Last Will and Testament

OF

CECIL L. HITT

I, CECIL L. HITT, of Union Hill Road, Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare the following to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

ITEM I: I direct that all of my just debts, including the expenses of my last illness, funeral expenses, expenses of the administration of my estate, and all inheritance taxes for which my estate or any beneficiary hereunder may be liable, be paid by my Executrix from any funds available in my estate.

ITEM II: I nominate and appoint my wife, Ardath A. Hitt, as Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament. Should she not be able or willing to serve in such capacity, or having qualified and commenced to serve, is unable to continue for any reason, I nominate and appoint my son, Mark Elliott Hitt, as successor executor and direct that he be allowed to serve as such without bond.

ITEM III: I give, devise and bequeath all of my property of every kind and nature and wheresoever situated to my wife, Ardath A. Hitt, absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM IV: Should my said wife, Ardath A. Hitt, predecease me, or should we both die as a result of a common accident or calamity, then and in that event, I give, devise and bequeath all of my said property and estate to our children, Mark Elliott Hitt and Charles Edward Hitt in equal shares, absolutely and in fee simple. Should either of our children have then predeceased me, leaving a child or children surviving, such child or children of such deceased child will take his share, to be divided to them equally if there are more than one child. But in the event that either of our children shall have predeceased me without leaving surviving issue, the share of such deceased child will pass to the other surviving child or his issue per stirpes, should he also be deceased.

ITEM V: If my said wife does not survive me, and at my death, our youngest child has not reached twenty-one (21) years of age, I designate, constitute and appoint our older son, Mark Elliott Hitt, as testamentary trustee of the share of the property and funds passing to our younger son, Charles Edward Hitt, to be held and preserved by said trustee for the benefit of our said younger son until he reaches twenty-one (21) years of age. In dealing with such properties and funds of our younger son, said testamentary trustee is authorized and directed to maintain the properties comprising such share, to contract for and collect income therefrom, and after deducting any expenses incident to the management of the property, and the payment of taxes and maintenance of insurance thereon, to pay the net income to our younger son for his use and benefit. During the pendency of this trust, should our younger son require emergency care, or for any reason require extraordinary assistance, the testamentary trustee is authorized in his sole discretion to utilize any portion of the share of his younger brother to meet such needs. And having done so, the testamentary trustee will be entitled to credit on any accounting, for such use of said properties and funds. To this end, he is empowered to sell and convey any properties belonging to his younger brother and to use the proceeds for his benefit. The only requirement of the testamentary trustee is that he exercise such care in the management of his brother's share of the properties as a prudent man would exercise in the management of his own property. When our younger son reaches twenty-one (21) years of age, if he is not otherwise incapacitated, the testamentary trust will terminate and his share of properties and funds will be paid over and delivered to him. Said trustee will not be required to execute bond as trustee.

ITEM VI: Should my said wife survive me, I authorize my Executrix to claim for my estate the full benefit of the marital deduction allowed by the Federal Estate Tax Law with respect to the Federal Estate tax, and the full benefit of the marital deduction allowed by the State Inheritance Law with respect to the State Inheritance tax. Should my said wife and I die in a common accident or disaster so that it is not possible to determine which of us survived the other, for the purposes of this my Last Will and Testament, it will be conclusively presumed that she survived me.

ITEM VII: Should my wife predecease me, and our children likewise predecease me, without child or children surviving them, I direct that the funds and properties of my estate be divided into equal parts to be distributed one-half to my heirs at law and one-half to the heirs at law of my said wife, Ardath A. Hitt, to be determined under the laws of the State of Tennessee in effect on the date of my death.

IN WITNESSETH WHEREOF, I have executed this my Last Will and Testament consisting of THREE (3) pages which I have signed on this 6th day of October, 1978.
