Last Will of Virginia Craine

I, Virginia Craine, presently residing in Davidson, Tennessee, being of sound mind, declare this to be my Last Will and revoke any prior Wills or Codicils.

Article 1: Family

Section 1.1 I am presently married and my spouse is Ted Michael Craine. All references in this Will to "my spouse" are to Ted Michael Craine.

Section 1.2 Children:

Section 1.2.1 My children not of this marriage are: James Travis Jones and Robin Danielle Brown.

Article 2: Definitions

In this Will, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

Section 2.1 Wherever there is any reference to the "age of majority", the specific age meant is 18.

Section 2.2 The term "descendant" or "descendants" shall include all lineal descendants by blood or legal adoption of the named ancestor.

Section 2.3 The term "issue" shall mean all of a person's lineal descendants of all generations, except those who are descendants of a living descendant, with the relationship of parent and child being determined by the definitions contained in the statutes of Tennessee pertaining to Probate and Estates.

Section 2.4 The terms "my child", "my children", "child of mine", or "children of mine" shall mean those persons set forth in Section 1.2 of Article 1: . These terms shall not include any children born to me or my spouse or legally adopted by me or my spouse after the date of this Will; I deliberately exclude such children from inheriting any portion of my estate.

Section 2.5 The term "Personal Representative" refers to the person appointed to administer the Will. The term "Personal Representative" includes the terms "Executor" or "Administrator".

Section 2.6 The terms "right of representation" or "per stirpes" shall mean that the issue of a deceased person shall share equally in the share their deceased parent would have taken if living.

Article 3: Personal Representative Appointments & Powers

Section 3.1 I appoint my spouse as my Personal Representative to administer this Will. If my spouse is unwilling or unable to act, then I appoint Robin Danielle Brown as my Personal Representative to administer this Will. If Robin Danielle Brown is unwilling or unable to act, then I appoint Cheryl Thompson as Alternate Personal Representative. To the extent permitted by law, the above named persons shall serve without bond.

Section 3.2 I authorize my Personal Representative to do any of the following if necessary in the administration of my estate:

(a) To make repairs or improvements of my property as may be deemed necessary to preserve or enhance the value of my estate;

(b) To sell or convey any part of my estate whether real, personal or mixed, for cash or on credit, at a public or private sale;

(c) To borrow funds for use in estate administration if there are insufficient liquid assets in my estate;

(d) To employ persons, including attorneys, investment advisors, or other agents for assistance or advice, or not to employ such persons as my Personal Representative deems appropriate; and

(e) To perform any act, and to exercise any authority, which the laws of Tennessee authorize a Personal Representative or fiduciary to perform.

Article 4: Expenses and Death Taxes

Section 4.1 I direct my Personal Representative to pay out of the Residuary of my estate the following:

Section 4.1.1 The expenses of administering my estate and legally enforceable claims.

Section 4.1.2 If necessary, reasonable funeral expenses.

Section 4.1.3 All federal estate taxes, state inheritance taxes and all other governmental charges imposed by reason of my death without seeking reimbursement from or charging any person for any part of the taxes and charges paid.

Article 5: Specific Devise of Tangible Personal Property

Section 5.1 I give all my tangible personal property not otherwise specifically mentioned, together with any insurance policies covering such tangible personal property and claims under such policies, to my spouse.

Copy

Section 5.2 If my spouse does not survive me, then I direct that this property be divided into equal shares. There shall be one share for each child of mine who survives me and one share for the issue by right of representation of each child of mine who fails to survive me.

Article 6: Distribution of Residue

Section 6.1 I give the residue of my estate, whether real, personal, or mixed, to my spouse.

Section 6.2 Except as provided in Section 6.3, if my spouse does not survive me, then I direct that this property be divided into equal shares. There shall be one share for each child of mine who survives me and one share for the issue by right of representation of each child of mine who fails to survive me.

Section 6.3 If one or more of my living children has not reached the age of majority at my death, then the entire residue described in Section 6.2 shall be distributed to my Trustee and be administered in accordance with the provisions of the article entitled "Trust for Children".

