My personal representative shall have the power to perform all acts reasonably necessary to administer my estate, as well as any powers set forth in the statutes in the State of Missouri relating to the powers of fiduciaries.

Article Four

Disposition of My Property

Section 1. Distribution of My Tangible Personal Property

I give and bequeath unto my spouse, if my spouse shall survive me, all my tangible personal property, including all my jewelry, books, pictures, clothing, all articles of household or personal use and adornment, household furnishings, furniture and effects, which I may own at my death. If my said spouse shall not survive me, and if a list prepared, dated, and signed by me prior to my death is found at my death which disposes of part or all of said property, those persons designated in such list shall be entitled to receive the property so listed. If a list is not found at my death, or to the extent that said property is not validly or completely disposed of by a list, then all of said property shall pass according to the terms set out in Sections 2 and 3 of this Article Four of my Will.

Section 2. Distribution to My Revocable Living Trust

I give all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of whatever nature and kind and wherever located to my revocable living trust of which I am a Trustor, known as:

> Stephen H. Briley and Judy B. Briley, Trustees, or their successors in trust, under the Stephen H. Briley Living Trust, dated March 24, 1997, and any amendments thereto.

Section 3. Alternate Disposition

If my revocable living trust is not in effect for any reason, I give all the rest, residue and remainder of my property to my Personal Representative under this will, as Trustee, who shall hold, administer, and distribute my property as a testamentary trust the provisions of which are identical to those of my revocable living trust on the date of execution of my will.

Article Five of the decedent, or by reason of the decedent's death, including penalties and interest, but excluding the following:

a. Any addition to the federal estate tax for any "excess retirement accumulation" under Internal Revenue Code Section 4980A.

b. Any additional tax that may be assessed under Internal Revenue Code Section 2032A.

c. Any federal or state tax imposed on a generation-skipping transfer, as that term is defined in the federal tax laws, unless the applicable tax statutes provide that the generation-skipping transfer tax is payable directly out of the assets of my gross estate.

Section 2. Payment of Death Taxes

Pursuant to the terms of my revocable living trust, all death taxes, whether or not attributable to property inventoried in my probate estate, shall be paid by the Trustee from that trust. However, if that trust does not exist at the time of my death, or if the assets of that trust are insufficient to pay the death taxes in full, I direct my personal representative to pay any death taxes that cannot be paid by the trustee from the assets of my probate estate by prorating and apportioning those taxes among the beneficiaries of this will.

Notwithstanding any other provision in my trust, all death taxes incurred by reason of assets transferred outside of my trust or probate estate shall be assessed against those persons receiving such property.

Article Six

General Provisions

Section 1. No Contest Clause

If any person or entity, other than me, singularly, or in conjunction with any other person or entity, directly or indirectly, contests in any court the validity of this will, including any codicils thereto, then the right of that person or entity to take any interest in my estate shall cease, and that person or entity shall be deemed to have predeceased me.
