ORDER OF PROBATE

This cause came on to be heard on the 9th day of April, 2012, before Robert H. Bradshaw, Probate Master, upon the Petition of Richard Leonard Davidson and Robert Todd Davidson for the probate of the Last Will and Testament of Helen McKee Davidson in which the Petitioners are named as Co-Executors without bond and without the requirement of filing an inventory or accounting. The Petitioners produced before the Probate Master a paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of, Helen McKee Davidson, deceased, bearing date of March 28, 2011. The Will is subscribed by Christian S. Hofstetter and by George H. Cate, Jr. as attesting witnesses. The Petitioners moved that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the Last Will and Testament of Helen McKee Davidson.

It appears from the Affidavit of the attesting witnesses, attached to the document at the time of its execution, that the said paper writing was written in the lifetime of Helen McKee Davidson, was subscribed by Helen McKee Davidson in the presence of each of the attesting witnesses, was published and declared by Helen McKee Davidson to be her Last Will and Testament, and was signed by each of the attesting witnesses at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other on March 28, 2011. It further appears from the Affidavit of the attesting witnesses that the said Helen McKee Davidson at the time of execution of the above document was of sound mind and disposing memory and of legal age.

It further appears that Helen McKee Davidson died a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, on the 26th day of March, 2012 at the age of 93 and that her usual domicile and place of residence at the time of death was Davidson County, Tennessee.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the said paper writing is the true and whole Last Will and Testament of Helen McKee Davidson, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate as such, with the Clerk directed to place the same of record in the usual place for recording Wills.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Richard Leonard Davidson and Robert Todd Davidson be appointed Co-Executors of the Estate of Helen McKee Davidson without bond and without the requirement of filing an inventory or accounting. However, Richard Leonard Davidson and Robert Todd