Article 7: Division of Property

If two or more beneficiaries are entitled to an equal share of property distributed by the terms of my Will then I direct them to divide the property among themselves as they may agree. I request that they honor any intentions with regard to the distribution of this property that I may have expressed prior to my death. If a substantially equal division of this property cannot be agreed upon within a reasonable time after my death, then I direct my Personal Representative to divide the property and distribute it in substantially equal shares, or to sell the property and distribute the proceeds in equal shares. The determination of what constitutes a reasonable time within the meaning of this Article, and the decision whether or not to sell any property, shall be at the discretion of my Personal Representative.

Article 8: Contingent Distribution of Estate

If all of my residuary devisees predecease me, I direct that my residuary estate be divided into two equal shares and be distributed as follows:

(a) One share to my spouse's heirs-at-law, determined as if my spouse had died after me without a Will, and according to the laws of intestate succession in existence in the state of my domicile at the date of my death.

(b) One share to my heirs-at-law, as determined by the laws of intestate succession in existence in the state of my domicile at the date of my death.

Copy

Article 9: Survivorship Requirement

Unless otherwise specifically provided, a beneficiary of my Will who fails to survive me by ninety (90) days shall be deemed to have predeceased me and shall not share in my estate. The share of such beneficiary shall be distributed as directed by the provisions stated in my Will.

Article 10: Additional Provisions

Section 10.1 I direct that my body be cremated as soon after my death as possible and that the disposition of my ashes be left to the sound discretion of my Personal Representative.

Section 10.2 Except as to gifts made specifically to a beneficiary in trust elsewhere in my Will, if a beneficiary under the age of majority becomes absolutely entitled to any property, such property shall immediately vest in such beneficiary. At my Personal Representative's discretion, such property may be distributed: to the beneficiary; in payment of the debts or expenses of such beneficiary; to the guardian of the person or property of such beneficiary; to the parent or parents of such beneficiary; to a custodian for such beneficiary under a Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any other person who shall have the care and custody of the person of such beneficiary; or to the Personal Representative named in this Will.

If property is distributed to my Personal Representative, my Personal Representative shall hold the property as a separate trust for the benefit of the beneficiary and shall pay to or apply for that beneficiary's benefit all the net income and so much of the principal at any time and from time to time as my Personal Representative, with sole discretion, believes advisable to provide adequately for the beneficiary's health, maintenance, education and support.

Section 10.3 All funds not paid to or applied for the beneficiary in accordance with Section 10.2 shall be paid to the beneficiary at the age of majority, or to the beneficiary's Personal Representative in the event of the beneficiary's death prior to the age of majority. Upon obtaining a receipt from the person to whom distribution is made, my Personal Representative shall be relieved of any further obligations with respect to the property distributed.

Section 10.4 This Will shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of Tennessee. The law of the state of my domicile at the date of my death will be applied to the administration of my estate.

Section 10.5 I instruct my Personal Representative to adopt the most expeditious and least burdensome method of administering my estate appropriate and available in the state of my domicile at the date of my death (e.g., independent or unsupervised administration).

Section 10.6 Regardless of any contrary provision of this Will, no trust created hereunder shall be construed to extend beyond the period permitted by applicable law. If the applicable law would require the termination of any trust within a period of time that is shorter than that contemplated in this Will, the trust so affected shall terminate on the last day on which the trust could exist under such applicable law. Upon termination of any trust as provided in this Section 10.6, the trustee shall distribute the principal and any undistributed net income of the trust, free of the trust, to the income beneficiary of the trust or in equal shares to the beneficiaries of the trust then entitled or permitted to receive income from it.

Article 11: Trust for Children

In administering the Trust for my children (hereinafter beneficiaries), my Trustee shall maintain and distribute the Trust assets as follows:

Section 11.1 My Trustee shall divide the Trust estate into separate equal shares. There shall be one (1) share for each of my living beneficiaries, and one (1) share for the issue of any deceased beneficiary of mine by right of representation. My Trustee shall immediately distribute the share of any deceased beneficiary's issue outright to them or to their legal representative. My Trustee shall maintain each share as a separate Trust for each beneficiary. My Trustee may maintain these separate Trusts through appropriate accounting records and shall not be required to physically divide the Trust assets. When a beneficiary reaches the age of majority, or if a beneficiary has already reached the age of majority at the time of the above division, my Trustee shall immediately distribute to such beneficiary his or her separate Trust.

