Last Will and Testament of Michelle A. Bowman

I, Michelle A. Bowman, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, revoke any prior wills and codicils made by me and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament ("my Will").

Article One
Specific and General Gifts

Section 1.01 Disposition of Tangible Personal Property

I give all my tangible personal property, together with any insurance policies covering the property and any claims under those policies in accordance with a "Memorandum for Distribution of Personal Property" or other similar writing directing the disposition of the property. Any writing prepared according to this provision must be dated and signed by me.

My "Memorandum for Distribution of Personal Property" or other similar writing directs how I give all my Tangible Personal Property and any insurance policies covering the property and any claims under those policies.

If I leave multiple written memoranda that conflict as to the disposition of any item of tangible personal property, the memorandum with the most recent date will control as to those items that are in conflict.

If the memorandum with the most recent date conflicts with a provision of this Will as to the specific distribution of any item of tangible personal property, the provisions of the memorandum with the most recent date control as to those items that are in conflict.

I intend that the writing qualify to distribute my tangible personal property under applicable state law.

Section 1.02 Contingent Distribution of Tangible Personal Property

Any tangible personal property not disposed of by a written memorandum, or if I choose not to leave a written memorandum, all my tangible personal property will be distributed as part of my residuary estate.

Section 1.03 Definition of Tangible Personal Property

For purposes of this Article, the term "tangible personal property" includes but is not limited to my household furnishings, appliances and fixtures, works of art, motor vehicles, pictures, collectibles, personal wearing apparel and jewelry, books, sporting goods, and hobby paraphernalia. The term does not include any tangible property that my Executor, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines to be part of any business or business interest that I own at my death.

Section 1.04 Ademption

If property to be distributed under this Article becomes part of my probate estate in any manner after my death, then the gift will not adeem simply because it was not a part of my probate estate at my death. My Executor will distribute the property as a specific gift in accordance with this Article. But if property to be distributed under this Article is not part of my probate estate at my death and does not subsequently become part of my probate estate, then the specific gift made in this Article is null and void, without any legal or binding effect.

Section 1.05 Incidental Expenses and Encumbrances

Until property distributed in accordance with this Article is delivered to the appropriate beneficiary or to the beneficiary's legal representative, my Executor will pay the reasonable expenses of securing, storing, insuring, packing, transporting, and otherwise caring for the property as an administration expense. Except as otherwise provided in my Will, my Executor will distribute property under this Article subject to all liens, security interests, and other encumbrances on the property.

Article Two
My Residuary Estate

Section 2.01 Definition of My Residuary Estate

All the remainder of my estate, including property referred to above that is not effectively disposed of, will be referred to in my Will as my "residuary estate."

Section 2.02 Disposition of My Residuary Estate

I give my residuary estate to Sandra C. Bowman. If Sandra C. Bowman is deceased, my estate shall be divided and distributed to the following individuals in the stated amounts:

Beneficiary	Share
David Nix	30%
Archie Gaddis	30%
Eric Mauldin	20%
Lisa Crowder	20%

If any of the above-named beneficiaries are deceased, then that beneficiary's share shall pass to the other beneficiaries pro rata. If there are no beneficiaries under this Article, my Executor shall distribute my residuary estate as provided in Article Three entitled "Remote Contingent Distribution."

Article Three
Remote Contingent Distribution

If, at any time after my death, there is no person or entity then qualified to receive final distribution of my estate or any part of it under the foregoing provisions of my Will, then the portion of my estate with respect to which the failure of qualified recipients has occurred shall be distributed as follows:

Beneficiary	Share
Patrice Mcluhan	50%
Lori Johnson	50%

If a person named as a beneficiary under this Article is not living at the date of distribution, that person's share shall pass to his or her descendants, per stirpes. But if a beneficiary does not have any descendants or cannot take a share for any other reason, then that beneficiary's share shall pass to the other beneficiaries pro rata. If there are no beneficiaries under this Article, then the property shall be distributed to those persons who would inherit it had I then died intestate owning the property, as determined and in the proportions provided by the laws of Tennessee then in effect.

Article Four
Designation of Executor

Section 4.01 Executor

I name Sandra C. Bowman as my Executor. If Sandra C. Bowman fails or ceases to act as my Executor, I name Eric Mauldin as my Executor.

Article Five
General Administrative Provisions

The provisions of this Article apply to my probate estate.

Section 5.01 No Bond

No Fiduciary is required to furnish any bond for the faithful performance of the Fiduciary's duties, unless required by a court of competent jurisdiction and only if the court finds that a bond is needed to protect the interests of the beneficiaries. No surety is required on any bond required by any law or rule of court, unless the court specifies that a surety is necessary.

