ENTERED
AT 10:18 AM
AUG 23 2017

2017M248

Last Will and Testament

OF

ENTERED IN WILL BOOK
38, PAGE 320
AUG 23 2017

JAMES FREEMAN

Karen Johnson Davidson County
Batch# 427174 WILL
06/26/2020 01:33:29 PM 16 pgs
Fees: $82.00 Taxes: $0.00
20200626-0069505

ARTICLE I

I, JAMES FREEMAN, a resident of Nashville, Tennessee, declare this to be my Will, and I revoke all wills and codicils previously made by me.

My wife, Edith Virginia Freeman, is herein referred to as "my spouse". We have three children. They are Deborah Leigh Freeman Duke, Wendy Lara Freeman Ellison and James Bradley Freeman, and they are herein sometimes referred to as "my children". Any reference to my children shall include any child or children of mine born or adopted after the date of this Will.

ARTICLE II

Personal Representatives. I appoint my spouse as Personal Representative of my estate. If my spouse for any reason should be unable or unwilling at any time to serve as Personal Representative, I authorize my spouse to appoint a successor Personal Representative, either individual or corporate. Should my spouse be unable or unwilling to serve and fail to appoint a successor, I appoint Third National Bank, Nashville, Tennessee, to serve as successor Personal Representative. I authorize my Personal Representative to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Co-Personal Representative of my estate if one is needed for any reason or as a matter of convenience. Should ancillary administration of my estate be necessary, I authorize my Personal Representative to appoint an ancillary administrator. Any Co-Personal Representative or ancillary administrator appointed by any named Personal Representative shall be vested with all of the powers granted to my fiduciaries in my Will. I direct that no bond be required of any Personal Representative appointed hereunder, whether original or successor, unless a named Personal Representative should determine bond to be desirable.

320

Trustees. I appoint my spouse and Third National Bank to serve as Trustees of any trust created in this Will.

ARTICLE III

All estate and inheritance taxes (including interest and penalties, if any), together with all administration expenses, payable in any jurisdiction by reason of my death (including those taxes and expenses payable with respect to assets which do not pass under this Will) shall be paid out of and charged generally against the principal of my residuary estate, without apportionment. I waive any right of reimbursement for, recovery of, or contribution toward the payment of those taxes and administration expenses, except my personal representative shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law, seek reimbursement for, recovery of, or contribution toward the payment of federal or state estate tax attributable to property in which I have a qualifying income interest for life, over which I have a power of appointment, or which is included in my gross estate by reason of Section 2036(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended ("Code"), and which tax is not otherwise paid or payable. Any generation-skipping tax resulting from a transfer occurring under this Will shall be charged to the property constituting the transfer in the manner provided by applicable law. I direct that the proceeds of any insurance on my life payable to my estate or my personal representative may be used for the payment of death taxes, administration expenses, and debts.

ARTICLE IV

A. I give all the tangible personal property that I own at my death, including any household furniture and furnishings, automobiles, books, pictures, jewelry, art objects, hobby equipment and collections, wearing apparel, and other articles of household or personal use or ornament, together with any policies of insurance thereon, to my spouse if my spouse is living on the thirtieth day after the date of my death, or, if my spouse is not then living, to such of my children as are living on the thirtieth day after the date of my death, in shares of substantially equal value, to be divided in such manner as they shall agree or, if they fail to agree upon a division within six months after the date of my death, as my personal representatives shall determine; provided, however, that if a child of mine has not reached legal age under the law of the jurisdiction in which that child is domiciled at the time set for distribution under this paragraph, then the person having legal custody of the child (i) shall represent the child in any division of such property,

(ii) may give a binding receipt for and hold the child's share for his or her benefit, (iii) may sell any part of all of the share, and (iv) shall deliver the share or sale proceeds to the child before or when the child reaches legal age, all as such person considers advisable.

B. All costs of safeguarding, insuring, packing, and storing my tangible personal property before its distribution and of delivering each item to the place of residence of the beneficiary of that item shall be deemed to be expenses of administration of my estate.

C. I may leave a memorandum (which is not to be a part of this Will) listing some of the items described in paragraph A of this Article that I wish certain persons to have and I request that my wishes as set forth in the memorandum be observed.

