FIRST CODICIL
TO THE
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
WILLIAM T. SCHMIDT

I, WILLIAM T. SCHMIDT, of the City of Birmingham, County of Oakland, State of Michigan being of full age and sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be the First Codicil to my Last Will and Testament, which was previously executed by me on September 28, 2006.

FIRST

Article Fifth shall be deleted in its entirety and a new Article Fifth shall be added to read as follows:

FIFTH: I hereby appoint the following persons, in the following order, to act as the Personal Representative of my estate:

1. RADNER LAW FIRM, P.C. and HANS C. SCHMIDT

In the event that the appointed Personal Representative is unwilling or unable to act, then the next listed Personal Representative in order of succession shall act as the Personal Representative. In the event that Co-Personal Representatives are named, and one of the Co-Personal Representatives is unwilling or unable to act, then the other named Co-Personal Representative(s) shall act as the Personal Representative(s). If none are available, then the person, persons, bank, and/or trust company who is, are, or would have been then acting as TRUSTEE or TRUSTEES for the Original Trust under said Trust Agreement, referred to in Article FOURTH above, as Personal Representative(s).

If at any time or times for any reason there is a vacancy in the office of the Personal Representative(s), such vacancy shall be filled or left vacant in the same manner and in accordance with the decision of the same person or persons as a vacancy in the office of the corresponding Trusteeship for the Original Trust under said Trust Agreement, referred to in Article FOURTH above, would be filled or left vacant under said Trust Agreement.

Any successor professional Co-Personal Representative(s) shall be subject to removal from office by the family Co-Personal Representative(s) in exactly the same manner as the Independent TRUSTEE(S) of said Original Trust is subject to removal by and to the directions of the Family TRUSTEE of such trust, all as provided in the Trust Agreement.

A. Appointment of Ancillary Fiduciaries. Should ancillary administration be necessary or advantageous in any jurisdiction and should no fiduciary designated in my Will be able and willing to act as my ancillary fiduciary, I appoint as ancillary fiduciary such qualified person or trust institution as my principal fiduciaries shall from time to time designate (with retained right of removal) in a writing filed in the court having such ancillary jurisdiction. Furthermore, all my ancillary fiduciaries shall at all times be subject to the directions of my principal fiduciaries and the residuary estate of each ancillary administration shall be transmitted to my principal fiduciaries as promptly as possible.

B. Election of Simplified Unsupervised Administration. If independent administration without certain court proceedings and supervision is to any extent permitted under the laws of any state in which any part of my estate is being administered, I hereby elect such simplified mode of administration and direct, to the greatest extent possible, settlement of my estate without the intervention of or accountings to any courts.

C. Appointment of Attorney and Counselor at Law. I hereby request that DAVID M. RADNER act as attorneys and counselors for the administration of my estate.

In all other respects, my said Last Will and Testament is hereby republished, ratified, and in all other respects confirmed.

Last Will and Testament

WILLIAM T. SCHMIDT

I, WILLIAM T. SCHMIDT , a resident of the City of Birmingham , County of Oakland , State of Michigan, being of full age and sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking any and all Wills and Codicils heretofore made by me.

As used in this, my Last Will and Testament, any use of the term "spouse" shall be in reference to PATRICIA SCHMIDT.

FIRST: I direct that there shall be paid out of the residue of my estate all claims legally enforceable against my estate, funeral and administration expenses, together with all estate tax, inheritance tax, generation-skipping transfer tax on any "direct skip" as to which I am the transferor (but not such transfer tax on any "taxable termination" or any "taxable distribution"), and other similar taxes imposed upon or with respect to any property, or the interest of any beneficiary therein, which is required to be included in my gross estate for any such tax purposes, whether or not such property (or any interest therein) is a part of my estate subject to probate. I further direct that my Personal Representative shall not require that any part of such taxes be recovered from, paid by, or apportioned between or among the recipients of, or those interested in, any such property, provided that: (i) in the event any portion of any trust created for my benefit by persons other than myself shall be included in my gross estate, my Personal Representative shall demand that the Trustee of such trust or trusts pay to my estate an amount equal to the additional estate, inheritance, succession, or other similar taxes imposed upon my estate by reason of the inclusion of such interest, and (ii) any tax payable under IRC § 2056A(b) or any successor provision of similar import with respect to a qualified domestic trust created by me or for my benefit shall be apportioned to and paid by the Trustee of such qualified domestic trust. The foregoing provisions of this Article FIRST shall be limited to the extent my Personal Representative, in my Personal Representative's discretion, demands that my Trustee under the Trust Agreement referred to in Article THIRD, following, pay such liabilities and taxes. My Personal Representative shall first apply toward the payment of federal estate tax the proceeds of the redemption of such U.S. Treasury bonds (whether held in my estate or in any trust) as are included in my gross estate and as may be redeemed at par in payment of such tax.