Section 5.02 Fiduciary Compensation

An individual serving as my Fiduciary is entitled to fair and reasonable compensation for the services rendered as a fiduciary. A corporate Fiduciary is to be compensated by agreement with an individual Fiduciary or, in the absence of an individual Fiduciary or in the absence of an agreement, in accordance with the corporate Fiduciary's published schedule of fees in effect at the time the services are rendered.

My Fiduciary may charge additional fees for services it provides that are not comprised within its duties as my Fiduciary such as fees for legal services, tax return preparation and corporate finance or investment banking services.

In addition to receiving compensation, my Fiduciary may be reimbursed for reasonable costs and expenses incurred in carrying out its duties under my Will.

Section 5.03 Determination of Principal and Income

Tennessee Uniform Principal and Income Act will govern beneficiaries' rights among themselves in matters concerning principal and income. If Tennessee Uniform Principal and Income Act contains no provision concerning a particular item, my Fiduciary shall determine in a fair, equitable and practical manner what will be credited, charged, and apportioned between principal and income.

Section 5.04 Distributions to Incapacitated Persons and Persons Under Twenty-One Years of Age

If my Executor is directed to distribute any share of my probate estate to any beneficiary who is under the age of 21 years or is in the opinion of my Executor, under any form of incapacity that renders such beneficiary unable to administer distributions properly when the distribution is to be made, my Executor may, as Trustee, in my Executor's discretion, continue to hold such beneficiary's share as a separate trust until the beneficiary reaches the age of 21 or overcomes the incapacity. My Executor shall then distribute such beneficiary's trust to him or her.

While any trust is being held under this Section, my Independent Trustee may pay to the beneficiary for whom the trust is held such amounts of the net income and principal as the Trustee determines to be necessary or advisable for any purpose. If there is no Independent Trustee, my Trustee shall pay to the beneficiary for whom the trust is held such amounts of the net income and principal as the fiduciary determines to be necessary or advisable for the beneficiary's health, education, maintenance or support.

Upon the death of the beneficiary, my Trustee shall distribute any remaining property in the trust, including any accrued and undistributed income, to such persons as such beneficiary appoints by his or her Will. This general power may be exercised in favor of the beneficiary, the beneficiary's estate, the beneficiary's creditors, or the creditors of the beneficiary's estate. To the extent this general power of appointment is not exercised, on the death of the beneficiary, the trust property is to be distributed to the beneficiary's then living descendants, per stirpes, or, if none the property is to be distributed under the provisions of Article Three entitled "Remote Contingent Distribution."

Section 5.05 Maximum Term for Trusts

Notwithstanding any other provision of my Will to the contrary, unless terminated earlier under other provisions of my Will, each trust created under my Will will terminate 21 years after the last to die of the descendants of my maternal and paternal grandparents who are living at the time of my death.

At that time, the remaining trust property will vest in and be distributed to the persons entitled to receive mandatory distributions of net income of the trust and in the same proportions. If no beneficiary is entitled to mandatory distributions of net income, the remaining trust property will vest in and be distributed to the beneficiaries entitled to receive discretionary distributions of net income of the trust, in equal shares.

Section 5.06 Representative of a Beneficiary

The guardian of the person of a beneficiary may act for such beneficiary for all purposes under my Will or may receive information on behalf of such beneficiary.

Section 5.07 Ancillary Administration

In the event ancillary administration is required or desired and my domiciliary Executor is unable or unwilling to act as an ancillary fiduciary, my domiciliary Executor will have the power to designate, compensate, and remove the ancillary fiduciary. The ancillary fiduciary may be either a natural person or a corporation. My domiciliary Executor may delegate to such ancillary fiduciary such powers granted to my original Executor as my Executor may deem proper, including the right to serve without bond or surety on bond. The net proceeds of the ancillary estate are to be paid over to the domiciliary Executor.

Section 5.08 Delegation of Authority; Power of Attorney

Any Fiduciary may, by an instrument in writing, delegate to any other Fiduciary the right to exercise any power, including a discretionary power, granted the Fiduciary in my Will. During the time a delegation under this Section is in effect, the Fiduciary to whom the delegation was made may exercise the power to the same extent as if the delegating Fiduciary had personally joined in the exercise of the power. The delegating Fiduciary may revoke the delegation at any time by giving written notice to the Fiduciary to whom the power was delegated.

