FINAL DECREE

This cause came to be heard on the 16TH day of April 2019, before the Honorable Philip Smith, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the Complaint for Divorce filed on February 2, 2016 by Elizabeth Ann Gregal (hereinafter "the Wife"). Christopher Stevens (hereinafter "the Husband") evaded service. Wife's Motion to Publish was pending on August 30, 2016 when Husband's Answer and Counter-Complaint were filed. Wife's Answer to the Counter-Complaint was filed on October 7, 2016.

The Court makes the following findings of fact:

Mr. Stephens was duly noticed of the date set for trial of the divorce case. That Mr. Stephens was completely aware of the court date is established by his telephone call to Special Master Stephanie Williams on April 9, 2019 when he said he would not be at the Judicial Settlement Conference to be held on April 10, 2019. Mr. Stephens has failed to appear today.

Husband's Counter-Complaint for Divorce is dismissed. He failed to appear though duly noticed and thus, he failed to rebut the proffered testimony of Wife.

Upon the sworn testimony of the Wife in open Court, the statements of counsel, and the entire record herein, the Court finds that the allegations of the Wife's Complaint for Divorce are sustained by the proof; that is, that the Wife is entitled to a divorce on the ground of Inappropriate Marital Conduct. Wife is granted an absolute divorce. Wife and Husband are restored to the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

The proof showed the Husband became addicted to alcohol to the extent that the addiction affected his relationships as husband and father and that he failed to provide for his family. Although alcoholism is a disease, Husband did not treat the disease and alcohol became the center of his life causing him to miss work and lose jobs and also leaving jobs which would have paid well. Husband tried rehabilitation programs,he always relapsed and failed to support his child. After he had been in such program Husband removed funds amounting to One Hundred and Thirty-Four Thousand One Hundred Dollars ($134,100.00) from a 529 Educational Savings account which he was supposed to hold for their child causing substantial injustice. This fact is admitted in an Agreed Order previously filed in this case. His moving the funds is more than enough grounds for divorce on the ground of Inappropriate Marital Conduct.

Pursuant to T.C.A. § 36-6-106(a) the Court finds that in consideration of the factors there enumerated Wife is favored as the Primary Residential Parent and none of the factors indicate that Husband should have such a role. She has shown herself to be, by her actions in supporting and caring for her child to be appropriate to be named Primary Residential Parent. Until Husband comes into this Court by petition and proves that alcohol is longer the dominant feature of his life he will have zero days of parenting time.

Wife is to have all decision making powers and she is the legal guardian of Dominic Stephens. Husband was duly noticed of the hearing concerning his parenting rights. He failed to appear. It is clear that he has had no relationship with Dominic for several years and his failure has caused Dominic to feel such pain that he has needed counseling.

The testimony has shown that Husband's income was One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars ($120,000) annually when he was working at the positions which fit his qualifications. Husband did not appear and did not offer proof of his current income. Therefore, the Court is imputing One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) a year as Husband's income and finding that his monthly income is $8333.00. Wife's income based on her testimony is $8225.00 per month. Uncovered medical expenses shall be paid by parents in pro rata shares. Child support shall be paid by wage assignment. The Court further finds that the Wife's Parenting Plan makes adequate provisions for parenting time and is in the best interests of the minor child and should be approved, incorporated by reference, and made the Order of this Court.

The Court adopts and approves the Child Support Worksheet attached to this Final Decree and it is incorporated by reference. Child Support is set at $1011.00 per month beginning May 1, 2019. The Child Support Worksheet has been amended to reflect Wife's expense for medical insurance for the minor child of $220 per month, and is further adopted by the Court.

Wife is awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of Fifteen Thousand Dollars. ($15,000.00) for Husband's one-half share of the medical expenses Wife paid for the minor child including medical, dental, optical and counseling expenses. Wife is awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of Eight Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400.00)for pendente lite child support arrearage. These two judgments, totaling Twenty-three Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($23,400.00) are awarded in the nature of child support and are nondischargeable in bankruptcy.

Pursuant to T.C.A. § 36-4-121 setting forth the factors to consider in dividing marital property the Court finds that Husband dissipated the marital estate by removing One Hundred and Thirty-Four Thousand One Hundred Dollars ($134,100.00) from a 529 Educational Savings account in violation of the statutory injunction which he has admitted. The funds did not go to the benefit of his family. Sixty-seven Thousand and fifty Dollars ($67,050.00) are awarded Wife due to the dissipation of the assets and the remaining Sixty-seven Thousand and fifty Dollars ($67,050.00) is awarded to Wife in the division of marital property.

Wife is awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of Eleven Thousand Dollars($11,000.00) as agreed in a previous Agreed Order signed by Husband's counsel for one-half the amount Husband removed from the IRA to pay his attorneys.

Husband is awarded all amounts in his America Funds Retirement account, the Northwest Mutual One account and the Northwest Mutual Two account in the total amount of One Hundred Eighty-three Thousand One Hundred Thirty-five Dollars ($183,135.00) as presented at the trial of this case.

Wife is awarded her retirement account from Vanderbilt at Fidelity Investments and her retirement accounts at Ascent and Engility, as listed in her statement of assets free and clear of any claim of Husband.

