LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

JAMES P. CARTER, SR., M.D.

DECEMBER 16, 2000

BE IT KNOWN, that I, JAMES P. CARTER, SR., M.D., do hereby make this my Last Will and Testament, revoking all others.

I hereby appoint my wife, CAROLYN J. HARRIS (CARTER), as executrix of my estate without bond. In the event that she is unable or unwilling to serve as my executrix, I appoint my son, Geoffrey Carter to serve as executor.

I will to my wife, CAROLYN J. HARRIS (CARTER) the usufruct of all property whatever I die possessed, until she remarries, but with the express right to dispose, alienate, or sell any consumable or nonconsumable thing over which that usufruct applies to the maximum extent allowed by Louisiana law.

I leave the naked ownership of all of the property that I may own or possess at the time of my death, remaining after satisfaction of all costs of administration and taxes, to the following persons or trust, conjointly with rights of accretion, in the following percentages:

1/3 to the JAMES P. CARTER, SR., M.D. SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST.
1/3 to GEOFFREY CARTER or to his descendants per stirpes.
1/3 to REBECCA CARTER or to her descendants per stirpes

No collation shall be required by any recipient of any property at any time transferred by me. If I shall in my lifetime make any gift or gifts to any heir or legatee, the gift or gifts shall not be deemed to be a payment on account of or an advance of a legacy or interest in my estate unless at the time of the gift I shall have delivered to the heir or legatee a statement in writing that the gift shall operate as a payment on account or satisfaction of the legacy of the heir or legatee.

I direct to the conscience of my heirs that they use the law firm of Mollere, Flanagan & Landry, L.L.C. as attorneys for the estate and for the execution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF and in accordance with La. C.C. arts. 1576 and 1577 (Acts 1997, No. 1421 and Acts 1999, No. 745), I have signed this notarial testament, affirming that it is my last will and testament, in the presence of the witnesses and Notary Public hereinafter named and undersigned. In our presence the testator has declared or signified that this instrument is his or her testament and has signed it at the end and on each other separate page, and in the presence of the testator and each other we have hereunto subscribed our names this 16TH day of December ,2000.