The Fiduciary may execute and deliver a revocable or irrevocable power of attorney appointing any individual or corporation to transact any and all business on behalf of the trust. The power of attorney may grant to the attorney-in-fact all of the rights, powers, and discretion that the Fiduciary could have exercised.

Section 5.09 Merger of Corporate Fiduciary

If any corporate fiduciary acting as my Fiduciary under my Will is merged with or transfers substantially all of its trust assets to another corporation or if a corporate fiduciary changes its name, the successor shall automatically succeed to the position of my Fiduciary as if originally named my Fiduciary. No document of acceptance of the position of my Fiduciary shall be required.

Article Six
Powers of My Fiduciaries

Section 6.01 Grant of Powers

My Fiduciaries may perform every act reasonably necessary to administer my estate and any trust established under my Will. Specifically, my Fiduciaries may exercise the following powers:

(a) Real and Personal Property

My Fiduciaries may hold, retain, invest, reinvest, and manage real or personal property—including interests in any form of business entity such as limited partnerships and limited liability companies and policies of life, health, and disability insurance—without diversification as to kind, amount, or risk of nonproductivity and without limitation by statute or rule of law.

(b) Assets, Contracts, and Distributions

My Fiduciaries may:

partition, sell, exchange, grant, convey, deliver, assign, transfer, lease, option, mortgage, pledge, or abandon assets;

borrow, loan, and enter into other contracts; and make cash, in-kind, or combination distributions at fair market value on the date of distribution, without requiring pro rata distribution of specific assets and without requiring pro rata allocation of the tax bases of the assets.

(c) Business Operations

My Fiduciaries may hold in nominee form, continue businesses, carry out agreements, and deal with themselves, other Fiduciaries, and business organizations in which my Fiduciaries may have an interest.

(d) Reserves, Powers, and Claims

My Fiduciaries may establish reserves; release powers; and abandon, settle or, contest claims.

(e) Professionals, Agents, and Assistants

My Fiduciaries may employ attorneys, accountants, custodians of the trust assets, and other agents or assistants as they determine advisable. Further, my Fiduciaries may employ these professionals, agents, and assistants to act with or without discretionary powers and compensate them and pay their expenses from income, from principal, or from both income and principal.

Section 6.02 Fiduciaries' Powers Act

In addition to all of the above powers, my Fiduciaries may, without prior authority from any court, exercise all powers conferred by my Will or by common law or by the Tennessee Uniform Fiduciaries Act or other statute of the State of Tennessee or any other jurisdiction whose law applies to my Will. My Fiduciary has absolute discretion in exercising these powers. Except as specifically limited by my Will, these powers extend to all property held by my fiduciaries until the actual distribution of the property.

Section 6.03 Alternative Distribution Methods

My Fiduciary may make any payment provided for under my Will as follows:

Directly to the beneficiary;

In any form allowed by applicable state law for gifts or transfers to minors or persons under a disability;

To the beneficiary's guardian, conservator, agent under a durable power of attorney or caregiver for the benefit of the beneficiary; or

By direct payment of the beneficiary's expenses, made in a manner consistent with the proper exercise of the fiduciary's duties hereunder. A receipt by the recipient for any such distribution fully discharges my Fiduciary.

Article Seven
Provisions for Payment of Debts, Expenses and Taxes

Section 7.01 Payment of Debts and Expenses

I direct that all my legally enforceable debts, secured and unsecured, be paid as soon as practicable after my death.

Section 7.02 Apportionment

Except as otherwise specified in this Article, I direct that all estate, inheritance and succession taxes payable by reason of my death ("death taxes") be apportioned as provided under the law of the State of Tennessee in effect at the date of my death.

Section 7.03 No Apportionment Between Current and Future Interests

No interest in income and no estate for years or for life or other temporary interest in any property or trust is to be subject to apportionment as between the temporary interest and the remainder. The tax on the temporary interest and the tax, if any, on the remainder are chargeable against the corpus of the property or trust subject to the temporary interest and remainder.

Section 7.04 Restrictions on Certain Payments from Qualified Retirement Plans

The term "designation date" means September 30 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which my death occurs, or another date as established by Treasury Regulations or other tax law authority as the final date for determining whether a trust created under my Will meets the requirements for treatment of the trust's oldest beneficiary as if the beneficiary were named individually as beneficiary of any qualified retirement plan payable to the trust.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement or state law to the contrary, no distribution may be made to benefit my estate, any charity, or any beneficiary other than an individual on or after the designation date. It is my intent that all qualified retirement benefits held by or payable to a trust created under my Will on or after the designation date be distributed to or held only for individual beneficiaries, within the meaning of Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Qualified retirement benefits may not be used or applied on or after the designation date for payment of my debts, taxes, expenses of administration or other claims against my estate or for payment of estate, inheritance or similar transfer taxes due on account of my death, other than those directly attributable to and the legal obligation of a particular qualified retirement plan. This Section does not apply to any bequest or expense that is specifically directed to be funded with qualified retirement benefits.

