LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

BILLIE JO ADKISSON

FILED
NOV 27 2019
RICHARD R. ROOKER, Clerk
By

I, BILLIE JO ADKISSON, a resident of Madison, Davidson County, Tennessee, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, revoking all former Wills and Codicils made by me.

I am widowed and unmarried at this time. I have had one child during my life, being Richard Lynn Vantrease, who is an adult.

ARTICLE I.

FIDUCIARY

I appoint Richard Lynn Vantrease to be the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, and direct that no bond or other surety shall be required of this person in any jurisdiction.

Should an ancillary administration of my estate be necessary, I authorize my Executor to appoint an ancillary administrator. Should my Executor be an individual named above, then in making the appointment, he/she shall have the absolute and arbitrary power to determine the scope of the power and authority to be vested in the ancillary administrator, up to the full scope of powers granted to my primary Executor herein, and to require or waive bond.

ARTICLE II.

DEBTS, ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES, AND TAXES

1. Payment of Debts and Administration Expenses: My Executor, in the Executor's sole discretion, may pay my legal debts, including funeral expenses, the cost of a suitable monument, unpaid charitable pledges (whether or not they are enforceable obligations of my estate), and costs of administration of my estate, and I hereby authorize my Executor, in case of any claim made against my estate, to pay, contest, settle, or discharge the same, in the sole discretion of my Executor.

In the event any property or interest in property passing under this Will, or by operation of law, or otherwise by reason of my death shall be encumbered by a mortgage or a lien, or shall be pledged to secure any obligation (whether the property or interest in property so encumbered or pledged shall be owned by me jointly or individually), it is my intention that such indebtedness shall not be charged to or paid by my estate, but that the property or interest therein pass subject to such mortgage(s) or lien(s) unless specifically set out to the contrary herein.

2. Taxes: I direct that my Executor pay as an expense of administration, without apportionment against the share of any beneficiary, all transfer, estate, inheritance, succession and other death taxes (including the supplemental estate tax on qualified plan benefits, but including generation-skipping taxes), together with any interest or penalty thereon, payable by reason of my death, whether in respect of property passing under this Will or otherwise. Any generation-skipping tax resulting from a transfer occurring under this Will shall be charged to the property constituting the transfer in the manner provided by applicable law. Any tax attributable to property included in my estate under I. R. C. Sections 2036 (including but not limited to remainders after retained life estates) or 2041 (including but not limited to property subject to powers of appointment) shall be apportioned against and paid by the persons in possession thereof or benefited thereby, in the manner provided by law.

ARTICLE III.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF EXECUTOR

1. General Powers: I authorize my Executor (including any substitute or successor Executor) in the exercise of all reasonable discretion with respect to all property, real and personal, at any time forming part of my estate or any trust, to exercise any or all of the powers set forth in Tennessee Code Annotated §35-50-110, to the extent applicable, all of the provisions and powers of which are incorporated herein by reference as fully as if copied herein verbatim. These powers as set out in said statute on the date of the execution of this will are granted, notwithstanding that said statute may be amended hereafter or repealed at the time of my death.

2. Inventory and Accountings:

I relieve my Executor from the duty to file any inventory or accountings with any court.

3. Authority to Hire Professionals: The Executor may and shall hire attorneys, accountants, appraisers, realtors, brokers, and such other professionals or consultants as may appear in the sole discretion of the Executor to be appropriate, at the expense of the general estate.

4. Authority to Administer and Sell Real Property: The Executor shall have full authority and discretion to sell, convey, improve, lease, encumber, or in any other manner deal with and administer any real property comprising an asset of my estate, without the approval of any court, the joinder of any beneficiary, or the disclosure of the identity of any beneficiary of my estate, and specifically to execute deeds of conveyance thereto. I further specifically empower my executor to utilize any and all property constituting a part of my estate for the purpose of preserving and maintaining any real property which I may own, and which property constitutes a part of my estate.

5. Power to Allocate Assets: My fiduciary shall, in his sole discretion, make reasonable allocations of the property comprising my estate without apportioning each individual asset in order to satisfy any bequest made herein, to fund any trust created herein, or to divide any trust into separate trusts or shares.

