Last Will and Testament of

CHARLES H. DREHER

CAROLYN M. DREHER

We, Charles H. Dreher and Carolyn M. Dreher, husband and wife, of Clare, Michigan, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by either of us made.

FIRST: It is our Will that all of our just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of our estate as soon after our decease as may be convenient.

SECOND: We give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue, and remainder of our estate of whatever location or description of which we, or either of us, die possessed, or over which we or either of us shall have power of disposition or any interest whatsoever, each unto the other; meaning thereby that the survivor of us shall be the absolute owner of all that either of us possess.

THIRD: Upon the death of the survivor of us, or in the event that we should die as a result of a common disaster, then and in that event, we give, devise, and bequeath all the rest, residue, and remainder of our estate, of whatever nature, real, personal and/or mixed to be divided in equal shares between our children, namely: Valle R. Harrell and Jonathan M. Dreher.

In the event either of our said children should predecease us, then their share shall go to the heirs of their body. If either of our said children should die without leaving heirs of their body, then and in that event, their share shall go to the remaining beneficiary.

FOURTH: It is mutually and expressly agreed that this Will is not to be construed as an irrevocable Will, but that it is a revocable Will which may be revoked by either party at any time and it is mutually and expressly agreed that this Will or any provision of this Will may be changed by the testator or testators or survivor as they or each wish.

FIFTH: We nominate Valle R. Harrell as our personal representative. If she fails to qualify or ceases to act, we nominate Jonathan M. Dreher as our personal representative. No personal representative or ancillary fiduciary shall give bond unless required by law or court rule, in which event no surety shall be required. We confirm that our personal representative has all the powers set forth in Section 334 of the Revised Probate Code, being Public Act 642 of Michigan, 1978, which we incorporate in our Will as the said Code exists on the date of our Will, except as other provisions of our Will specifically provide to the contrary. In administering our estate, our personal representative may exercise such powers and the following powers:

To sell any of the property in our estate, real or personal, for cash or on such other terms as may seem advisable; to borrow money and to make such pledges and mortgages in connection therewith as may be reasonably necessary; to hold estate assets in the form of cash free from any liability for failure to convert such cash into productive investments, to make distributions under this our Will either in cash or in kind at fair value; to settle or compromise all claims in favor of or against our estate; to retain any investments received by it as part of our estate or to sell the same and reinvest the proceeds, not being confined to those investments authorized by law for the investment of funds held by fiduciary.

SIXTH: We hereby direct that our Personal Representative hereinbefore named shall be authorized to make distribution under this our Last Will and Testament without regard to the potential tax liability to the beneficiary thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF: We have hereunto set our hands and seals this 28th day of June, 1979, in the City of Clare, Michigan.