Section 11.2 Until a beneficiary reaches the age of majority my Trustee shall have the discretionary authority to distribute so much of the income and principal of such beneficiary's separate Trust, to or for the benefit of such beneficiary, as my Trustee determines is necessary, for the support, welfare, and education of such beneficiary. The term "education" refers to any kind of formal education or training, including undergraduate, post-graduate, professional schooling, and vocational schooling. All undistributed income periodically shall be added to the principal.

Section 11.3 If a beneficiary of mine dies while a Trust is being held for that beneficiary's benefit, then the Trust shall terminate and shall be distributed to the beneficiary's issue or their legal representative, by right of representation. If the beneficiary leaves no issue, the Trust held for that beneficiary's benefit shall be distributed equally among my beneficiaries still living at the beneficiary's death and the issue of any deceased beneficiary of mine by right of representation. If a Trust is presently being administered for a surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries, then the surviving beneficiary's or beneficiaries' share or shares shall be distributed to my Trustee and shall be administered accordingly.

Copy

Section 11.4 If the last of my surviving beneficiaries should die while a Trust is being held for that beneficiary's benefit, without leaving living issue, then the Trust shall terminate and shall be distributed in accordance with the article in my Will entitled "Contingent Distribution of Estate," provided, however, that the persons entitled to take property shall be determined as if I had died on the date of my last surviving beneficiary's death.

Section 11.5 A devisee's beneficial interest in any Trust administered under this Will shall not be subject to assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment or claims of the spouse or the creditors of the person having such an interest.

Article 12: Powers and Duties of Trustee

In addition to those powers, authorities and duties now or subsequently conferred by the law of Tennessee to a Trustee to administer a trust estate as a fiduciary, my Trustee shall have the following powers and duties:

Section 12.1 It is my intention that the Trustee's powers to conserve, protect, manage and invest property of the Trust shall be the same as I possess in the management of my own affairs. In connection with the management of investment assets, my Trustee shall follow the then existing prudent investor laws of Tennessee.

Section 12.2 Without limiting the broad scope of the powers intended by this Article, I grant the Trustee the following specific powers:

(a) To hold and retain all or any part of the Trust property in the form first received by the Trustee.

(b) To sell or otherwise dispose of any Trust property, real or personal, in any manner and upon any terms that the Trustee determines to be in the best interests of all persons having a vested beneficial interest in the Trust estate.

(c) To invest and reinvest in any kind of property, whether real or personal.

(d) To trade options on any recognized option exchange.

(e) To join in any reorganization, readjustment, merger, consolidation, exchange, voting Trust or any other act of any corporation whose securities form part of the Trust, and to do all things required of a security holder in order to participate in such action.

(f) To exercise all rights with respect to any property of the Trust, including land, air and mineral rights, which could be exercised by an owner of such property, and to enter into any agreement with respect to any property of the Trust, whether or not the term of such agreement may exceed the term or probable term of the Trust.

(g) To carry insurance of any kind and in any amount, including liability coverage and title insurance, at the expense of the Trust.

Copy

(h) To borrow money from any source, including a Corporate Trustee or any of its affiliates, and to secure payment of such debt by the pledge or mortgage of any property of the Trust.

(i) To collect, enforce, compromise or submit to arbitration claims or demands in favor of or against the Trust.

(j) To hold securities or other property in the name of the Trustee or in the name of a nominee or nominees of the Trustee, or to hold securities unregistered in such condition that ownership will pass by delivery.

(k) To make distributions, divisions, and allocations of property in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to resolve doubtful questions as to the value of property for such purposes.

(l) To make determinations as to the allocation of receipts and the apportionment of expenditures between income and principal.

(m) To employ, at the expense of the Trust, attorneys, accountants, agents, custodians, managers and such other persons as the Trustee determines necessary in the proper administration of the Trust.

(n) To make distributions of income and of principal to or for the benefit of the devisees of such distributions directly to such devisees, to persons legally appointed to act for such devisees, or to any other persons who may have the actual care and custody of such devisees, for the support and education of such devisees. The Trustee shall be under no duty to see to the application of such distributions.

(o) To determine the identity of all persons having a vested or non-vested beneficial interest in the Trust, with or without legal proceedings.

