Since I am leaving on a trip I wish to revise my will to reflex conditions that now exist. I Hope that my wishes will be honored by my sons and no problems be caused by this new will, all concerned Know our history and the reasons why I want things this way.

This is my last will and testiment superseding and replacing all previous wills as of June 10, 1993.

To my best friend, Barbara Meadows a thousand dollors from my insurance policy and all of the jewelry equipment which most of it is hers anyway and any other equipment she feels is hers and my heartfelt thanks for standing by me through my hard times. She may also pick out a sculpture of mine to remember me by.

If the sculpture 'Whirlwind' is still in the house please return it to Sally Friedman, Shawnee Dr.

To my oldest son I leave a piece of my sculpture, it will have his name on it. Since Richard Smotherman received a good inheridance from his father and since my estate is so limited I hope this will satisfy him and my apologys for any heartache I caused him in his childhood Ricky, I loved you always.

I hope you will advise your youngest brother on money matters. I know he will need help and I trust your judgement.

To my Granddaughter Sheila Smotherman I leave my good jewerly and the oak dresser and washstand I inherited from my Grandmother also the small camel back trunk at the foot of my bed. Shella, a word advice from your grandmother; depend on yourself, learn for yourself, love yourself and have honor and no man can ever disappoint you.

P-S.

Use the black marble 'Mountain Shadow' as my marker, Set it on a concrete or stone pedesal about the waterfall on the left hand side as you ~~stand~~ on top facing it. (Grandmothers' side.) Have a bronze plate inscribed with the following and attached to the pedisal,

" She came like water
a shadow but an instant on the Stone
Now like Wind She's gone " over the past few years & let her get her jewelry equipment from the house and studio, She also has two pieces of sculpture of hers in the house, give them to her.

Take care of the house and studio, owning it will make things a lot easier on you. Remember to try to keep it up because it's hard to catch up when you get behind. Listen to Ricky, he has a good business head and I dont believe he'll lead you wrong. You are hard headed like me, don't let monentary pleasures and good time buddys lose your base of operation. I love you and understand you better than you know. Use common sence and dont be lead astray and waste your opportunitys.

Give a piece of sculpture to Ricky and Scottie. That is all they get. They recieved their inheredance from their father. They used it or wasted it according to their nature. This is your inheredance from your father through me. About or any of the others. What I wanted them to have I gave them already. I don't think it serves your best interests for Barbara Moore or Jeanette Smith to be involved in this will in anyway, I revoke my last will when you were underage and invoke this my last will and testimony. Charlene Senior can tell you what legal steps to take. Take this will to her.

Hold on to my work. Johnnie at Art Works, Inc. will advise you and sell it for you. Don't just give it away to friends & family or let your Father sell it cheap.

I love you and wish the best for you Take care of this little I'm able to leave you and prosper.

To my middle son Scott Smotherman I leave a piece of my sculpture, it will have his name on it, What I write to your brother applys to you too. I worry about you. Take some control of your life and learn to honor yourself then you will be unable to hurt others. I love you,

Now to the matter of my youngest son Delbert T. Senior III, Called Trey. Now that you are 17, or hopefully older by the time this is read, I leave you the property at 3700 Old Hydes Ferry, Nashville, Tn 37218, free and clear, unencumbered, try to keep it that way. If I die in an accident there is a $70,000. insurance policy with my bank account and another with Jefferson. All the papers are in the top drawer of the mexican Secretary. Pay for my cremation, give Barbara Meadows $1000. it won't even start paying her back for the money and help she's given me
