LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
SAMUEL D. HOLLINS, SR.

I, SAMUEL D. HOLLINS, SR., presently residing with my wife, CARLA J. HOLLINS, in the State of Missouri, do make, publish and declare this instrument as and to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and canceling all former Wills and any Codicils thereto heretofore made by me at any time.

I presently have one (1) child from a prior marriage, namely, S. DAVID HOLLINS, JR. My spouse has two (2) children from a prior marriage, namely, KATHRYN L. ROWLEY and DAVID S. ROWLEY.

ARTICLE I
PAYMENT OF EXPENSES, DEBTS AND TAXES

I direct that my personal representative pay out of my residuary estate the expenses of burial or cremation of my remains, all costs of a funeral or memorial service, the expenses of my last illness, all of my debts which are allowable as claims against my estate, and, without contribution or reimbursement, all estate and inheritance taxes payable by reason of my death.

ARTICLE II
BEQUEST OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

If, subsequent to the execution of this Will, I have, by separate instrument, signed by me and dated, listed certain items of tangible personal property belonging to me and the names of certain persons to whom such items are to pass upon my death, then I direct that any property listed thereon shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of such instrument. If no such instrument comes into the possession of my personal representative within (30) days of his or her appointment as such, it shall be conclusively presumed that no such instrument exists.

I give and bequeath all of my tangible personal property not effectively disposed of by such list, including automobiles, household furniture and furnishings, books, appliances, hobby equipment and all articles of personal use and adornment, but not including any tangible personal property held by me as an investment or used in connection with the operation of a business, to my wife, if she survives me, otherwise this bequest shall lapse and such tangible personal property shall be added to my residuary estate.

ARTICLE III

BEQUEST OF BALANCE OF ESTATE TO WIFE IF LIVING

I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of whatsoever kind or nature and wheresoever situated to my wife, if she survives me.

ARTICLE IV

BEQUEST OF BALANCE OF ESTATE IF WIFE NOT LIVING

If I am not survived by my wife, I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of whatsoever kind or nature and wheresoever situated to my son, S. DAVID HOLLINS, JR., per stirpes, subject however in the event S. DAVID HOLLINS, JR. or any of my descendants who take on account of S. DAVID HOLLINS, JR.'s death, are under thirty-five (35) years of age, such assets shall be held IN TRUST for such beneficiary's benefit pursuant to the terms of ARTICLE V, hereof, SEPARATE TRUSTS FOR CHILDREN OR OTHER DESCENDANTS UNDER THIRTY-FIVE (35) YEARS OF AGE.

ARTICLE V

SEPARATE TRUSTS FOR CHILDREN OR OTHER DESCENDANTS UNDER THIRTY-FIVE (35) YEARS OF AGE

If, pursuant to the provisions of this will, a share of the assets of my estate or of any trust estate hereunder shall become otherwise distributable to any child or other descendant of mine who is less than thirty-five (35) years of age at the time of such distribution, such shall not be distributed to such person outright, but shall instead be held by the trustees as a separate trust estate for the benefits of such person (hereinafter in this ARTICLE referred to as "the beneficiary") with income and principal used, applied and distributed as follows:

Section 1. Distribution of Income

1.1 During the period of this trust when the beneficiary is less than twenty-one (21) years of age, the trustees shall use, apply and expend so much of the income of the trust estate for the beneficiary's support, maintenance, education and health care as the trustees shall, in the trustees' sole discretion, deem reasonable, adding any undistributed income to principal at the end of each year.

1.2 After the beneficiary has attained twenty-one (21) years of age, all of the income derived from the assets of the trust estate shall be distributed to the beneficiary, in regular installments not less frequently than quarter-annually.

Section 2. Encroachment on Principal

The trustees, from time to time, in the trustees' sole discretion, may encroach upon the principal of the trust estate in such amounts as the trustees shall deem reasonable for the maintenance, support, education and health care of the beneficiary.

Section 3. Distribution of Principal

3.1 When the beneficiary attains twenty-five (25) years of age, the trustees shall distribute to the beneficiary one-third (1/3) of the assets remaining in the trust, including both undistributed income and principal. When the beneficiary attains thirty (30) years of age, the trustee shall distribute one-half (½) of the assets remaining in the trust, including both undistributed income and principal. When the beneficiary attains thirty-five (35) years of age, the trustee shall distribute to the beneficiary all of the assets remaining in the trust estate, and the trust for such beneficiary shall terminate.