Wife is awarded her personal property, furniture and furnishings in her possession, free and clear of any claim of Husband.

Wife is awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of Eleven Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($11,250.00) for one-half of the Twenty-two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($22,500.00) Wife paid on the jointly filed 2014 income taxes that Husband had agreed to pay but failed to pay. Wife is awarded an additional One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) representing the ultimate refund Mr. Stephens received as a result of her overpayment.

The Court is going to consider the overwhelming contributions that Wife has made to the marital estate and in equitable division of marital property awards her, as her sole and separate property the following real estate: 7409 Riverfront Drive , Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee subject to existing mortgage, insurance and taxes and holding Husband harmless thereon, Husband is, hereby, divested of all right, title and interest in 7409 Riverfront Drive , Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee .

The Court immediately invests in Wife, subject to existing mortgage, insurance and taxes and holding Husband harmless thereon, the sole ownership of this property so that she may sell it as soon as possible obligations relating to it having come due;

The Court also awards to Wife as her sole and separate property the following real estate: 5644 Someway Trail, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee subject to existing mortgage, insurance and taxes and holding Husband harmless thereon, Husband is, hereby, divested of all right, title and interest in 5644 Someway Trail Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee.

If Wife finds post divorce that there are any undisclosed funds of Husband's as of the date of the final hearing, she has the right to petition the Court for a share of those undisclosed accounts.

The Court further finds that the provisions of Tenn. Code Ann. § 56-7-2366 do not apply between the parties.

The Court further finds there is not currently an Order of Protection between the parties.

The Court further finds that the Husband shall be responsible for all Court costs.

Based on the above findings, as well as the entire record of this cause, it is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that the Wife shall be and is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Husband on the ground of Inappropriate Marital Conduct and the parties are restored to all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that Wife is awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of Fifteen Thousand Dollars. ($15,000.00) for Husband's one-half share of the medical expenses Wife paid for the minor child including medical, dental, optical and counseling expenses which is in the nature of child support and is nondischargeable in bankruptcy.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED Wife is awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of Eight Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400.00) for pendente lite child support arrearage which is in the nature of child support and is nondischargeable in bankruptcy.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that Wife is awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of Eleven Thousand Dollars($11,000.00) as previously agreed by Husband.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that Wife is awarded all of the personal property, furniture and furnishings in her possession.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that Wife is awarded her retirement account from Vanderbilt at Fidelity Investments, and her retirement accounts at Ascent and Engility, as listed in her statement of assets, free and clear of any claim of Husband.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that Husband is awarded his America Funds Retirement account, the Northwest Mutual One account and the Northwest Mutual Two account as presented at the trial of this case which have a total value of One Hundred Eighty-three Thousand One Hundred Thirty-five Dollars ($183,135.00).

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that Wife is awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of Eleven Thousand ~~Three~~ Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ~~($11,350.00)~~ $11,250.00 for one-half of the Twenty-two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($22,500.00) Wife paid on the jointly filed 2014 income taxes.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that Wife is awarded an additional One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) representing the refund Mr. Stephens received as a result of her overpayment.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that If Wife finds post divorce that there are any undisclosed funds of Husband as of the date of the final hearing, she has the right to petition the Court for a share of those undisclosed accounts.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that Wife is awarded, as her sole and separate property, subject to existing mortgage, insurance and taxes and holding Husband harmless thereon and Husband is, hereby, divested of all right, title and interest in 7409 Riverfront Drive , Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee which property more fully described as follows:

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The parent exercising parenting time shall furnish the other parent with a telephone number where the child may be reached at the days and time specified in a parenting plan or other court order or, where days and times are not specified, at reasonable times;

(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not destroy, deface, open or censor. The parent exercising parenting time shall deliver all letters, packages and other material sent to the child by the other parent as soon as received and shall not interfere with their delivery in any way, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of the child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;

(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any educational records customarily made available to parents. Upon request from one parent, the parent enrolling the child in school shall provide to the other parent as soon as available each academic year the name, address, telephone number and other contact information for the school. In the case of children who are being homeschooled, the parent providing the homeschooling shall advise the other parent of this fact along with the contact information of any sponsoring entity or other entity involved in the child's education, including access to any individual student records or grades available online. The school or homeschooling entity shall be responsible, upon request, to provide to each parent records customarily made available to parents. The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. These records include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical, health or other treatment records directly from the treating physician or healthcare provider. Upon request from one parent, the parent who has arranged for such treatment or health care shall provide to the other parent the name, address, telephone number and other contact information of the physician or healthcare provider. The keeper of the records may require a written request including a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. No person who receives the mailing address of a requesting parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate, and the opportunity to participate in or observe them. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than forty-eight (48) hours, an itinerary which shall include the planned dates of departure and return, the intended destinations and mode of travel and telephone numbers. The parent traveling with the child or children shall provide this information to the other parent so as to give that parent reasonable notice; and

(9) The right to access and participation in the child's education on the same bases that are provided to all parents including the right of access to the child during lunch and other school activities; provided, that the participation or access is legal and reasonable; however, access must not interfere with the school's day-to-day operations or with the child's educational schedule.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that the other parent may file a petition in opposition to the move within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS
