LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
OLMEDO KIESWETTER

FILED
JAN 29 2015
DAVID A. ERICKER, Clerk
By _____ Deputy

I, OLMEDO KIESWETTER, a resident of the Country of Panama, do make and publish this my last will and testament for the sole purpose of disposing any property which I own at the time of my death located in the United States of America. This will shall not govern the distribution of property that I own at the time of my death located outside the United States of America. It is my intent that the distribution of property that I own at the time of my death located outside the United States of America to be governed by the laws and rules of a foreign jurisdiction and/or the terms of a will or other similar document I have executed in such other foreign jurisdiction. The provisions of this will shall only supersede and revoke provisions of any other will or codicil which I have as such document might govern the distribution of assets which are located in the United States of America at the time of my death.

Article I.
FAMILY STATEMENT

I am married to YESENIA KIESWETTER, to whom I refer to my wife in my will. I have three children from a previous marriage whose names are KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, KAREN MICHELLE KIESWETTER SHAW, and KATHY MARCELLE KIESWETTER BOYD. Accordingly, when used in my will, the terms, "child," "children," "daughters" and words of like import shall refer to KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, KAREN MICHELLE KIESWETTER SHAW, and KATHY MARCELLE KIESWETTER BOYD. Likewise, when used in my will, the terms, "descendant," "descendants," "sister," and words of like import, as they pertain to my children shall refer to KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, KAREN MICHELLE KIESWETTER SHAW, and KATHY MARCELLE KIESWETTER BOYD, and as they pertain to my grandchildren or more remote descendants, shall refer to the children and other descendants of KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, KAREN MICHELLE KIESWETTER SHAW, and KATHY MARCELLE KIESWETTER BOYD.

I am intentionally excluding my wife, YESENIA KIESWETTER, from benefits under my will, not by error or omission or through any lack of love or affection, but because as I have provided for her otherwise.

Article II.
INDEPENDENT EXECUTOR

2.1 Appointment of Independent Executor. I appoint my daughter, KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, as independent executor of my will and of my estate. If my daughter, KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, ceases or fails to serve as independent executor, I appoint my daughter, KATHY MARCELLE KIESWETTER BOYD, and my daughter, KAREN MICHELLE KIESWETTER SHAW, successively and not jointly, as successor independent executor of my will and my estate. I direct that no bond be required of any independent executor and that no action shall be had in the county court in relation to the settlement of my estate other than the probating and recording of my will and the return of an inventory, appraisement and list of claims of my estate.

2.2 Successor's Authority and Responsibility. A successor independent executor shall possess and exercise all powers and authorities herein conferred on the original independent executor. A successor independent executor shall be responsible only for the assets delivered by the preceding independent executor or such independent executor's legal representative, and may accept as correct the statement of the predecessor or such predecessor's legal representative that these constitute all of the assets of the estate without any duty to inquire into the administration or accounting by the preceding independent executor. A successor independent executor shall not be responsible for or by reason of any act or omission of a predecessor independent executor.

2.3 Powers of Independent Executor. My independent executor shall have all powers, rights, discretions, and immunities conferred upon independent executors by the Texas Probate Code, and upon trustees by the Texas Trust Code as those powers, rights, discretions, and immunities now exist or as they may hereafter be amended. In addition to the above powers, rights, discretions, and immunities, my independent executor shall be authorized:

A. To make non-pro rata partitions and distributions of real and personal property, so long as the beneficiaries receive assets of a value equal to the fair market value of his or her respective interests as of the time of distribution;

B. To purchase assets from my estate for fair market value, pursuant to the provisions of Section 352(b) of the Texas Probate Code, provided at such time any of my descendants is serving as independent executor;

C. To make loans to a beneficiary of my estate; and

D. To delegate to one or more agents any discretionary or ministerial power by a writing stating the scope and duration of powers being delegated, to whom delegated, and signed by my independent executor.