Should my Personal Representative not find such memorandum within 90 days of the date of my death, it shall be presumed for all purposes that I did not execute such memorandum.

D. I give to my spouse, if my spouse is living on the thirtieth day after the date of my death, all interests not otherwise effectively disposed of which I have at my death (whether as owner, lessee, shareholder, trust beneficiary, or otherwise) in property occupied at my death by my spouse and me as our principal residence, subject to any mortgage or other encumbrance which constitutes a lien thereon, together with all casualty insurance policies on or in connection with the use of such residence.

ARTICLE V

If my spouse survives me (and for purposes of this Article if the actual sequence of our deaths cannot readily be determined, my spouse shall be presumed to have survived me), I give to my spouse my residuary estate. In the event my spouse does not survive me, my residuary estate shall be distributed outright and free of trust to my children, per stirpes.

My spouse, or the duly constituted and acting attorney-in-fact for my spouse, or the personal representative of the estate of my spouse in the event of the death of my spouse subsequent to mine, shall have the right, power and authority, by written instrument filed with my Personal Representative, to disclaim a portion or all of the residuary bequest and devise set forth above; whereupon the amount so disclaimed shall be held in trust and administered in accordance with the provisions of Article VI.

ARTICLE VI

I give to the trustee designated in Article II of this Will, to be held as a separate trust named the Family Trust, any property disclaimed in Article V, which shall not include any property over which I have power of appointment.

The Family Trust shall be administered as follows:

Purpose of Trust. In establishing this trust, I give my Trustee broad discretionary powers to distribute income and principal among my spouse and my children. My purpose in granting such broad discretionary powers is to permit the Trustee to administer the trust property and make distributions substantially as I might have done if living, having in mind circumstances as they exist from time to time. My principal purposes are that my spouse be able to maintain the approximate standard of living maintained during my lifetime; that the expenses of raising dependent children be provided for, including providing or assisting in providing them with as fine an education as their efforts and abilities warrant; and that additional funds be available to my children to make their lives more comfortable and financially more secure.

A. If my spouse survives me, then commencing as of the date of my death and during the life of my spouse, the trustee shall distribute to any one or more of my spouse and my descendants from time to time living as much of the net income and principal of the Family Trust, even to the extent of exhausting principal, as the trustee (other than my spouse) in that trustee's sole discretion, believes desirable from time to time for the health, support in reasonable comfort, education and welfare of my spouse and my descendants, considering all circumstances and factors deemed pertinent by the trustee (other than my spouse); provided, however, that:

1. Any accumulated undistributed net income shall be added to the principal of the Family Trust at least annually;

2. My primary concern during the life of my spouse is for the health and support in reasonable comfort of my spouse, and the trustee (other than my spouse) need not consider the interest of any other beneficiary in making distributions to my spouse under this paragraph;

3. No distribution made under this paragraph to a descendant of mine shall be charged as an advancement to that descendant; and

4. The trustee may make unequal distributions to my descendants or may exclude one or more of them, and shall have no duty to equalize those distributions.

B. Upon the death of the last to die of my spouse and me, the remaining principal of the Family Trust shall be distributed outright and free of trust to my children, per stirpes.

ARTICLE VII

The provisions of this Article shall apply to each trust held under this instrument and paragraph H of this Article shall also apply to all other dispositions under this instrument:

A. If at any time a beneficiary eligible to receive net income or principal distributions is under legal disability, or in the opinion of the trustee is incapable of properly managing his or her financial affairs, then the trustee shall make those distributions directly to the beneficiary, to a lawful guardian of the beneficiary, or to a custodian selected by the trustee for the beneficiary under a Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or similar applicable law, or may otherwise expend the amounts to be distributed for the benefit of the beneficiary in such manner as the trustee considers advisable. As used throughout this instrument, the term "lawful guardian" shall mean successively in the order named (i) the court-appointed guardian of the estate, (ii) either parent, or (iii) the individual having personal custody (whether or not a court-appointed guardian) where no guardian of the estate has been appointed.

