Grantor and Grantees both understand and agree that the property is encumbered by a mortgage, and that this transfer is subject to this first lien, and Grantees agree to be bound by this lien. In the event that the Grantees fail to make timely payments on the mortgage, Grantor retains the right to retake the title and possession of the property by means of a Quitclaim Deed. Grantees agree that if they cannot make the payments, or should the mortgage holder deem this to be a transfer that triggers the 'due on transfer' clause, Grantees will immediately Quitclaim the Deed back to Grantor.
