FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came to be heard on the 7th day of August, 2018, before the Honorable Phillip Robinson, Judge of the Third Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the Complaint for Divorce filed on December 15, 2016, by the Plaintiff, Chandra Stevenson Williams ("Wife"), against the Defendant, Reginald Cardell Williams ("Husband"). At Judicial Settlement Conference ("JSC"), the parties entered an Agreed Order stipulating to grounds for divorce and the fair market value of the marital residence. Subsequent to the JSC, the parties entered a Marital Dissolution Agreement ("MDA") on July 27, 2018. Pursuant to the terms of the MDA, Wife initially proceeded to obtain a divorce based on irreconcilable differences. However, during the hearing, Husband repudiated the MDA upon denying that it fairly and equitably divided the parties' assets and debts. As such, the case was placed on the contested docket for trial.

At the outset of trial, the Court questioned the parties as to the terms of the Agreed Order entered at the JSC. The parties each acknowledged and ratified the terms of the Agreed Order stipulating to grounds for divorce and the fair market value of the marital residence, which were accepted and made an Order of the Court. The Court then advised as to the remaining issues left for adjudication. During a short recess, the parties made a modification to the MDA. With the modification, each party testified that the agreement was fair and equitable. Further, each party asked the Court to approve the agreement and to incorporate same into a Final Decree.

The Court accepted the modified MDA as a Property Settlement Agreement. Based on submission to the Court of a duly executed written and notarized Property Settlement Agreement, testimony of the parties wherein each acknowledged and ratified the terms of the agreement and the entire record herein, the Court affirmatively finds that the Property Settlement Agreement provides for a fair and equitable settlement of any and all property rights between the parties. Further, the Court finds the 60-day waiting period has elapsed and that all other statutory requirements have been waived or satisfied by the parties.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the parties are hereby declared divorced based on the stipulated grounds of inappropriate marital conduct pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-4-129(b) dissolving the bonds of matrimony that have heretofore subsisted between the parties and that the parties are restored to all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

IT IS, FURTHER, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Property Settlement Agreement, heretofore executed by the parties, is approved by the Court, made an Order of the Court and incorporated into this Final Decree by copying verbatim as follows:

Husband agrees to remain as a responsible party on the note. Wife shall be responsible for the note and any other indebtedness associated with the real property including without limitation all property taxes, insurance expenses, maintenance and upkeep expenses and any other expenses associated with home ownership. Wife agrees she will indemnify and hold Husband harmless from any default or liability associated with said property. The parties agree each shall be awarded any retirement, pension, 401(k), IRA, SEP or any other retirement and/or pension plans of any kind or nature held in their individual names free and clear of any interest the other may have therein. 11. DEBTS:

With the exception of the mortgage referenced in paragraph 5, the parties agree they do not have any additional joint debt. Further, the parties agree that neither shall contract any indebtedness on the credit of the other from and after the date of the execution of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, the parties agree they shall be solely and separately responsible for paying all debts heretofore contracted for or incurred by them individually and further agree to hold the other party harmless and indemnify them from all liability thereon.

12. ALIMONY:

Each party represents that they are in good health and are self-supporting, and that their resources and income are sufficient to provide for their own property maintenance and support now and in the future in accordance with the standard of living they now enjoy. Each of the parties hereby declares that neither desires nor requires any maintenance or support from the other party. Each party hereby waives any claim in which they may have against the other for alimony, maintenance or support, and agrees that their respective duties to support and maintain the other are extinguished in consideration of the provisions of this Agreement. Each party recognizes that this waiver includes rights they otherwise might have or acquire under Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-5-101 et seq., any amendment thereof or any successor statute. Neither party under any circumstance, ordinary or extraordinary, shall hereafter seek or require from the other any alimony, maintenance, support or similar payment.

13. ATTORNEY'S FEES:

Wife has been represented in this matter by Shannon L. Crutcher. The parties agree said attorney has made no representations to Husband concerning this Agreement. Husband has been given the opportunity to obtain independent legal advice and is NOT relying upon the advice or services of Wife or her attorney. Each party will be responsible for paying their own attorney's fees.

14. COURT COSTS:

The parties agree any outstanding, unpaid court costs in this matter shall be assessed equally to the parties, for which execution shall issue, if necessary.

15. INCOME TAX RETURNS:

The parties shall file separately their Federal Income Tax Returns for 2018 and all subsequent years. If, in connection with any joint Federal Income Tax Return previously filed by the parties, there is a deficiency assessment, the amount ultimately determined to be due thereon shall be borne by the party who earned the income for which the deficiency assessment is owed and, accordingly, that party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any liability, financial or otherwise, thereon. The parties shall equally divide any tax refund they are eligible to receive relative to a previously filed joint Federal Income Tax Return.

16. FULL DISCLOSURE:

The parties agree to the best of their knowledge that there are no assets owned by them, either jointly or individually, and that they have no interest in any assets, which are not reflected by the terms of this Agreement. The parties warrant and represent that they have made full disclosure to each other of all assets in which they have an interest. Should it develop there were any undisclosed assets in which a party would have a marital interest pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-4-121, the party to whom the assets were not disclosed shall have a right to an equitable share of same or, if it is later determined that the value of an asset that would be classified as marital property pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-4-121 was intentionally or negligently misrepresented by either party, then the party to whom the misrepresentation was made shall have a right to an equitable share of the true fair market value of the asset. This claim is specifically reserved to each party and is not discharged by the remaining terms of this Agreement.

