LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

DONNA JUANITA HARRIS

FILED

APR 08 2015

RICHARD R. ROOKER, Clerk
By: _____ Deputy

ARTICLE I: OVERTURE

Name, Residence, Family. I, Donna Juanita Harris, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, declare this to be my Will, and I revoke any and all wills and codicils previously made by me.

I have two (2) children. My children's names are Patricia Ann Harris and John Clark Harris. Whenever I use the term "my child", "my children", "child of mine", "children of mine", or phrases having similar meaning, I am referring to these children.

ARTICLE II: PAYMENT OF DEBTS, EXPENSES AND TAXES

Payment of Debts and Expenses. I authorize my Personal Representative to pay my debts, funeral expenses, and the expenses incurred in the administration of my estate. I specifically do not charge the proceeds of any insurance policies on my life with the payment of any of my debts, funeral expenses, or the expenses incurred in the administration of my estate. However, my Personal Representative is authorized, in its sole discretion, to apply the proceeds from any insurance policies on my life which are payable to my estate in paying these expenses.

Payment of Death Taxes. All transfer, estate, inheritance, succession and other death taxes, and any interest or penalties thereon, which shall become payable by reason of my death, shall be paid out of my residuary estate without apportionment, whether such taxes are payable with respect to property passing under my Will or outside of my Will.

ARTICLE III: SPECIAL BEQUESTS

Personal Effects. I give all of my personal and household effects, including automobiles, furniture, jewelry, clothing, and similar personal effects, together with all policies of insurance on such personal effects, to my daughter, Patricia Ann Harris, or if she is deceased, to my son, John Clark Harris. The reasonable cost of packing, shipping and storing all of such property shall be charged against my estate as an expense of administration.

Specific Bequest to Son. I give my son, John Clark Harris, if he survives me, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) plus any real estate that I own which is located in the State of West Virginia. If my son predeceases me, this bequest shall lapse.

ARTICLE IV: DISPOSITION OF RESIDUARY ESTATE

I give my entire residuary estate to my daughter, Patricia Ann Harris, or if she is deceased, to her living issue, per stirpes. If my daughter is deceased without living issue, the residuary estate shall be allocated to my son, or if he is deceased, to his living issue, per stirpes. I have intentionally omitted my son from my residuary estate, not as a reflection of my affection for my son, but rather in recognition of the greater financial needs of my daughter.

ARTICLE V: APPOINTMENT OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

Personal Representative. I appoint my daughter, Patricia Ann Harris, as the Personal Representative of my estate. If my daughter is unwilling or unable to serve, I appoint my son, John Clark Harris, to serve as alternate Personal Representative. Should it become necessary, I authorize my Personal Representative to nominate an individual or corporation which may serve as Personal Representative under Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 35-50-107(a), to serve as a Personal Representative of my estate; and should an ancillary administration of my estate be necessary, I authorize my Personal Representative to appoint an ancillary administrator. Any Personal Representative or ancillary administrator appointed by any named Personal Representative shall be vested with all of the powers granted to my fiduciaries in my Will and shall also serve without bond, unless any named Personal Representative should determine bond to be desirable.

Waiver of Bond. I hereby waive the requirement of bond for each of my named Personal Representatives and their successors, except to the extent otherwise required hereunder.

ARTICLE VI: POWERS

Authorization of Personal Representative. Without diminishing or restricting the powers vested by law or elsewhere in my Will, and subject to all of the provisions of my Will, I authorize and empower my Personal Representative, without having to obtain any judicial authorization or approval, and in the application of its best judgment and discretion on behalf of the beneficiaries of my Will, to exercise all or any of the following powers:

Copy

1. Incorporation of State Law Powers. Pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 35-50-109, I authorize my Personal Representative to exercise the powers specifically enumerated in Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 35-50-110, including the introductory paragraph thereof and all subparagraphs thereof to the extent applicable. These powers, as set out in this statute on the date of the execution of my Will, are granted and incorporated herein by reference, notwithstanding that this statute may have been amended or repealed at the time of my death.

2. Power to Allocate Assets. My Personal Representative shall, in its sole discretion, make reasonable allocations of the property comprising my estate without being required to apportion each individual asset in satisfying any bequest made herein, or in allocating the residue of my estate as herein directed.

