The Association shall not be deemed to be conducting a business of any kind. All activities undertaken by the Association shall be held and applied by it for the use and benefit of Owners in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration and By-Laws. Each Owner shall be a member of the Association so long as he is an Owner. An Owner's membership shall automatically terminate when he ceases to be an Owner. Upon the conveyance or transfer of an Owner's ownership interest to a new Owner, the new Owner shall simultaneously succeed to the former Owner's membership in the Association. The aggregate number of votes for all members of the Association shall be equal to two. Each Owner's respective percentage of ownership interests in the Association shall be fifty percent (50%).

Neither the directors, Board, officers of the Association, nor the Declarant shall be personally liable to the Owners for any mistake of judgment or for any other acts or omissions of any nature whatsoever as such directors, Board, officers of the Association or Declarant, except for any acts or omissions found by a court to constitute gross negligence or actual fraud. The Unit Owners shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the directors, Board, officers of the Association, and, or, Declarant, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns in accordance with the By-Laws.

Section 2. Board's Determinations Binding. Section 3. Ownership of the Association. Each Owner shall be entitled to fifty percent (50%) of the ownership in the Association, as set out in Section 1(a) hereof. The percentage of the ownership interests shall remain constant unless amended pursuant to the reservation set forth herein, or unless hereafter changed by recorded amendment to this Declaration as provided for herein or consented to in writing by the necessary Owners and first mortgagees. The ownership of each Unit shall not be conveyed separate from the percentage of ownership in the Association corresponding to said Unit. The ownership in the Association corresponding to any Unit shall be appurtenant to the ownership of the Unit and shall be deemed conveyed or encumbered with that Unit, even though the legal description in the instrument conveying or encumbering said Unit may refer only to the fee title to that Unit.

Section 4. Use of the Common Elements. Each Owner shall have the right to use the Common Elements (except the Limited Common Elements) in common with all other Owners, as may be required for the purposes of access ingress to, egress from, use, occupancy and enjoyment of the respective Unit owned by such Owner. Such right to use the Common Elements shall extend to not only each Owner, but also to the agents, servants, tenants, family members, customers, invitees and licensees. However, each Unit Owner shall have the right to exclusive use and possession of the Limited Common Elements contiguous to and serving such Unit alone. Such rights to use the Common Elements, including the Limited Common Elements, shall be subject to and governed by the provisions of this Declaration, By-Laws and rules and regulations of the Association. In addition, the Association shall have the authority to lease, grant concessions, or grant easements with respect to parts of the Common Elements, subject to the provisions of this Declaration or By-Laws. All income derived by the Association from leases, concessions or other sources shall be held and used for the benefit of the members of the Association, pursuant to such rules, resolutions or regulations as the Board may adopt or prescribe.

Each Owner shall pay his proportionate share of the expenses of the administration and operation of the Common Elements, if any, and of any other expenses incurred in conformance with this Declaration and the By-Laws (which expenses are herein sometimes referred to as "common expense"), including, but not limited to, the maintenance and repair thereof and any and all replacements additions thereto. Such proportionate share of the common expenses for each Owner shall be in accordance with his percentage of ownership in the Association. Payment of common expenses shall be in such amounts and such times as determined in the manner provided in the Bylaws. No Owner shall be exempt from payment of his proportionate share of the common expenses by waiver or non-use of the Common Elements or by abandonment of his Unit. If any Owner shall fail or refuse to pay any such payment of the common expense when due in advance by the 15th day after due date as established by the Board, then (i) said Owner shall pay a late charge of $25.00 for each month thereafter that such payment has not been made or (ii) the Board may, by resolution or rule, increase the said late payment charge to a reasonable amount, considering the time and circumstances involved. The Board's decision as to reasonableness shall be binding upon all parties, and such payment, together with such late payment charge, shall constitute a lien on the interest of such Owner in the Property.

