In error

I Doris A. Turner declares this is my last will and testimony, hereby revoking all wills and testimony or codialis to wills made by me.

I name and appoint Pamela E Appleton, daughter and Wayne S. Bryant, son, as Co-Executors of the last will and testimony and request that they not required to make bond.

I specifically direct that they not be required to file an inventory of my possession with the court. This also terminates Bob Spann attorney as my attorney and any previous arranges that may have been made by him or myself.

I further direct my Co-Executors to pay all estate, inheritance and death taxes that shall be imposed.

All of my estate is to be divided equally between the two living children.

In case one of my Co-Executors should die before me their inheritance should go to their children equally.

If my two children can not agree with what should be done with the properties then they are to be sold and proceeds split equally.

I have initialed and dated for identification purposes all pages of this .my Last Will, and have executed the entire instrument by signing this page on the 7th day of August, 2009 at Nashville TN. All governing laws shall be interrupted in accordance with the laws of the State of Tennessee.