B. Among the circumstances and factors to be considered by the trustee in determining whether to make discretionary distributions of net income or principal to a beneficiary are the other income and assets known to the trustee to be available to that beneficiary, including funds which might be made available by enforcement of the legal obligation of any person to furnish support or education, and the advisability of supplementing such income or assets, and in the case of any descendant of mine, the character and habits of the beneficiary, the diligence, progress and aptitude of the beneficiary in acquiring an education and the ability of the beneficiary to handle money usefully and prudently and to assume the responsibilities of adult life and self-support. Any discretionary distributions of net income or principal by the trustee shall be binding on all parties and not subject to question or review by any beneficiary. As used throughout this instrument, the term "education" includes, but is not limited to, private schooling at the elementary and secondary level, college, graduate and professional education, and specialized or vocational training.

C. In all circumstances, despite any provision of law to the contrary, no power of appointment shall be subject to involuntary exercise, and no interest of any beneficiary shall be subject to anticipation, to claims for alimony or support, to voluntary transfer without the written consent of the trustee, or to involuntary transfer in any event.

D. Any trust principal or net income as to which a power of appointment is exercised shall be distributed to the appointee or appointees upon such conditions and estates, in such manner (in trust or otherwise), with such powers, in such amounts or proportions, and at such time or times (but not beyond the period permitted by any applicable rule of law relating to perpetuities) as the holder of the power may specify in the instrument exercising the power. In determining whether a testamentary power of appointment has been exercised, the trustee may rely on a Will admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the Will of the holder of the power or may assume the holder left no Will in the absence of actual knowledge of one within three months after the holder's death.

E. If at any time the trustee (other than my spouse) shall determine that the trust is of a size that is no longer economical to administer, that trustee, without further responsibility, may (but need not) distribute the trust to the beneficiary for whom the trust is named, or, in the case of the Family Trust, to my spouse, if then living, or if my spouse is not then living, per stirpes, to my then living descendants.

F. No individual trustee who may also be a beneficiary of a trust shall have the right to participate in any decision regarding discretionary distributions of income or principal for his or her benefit, or for the benefit of any other individual to the extent that such discretionary distributions are used to satisfy a legal obligation of a trustee to support or maintain that individual.

G. Notwithstanding any other provision of this instrument, at the end of twenty-one years after the death of the last to die of myself, my spouse, and all descendants of mine who are living at my death, the trustee shall distribute the principal and all accrued or undistributed net income of the trust to the beneficiary for whom the trust is named.

H. Unless indicated otherwise, for purposes of determining who is a descendant of mine or of any other person:

1. Legal adoption before the person adopted reached the age of twenty-one years shall be the equivalent in all respects to blood relationship; and

2. A person born out of wedlock and those claiming through that person shall be deemed to be descendants (i) of the natural mother and her ancestors, and (ii) if the natural father acknowledges paternity, of the natural father and his ancestors, in each case unless a decree of adoption terminates such natural parent's parental rights.

ARTICLE VIII

A. The trustee shall have the following powers with respect to each trust held under this instrument, exercisable in the discretion of the trustee:

1. To retain for any period of time without limitation, and without liability for loss or depreciation in value, any property transferred to the trustee, including stock in any corporate trustee serving hereunder, or partnership interests (whether general, special, or limited), even though the trustee might not properly purchase the property as a trust investment and though its retention might violate principles of investment diversification;

2. To sell at public or private sale, wholly or partly for cash or on credit, contract to sell, grant or exercise options to buy, convey, transfer, exchange, or lease (for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust) any real or personal property of the trust, and to partition, dedicate, grant easements in or over, subdivide, improve, set up reserves for replacements and repairs, and remodel, repair, or raze improvements on any real property of the trust, and in general to deal otherwise with the trust property in such manner, for such prices, and on such terms and conditions as any individual might do as outright owner of the property;

3. To retain and continue my interests in any business enterprises (whether or not income-producing or resulting in lack of diversification) in which I am engaged or interested at the time of my death, whatever the nature of such business or my interest in it may then be, and to carry on and continue the business thereof, and to expand, contract and discontinue the same and to change the form in which the same may be conducted (whether corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, joint venture, trust, syndication, or otherwise without limitation) to any form and in connection therewith to organize and dissolve partnerships, corporations, and other business forms, and to consent to and take part in any of the foregoing, and to transfer and consent to the transfer of and to receive and hold any asset thereof; and to do all things with respect thereto with the same force and effect as if they were acting on their own behalf as individuals and not as fiduciaries; and to use the general assets of my residuary estate for such purposes, all as they may deem advisable in their discretion;

