IN RE:

THE ESTATE OF JORDAN O. BARRY,
Deceased

No. 13P66

ORDER

It appearing to the Court that Thomas Jordan Barry, Executor of this estate, has filed with the Clerk of this Court appropriate statements of proper distribution of said personal representative and all residuary distributees pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. §30-2-601, that he has mailed or delivered notice of the requirement to file claims as prescribed in Tenn. Code Ann. §30-2-306(e) to the creditors of the decedent who were known to or reasonably ascertainable by him; and a receipt from the Tennessee Department of Revenue evidencing that this estate was not subject to Tennessee inheritance tax, and a letter from the State of Tennessee, Bureau of TennCare releasing the State's interest in recovery from the decedent's estate, all as prescribed and permitted by law; and

It appearing from the foregoing that the administration of this estate is now complete and regular in all respects, that all claims, expenses and taxes have been satisfied, and that the residuary distributees of the estate have acknowledged the proper distribution of the estate;

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the statements of proper distribution of the said Executor and of the residuary distributees of the Estate of Jordan O. Barry, deceased, be, and the same hereby are, accepted,