(p) To exercise such elections or options permitted under tax law as the Trustee determines to be in the best interests of all persons having a vested beneficial interest in the Trust.

(q) At my death, my Trustee may make loans from the Trust estate, with or without security or interest, to my Personal Representative in order to provide my Personal Representative with necessary funds to conclude the administration of my estate.

Section 12.3 Any Trustee shall have the right to resign by delivery of written notice of such intention to the court having jurisdiction of the Trust, and such resignation shall take effect upon the appointment of a successor Trustee and the court's approval of the resigning Trustee's final accounting.

Section 12.4 Whenever any person is unable or unwilling to commence to act or to continue to act as Trustee, a successor Trustee shall be nominated by a majority of the income beneficiaries of all of the Trusts then being administered under this Will or their legal guardians acting in their behalf. If, upon resignation of a Trustee, a successor Trustee is not nominated by the income beneficiaries within sixty (60) days, the resigning Trustee shall nominate the successor Trustee.

Copy

Section 12.5 Whenever a Trustee ceases to act, the successor Trustee shall have all of the titles, powers, rights, discretions, obligations and immunities of its predecessor Trustee.

Section 12.6 After my death, any Trust may be terminated earlier than the time provided in this Will if my Trustee determines that such action would be in the best interest of my beneficiaries because of circumstances not known or contemplated during my lifetime. Such circumstances would include, but not be limited to, significant depletion of the Trust assets or changes in law that tend to negate the Trust purposes. Upon making this determination, the Trustee shall immediately distribute all of the Trust estate to my beneficiaries, or their issue as provided in the Article entitled "Trust for My Children". No person named to receive ultimate distribution of the principal, whether or not such right is vested, shall have any claim against such early distribution to other persons.

Section 12.7 Provisions of this Trust for the use of income or principal for the support of a beneficiary shall include the expenditure of necessary amounts to provide a suitable residence (such residence may include my last residence), when in the Trustee's sole discretion, the beneficiary or beneficiary's Guardian cannot bear the financial burden of such provision.

Section 12.8 In exercising discretionary power to distribute income or principal to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, or to withhold such distributions, the Trustee shall consider the following:

(a) Allowance shall be made for all income or financial support that the Trustee knows to be available to such beneficiary from sources other than this Trust, including the legal responsibility of any person to furnish financial support to the beneficiary. The Trustee shall make a reasonable effort to determine whether such outside resources exist. However, the Trustee shall be entitled to rely upon any representations made by the beneficiary or others as to the existence of such outside resources and shall not be held liable for actions taken in good faith in reliance upon such representations.

(b) A beneficiary shall be deemed able to support himself or herself entirely if such beneficiary or the person legally responsible for furnishing of his or her financial support is not, in the Trustee's judgment, prevented by age, health, school attendance, or some extraordinary circumstance from earning a suitable livelihood by full-time employment.

Section 12.9 The Trustee of the Trusts administered under this Will shall report at least annually to the income beneficiaries all the receipts and disbursements during the reporting period and assets then held in the Trust.

Section 12.10 The following limitations and curatives apply to the Trusts administered under this Will:

Copy

(a) If a Trustee of the Trusts administered under this Will is also a beneficiary of any such Trusts, that Trustee may exercise the power to make discretionary distributions to or for the Trustee's personal benefit only in accordance with an "ascertainable standard" relating to that Trustee's health, education, support or maintenance within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code §2041(b)(1)(A) or §2514(c)(1) as amended.

(b) In no event may a Trustee of the Trusts administered under this Will make a discretionary distribution to satisfy a legal obligation that the Trustee personally owes another person.

(c) A power, the exercise of which is limited or prohibited by subsection (a) or (b), may be exercised by a majority of the remaining Trustees, or a successor Trustee whose exercise of the power is not so limited or prohibited. If the power of all Trustees is so limited or prohibited, application may be made to a court of the state in which the Trust(s) is (are) being administered to appoint a special fiduciary with authority to exercise the power.

Article 13: Appointment of Trustee

I appoint Ted Michael Craine as Trustee to administer any Trust or Trusts created in my Will. In the event that Ted Michael Craine should for any reason be unwilling or unable to act, then I appoint Robin Danielle Brown as Alternate Trustee. To the extent permitted by law, my Trustee shall serve without bond.