2.4 Ancillary Administration. If at any time my independent executor does not desire or shall not be authorized under the laws of any other state or of any foreign country having jurisdiction of any of the properties comprising a part of my estate, to act as independent executor with reference to any such properties, then to the extent permitted by the laws of such jurisdiction, my independent executor may nominate and appoint one or more qualified persons or corporations with trust powers to act as an ancillary independent executor, and may remove any such persons or corporations from office and appoint a successor ancillary independent executor. My independent executor is directed to take such action with respect to the assets and properties so situated, and with respect to the delegation of duties, powers, discretions and liabilities to the ancillary independent executor (including any requirement that he or she furnish bond), as my independent executor shall deem to be appropriate, desirable or necessary under the circumstances, including compliance with all applicable statutory requirements within such ancillary jurisdiction. Any appointment or removal of an ancillary independent executor shall be made by a written statement in a form which may be recorded in the real property records of the county of residence of my independent executor and of my ancillary independent executor being appointed or removed from office. Such written instrument must specify the effective time and date of appointment or removal, and, in the case of an appointment, must contain the acceptance of my ancillary independent executor.

Article III.
PAYMENT OF DEBTS, EXPENSES AND TAXES

3.1 Debts and Expenses. All of my expenses, all other debts, and all funeral expenses payable as a result of my death and imposed with respect to any property, whether or not disposed of by my will, shall be paid out of my residuary estate. My independent executor shall have the power to charge any expenses against income or principal or apportion the same;

provided, however, that this power may not be exercised in such a way so as to reduce or otherwise adversely affect my estate's qualification the charitable deduction otherwise available for federal estate and gift tax purposes.

3.2 Secured Indebtedness. If any properties that I own at the time of my death are encumbered by mortgage or lien, my executor may pay only the installments due during the course of administration of my estate. The balance due on the indebtedness shall not be charged to or paid from my estate, and the persons receiving properties by this will shall take those properties subject to the indebtedness and shall reimburse my estate for any payments made prior to the distribution.

3.3 Taxes. All federal, state and foreign, transfer, inheritance and succession taxes, including generation-skipping transfer taxes, together with any interest and penalties on such taxes, payable as a result of my death and imposed with respect to (1) property passing under this will, except for the recapture tax imposed under Section 2057(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any corresponding provision of state law, and, (2) the trust estate of a trust included in my gross estate having an inclusion ratio for generation-skipping transfer tax purposes equal to zero and the property of which was qualified terminable interest property for federal estate tax marital deduction purposes but is treated for federal generation-skipping transfer tax purposes as if the election to be treated as qualified terminable interest property had not been made, are to be paid out of my residuary estate. All federal, state and foreign, transfer, inheritance and succession taxes, together with any interest and penalties on such taxes, payable as a result of my death and imposed on property not passing under this will (except the trust estate referred to in (2) above), are to be allocated and apportioned among, charged to, and collected from, each of the beneficiaries receiving property passing outside of my will, on a pro rata basis in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Texas Probate Code. My independent executor is directed to take whatever action is necessary to collect such taxes and charges from all beneficiaries receiving property passing outside of my will, and may withhold such taxes and charges from any property that may be distributable to such beneficiaries under my will.

Article IV.
DISPOSITION OF ESTATE

4.1 Household Effects and Personal Items. I may prepare a memorandum or letter of instructions to my independent executor written entirely in my handwriting, dated and signed by me, concerning the disposition of household effects and personal items. My independent executor is specifically relieved of liability in making distribution of such items as directed in such memorandum or letter of instructions. If there is no memorandum or letter of instructions or to the extent that such memorandum or letter of instructions does not fully dispose of such items, I direct that all household effects and personal items not disposed of, specifically including all of my interest in all furniture, furnishings, objects of art, wearing apparel, jewelry, recreational equipment, motor vehicles and their accessories and all other household and personal goods and tangible personal property of a similar nature, together with all policies of insurance relating thereto, shall be distributed in equal shares to my daughters, KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, KAREN MICHELLE KIESWETTER SHAW, and KATHY MARCELLE KIESWETTER BOYD, if living, and if any of them are not living, then the portion which such deceased daughter would have received, if living, shall be distributed to the descendants of such daughter, per stirpes, if any; and if none, then to my descendants, per stirpes. If any person is under the age of twenty-one (21) at the time he or she is entitled to receive property under this paragraph, my independent executor is authorized to distribute the property to a custodian for such person under the provisions of the Texas Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, or a similar act of any other state.

