LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

JOAN S. REDMAN

I, JOAN S. REDMAN, being of sound mind and disposing memory but realizing the uncertainties of life and wishing to put my estate in order in the event of my death do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and Codicils to Wills made by me.

ARTICLE ONE

I direct that all of my just debts, my funeral expenses (including the cost of a suitable monument at my grave) and the costs of administration of my estate be paid as soon as practicable after my death. I direct that my Executor pay all federal and state inheritance, estate, succession, transfer or other death taxes which may be assessed against my estate or against any beneficiary (including any estate or inheritance tax assessed on account of any life insurance proceeds or other property which shall be included in my estate for the purposes of such taxes, but whether or not included in my estate for probate purposes) out of my gross estate. My Executor, in his sole discretion, may pay from my domiciliary estate all or any portion of the costs of ancillary administration and similar proceedings in other jurisdictions.

ARTICLE TWO

I appoint my husband, CHARLES E. REDMAN, to be the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and direct that no bond shall be required for the faithful performance of his duties. If CHARLES E. REDMAN shall predecease me or for any reason shall fail to qualify as Executor hereunder (or having qualified, shall die or resign) then in such event, I appoint my son, John J. Redman, to serve in such capacity as Executor without bond or other surety. I vest my Executor or substitute Executor with full power and authority to sell, transfer and convey all property, real or personal, which I may own at the time of my death at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as he may determine and to do every other act and thing necessary or appropriate for the complete administration of my estate. To the extent permitted by law, I waive the filing of an inventory and accountings by my Executor, including the substitute Executor.

ARTICLE THREE

I authorize my Executor (or any substitute personal representative) in the exercise of reasonable discretion with respect to all property, both real and personal, at any time forming a part of my estate, to exercise any and all of the powers set forth in T.C.A. Section 35-50-110, to the extent applicable, all of which provisions and powers are incorporated herein by reference as fully as if copied verbatim. These powers (as set out in said statute on the date of the execution of this will) are granted, notwithstanding that said statute may be amended hereafter or repealed at the time of my death.

ARTICLE FOUR

In the event that my husband survives me, I give, devise and bequeath the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, wherever located to my Husband, CHARLES E. REDMAN. In the event that we die under circumstances in which the exact order of our deaths can not be determined, it should be assumed that I survived him.

ARTICLE FIVE

At the time of the execution of this Will I am the mother of four children, Thomas C. Redman, Alice Redman McCauley, Julia A. Redman, and John J. Redman. Any reference hereinafter made to my children shall include after-born or after-adopted children born to me or adopted by me during my lifetime.

ARTICLE SIX

In the event that my husband, CHARLES E. REDMAN, predeceases me, I give, devise, and bequeath the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, wherever located, in equal proportions to my children, or their issue, then surviving, per stirpes.

ARTICLE SEVEN

In the event that my husband, CHARLES E. REDMAN, predeceases me, my substitute executor is to treat the real estate owned by me at the time of my death as personal property. He is directed to sell the property and distribute the proceeds as set forth in Article Six above. He is further directed to divide those securities that I may own at the time of my death in kind to the