SECOND: I give and bequeath all porcelain, antique items and all artwork located at my residence, to my wife, PATRICIA SCHMIDT. I give, devise and bequeath such jewelry, precious stones and wearing apparel; all pets, household goods, furniture, rugs, furnishings, pictures, musical instruments, china, glass and silverware; any automobile(s) and motorized sport vehicles; any collection of stamps, coins, books, tools or other things whatsoever; all boats and other sporting or athletic equipment or hobby items; any country or other social club memberships; and all other personal effects and tangible personal property as I may own at the time of my death, except cash on hand or on deposit by me at the time of my death, to those persons whom I may have designated in a List of Gifts, which is to be found among my personal possessions at the time of my death; provided, however, if no such List of Gifts is discovered within sixty (60) days after the date of appointment of any Personal Representative(s) for my estate, it shall be conclusively presumed that no such List of Gifts exists. I give, devise and bequeath the personal property not disposed of pursuant to the List of Gifts as may be desired by my son, HANS C. SCHMIDT (hereinafter "my child"). If HANS C. SCHMIDT shall not survive me, then I give, devise and bequeath such property to his surviving issue, by right of representation. If my beneficiaries are unable to agree upon the distribution of such personalty among themselves, then the personal property shall be distributed by my Personal Representative(s), whose decision shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties at interest.

It is my strongest intent that my estate be settled as promptly as possible and without controversy over the distribution I have made in my will. Therefore, if any beneficiary under my will contests any provision of the will, directly or indirectly, I then revoke the gift I have made to that beneficiary and direct that the gift that the beneficiary would have received be distributed as if the beneficiary had predeceased me.

THIRD: The residue of my estate I leave to the Trustee(s) then acting under the WILLIAM T. SCHMIDT Revocable Living Trust.

A. Definition of Residue. As used in my Will, the term "residue of my estate" means all of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate [including all properties (and interests in properties) which I may own or to which I or my Personal Representative(s) may be entitled at the time of my death or which my Personal Representative(s) may in fact receive after my death (even though acquired after the date hereof), whether real, personal, or mixed, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated] which is left after satisfaction of or provision for all prior impositions thereon as described in Articles FIRST and SECOND above. It includes all assets which I have not otherwise effectively disposed of in my Will, either because an intended beneficiary failed to survive or for any other reason. Since I do not intend to exercise any power of appointment by this residuary disposition, that term does not include any asset over which I simply have or may have a power of appointment.

B. Gift to Trust.

(1) The TRUSTEE(S) of the trust referred to in Article THIRD above shall add the gift which is made in that Article to the principal of the trust assets which are being held by them at the time of my death and such gift properties shall thereafter be held, administered, and disposed of as a part of such principal, all in accordance with and subject to the terms, conditions, and provisions of said Trust Agreement as now written and as hereafter amended. The receipt of said TRUSTEE(S) shall be full and sufficient discharge and acquittance of my Personal Representative(s) and, since the foregoing is not intended to be and shall not be construed as creating a testamentary trust, said TRUSTEE(S) shall not be required to make any accountings of any kind to any probate court.