4.2 Residuary Estate. I give all the remainder of my estate including any of the gifts provided for in this Article IV of my will that lapse ("my residuary estate") in equal shares to my daughters, KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, KAREN MICHELLE KIESWETTER SHAW, and KATHY MARCELLE KIESWETTER BOYD, if living. If any of my daughters are not living at the time of my death, the portion which she would have received, if living, shall be distributed to her descendants per stirpes, determined as if she had died on the date of my death, if any, and if, none, to my descendants, per stirpes.

to my daughter, KRISTINE MARIE KIESWETTER, my daughter, KATHY MARCELLE KIESWETTER BOYD, and my daughter, KAREN MICHELLE KIESWETTER SHAW, successively and not jointly, as trustee for the benefit of each such individual (herein referred to as the "Beneficiary"), to be held, administered, and distributed as follows:

5.1 Payment of Income and Principal. The trustee is authorized and directed to distribute to or for the benefit of the Beneficiary out of the income, and if income is insufficient, out of the principal of such trust from time to time such sums as are reasonably needed for his or her health, including medical, dental, hospital, and nursing expenses, and expenses of invalidism, and such sums as are reasonably needed for his or her education, maintenance and support in his or her accustomed manner of living. In determining the amounts to be distributed to or for the benefit of the Beneficiary, the trustee shall take into consideration such other income or means of support known to the trustee that he or she is entitled to receive, but not his or her capital resources.

5.2 Termination of Trust. The trust shall terminate upon the Beneficiary attaining the age of twenty-five (25) years, or upon his or her death, whichever first occurs. Upon termination of the trust, after paying the expenses of the trust, the trustee shall distribute the principal and undistributed income remaining in the trust as follows:

A. To the Beneficiary, if living;

B. If the Beneficiary is not living, to his or her descendants, per stirpes, if any; and if none, to the then living descendants, per stirpes, of the parent of the Beneficiary who is a descendant of mine, if any; and if none, to my then living descendants, per stirpes.

Article VI.
PROVISIONS RELATING TO TRUSTS

The following provisions shall be applicable to all trusts established herein:

6.1 Bond. A trustee shall serve without bond or other security.

6.2 Consolidation of Trusts. If there are in existence at any time one or more trusts established under this will or my wife's will containing substantially the same provisions as provided for in other trusts established under this will, and providing for the same beneficiaries, the trustee is authorized to consolidate such trusts to the extent the trustee may deem such action to be in the best interest of the beneficiaries and the trust estates.

6.3 Spendthrift Provision. Each beneficiary of a trust is hereby restrained from anticipating, encumbering, alienating or in any other manner assigning or disposing of his or her interest in either principal or income of such trust estate and is without power to do so; nor shall such interest be subject to his or her liabilities or obligations or to judgment, garnishment or other legal process, or bankruptcy proceedings, or any claims of creditors or other parties.

6.4 Perpetuity Savings Provision. Anything in my will to the contrary notwithstanding, the final termination of all trusts created hereunder shall be upon the expiration of the period of the applicable Rule Against Perpetuities, determined using as measuring lives my descendants who are alive on the date of my death; and upon the expiration of such period, all trusts shall terminate and the assets of each trust shall be distributed outright to such persons as are then entitled to the income therefrom and in the same proportions; but if no person is then entitled to a specific portion of income, then in equal portions to the then living income beneficiaries.