Section 7.05 Tax Elections

In exercising any permitted elections regarding taxes, my fiduciaries may make any decisions that they deem to be appropriate in any circumstances, and my fiduciaries are not required to make any compensatory adjustment as a consequence of any election. My Executor may also pay taxes or interest and deal with any tax refunds, interest, or credits as my Executor deems to be necessary or advisable in the interest of my estate.

Article Eight
Definitions and General Provisions

Section 8.01 Definitions

For purposes of my Will and for the purposes of any trust established under my Will, the following definitions apply:

(a) Adopted and Afterborn Persons

A legally adopted person in any generation and his or her descendants, including adopted descendants, will have the same rights and will be treated in the same manner under my Will as natural children of the adopting parent, provided the person is legally adopted before attaining the age of 18 years. A person will be deemed to be legally adopted if the adoption was legal in the jurisdiction in which it occurred at the time that it occurred.

A fetus in utero that is later born alive will be considered a person in being during the period of gestation.

(b) Descendants

The term "descendants" means any one or more person who follows in direct descent (as opposed to collateral descent) from a person, such as a person's children, grandchildren, or other descended individuals of any generation.

(c) Fiduciary

"Fiduciary" or "Fiduciaries" refer to my Executor. My "Executor" includes any executor, ancillary executor, administrator, or ancillary administrator, whether local or foreign, and whether of all or part of my estate, multiple Executors, and their successors.

Except as otherwise provided in this Last Will and Testament, a fiduciary has no liability to any party for action (or inaction) taken in good faith.

(d) Good Faith

For the purposes of this Last Will and Testament, a fiduciary has acted in good faith if (i) its action or inaction is not a result of intentional wrongdoing, (ii) the fiduciary did not make the decision with reckless indifference to the interests of the beneficiaries, and (iii) its action or inaction does not result in an improper personal pecuniary benefit to the fiduciary.

(e) Incapacity

Except as otherwise provided in my Will, a person is deemed to be incapacitated in any of the following circumstances.

(1) The Opinion of Two Licensed Physicians

An individual is deemed to be incapacitated whenever, in the opinion of two licensed physicians, the individual is unable to effectively manage his or her property or financial affairs, whether as a result of age, illness, use of prescription medications, drugs or other substances, or any other cause. If an individual whose capacity is in question refuses to provide necessary documentation or otherwise submit to examination by licensed physicians, that individual will be considered incapacitated.

An individual is deemed to be restored to capacity whenever the individual's personal or attending physician provides a written opinion that the individual is able to effectively manage his or her property and financial affairs.

(2) Court Determination

An individual is deemed to be incapacitated if a court of competent jurisdiction has declared the individual to be disabled, incompetent or legally incapacitated.

(3) Detention, Disappearance or Absence

An individual is deemed to be incapacitated whenever he or she cannot effectively manage his or her property or financial affairs due to the individual's unexplained disappearance or absence for more than 30 days, or whenever he or she is detained under duress.

An individual's disappearance, absence or detention under duress may be established by an affidavit of any fiduciary. The affidavit must describe the circumstances of an individual's detention under duress, disappearance, or absence and may be relied upon by any third party dealing in good faith with my fiduciary in reliance upon the affidavit.

An individual's disappearance, absence, or detention under duress may be established by an affidavit of my Executor.

(f) Internal Revenue Code

References to the "Internal Revenue Code" or to its provisions are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, and the corresponding Treasury Regulations, if any. References to the "Treasury Regulations," are to the Treasury Regulations under the Internal Revenue Code in effect from time to time. If a particular provision of the Internal Revenue Code is renumbered, or the Internal Revenue Code is superseded by a subsequent federal tax law, any reference will be deemed to be made to the renumbered provision or to the corresponding provision of the subsequent law, unless to do so would clearly be contrary to my intent as expressed in my Will. The same rule applies to references to the Treasury Regulations.

(g) Legal Representative

As used in my Will, the term "legal representative" means a person's guardian, conservator, personal representative, executor, administrator, Trustee, or any other person or entity personally representing a person or the person's estate.