3.2 If any beneficiary of any trust estate hereunder shall die before receiving distribution of all of the assets in the trust estate held for his or her benefit, the assets remaining in the trust estate at the time of his or her death, both principal and undistributed income, shall be distributed, per stirpes, to the descendants of the beneficiary who survive him or her, or, if the beneficiary is not survived by one or more descendants, to the then living descendants of the least remote ancestor of the beneficiary who is either me or a descendant of mine who has descendants then living, per stirpes; subject, however, in the case of any such person who is less than thirty-five (35) years of age, to the provisions of this ARTICLE.

ARTICLE VI
CONTINGENT BEQUEST OF ESTATE
AND TRUST REMAINDERS

If all persons named or designated herein as beneficiaries of any legacy under this Will have predeceased me, or if none of my children or other descendants shall survive the termination of a trust provided for under ARTICLE V hereof, such interest shall be distributed to KATHRYN L. ROWLEY and DAVID S. ROWLEY, in equal shares, per stirpes.

ARTICLE VII
TRUST ADMINISTRATION PROVISIONS

The following provisions shall apply in the administration of a trust under the provisions of this Will.

Section 1. The Trustees

1.1 DONALD BOATRIGHT shall serve as trustee. If DONALD BOATRIGHT shall not serve or shall cease to serve as trustee for any reason, MERRILL LYNCH shall serve as trustee.

1.2 An individual trustee may resign from the position of trustee by executing a written resignation and delivering the same to his or her co-trustee, if any, otherwise to his or her successor trustee. No court action or other proceeding, in addition to the requirements hereinabove set forth, shall be necessary for the resignation of an individual trustee.

1.3 If two medical doctors shall certify that the capacity of an individual trustee has been so affected or impaired that such individual trustee should be relieved from the duties and responsibilities of administering the trust estate, then upon receipt of such a certificate by the co-trustee, if any, otherwise by the successor trustee, such individual trustee shall be considered as disqualified to act as trustee hereunder either for the period of time stated in such medical certificate or permanently as the case may be.

1.4 No bond shall be required of any trustee or successor trustee named herein.

1.5 An individual trustee shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation out of the assets of the trust estate and shall be reimbursed for such expenses as he or she may incur in connection with the administration of the trust. A corporate trustee shall be entitled to receive compensation for its services as such in accordance with its published schedule of fees in effect at the time its services are rendered.

Section 2. Powers of Administration

The trustees, in the administration of the trust estate, in addition to those powers, duties and immunities provided under Section 456.8-816 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, including any amendments and successor sections thereto, shall have the following specific powers, duties and immunities, to-wit:

2.1 Invest and Reinvest. To invest and reinvest funds of the trust estate in any kind of property, real or personal, or any interest therein, and wheresoever situated within the territorial limits of the United States, that the trustees may deem expedient and advisable to acquire for the trust estate, including, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, bonds, common or preferred stocks, notes, debentures, shares or participations in common trust funds (including common trust funds at any time established by the corporate trustee or co-trustee and including securities of any parent or company owning stock of the corporate trustee or co-trustee), United States Treasury obligations eligible to be redeemed at par in payment of federal estate tax and also in such other class or classes of property, real and personal, as the trustees may deem proper, having primarily in view the preservation of the trust estate and the amount and regularity of the income to be derived therefrom; and such investments and reinvestments may be in such amounts and in such proportions as the trustees may deem advisable; to change investments and make investments from time to time as the trustees may in the trustees' discretion determine; and, in the exercise of the trustees' discretion hereunder, the trustees shall not be limited to investments as are now or may at the time be legally authorized for the investment of trust funds.

2.2 Make Distributions in Cash or in Kind. To make all distributions or principal in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind, without any requirement to make pro rata distributions of specific assets and without any requirement to allocate equitably the basis of property for income tax purposes, and in order to make any division of trust assets to be distributed to two or more persons the trustees may determine the fair market value of those assets to be distributed in kind on the approximate date of distribution and may allot the same as between the various distributees, and the values placed on such assets and the particular assets selected by the trustees for distribution to any particular distributee shall be binding upon all persons having an interest in this trust estate.

2.3 Claim Insurance Proceeds. To do all things necessary to claim and receive the proceeds of any insurance policies under which the trustees are named beneficiary as trustees under the provisions of this Will.

2.4 Purchase from or Sell to Estates or Other Trusts. To purchase any assets, including any real or personal property, from any of the separate trust estates created or provided for hereunder, from any other trust estate, from my estate or from the estate of any other person, and to sell any such assets of this trust to the trustee of any other trust or the executor of any probate estate, upon such terms and conditions and at such prices and times as seem reasonable to the trustees, and to make such purchases and sales even though the trustees are buying from or selling to the trustees in the trustees' separate capacity as executors or trustees.