6.5 Resignation of Last Appointed Trustee. If any trust established under this will fails to designate a successor in office to the resigning trustee, a majority of the adult income beneficiaries of the trusts established herein shall have the power to appoint another person (other than a beneficiary) or any corporate institution having trust powers as the successor trustee. Such power shall be exercised in a written instrument in recordable form which identifies this power, identifies the successor trustee, contains an acceptance of office by such successor trustee, and identifies the effective time and date of such succession.

6.6 Manner of Succession. Except as otherwise provided herein, each successor trustee may assume his or her duties as trustee, upon filing an affidavit reciting the facts establishing his or her right to serve as successor trustee, in the Official Public Records of Bexar County, Texas. Any party dealing with such trustee, shall be entitled to rely conclusively upon the facts stated in such affidavit. No successor trustee shall be required to make application to any court to accept the office of trustee.

6.7 Successor's Authority and Responsibility. A successor trustee shall possess and exercise all powers and authorities herein conferred on the original trustee. A successor trustee may accept and rely upon the accounting furnished by the predecessor trustee unless such successor trustee has actual knowledge that such accounting is materially in error, or unless a majority of the adult beneficiaries or if there are none, the guardians of a majority of the minor beneficiaries, request the trustee to verify, audit or contest such accounting.

6.8 Trust Distribution. The property interests devised under my will and the trusts established by my will include not only the principal but also the income earned by that principal. Accordingly, I intend that any property distributed to or for a beneficiary (whether from the principal of my estate or any trust established by my will, or from income earned by my estate or the trust) shall be the separate property of the beneficiary.

6.9 S Corporation Stock. If any stock of an S corporation, as defined in Section 1361(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, is to be distributed to a trustee of any trust created under my will, such trustee, within the time period prescribed by Sections 1361(c), (d), and (e) of such Code and the Regulations thereof, shall instead hold such S corporation stock in a separate trust. The beneficiary of the trust from which such S corporation stock was set aside shall be the beneficiary of such S corporation trust and, except as specifically set forth in this Paragraph to the contrary, all provisions of my will applicable to such beneficiary's trust from which the S corporation stock was set aside shall apply to his or her S corporation trust. Furthermore, the following provisions shall control over any contrary provisions in this paragraph should the trustee choose to form a S corporation trust under Section 1361(d): (i) the beneficiary of a trust created under Section 1361(d) shall make an election under Section 1361(d)(2) in the manner and within the time required by such Section; (ii) during the life of the current income beneficiary, there shall be only one income beneficiary of the trust; (iii) any corpus distributed during the life of the income beneficiary may be distributed only to that income beneficiary; (iv) the current income beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of that income beneficiary's death or the termination of the trust; (v) upon termination of the trust during the life of the current income beneficiary, the trust will distribute all of its assets to that income beneficiary; and (vi) all the trust's income (as defined under Section 643(b)) must be either distributed, or required to be distributed, currently to a beneficiary who is a citizen or resident of the United States. Any provisions of my will which may conflict with or fail to meet the requirements of Section 1361 shall either be disregarded or else shall be reconciled, reformed, or amplified to ensure that such requirements are met.

6.10 Obligations Not Discharged. No trustee shall have the power to make a distribution or participate in making the decision to make a distribution which would discharge a legal or contractual obligation of such fiduciary.

POWERS OF TRUSTEE

The trustee administering a trust established in my will shall have the following authorities, powers, rights, discretions and immunities:

7.1 Powers Under Texas Trust Code. The trustee shall have, except as otherwise expressly provided in my will, all of the rights, powers, discretions, and immunities conferred upon trustees by the Texas Trust Code as the same is constituted on the date of execution of my will, and as the same may be hereafter amended provided, however, that the provisions of my will shall govern whenever in conflict with the provisions of such Code; and provided, further, that an individual trustee who is a descendant of mine, is expressly relieved from the restrictions imposed by the provisions of Sections 113.052 (restricting the loan of trust funds to the trustee), 113.053 (restricting the purchase or sale of trust property by the trustee), and 113.054 (restricting the sale from one trust to another), of said Code and any other similar restrictions imposed by statute, rule of law, or otherwise, inconsistent with the provisions hereof; and a corporate trustee, while serving, is expressly relieved from the restrictions imposed by the provisions of Section 113.054 (restricting the sale from one trust to another) and 113.057 (restricting deposits by the corporate trustee with itself) of said Code and any other similar restrictions imposed by statute, rule of law, or otherwise, inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