(h) Per Stirpes

Whenever a distribution is to be made to a person's descendants per stirpes, the distribution will be divided into as many equal shares as there are then-living children of that person and deceased children of that person who left then-living descendants. Each then-living child will receive one share and the share of each deceased child will be divided among the deceased child's then-living descendants in the same manner.

(i) Permissible Distributee

"Permissible Distributee" means a beneficiary who is currently eligible to receive distributions of trust income or principal, whether the distribution is mandatory or discretionary.

(j) Primary Beneficiary

The Primary Beneficiary of a trust created under this Will is the oldest Income Beneficiary of that trust unless some other individual is specifically designated as the Primary Beneficiary of that separate trust.

(k) Qualified Beneficiary

"Qualified Beneficiary" means a beneficiary who, on the date the beneficiary's qualification is determined:

(1) is a distributee or Permissible Distributee of trust income or principal;

(2) would be a distributee or Permissible Distributee of trust income or principal if the interests of the distributees described in subparagraph (1) terminated on that date; or

(3) would be a distributee or Permissible Distributee of trust income or principal if the trust terminated on that date.

(l) Qualified Retirement Plan

The term "qualified retirement plan" means a plan qualified under Section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code, an individual retirement arrangement under Section 408 or Section 408A or a tax-sheltered annuity under Section 403. The term "qualified retirement benefits" means the amounts held in or distributed pursuant to a plan qualified under Section 401, an individual retirement arrangement under Section 408 or Section 408A, a tax-sheltered annuity under Section 403 or any other benefit subject to the distribution rules of Section 401(a)(9).

(m) Shall and May

Unless otherwise specifically provided in my Will or by the context in which used, I use the word "shall" in my Will to command, direct or require, and the word "may" to allow or permit, but not require. In the context of my Trustee, when I use the word "may" I intend that my Trustee may act in its sole and absolute discretion unless otherwise stated in my Will.

(n) Trust

The term "trust," refers to any trusts created under the terms of my Will.

(o) Trustee

The term "my Trustee" refers to any person or entity that is from time to time acting as the Trustee and includes each Trustee individually, multiple Trustees, and their successors.

(p) Other Definitions

Except as otherwise provided in my Will, terms shall be as defined in T.C.A. Titles 30, 31 and 32 as amended after the date of my Will and after my death.

Section 8.02 Contest Provision

If any person directly or indirectly attempts to contest or oppose the validity of my Will, (including any codicil to my Will), or commences, continues or prosecutes any legal proceedings to set my Will aside, then that person will forfeit his or her share, cease to have any right or interest in my estate, and will, for purposes of my Will, be deemed to have predeceased me.

Section 8.03 Survivorship Presumption

If any beneficiary is living at my death, but dies within 45 days thereafter, then the beneficiary will be deemed to have predeceased me for all purposes of my Will.

Section 8.04 General Provisions

The following general provisions and rules of construction apply to my Will:

(a) Singular and Plural; Gender

Unless the context requires otherwise, words denoting the singular may be construed as plural and words of the plural may be construed as denoting the singular. Words of one gender may be construed as denoting another gender as is appropriate within the context. The word "or" when used in a list of more than two items may function as both a conjunction and a disjunction as the context requires or permits.

(b) Headings of Articles, Sections, and Subsections

The headings of Articles, Sections, and subsections used within my Will are included solely for the convenience and reference of the reader. They have no significance in the interpretation or construction of my Will.

(c) Governing State Law

My Will shall be governed, construed and administered according to the laws of Tennessee as from time to time amended. Questions of administration of any trust established under my Will are to be determined by the laws of the situs of administration of that trust.

(d) Notices

Unless otherwise stated, whenever my Will calls for notice, the notice will be in writing and will be personally delivered with proof of delivery, or mailed postage prepaid by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of the party requiring notice. Notice will be effective on the date personally delivered or on the date of the return receipt. If a party giving notice does not receive the return receipt but has proof that he or she mailed the notice, notice will be effective on the date it would normally have been received via certified mail. If notice is required to be given to a minor or incapacitated individual, notice will be given to the parent or legal representative of the minor or incapacitated individual.

(e) Severability

The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of my Will does not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of my Will. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision is invalid, the remaining provisions of my Will are to be interpreted and construed as if any invalid provision had never been included in my Will.

I signed this will on the 1 day of May, 2019.

Michelle A. Bowman

On the date last above written, we saw Michelle A. Bowman, in our presence, sign the foregoing instrument at its end. She then declared it to be her will and requested us to act as witnesses to it. We then, in her presence and in the presence of each other, signed our names as attesting witnesses, believing her at all times herein mentioned to be of sound mind and memory and not acting under constraint of any kind.
