FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came to be heard February 17, 2009, upon the Husband's complaint for absolute divorce. The Wife was duly served and a default judgment has been granted by prior order. The Wife was duly noticed for this hearing and failed to appear.

After hearing the testimony of the Husband and his witnesses, and considering statements of counsel and the entire record, the Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the Husband should be granted a divorce on the ground of Inappropriate Marital Conduct, pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-4-101(11), as amended June 1, 1989.

The Court affirmatively finds that the Proposed Parenting Plan of the Husband provides for the proper care, welfare and maintenance of the four minor children of this marriage, and it is in the children's best interest that said Parenting Plan be adopted as an Order of this Court.

The Court further finds that the property division set forth herein is a fair and equitable distribution of the marital estate.

Therefore, IT IS SO ORDERED:

1. The Husband shall be and is granted a divorce on the ground of Inappropriate Marital Conduct, pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-4-101(11), as amended June 1, 1989.
2. The Parenting Plan proposed by the Husband and duly filed with the Clerk of this Court on January 22, 2009, shall be and is adopted as an Order of this Court, and shall be incorporated into this Final Decree.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.

Copy

B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations;
(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not open or censor;
(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any event of hospitalization, major illness or death of the child;
(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any school records customarily made available to parents. (The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and upon payment of reasonable costs of duplicating.) These include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;
(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical health or other treatment records directly from the physician or health care provider who provided treatment or health care. (The keeper of the records may require a written request which contains a current mailing address and the payment of reasonable costs of duplication.) No person who receives the mailing address of a parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;
(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about the parent or his or her family by the other parent to the child or in the presence of the child;
(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extra-curricular activities, and the opportunity to participate or observe them. These include the following: school activities, athletic activities, church activities and other activities where parental participation or observation would be appropriate;
(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than two (2) days, an itinerary including telephone numbers for use in the event of an emergency;
(9) The right to access and participation in education on the same basis that is provided to all parents. This includes the right of access to the child for lunch and other activities. However, participation or access must be reasonable and not interfere with day-to-day operations or with the child's educational performance.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

If a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than one hundred (100) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that the other parent may file a petition in opposition to the move within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by ☐ both parents ☐ mother ☒ father ☐ neither. Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. (A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent rather than one agreed by both parents.)