(2) If for any reason the foregoing testamentary gift to the TRUSTEE(S) then acting under said Trust Agreement is held to be invalid or if for any reason no trust under said Trust Agreement is in existence at the time of my death, I hereby nominate and appoint as TRUSTEE or TRUSTEES the person, institution, persons, or person and institution then acting as (or who presumably would have been acting as) TRUSTEE or TRUSTEES under said Trust Agreement and direct that the said rest, residue, and remainder of my estate be instead held by such TRUSTEE or TRUSTEES, in trust, and administered and disposed of under the terms, conditions, and provisions set forth in the aforementioned Trust Agreement in like manner as if the provisions of said Articles were incorporated verbatim herein; provided, however, that the division of assets between the trusts shall be coordinated between said inter vivos trust, if any then exists, and this testamentary trust to the end that such division as is made shall be the same in total effect as it would have been had the trust assets of both trusts (i.e., testamentary and inter vivos) been consolidated in one single trust.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, at any time or times during the period that my estate is being administered, my Personal Representative(s) (other than any who would financially benefit thereby) may distribute cash and/or other property out of the residue of my estate (and the income therefrom) directly:

(a) To any trust or trusts which, under the provisions of the Trust Agreement referred to in Article THIRD above, have a continuing existence after my death or have come into existence as a result of my death; and/or

(b) To any individual beneficiary or beneficiaries (i.e., one to whom distributions of trust income might then be made) of any such trust or trusts [referred to in subparagraph (a) above], other than any who is then under any legal disability, as such Personal Representative(s) in their sole and uncontrolled discretion, believe will achieve the overall minimum in taxes of all kinds applicable to my estate, trusts, and beneficiaries (as directed in said Trust Agreement), provided, however, that:

(a) The identity of the trusts referred to in subparagraph (a) above and the identity of the persons who are beneficiaries of such trusts referred to in subparagraph (b) above shall be determined solely on the basis of written certification(s) to be furnished to such Personal Representative(s) by the then acting TRUSTEE(S) of the Original Trust created by said Trust Agreement; and

(b) No distribution which might thus be made to any trust or to any of its beneficiaries shall exceed the amount then remaining to be allocated to such trust as a result of my death under the provisions of said Trust Agreement (nor shall it involve properties which are prohibited from allocation to such trust under said provisions), all as determined solely on the basis of written information to be furnished to such Personal Representative by such TRUSTEE(S).

The receipt evidencing each such distribution made by my said Personal Representative(s) in good faith shall discharge and acquit my Personal Representative(s) to the extent of such distribution and, to that extent, such distribution shall supersede distributions otherwise required to be made under Sections B(1) and B(2) of this Article.

FOURTH: I hereby appoint the following persons, in the following order, to act as the Personal Representative of my estate:

1. PATRICIA SCHMIDT
2. HANS C. SCHMIDT

In the event that the appointed Personal Representative is unwilling or unable to act, then the next listed Personal Representative in order of succession shall act as the Personal Representative. In the event that Co-Personal Representatives are named, and one of the Co-

Personal Representatives is unwilling or unable to act, then the other named Co-Personal Representative(s) shall act as the Personal Representative(s). If none are available, then the person, persons, bank, and/or trust company who is, are, or would have been then acting as TRUSTEE or TRUSTEES for the Original Trust under said Trust Agreement, referred to in Article THIRD above, as Personal Representative(s).

If at any time or times for any reason there is a vacancy in the office of the Personal Representative(s), such vacancy shall be filled or left vacant in the same manner and in accordance with the decision of the same person or persons as a vacancy in the office of the corresponding Trusteeship for the Original Trust under said Trust Agreement, referred to in Article THIRD above, would be filled or left vacant under said Trust Agreement.

Any successor professional Co-Personal Representative(s) shall be subject to removal from office by the family Co-Personal Representative(s) in exactly the same manner as the Independent TRUSTEE(S) of said Original Trust is subject to removal by and to the directions of the TRUSTEE of such trust, all as provided in said Trust.

To the extent necessary to carry out these directions, the provisions of said Trust are hereby incorporated herein.

A. Appointment of Ancillary Fiduciaries. Should ancillary administration be necessary or advantageous in any jurisdiction and should no fiduciary designated in my Will be able and willing to act as my ancillary fiduciary, I appoint as ancillary fiduciary such qualified person or trust institution as my principal fiduciaries shall from time to time designate (with retained right of removal) in a writing filed in the court having such ancillary jurisdiction. Furthermore, all my ancillary fiduciaries shall at all times be subject to the directions of my principal fiduciaries and the residuary estate of each ancillary administration shall be transmitted to my principal fiduciaries as promptly as possible.