ARTICLE IV
PROPERTY RIGHTS

Section 1. Owners' Easements of Enjoyment. Every Owner shall have a right and easement of enjoyment in and to the Common Area, which shall be appurtenant to and shall pass with the title to every Unit, subject to the following provisions:

(c) the right of the Association (acting by the Board) to grant private access and/or private utility or drainage easements to private individuals or entities to serve neighboring properties.

Section 3. Association's Right of Entry. The authorized representatives of the Association or the Board, shall be entitled to reasonable access to the individual Units as may be required to correct any existing violation of the provisions of this Declaration, or in connection with the preservation of any individual Unit, or in the event of any emergency, or in connection with maintenance of, repairs or replacements within the Units or Common Elements, or any equipment facilities or fixtures affecting or serving the other Units or Common Elements or to make any alteration required by any governmental authority.

ARTICLE V
COVENANTS FOR MAINTENANCE ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. Creation of the Lien and Personal Obligation of Assessments. The Declarant, for each Unit owned within the Property, hereby covenants, and each Owner of any Unit, by acceptance of a deed therefore, whether or not it shall be so expressed in such deed, is deemed to covenant and agree to pay to the Association:

(a) annual assessments or charges, and

(b) special assessment for capital improvements, if any, which may be established and collected as hereinafter provided.

The annual and special assessments, together with interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be a charge on the land and shall be a continuing lien upon the property against which the assessment is made. This lien provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage. Sale or transfer of any Unit shall not affect the assessment lien or liens provided for in this section. Each assessment, together with interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, shall also be the personal obligation of the person or entity that was the Owner of such property at the time which assessment became due. The personal obligation for delinquent assessments shall not pass to their respective successor(s) in interest unless expressly assumed by such successors in interest. All property dedicated to or accepted by a local public authority shall not be subject to the assessments provided for in this Section.

Section 2. Purpose of Assessments. The assessment levied by the Association shall be used exclusively to promote the recreation, health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the Property, and in particular for the acquisition, improvement and maintenance of properties, services and facilities devoted to this purpose, or for the use and enjoyment of the Common Area, if any, including but not limited to, the costs of repairs, replacements and additions, the cost of labor, equipment, materials, management and supervision, the payment of taxes assessed against the Common Area, if any, the procurement and maintenance of insurance, if necessary, in accordance with the By-Laws, the employment of attorneys to represent the Association when necessary, payment of common expenses and such other needs as they may arise.

Section 3. Rate and Payment of Annual Assessment. The Board of Directors shall fix the payable annual assessment fixed at a uniform rate for all Units and may be collected on a monthly basis. The books and records for the Association will be kept in such a manner that it is possible to determine and ascertain (i) such sums as are expended by the Association for development, improvement, maintenance and upkeep of all recreational facilities of the Association, and (ii) such sums as are expended for other purposes.

Section 4. Special Assessments for Capital Improvements. In addition to the annual assessment authorized above, the Association (acting by and through the Board) may levy, in any calendar year, a special assessment applicable to that year only for the purposes of defraying in whole or in part, the costs of any construction, reconstruction repair or replacement of a capital improvement upon the Common Area, if any, including fixtures and personal property related thereto, provided that any such assessment shall have the assent of all of the Members, or for any common expense approved by the Board of Directors. All special assessments shall be fixed at a uniform rate for all Units and may be collected on a monthly basis, without additional fee or cost to such members paying on a monthly basis.

Section 5. Date and Commencement of Annual Assessments; Due Dates. The annual assessments and subsequent due dates provided for herein shall commence as to all Units on a date which shall be established by the Board of Directors. Written notice of such assessment shall be sent to every Owner at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period.

Section 6. Effect of Nonpayment of Assessments; Remedies of the Association. Any assessment not paid within fifteen (15) days after due date shall bear interest from the due date at the then maximum applicable formula rate of interest legally chargeable under Title 47, Chapter 14, Sections 101 et seq., Tennessee Code Annotated, as it may be amended from time to time, on a per annum basis until reinstatement or the completion of foreclosure. The Association may bring an action against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property, and interest, costs and reasonable attorney's fees of such action or foreclosure shall be added to the amount of such assessments. No owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessment provided for herein by non-use of the Common Areas, if any, or abandonment of his Unit.

