Exceptions to Conveyance and Warranty: The liens described in this Deed and the exceptions to conveyance warranty in the Deed of Trust.

This Deed is executed, delivered and accepted subject to all and singular ad valorem taxes for the current and all subsequent years, taxes for subsequent assessments for the current and prior years due to changes in land usage, ownership, or both, zoning ordinances and utility district assessments, if any, applicable to and enforceable against the above-described property, and all valid easements, covenants, conditions, restrictions, mineral reservations and maintenance fund liens, if any, applicable to and enforceable against the above-described property as shown by the Records of the Register of Deeds of the County in which said real property is located.

Conveyance in Lieu of Foreclosure. The Deed and the conveyance being made are executed, delivered and accepted in lieu of foreclosure and will be interpreted and construed the same as a foreclosure of the liens and as an absolute conveyance to Grantee of all right, title, and interest in and to the Property, including specifically but without limitation any equity or rights of redemption of Grantor in or to the Property.

Continuing Nature of Lien. Notwithstanding the release of Grantor from all liability for the indebtedness and obligations under the Note and Deed of Trust, the indebtedness has not been canceled or extinguished and the Property continues to be subject to the performance of the obligation under the Deed of Trust. The Deed of Trust lien is not released or relinquished in any manner, and the indebtedness, obligations, and liens will remain valid and continuous and in full force and effect, unless and until the indebtedness, obligations and liens are expressly released by written instrument executed and delivered by the holder thereof, at the holder's sole discretion.

Neither Grantor nor Grantee intend that there be, and there will never be, a merger of the Deed of Trust lien with the fee simple title or any other interest of Grantee in the Property by virtue of this conveyance, and the parties expressly provide that any interest in the Deed of Trust lien and fee simple title will be and remain at all times separate and distinct to maintain the priority of the Deed of Trust. Provided: Grantor and Grantee expressly agree that nothing in this instrument is intended to work a merger of Grantee's interest in the subject real estate (by virtue of said mortgage) and the fee interest therein. Grantee retains its status as mortgagee, and said mortgage is not extinguished as a lien in rem only with the regard to junior lienholders, if any.

Release by Grantor.