7.2 Undivided Interests. The trustee is specifically authorized to place fractional or undivided interests in property into one or more trusts.

7.3 Lend Money and Guarantee Obligations. The trustee may lend money to any person, to any business entity, to an estate, or to any trust, provided that any such loan (except loans to beneficiaries) shall be adequately secured and shall bear a reasonable rate of interest. The trustee, in the trustee's discretion, may endorse, guarantee, become the surety of or otherwise become obligated for or with respect to the debts or other obligations of any person or legal entity, whether with or without consideration, when the trustee believes such actions advance the purposes of any trust established herein. The trustee may make loans from any trust to or for the benefit of a beneficiary of such trust on an unsecured basis, and for such rate of interest as the trustee deems appropriate, when in the trustee's judgment such loan would be consistent with the purposes of such trust.

partnership, joint venture or any other form of business enterprise (including a limited liability company or partnership), should the trustee deem it advantageous in the administration of a trust or any part thereof, or necessary or advisable to avoid fractionalization of interests in property held in a trust which may result from the termination of all or any portion of the trust; to subscribe and pay for a trust's part of any such stock, partnership or other ownership interest either in cash or property, or partly one and partly the other; and to exercise all rights of a stockholder, partner, member, or other owner of an interest in any form of business enterprise, including the right to vote for or against mergers, consolidations and liquidations. An individual serving as trustee may elect himself or herself as an officer or director of a corporation, or to a similar position in any other form of business enterprise, owned in part or in whole by a trust established in my will, and a corporate entity serving as trustee may elect one of its officers to such a position, and in each such instance the person so elected may be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered to such corporation or other business enterprise.

7.5 Ancillary Administration. If at any time my trustee does not desire or shall not be authorized under the laws of any other state or of any foreign country having jurisdiction of any of the properties comprising a part of my estate, to act as trustee with reference to any such properties, then to the extent permitted by the laws of such jurisdiction, my trustee may nominate and appoint one or more qualified persons or corporations (with trust powers) to act as an ancillary trustee, and may remove any such persons or corporations from office and appoint a successor ancillary trustee. My trustee is directed to take such action with respect to the assets and properties so situated, and with respect to the delegation of duties, powers, discretions and liabilities to the ancillary trustee (including any requirement that he or she furnish bond), as my trustee shall deem to be appropriate, desirable or necessary under the circumstances, including compliance with all applicable statutory requirements within such ancillary jurisdiction. Any appointment or removal of an ancillary trustee shall be made by written instrument, duly acknowledged by my trustee in a form entitled to be recorded in the real property records of the county of residence of the trustee and of the ancillary trustee being appointed or removed from office. Such written instrument must specify the effective time and date of appointment or removal, and, in the case of an appointment, must contain the acceptance of the ancillary trustee.

7.6 Facility of Payment. Expenditures or distributions of income and/or corpus authorized elsewhere herein, either during the term of any Trust hereunder or upon termination of any such Trust, may be made, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, in any of the following ways:

A. Directly to such beneficiary;

B. To the guardian of such beneficiary's person or estate;

C. If such beneficiary is under a legal disability or if the Trustee determines that such beneficiary is unable to properly manage his or her affairs, to a person (even if such person is not the legal guardian), organization, or institution furnishing support, maintenance, or education for such beneficiary or with whom the beneficiary is residing, for expenditure on such beneficiary's behalf;

D. To a checking or savings account in the name of such beneficiary alone or together with any other person or persons;

E. If such beneficiary is a minor, to a Custodian for such beneficiary, as designated by the Trustee, under the Texas Uniform Transfers To Minors Act, or under the Uniform Transfers To Minors Act, then applicable, of the state of such minor's residence; or

F. Alternatively, the Trustee may utilize all or a part of the expenditure or distribution, without the interposition of a guardian, for the health, education, maintenance, or support of such beneficiary.

