Last Will and Testament of Sarah Howell Graves

I, Sarah Howell Graves, of Nashville, Tennessee being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

Item I: I direct that my Executrix pay all of my funeral expenses and just obligations as soon as is reasonably possible, using first for this purpose any money that I may have on deposit in any bank or banks.

Item II I devise and bequeath unto my beloved daughters, Ginger Graves Layton and Gwendolyn Graves Feinstein, all of my property, real, personal and mixed, wherever located.

Item III I appoint my daughters, Ginger Graves Layton and Gwendolyn Graves Feinstein, Executrix of my estate and direct that no bond be required of them.

Item IV Should my daughters predecease me, or should we die at the same time, I appoint my cousin Joseph Don Lambert, Executor of my estate, and I request that such Executor, be permitted to serve without giving bond.

Page two.

Item V

Should my daughters die at the same time, I devise and bequeath all my property to my mother and father (yes) ~~Lucy Duggan Hewett and William Elwood~~ (yes) Howell jointly and appoint Joseph Don Lambert as Executor of my estate, and I request that such Executor ~~be~~ be permitted to serve without giving bond.

I signed my name hereto on this the Seven Day of April, 1977