ARTICLE VI
MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS, AND REPLACEMENTS

Each Owner, at his own expense, shall furnish and be responsible for all maintenance of, repairs to and replacements within and to his Unit and the Limited Common Element exclusively serving his Unit or the Board may cause the same to be done at the expense of the Owner. Maintenance of, repairs to and replacements to the Common Elements, if any, except those referred to in the preceding sentence, shall be the responsibility of and shall be furnished by the Association. All Limited Common Elements including decks, patios, frontyards, backyards and any landscaping thereof shall be the maintenance, repair and replacement responsibility of the individual Owner to which they attach.

If due to the act or neglect of Owner, or of his agent, servant, tenant, family member, invitee, licensee or household pet, damage shall be caused to the Common Elements, if any, or to a Unit owned by another, and maintenance, repair or replacement are required which would otherwise be a common expense, then such Owner shall pay for such damage or such maintenance, repair and replacements, as may be determined by the Association, to the extent not covered by the Association's insurance or sufficient proceeds are not collected from the insurance carrier.

The authorized representative of the Association or the Board shall be entitled to reasonable access to the individual Units as may be required in connection with the preservation of any individual Unit in the event of an emergency, or in connection with maintenance of, repairs to or replacements within the Common Elements or any equipment, facilities or fixtures affecting or serving other Units and the Common Elements or to make any alteration required by any governmental authority.

ARTICLE VII

Section 2. Sharing of Repair and Maintenance. The cost of reasonable repair and maintenance of a party wall shall be shared by the Owners of the Property.

Section 3. Destruction by Fire or Other Casualty. If a party wall is destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty, any Owner who has used the wall may restore it, and require contribution toward restoration from any other Owner. The right of any Owner to contribution from any Owner under this provision shall be appurtenant to the land and shall pass to such Owner's respective successor(s) in interest.

Section 4. Weatherproofing. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article, an Owner who by his negligence or willful act causes the party wall to be exposed to the elements shall bear the whole cost of furnishing the necessary protection against such elements.

Section 5. Disputes. Any dispute arising concerning a party wall, or under the provisions of this Article, shall be settled in accordance with Article XIII, Section I, Enforcement.

ARTICLE VIII

The insurance coverage with respect to the Common Area shall be payable to the Association. The premiums for such insurance shall be a common expense. However, at the option of the Board, and upon written notice to all Owners, premiums for such insurance shall be separately billed to each Owner for his corresponding percentage of ownership in the Association.

Section 2. Owner's Insurance Obligations. Each Owner shall be responsible for obtaining his own insurance on his Unit, the contents of his Unit and the Limited Common Element serving his Unit, as well as his additions and improvements thereto, decorating, furnishings and personal property therein, and personal property stored elsewhere on the Property. The insurance policy shall afford as a minimum protection against the following:

(a) loss or damage by fire or other perils normally covered by the standard extended coverage;

(b) all other perils which are customarily covered with respect to projects similar in construction, location and use, including all perils normally covered by the standard "all risk" endorsement, where such is available.

This policy shall be in an amount equal to 100% of current replacement cost of the Unit, exclusive of land, foundation, excavation and other items normally excluded from coverage. All policies shall contain or have attached thereto a "standard" or "union" mortgage clause (without contribution) in the form customarily used in Tennessee.

Section 3. Annual Review of Policies. All insurance policies shall be reviewed at the least annually by the Board of Directors in order to ascertain whether the coverage contained in the policies is sufficient.