Payments in any of such ways shall be considered for all purposes as a distribution to such beneficiary and shall relieve the Trustee of any further responsibility therefore. No expenditure or distribution shall be made that discharges a legal obligation (including a legal obligation of support) of any person other than the beneficiary to whom the distribution is made. Upon making a payment or distribution to a person other than a beneficiary, the Trustee may require an accounting from such recipient, but the receipt by a beneficiary shall be a full acquittance and discharge to the Trustee for all payments or distributions so made.

7.7 Distribution. Any division or distribution of principal upon division of a trust into separate shares or trusts, upon final termination of a trust, or at any other time, may be made either in cash or in kind, or partly in each, at the discretion of the trustee; and any division or distribution in kind shall be on the basis of the fair market values determined at the time of distribution. There shall be no requirement that distributions be made on a pro rata basis. Distributions may be made on a non-pro rata basis as long as the fair market values are used.

7.8 Designation of Trustee as Beneficiary. I may have designated the trustee of a trust as beneficiary of the proceeds of life insurance policies on my life or as a beneficiary of proceeds of employee benefit plans, individual retirement accounts or similar plans in which I have an interest. In that event, the trustee is empowered to take all steps necessary to collect such proceeds, and the receipt of such trustee shall be a full discharge to any party required to make payment of the proceeds. The trustee is also empowered to make any elections which a trustee as beneficiary may make, as for example selection of a mode of settlement of the proceeds and any corresponding tax elections. If no specific trust is named as recipient by beneficiary designation, the trustee shall distribute such proceeds to the person or persons (including the trustee of one or more specific trusts established under my will) entitled to receive my residuary estate under Paragraph 4.2, with the shares of taking determined as under that paragraph.

Article VIII.
FIDUCIARY COMPENSATION

8.1 Individual Independent Executor. Any individual who shall serve as independent executor of my will and of my estate shall not receive compensation for serving as independent executor.

8.2 Individual Trustee. Any individual who shall serve as trustee of a trust provided for in my will shall not be allowed compensation for serving as trustee.

8.3 Expenses. The independent executor of my will and of my estate and/or any trustee of a trust provided for herein shall be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's or accountant's fees made or incurred in administration of the estate and/or trust hereunder.

Article IX.
MISCELLANEOUS

The following definitions and provisions are given as assistance in connection with the construction and interpretation of this will:

9.1 Survival. A requirement that a beneficiary "survive" a person's death or some other event or be "surviving" or "living" shall be interpreted to mean "survival by at least ninety days." This ninety day period shall begin at 12:01 a.m. of the day immediately following the death or event and shall end at 12:00 o'clock midnight of the ninetieth day.

9.2 Adopted Persons. Wherever the terms "children," "issue," "descendants" or words of like import whether of mine or of any other person are used or are relevant under my will and in the disposition of my estate, adopted children, issue, and descendants shall be considered and treated in all respects the same as natural children, issue and descendants.

9.3 Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes", when used with respect to a distribution among a class of beneficiaries, shall mean by representation; that is, the descendants of a deceased person inherit only such portion of the deceased person's estate as the parent through whom they inherit would be entitled to if alive.

9.4 Independent Executor. Independent Executor as used in my will shall include executor, co-executors and co-independent executors, wherever appropriate to the context, together with their successors.

9.5 Gender. Pronouns, nouns and terms as used in this instrument shall include the masculine, feminine, neuter, singular and plural forms thereof wherever appropriate to the context.

9.6 Headings. The headings employed are for reference purposes only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of the provisions of this will.
