for use in the event of an emergency;
(9) The right to access and participation in education on the same basis that is provided to all parents. This includes the right of access to the child for lunch and other activities. However participation or access must be reasonable and not interfere with day-to-day operations or with the child's educational performance.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

If a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than one hundred (100) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move.

The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that the other parent may file a petition in opposition to the move within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by [ ] both parents [x] mother [ ] father [ ] neither. Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Notice of fulfillment of this requirement shall be provided to the Court prior to the final hearing.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. (A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent rather than one agreed by both parents.)