ARTICLE XII REMEDIES

In the event of any violation of the provisions of this Declaration, By-Laws or rules and regulations of the Board or Association by an Owner (either by his own conduct or by the conduct or any other occupant of his Unit), the Association, or its successors or assigns, or the board, or its agent, shall have all of the rights and remedies which may be provided for in this Declaration, By-Laws or said rules and regulations, or action or other proceedings against such defaulting Owner and/or others for enforcement of any lien and the appointment of a receiver for the Unit and ownership interest of such Owner, or for damages or injunction or specific performance, or for judgment for payment of money and collection thereof, or the right to take possession of the Unit and to sell the same as provided hereinabove and as provided hereinafter, or for any combination of remedies, or for any other relief. All expenses of the Board in connection with any such actions or proceedings, including court costs and attorneys' fees and other fees and expenses and all damages, liquidated or otherwise, together with interest thereon at the then maximum applicable formula rate of interest legally chargeable under Title 47, Chapter 14, Sections 101 et seq., Tennessee Code Annotated, as it may be amended from time to time, on a per annum basis until reinstatement or the completion of foreclosure or at the then highest contract rate of interest then legally collectible in Tennessee, shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting Owner, and shall be added to and deemed part of his respective share of the common expenses, upon the Unit and ownership interest in this Association of such defaulting Owner and upon all of his additions and improvements thereto and upon all of his personal property in his Unit or located elsewhere on the Property. Such lien shall be subordinate to the lien of a recorded first deed of trust or mortgage on the interest of such Owner, except for the amount of the proportionate share of said common expenses which become due and payable from and after the date on which the said deed of trust or mortgage owner or holder accepts a conveyance of any interest therein (other than as security) or forecloses the lien of its mortgage or deed of trust. In the event of any such default by any Owner, the Board shall have the authority to correct such default, and to do whatever may be necessary for such purpose and all expenses in connection therewith shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting Owner. Any such rights and remedies may be exercised at any time and from time to time, cumulatively or otherwise, by the Board.

The violation of any restriction or condition or regulation adopted by the Board or the breach of any covenant or provision herein contained, shall give the Board the right, in addition to any other rights provided for in this Declaration, (a) to enter (either peaceably or forcibly without liability to such Owner for such entry) upon the Unit or any portion of the property as to which such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist thereon contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Board, or its employees or agents, shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass; or (b) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any breach; or (c) to take possession (either peaceably or forcibly without liability to such Owner for such entry) of such Owner's interest in the Property and to maintain an action for possession of such Unit in the manner provided by law.

If any Owner (either by his own conduct or by the conduct of any other occupant of his Unit) shall violate any of the covenants, restrictions or provisions of this Declaration or the rules and regulations adopted by the Board, and if such default or violation shall occur repeatedly during any ten (10) day period after such written notice or request to cure such violation from the Board, then the Board shall have the power to issue to said defaulting Owner a notice in writing terminating the rights of said defaulting Owner to continue as an Owner and to continue to occupy, use or control his Unit, and thereupon an action in equity shall be filed by the Board against said defaulting Owner for a decree of mandatory injunction against such defaulting Owner or Occupant, or in the alternative, for a decree declaring the termination of said defaulting Owner's right to occupy use or control the Unit owned by him on account of said violation, and ordering that all the right title and interest of said defaulting Owner, or in the alternative, for a decree declaring the termination of said defaulting Owner's right to occupy, use or control the Unit owned by him on account of said violation, and ordering that all the right, title and interest of said defaulting Owner in the Unit shall be sold (subject to the lien of any existing deed of trust or mortgage) at a judicial sale upon such notice and terms as the court shall determine, except that the court shall enjoin and restrain the said defaulting Owner from reacquiring his interest at such judicial sale. The proceeds of any such judicial sale shall first be paid to discharge court costs, court reporter charges, reasonable attorneys' fees and all other expenses of the proceeding and sale, and all such items shall be taxed against said defaulting Owner in said decree. Any balance of proceeds, after satisfaction of such charges and any unpaid assessments hereunder or any liens, shall be paid to said defaulting Owner. Upon the confirmation of such sale, the purchaser shall thereupon be entitled to a deed to the Unit and the Owner's corresponding percentage of ownership in the Association, and to immediate possession of the Unit and may apply to the court for a writ of assistance for the purpose of acquiring such possession, and it shall be a condition of any such sale, and the decree shall so provide, that the purchaser shall take the interest in the Unit subject to this Declaration. An aggrieved Owner or first mortgagee may bring an action at law or in equity to require the enforcement of this Declaration and the By-Laws by the Board, or may bring an action to enjoin or specifically require a party to perform what is required of him or it hereunder.

