FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came to be heard on May 26, 2015 before the Honorable Philip E. Smith, Judge for the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the Plaintiff/Wife's Complaint for Divorce, testimony of the Plaintiff/Wife and witnesses Nhan Le and Nhung Hoang, and the entire record, from all of which this Court makes the following findings:

1. The Complaint for Divorce was filed on February 6, 2015.

2. The Husband was personally served on February 9, 2015.

3. The Husband failed to participate in this cause of action and a Default Judgment was granted in favor of the Wife and against the Husband on March 27, 2015.

4. The parties have been living separate and apart within the marital residence for the past five (5) years. The Husband has not participated with the children or the marriage, thereby forcing the Wife to do everything to maintain the marital home and estate and all of the care and support of the parties children. The Court finds that marriage is a partnership and the Husband's failure to participate in the marriage is inappropriate marital conduct. Therefore the Court finds that the Husband has been guilty of inappropriate marital conduct pursuant to Tenn.

money from the Wife's parents and the marital residence should be awarded to the Wife, free and clear of any claim or interest of the Husband. The Wife will be the primary residential parent of the parties children and will maintain a consistent and stable home for the children. There is no encumbrance on the marital residence. The Wife would propose that the Husband be Ordered to vacate the marital residence on or before June 1, 2015 and that he be ordered to leave all keys and access devices with the Wife when he vacates.

DEBTS: The Wife would show that the parties have incurred marital debt. Specifically, the Wife would show that the Husband borrowed money from some people in Vietnam and the Husband owes approximately $96,000.00 unsecured debt to various parties in Vietnam. The Wife would show that the Husband should be solely responsible for this debt and that he should indemnify and hold the Wife harmless thereon.

The Wife would show that the Husband has an interest in a retirement/pension account, believed to be a 401(k) as a result of his employment at United Cabinet. The Wife would show that, although she maintains a marital interest in this account, the Husband's retirement account should be awarded solely to him.

However, the Wife would show that if the Court adopts her proposed division of assets and liabilities and her proposed permanent parenting plan and child support worksheet, that she will not pursue a claim for additional alimony, although she may prove entitled to an award of alimony.

CUSTODY OF MINOR CHILDREN REQUESTED: The Wife requests that she be named the Primary Residential Parent of the parties two minor children, Nancy Tuyet Hoang (10/21/2000) and Jason Ngoc Hoang (05/27/2002) and that the Court adopt her proposed Permanent Parenting Plan and make it an Order of the Court.

ATTORNEY'S FEES: The Wife would request that this Court award her a judgment against the Husband for her reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in this cause of action.

COURT COSTS: The Wife would request that Court costs in this matter be assesed against the Husband.