B. Election of Simplified Unsupervised Administration. If independent administration without certain court proceedings and supervision is to any extent permitted under the laws of any state in which any part of my estate is being administered, I hereby elect such simplified mode of administration and direct, to the greatest extent possible, settlement of my estate without the intervention of or accountings to any courts.

C. Appointment of Attorney and Counselor at Law. I hereby request that DAVID M. RADNER act as attorney and counselor for the administration of my estate.

FIFTH: All of my fiduciaries, in the exercise of their discretion and without prior court authorization, shall at all times have the broadest powers to independently administer my estate and trust funds (e.g., the power to sell, borrow, make tax elections, etc.) that can be granted by a Will (over and above those granted by law). No fiduciary acting hereunder shall be required to file a bond.

A. Fiduciary Powers. My personal representative or my personal representative's successor shall have the authority to exercise all of the powers given to a personal representative by the Michigan Estates and Protected Individuals Code; to borrow money from or sell property to the Trustee under the Testator Trust Agreement; distribute and allocate assets to my beneficiaries, on the basis of their fair market value as of the date of distribution or allocation, in cash or kind, or partly in each, and for this purpose resolve all doubtful questions as to the value of any asset; make such elections and decisions with respect to all tax matters that are necessary from time to time, being guided in such determinations by the minimization of taxes imposed upon my estate, its beneficiaries, the beneficiary of any trust, and any other person who may receive property as a result of my death, and by any other factor my personal representative deems relevant in determining their best interests as a whole; and to resolve all doubtful questions regarding the allocation or apportionment of receipts and disbursements to or between principal and income and the manner of allocating income earned during the administration of my estate among the distributees named in this Will; and my personal representative's decisions shall be final and binding on all interested parties.

B. Incorporation by Reference. The incorporation into my Will of certain provisions of the Trust Agreement (described in Article THIRD above) by references thereto contained in Articles FOURTH and FIFTH above [and in Article SIXTH below as well as in Section B(2) of Article THIRD above (a contingent incorporation only)] is intended to be applicable to said provisions as they stand at the moment of execution of my Will. The subsequent revocation of said Trust Agreement, even though such revocation be made by me, shall be of no effect whatsoever on the incorporation of any of its provisions in my Will. Likewise, no amendment to said provisions made after the execution of my Will shall be effective to change the terms of said provisions as incorporated by reference in my Will unless such amendment is made by me with the formalities required in the making of a valid codicil under the laws of the state of my then domicile or is ratified by me by a valid codicil, in which case such amendment shall be considered to modify effectively the provisions of said Trust Agreement as incorporated in my Will by reference.

C. Preservation of Privacy. In order to preserve privacy for my beneficiaries, I have intentionally incorporated herein only certain provisions of said Trust Agreement rather than the whole of that document. Except for the unlikely contingencies provided for in Section B(2) of Article THIRD above, only the applicable provisions of said Trust Agreement are to be considered a part of my Will. So as to avoid having a copy of said Trust Agreement made a part of the public probate court file regarding my estate, I ask that the probate court require, if it should be necessary, no more than a TRUSTEE certified true copy of just those said Articles as full and complete evidence of the provisions thus incorporated in my Will by reference.

SIXTH: In order to carry out the foregoing plan of distribution, I have intentionally made no specific residuary provision in my Will for any descendant of mine living now or who may hereafter be born or adopted.

A. Construction Provisions. As used in my Will, the term "leave" includes the terms "give," "devise," and "bequeath" and the term "includes" means "includes (without limitation) and by way of illustration." Where any Trust Agreement which is referred to herein has attached to it technical provisions which are incorporated in that Trust Agreement, references herein to specific Articles and Sections of that Trust Agreement shall, as appropriate, be read as references to my Will (or to any other Will) include any codicil to it and all provisions of other instruments properly incorporated in them. The headings, titles, and subtitles in my Will and in this instrument have been inserted solely for convenient reference and shall be ignored in their construction.

B. Exclusion of State. In the event that my state of residence is determined to be my heir, any distribution that would have been made to the state, but for this provision, shall be added to and distributed as part of the shares being distributed to my named beneficiaries.

I execute the Last Will and Testament on 9/28/06.
