FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came to be heard on the 12th day of July, 2016, before the Honorable Phillip Robinson, Judge for the Third Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, for a final hearing. The Court, after hearing statements of counsel, testimony of the Plaintiff, Deborah Reid-Jones, and reviewing the certified copy of Mr. Jones' convictions on Counts 35 and 37 of Case No: 2013-C-2571, wherein Mr. Jones pled guilty to Count 35 for possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance – Hydromorphone 5 to 49 grams, which is a Class B felony, and received a sentence of 8 years to serve in the Tennessee Department of Corrections, and in Count 37, Mr. Jones also pled guilty to possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance – Hydromorphone 5 to 49 grams, which is a Class B felony, and received a sentence of 8 years in the Tennessee Department of Corrections on each count. The Court finds that the Wife, Deborah Reid-Jones, is entitled to a divorce based upon Bobby Len Jones' conviction for a felony and sentence for confinement in the penitentiary pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-4-101(6), and that the Wife is also entitled to a divorce on the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct. The Court further finds that the property located at 3108 Doak Avenue, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, was marital property with a value of approximately $250,000.00 and a debt against the property in the approximate amount of $79,000.00, leaving $171,000.00 in equity. The Court further finds that almost all of the parties' furniture and furnishings were acquired by the Wife prior to the parties' marriage and that they are the separate property of the Wife. The Court further finds that the Wife purchased a 2005 Chrysler 300 during the marriage for which she made all the payments and is hereby awarded her vehicle. The Court further finds that the Wife had a 401K with approximately $20,000.00 in retirement benefits. The Court finds that the Husband did not make contributions to the marital estate. The Court also finds that the 401K is a marital asset, but because the Husband did not contribute to the parties' household income and debts, that the Wife was not able to save as much as she could have and that she should receive all of her 401K benefits. The Court further finds that the Husband is entitled to a 20% interest in the real property located at 3108 Doak Avenue that has approximately $171,000.00 in equity and that the Wife is entitled to 80% of the real property, which results in the Husband being awarded $34,200.00 of the equity in the real property and the remaining $136,800.00 is awarded to the Wife. The Court further finds that the Husband's 20% interest in the real property is hereby awarded to the Wife as in solido alimony because she is planning on retiring in the very near future and has been unable to contribute as much as necessary for retirement due to the Husband's lack of contribution to the marital estate. The Court further finds that the Wife should receive her entire 401K as alimony in solido in light of her planned retirement. The Court further finds that the parties have no joint debts and that each party is responsible for the debts in their own name. The Court further finds that the Wife is awarded the contents of the home and the Wife is restored to her maiden name of Deborah Jean Reid. The Court further finds that the costs of this cause are taxed to the Husband, Bobby Len Jones, for which execution may issue if necessary.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the Wife, Deborah Reid-Jones, is entitled to a divorce based upon Bobby Len Jones' conviction for a felony and sentence for confinement in the penitentiary pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-4-101(6), and that the Wife is also entitled to a divorce on the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct.