2.5 Loan Money to Income Beneficiaries. To make unsecured loans of cash from time to time to an individual who is income beneficiary of a trust estate provided for herein.

Section 3. Termination

If the value of the assets of any trust created hereunder shall at any time be less than Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), the trustees may, in the trustees' sole discretion, distribute all of the assets remaining in the trust estate to the income beneficiary and the trust shall terminate.

Section 4. Spendthrift Provision

No beneficiary of the trust provided for herein shall have any right or power to sell, assign, convey mortgage, pledge, anticipate or hypothecate or otherwise dispose of any right, title or interest which the beneficiary may acquire in and to the income or principal of the trust estate held for the beneficiary under and by virtue of this trust until the same has actually been paid over, delivered and conveyed to the beneficiary by the trustees; nor shall the income or principal of this trust estate or any part thereof or any interest of any beneficiary hereunder be liable for or to any extent subject to any debts of any kind or nature incurred or contracted by any beneficiary, either before or after my death.

Section 5. Distributions to Minors and Other Persons Under Legal Disability

Whenever any property, whether principal or income, vests pursuant to the provisions of this Will in any person who is under any legal disability, including minority, or who, in the opinion of the trustees or personal representatives, as the case may be, shall be unable to use such property in his own best interest because of his mental or physical infirmity, the property may be distributed to or held by the trustees, with the income and principal therefrom used and applied for the benefit of such person, or such property may be distributed for the benefit of such person in any one or more of the ways specified in this Section. The receipt of the distributee of any property made pursuant to this Section shall be a full release of the trustees or personal representatives from any further claim or liability therefore. Such distribution may be made as follows:

1. Directly to such person;

2. To the court-appointed guardian of such person;

3. To any custodian for such person acting under the Missouri Transfers to Minors Law, the Missouri Personal Custodian Law or any similar law of the applicable jurisdiction, to be held and used for such person;

4. To any adult relative of such person who is caring for the person and agrees to use the amount received by him or her for the benefit of such person; or

5. Directly to any other individual or corporation as a payment for the benefit and account of such person.

Upon the termination of any such legal disability or when, in the opinion of the trustees, such person shall be able to use all or any portion of such property in his own best interest, all or any portion of such property which has not been distributed to or for the benefit of such person may, in the trustees' sole discretion, be distributed to him, outright and free from trust.

Section 6. Definition of the Term "Education"

The term "education" when used herein shall be construed to include not only a course of instruction in elementary and secondary schools and a course leading to a degree at any recognized college or university, but also courses in graduate schools and courses of instruction in training institutions such as secretarial schools, trade schools, art schools, dramatic schools and the like. Permissible expenditures for the purpose of education shall include the living expenses and travel expenses of those persons who are actively engaged in obtaining their educations, as well as all tuition, fees, and the costs of books, supplies and other equipment directly related to their courses of instruction.

ARTICLE VIII

POWERS AND DUTIES OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES IN ADMINISTERING PROBATE ESTATE

I give to my personal representative in the administration of my probate estate all of the powers, duties and immunities which I have herein given to the trustees under the provisions of this Will. In addition, my personal representative shall have the power and authority to determine whether any real or personal property in my estate which is not specifically bequeathed or devised shall be sold during the administration of my estate or whether it shall pass as a part of the residue of my estate in kind. If my personal representative determines to sell any of such property, my personal representative shall have the power to enter into such sale without the necessity of first obtaining a court order therefore. The net proceeds of any such sale, after payment of reasonable expenses and commissions, shall be treated as general assets of my estate.

ARTICLE IX

APPOINTMENT OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

I name, constitute and appoint my wife, CARLA J. HOLLINS, as personal representative to administer my estate. If my wife shall not survive me or shall not serve or shall cease to serve as personal representative for any reason, DONALD BOATRIGHT shall act as personal representative. If both CARLA J. HOLLINS and DONALD BOATRIGHT shall not act for any reason, S. DAVID HOLLINS, JR. shall act as personal representative.

None of the above named individuals shall be required to furnish a bond for the faithful performance of his or her duties as personal representative.

If the law of the State where my estate is administered permits independent administration, I authorize my personal representative to administer my estate independently without adjudication, order or direction of any court. The decision to administer my estate independently or under court supervision shall rest solely with my personal representative.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name to this, my Last Will and Testament, this 21st day of OCTOBER, 2012.