3. Distributions to Incapacitated Beneficiaries. If, pursuant to my Will, any property shall be payable outright to a person who is a minor, or is under any other legal, mental, or physical disability (hereinafter referred to as an "incapacitated beneficiary"), my Personal Representative shall have the power, exercisable in its absolute discretion and without court approval, either to defer payment of such property, or to pay such property, in whole or in part, to an incapacitated beneficiary, to a parent, guardian, or conservator of an incapacitated beneficiary, to a custodian for an incapacitated beneficiary under a Transfers or Gifts to Minors Act, or to any adult with whom an incapacitated beneficiary may reside. The recipient of such property shall not be required to furnish bond or file any accountings with respect to such property, unless my Personal Representative should direct otherwise; and the receipt of such property by the recipient shall discharge my Personal Representative from any further responsibility or liability with respect to such property. If my Personal Representative shall elect to defer payment of any such property, I authorize my Personal Representative to hold such property as a trustee for the benefit of an incapacitated beneficiary, with all the powers given to my Personal Representative in my Will and by law, and to pay or apply so much, all, or none of the income and principal of such property for the benefit of an incapacitated beneficiary as my Personal Representative shall deem advisable for his or her support in reasonable comfort, and his or her health, maintenance and education, whether public, private, or special. When an incapacitated beneficiary attains capacity, whether legal, mental, or physical, the balance of such property then remaining shall be distributed to him or her. If an incapacitated beneficiary should die before attaining capacity, the balance of such property remaining at his or her death shall be distributed to his or her estate.

4. Tax Elections and Consents. In addition to all other powers, and notwithstanding any other provision of my Will, my Personal Representative shall have full discretion to claim the deductions allowable to my estate for debts, expenses, taxes, claims and losses, either for federal income tax or estate tax purposes, in such manner as my Personal Representative shall deem advisable, in order to minimize the total state and federal income and death taxes payable by my estate or as a result of my death. Such allocation may be made regardless of whether its effect is to favor one beneficiary or class of beneficiaries over another, or whether such expenses shall be charged to income or principal for distribution purposes. In addition, my Personal Representative shall also be authorized, in its sole and absolute discretion, to consent to or oppose, as a shareholder, any election by any corporation pursuant to the provisions of any federal or state tax statutes or regulations.

5. Compensation. Any individual Personal Representative shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation for services rendered under the terms of my Will.

Copy

6. Employment of Agents. My Personal Representative shall be specifically authorized, in its sole discretion, to employ and to pay the compensation of such agents, accountants, custodians, experts and counsel, legal, investment, or otherwise, as my Personal Representative shall deem advisable, and to delegate discretionary powers to, and rely upon information furnished by, such individuals or entities. Compensation paid for such services, as well as other administrative expenses and compensation paid to my Personal Representative for its services, shall be paid out of estate assets in such manner as my Personal Representative shall deem advisable.

7. Waiver of Inventory and Accounting. Pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, Sections 30-2-301 and 30-2-601, I excuse the requirements for making and filing an inventory and court accountings of my probate estate. However, my Personal Representative shall compile and furnish an inventory and an accounting of my estate to any residuary beneficiary under my Will who may so request.

8. Administration of Real Property by Personal Representative. All real property in which I may have any interest at the time of my death shall be deemed to be part of my probate estate for purposes of administering my estate, and as such, shall be subject to the control of my Personal Representative during the administration of my estate. For purposes of Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 31-2-103, such real property shall be deemed to be personal property, subject to sale by my Personal Representative, acting without joinder of any beneficiary, for the purpose of facilitating the distribution of my estate among the beneficiaries of my Will, as well as for the purpose of paying taxes, administrative expenses, and any other expenses or debts of my estate, without first being required to exhaust all other personal property of my estate.

Copy

9. Rights and Duties of Successor Personal Representative and Apportionment of Responsibilities. Any successor Personal Representative, whether individual or corporate, shall succeed to all of the rights and duties of its predecessor, but shall not be accountable for any of the acts or transactions of such predecessor. Further, if there is more than one Personal Representative, such Personal Representatives may apportion their respective responsibilities among themselves in any manner they deem advisable.

ARTICLE VII: MEANING OF TERMS

Throughout my Will, any reference to gender shall be deemed to include the masculine, feminine, and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa. Whenever the following words or phrases are used in my Will, they shall have the meanings set forth below, unless otherwise indicated:

(a) "Child," "children," "grandchildren," "issue," or words of similar meaning used in my Will are intended to include adopted as well as natural born persons.

(b) "Code" as used in my Will shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, unless otherwise indicated.

(c) My "residuary estate" shall refer to all property of every kind which I may own or have an interest in at the time of my death, real, personal, or mixed and wherever situated, as well as the proceeds of any policies of insurance on my life which may be payable to my estate, after taking into account any bequests under Article III hereof, and as reduced by my debts, funeral expenses, administration expenses, taxes chargeable against my residuary estate, and any other charges against the principal of my estate.
