Last Will and Testament of

DORA VELMA HILL

I, Dora Velma Hill, now residing in Nashville, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish, and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

FIRST: I desire and direct that all my taxes and just debts, excepting mortgage notes secured by mortgages upon real estate, if any, be first paid out of any funds coming into the hands of my Executrix.

SECOND: In the event I am survived by my husband, Guy E. Hill, I give, devise, and bequeath unto him all the property of which I may die seized and possessed, be the same real, personal, or mixed, and wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this my Last Will and Testament.

THIRD: In the event my husband, Guy E. Hill, does not survive me, then and in that event, I give, devise, and bequeath to our daughter, Janice Cox, all the property of which I may die seized and possessed, be the same real, personal, or mixed and wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this my Last Will and Testament.

FOURTH: I hereby nominate and appoint as the Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament my daughter, Janice Cox, and excuse her from making bond.

In the administration of my estate my Executrix is authorized to sell any or all of my property, either real or personal, either with or without advertisement, and at either public or private sale, and upon such terms, cash or credit, as my Executrix deems best.