17. INDEMNIFICATION:

Neither this Agreement nor the Final Decree to which this Agreement shall be incorporated necessarily affects the ability of a creditor to proceed against a party or a party's property, even though the party is not responsible under the terms of this Agreement or the Final Decree for an account, any debt associated with an account or any debt. In fact, it may in a party's best interest to cancel, close or freeze any jointly held accounts.

However, in the event a creditor of either party makes a claim against the other party, which is upheld by a Court of competent jurisdiction, to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible, either by contract or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the party against whom such claim is made shall be entitled to recover from the responsible party the amount of any payment they make, including interest, and any expenses incurred in defending the creditor's claim, including reasonable attorney's fees.

18. RELEASE OF TORT CLAIMS:

For and in consideration of the dispositions of the parties' various properties, assets and liabilities as set forth herein, and in consideration of the execution of this Agreement by each of the parties, each party does hereby release, discharge and forever waive any tort action or claim which they may have against the other party of any kind or nature whatsoever.

19. ENFORCEMENT:

In the event there develops a conflict as to the enforcement or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement and either party has to petition the Court for enforcement, then the party at fault shall be responsible for the reasonable attorney's fees and expenses of the other in addition to the Court costs associated therewith.

20. NON-DISCHARGABILITY:

With respect to each party's responsibility for the payment of certain debts and liabilities, and his or her obligation to hold the other harmless for the payment thereof, the parties understand and agree that his or her obligation is a non-dischargeable debt under 11 U.S.C. § 523a(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, this obligation being part of a final financial support settlement for both parties. This financial obligation on the part of both parties is not a part of the property settlement. The division of property is set forth elsewhere in this Agreement.

21. FINAL SETTLEMENT:

It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement shall be introduced into proceedings in the Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, and submitted to the Court for ratification and incorporation into the Final Decree.

It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement is intended to be a final settlement of all property rights, support rights and obligations of the respective parties hereto and shall constitute a discharge from all claims arising out of their marital relationship, except as provided herein.

Each party hereby waives and relinquishes to the other all rights or claims which each may have or hereafter acquire under the law of any jurisdiction with respect to the other's property, including without limitation, dower, curtesy, statutory allowance, homestead rights, right to take against the will of the other, inheritance, descent or distribution, or to act as administrator or executor of the other's estate, except as provided by the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement applies to all property now owned by Husband and Wife, individually and jointly, or any property that either of them may acquire in the future.

The parties agree, except as otherwise provided by the terms of this Agreement, all documents heretofore executed by either party that designate the other party as a beneficiary shall be and are hereby revoked. Such documents shall include, but not be limited to, powers of attorney, beneficiary designations under insurance policies, annuities, retirement programs, employee benefit programs and bank accounts. It is the intent of the parties to this Agreement that neither party shall receive any proceeds as a beneficiary of the other party from and after execution of this Agreement unless otherwise provided by the terms of this Agreement or unless a new beneficiary designation is hereafter executed designating the other party as a beneficiary.

22. DISCOVERY:

The parties acknowledge their respective rights under the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure to participate in written and/or oral discovery as part of this divorce proceeding. However, each party waives his or her rights with regard to discovery and wishes to settle this case under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement subject to the Court's approval.

23. RIGHT TO HEARING:

The parties acknowledge that each has the right to a hearing in Court to present this Marital Dissolution Agreement for consideration and approval by the Judge, that each has stipulated to irreconcilable differences as the grounds for divorce and that each understands all of the terms of the Marital Dissolution Agreement, that each has been represented by competent counsel or has waived representation by counsel, and that each waives the right to a hearing and stipulates that the Marital Dissolution Agreement may be submitted to the Judge for consideration and approval without a hearing or with only one party present at any such hearing.

24. BINDING ON ESTATES:

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their personal representative, heirs and assigns.

25. VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT:

It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement is entered into without undue influence, fraud, coercion, or misrepresentation or for any reason not herein stated. The provisions in this Agreement and their legal effects are fully known by each of the parties, and each party acknowledges that the Agreement is fair and equitable and that it is being entered into voluntarily and with the opportunity to seek the advice of counsel.

26. ADDITIONAL INSTRUMENTS:

It is understood and agreed between the parties that as part of the consideration for the execution of this Agreement each party shall willingly execute and deliver any and all instruments necessary or required in order to implement the terms of this Agreement

27. WAIVER: Any waiver by either party of, or failure on a particular occasion to enforce, any provision of this Agreement or any right hereunder shall not be deemed a continuing waiver and shall not prevent or stop such party from thereafter enforcing such right, and the failure of either party to insist in any one or more instance upon the strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement by the other party shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment for the future of such provision, and the same shall continue in full force and effect.

28. SEVERABILITY:

In the event any provision of this Agreement shall be held invalid by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity of such individual provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement.

29. AMENDMENTS:

This Agreement may be altered, amended or canceled only by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties, and with respect to child custody, child support and spousal support issues, only with approval of the Court, and this requirement cannot be waived by oral agreement.

30. TAX EXEMPT STATUS:

This Agreement is a transfer of appreciated property between spouses in connection with a divorce and is not a sale or exchange or other disposition but is a proportional division of property by co-owners.

31. TAX ADVICE:

Both parties acknowledge that neither of them are relying upon any tax advice from their respective attorneys and that said attorneys have expressed no expertise regarding the tax ramifications or tax consequences arising out of this Agreement. Each of the parties have been advised by their attorneys to seek tax counseling regarding the consequences of this Agreement from their own accountant or tax attorney and each of the parties acknowledge they have had an opportunity to do so.