6. Distributions to Incapacitated Beneficiaries: If, pursuant to this Will, or any trusts established herein, any property shall be payable outright to a person who is a minor, or is under any other legal, mental or physical disability (an "incapacitated beneficiary"), my fiduciary shall have the power, exercisable in his absolute discretion and without court approval, either to defer payment of such property, or to pay such property, in whole or in part, to an incapacitated beneficiary, to a custodian for an incapacitated beneficiary under a Transfers to Minors Act, or to any adult with whom an incapacitated beneficiary may reside. The recipient of such property, on behalf of an incapacitated beneficiary, shall not be required to furnish bond or file any accountings with respect to such property, unless my fiduciary should direct otherwise; and the receipt of such property by the recipient shall discharge my fiduciary from any further responsibility of liability with respect to such property. If my fiduciary shall elect to defer payment of any such property, I authorize my fiduciary to hold such property as trustees for the benefit of an incapacitated beneficiary, with all the powers given to my fiduciary in this Will and by law, and to pay or apply so much, all, or none of the income and principal of such property for the benefit of an incapacitated beneficiary as my fiduciary shall deem advisable. When an incapacitated beneficiary attains capacity, whether legal, mental, or physical, the balance of such property then remaining shall be distributed to him or her. If an incapacitated beneficiary should die before attaining capacity, the balance of such property remaining at his or her death shall be distributed to his or her estate.

7. Tax Elections and Consents: I specifically authorize my Executor to execute and file income tax returns for the year in which my death occurs and for any years prior thereto. I also authorize and empower my Executor to execute and file gift tax returns if any gift tax return is required of me for the year in which my death occurs or for any year prior thereto. My Executor shall incur no personal liability for any action taken in good faith in accordance with either of the foregoing authorizations.

I am cognizant of the fact that the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (and other applicable laws) in force at the time of my death, and applicable to my estate, may permit my Executor to elect to claim certain administration and other expenses a deductions, either in the income tax returns of my estate or in the estate tax return. It is my desire that my Executor elect to claim from time to time such expenses as deductions on the particular tax returns which, in my Executor's opinion, should result in the smallest combined taxes being paid, irrespective of whether such expenses shall be payable from income or corpus; and my Executor is directed not to make adjustments between income or principal, or between property interests passing to beneficiaries under my Will which may be substantially affected as a result of any election under this paragraph. It is my wish that such property interests as may be determined as a result of my Executor's election under this paragraph shall be the interest such beneficiary shall receive. I exonerate my Executor from all liability for any such election and direct that no beneficiary shall have any claim against my Executor or my estate by reason of the exercise of my Executor's judgment in this respect.

My Executor shall also be authorized, in my Executor's sole discretion and without court approval, to allocate any federal exemptions from the federal generation-skipping transfer tax to any property with respect to which I am the transferor for purposes of this tax, regardless of whether such property is included in my probate estate, or to exclude any such property from such allocation. In this regard, I authorize, but do not direct, my fiduciary to divide at any time any trust created under my will into separate trusts, in order that the federal generation-skipping transfer tax inclusion ratio for each such trust shall either be zero or one.

ARTICLE IV.

DISPOSITION OF ESTATE

I may choose to give and bequeath certain items of my personal and household effects to those persons designated in a separate writing that may be in existence at the time of my death, which will be written entirely in my own handwriting and signed and dated by me, and which will describe the items and the legatees with reasonable certainty. If no separate writing or list is found and properly identified by my Executor within sixty (60) days after my executor's qualification as such, it shall be presumed that no such separate writing exists, and any subsequently discovered separate writing or list shall be ignored. In the event any person named in such separate writing shall predecease me, then the bequest made to such person shall lapse and become null and void except as set out therein.

Save for items disposed of as set out in the paragraph next preceding, I give, grant, devise and bequeath my entire estate, whether real or personal; liquidated or unliquidated; vested or contingent; tangible, intangible or mixed, of every sort and kind and wherever located, to my son Richard Lynn Vantrease.

ARTICLE V.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. References: All references in this Will to the Executor or any other fiduciary are made in the singular and the male gender solely for convenience in drafting, and shall apply equally regardless of the actual gender of a fiduciary, or whether the fiduciary is the original or an alternate or successor.

2. Construction: Throughout this Will, the singular number shall be deemed to include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall be applicable to all genders, as the context may require. Paragraph headings are used for convenience only, and shall not be relied upon in any construction of this Will. This Will and all of its provisions are prepared and to be interpreted with reference to the law of Tennessee as of the date of its execution, regardless of whether it is actually probated in some other jurisdiction. If any portion of this Will is held to be void or unenforceable, the remainder shall nevertheless be carried into effect.

3. Qualified Disclaimer: ny person entitled to receive property under the terms of my Will may disclaim all or any part of the property otherwise passing to him or her by complying with the statutory requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, including §2518 thereof, and of the Tennessee Code Annotated, including §31-1-103, or other applicable provisions of law. Unless otherwise