As one of its remedies, in the event the Board finds that there is excessive noise in a Unit which it characterizes to be a nuisance, the Board may require that walls and/or floors between the Unit wherein the excessive noise originates and adjacent Units be insulated and maintained at the sole cost of the Owner of the Unit wherein the excessive noise originates. The Board may cause such insulation to be installed at the expense of said Owner and without the consent of the said Owner and work may be done on or about such Unit wherein the excessive noise has originated, as an easement through and over the Unit of the offending Owner for such purpose.

ARTICLE XIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Enforcement. The provisions of this Declaration are declared to create mutual, equitable covenants and servitudes for the benefit of Declarant, each Owner and their respective successors in interest. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Declaration may be settled by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association, or by any proceeding at law or in equity against any person or persons violating or attempting to violate any covenant, condition or restriction either to restrain violation and/or to recover all costs end damages suffered by the enforcing party as a result of such violation, including all costs and attorney's or other professional fees incurred by the enforcing party to prevent or correct the violation. Failure of Declarant or any Owner to enforce any covenant, condition, or restriction, or exercise any rights herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter. All costs incurred in enforcement (including attorney's fees and court costs) shall be at the expense of the violator or violators.

Section 2. Severability. Invalidation of any one of these covenants, conditions, or restrictions by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any of the other covenants, conditions or restrictions or other provisions contained in this Declaration that shall remain in full force and effect. If any provision of this Declaration or By-Laws, or any section, sentence, clause, phrase, word or the application thereof in any circumstance, is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this Declaration and the By-Laws and of the application of any such provision, section, sentence, clause, phrase or word in any other circumstances shall not be affected thereby and the remainder of this Declaration or the By-Laws shall be construed as if such invalid part was never included therein.

Section 3. Amendment. The covenants and restrictions of this Declaration shall run with and bind the land for a term of thirty (30) years from the date this Declaration is recorded, unless a subsequent Amendment extends the termination date. This Declaration may be amended only by an affirmative vote of the Owners and further, this amendment provision shall not be amended to allow any amendment if all Owners do not concur. The foregoing to the contrary notwithstanding, Declarant may amend this Declaration without the approval of any Owners provided the amendment does not materially alter or change any Owner's right to the use and enjoyment of such Owner's lot as set forth in this Declaration and the amendment does not adversely affect the title to any Unit. The Amendment shall be effective upon recording of such instrument in the Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

Section 4. Encroachment. It is understood that Units that adjoin each other and have a party wall built as a part of the construction of the homes which are placed upon the Private Element dividing line between adjoining Units may encroach on such adjoining Units due to construction or other reasons. Accordingly, an easement is reserved for such encroachments as are contained in the buildings, whether the same now exist or may be caused or created by construction, settlement, or movement of the building, or by permissible repairs, construction or alteration. With regard to any differences that may exist on the survey and the actual party walls and Private Element lines that exist on the Property, the Private Element lines and party walls that actually exist shall control over discrepancies in the survey.

Section 5. Restrictions on Use of Units.

Section 2. Success on Merits. To the extent that a member of the board, or an officer of the Association, or a member of any committee appointed pursuant to these By-Laws has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Article VIII, Section 1, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Section 3. Advance Payment. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the persons or entity seeking such indemnification or payment in advance to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized in this Article VIII.

The indemnification provided by this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any statute, agreement, vote of members of the Association, or disinterested members of the Board or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.