The fact that any one or more of my fiduciaries may be beneficiaries under this Will or may be associated or connected with said businesses in any way, whether as partner, director, officer, stockholder, employee, consultant, attorney, or otherwise, shall not disqualify them from receiving fees, commissions and compensation under this Will, and salaries, fees, commissions, and other compensation and profits from said businesses, and they shall be as free to act on behalf of said businesses and to enter into transactions therewith as if they were not fiduciaries hereunder;

4. To borrow money at interest rates then prevailing from any individual, bank, or other source, irrespective of whether any such individual or bank is then acting as trustee, and to create security interests in the trust property by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise;

5. To invest in bonds, common or preferred stocks, notes, real estate mortgages, common trust funds, shares of regulated investment companies, currencies, partnership interests (whether general, special, or limited), or other securities or property, real or personal, domestic or foreign, including partial interests, such as life estate, term or remainder interests, without being limited by any statute or rule of law governing investments by trustees;

6. To make allocations, divisions, and distributions of trust property in cash or in kind, or partly in each; to allocate different kinds or disproportionate shares of property or undivided interests in property among the beneficiaries or separate trusts, without liability for, or obligation to make compensating adjustments by reason of, disproportionate allocations of unrealized gain for federal income tax purposes; and to determine the value of any property so allocated, divided, or distributed;

7. To make any payment of income or principal to third parties for the benefit of any beneficiaries who may become entitled thereto, or directly to such beneficiaries, without, in any event requiring the qualification of a legal guardian, unless, in the sole discretion of the trustee, it should be determined that the appointment and qualification of a guardian in a particular circumstance would be desirable;

8. To exercise in person or by general or limited proxy all voting and other rights, powers, and privileges and to take all steps to realize all benefits with respect to stocks or other securities; and to enter into or oppose, alone or with others, voting trusts, mergers, consolidations, foreclosures, liquidations, reorganizations, or other changes in the financial structure of any corporation;

9. To cause any security or other property to be held, without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship, in the name of the trustee, in the name of a nominee, or in unregistered form;

10. To pay all expenses incurred in the administration of the trust, including reasonable compensation to any trustee, and to employ or appoint and pay reasonable compensation to accountants, depositaries, investment counsel, attorneys, attorneys-in-fact, and agents (with or without discretionary powers);

11. To deal with the fiduciary or fiduciaries of any other trust or estate, even though the trustee is also the fiduciary or one of the fiduciaries of the other trust or estate;

12. To compromise or abandon any claim in favor of or against the trust;

13. To lend money to the personal representative of my estate or my spouse's estate, and to purchase property from the personal representative of either estate and retain it for any period of time without limitation, and without liability for loss or depreciation in value, notwithstanding any risk, unproductivity, or lack of diversification;

14. To commingle for investment purposes the property of the trust with the property of any other trust held hereunder, allocating to each trust an undivided interest in the commingled property;

15. To receive any property, real or personal, to be added to the trust, from my spouse in any event (and, if the trustee consents in writing, from any other person) by lifetime or testamentary transfer or otherwise;

16. To execute instruments of any kind, including instruments containing covenants and warranties binding upon and creating a charge against the trust property and containing provisions excluding personal liability; and

17. To perform all other acts necessary for the proper management, investment and distribution of the trust property.

328

J. F.

B. The powers granted in this Article shall be in addition to those granted by law and may be exercised even after termination of all trusts hereunder until actual distribution of all trust principal, but not beyond the period permitted by any applicable rule of law relating to perpetuities.

C. To the extent that such requirements can legally be waived, no trustee hereunder shall ever be required to give bond or security as trustee, or to qualify before, be appointed by, or account to any court, or to obtain the order or approval of any court with respect to the exercise of any power or discretion granted in this instrument.

D. The trustee's exercise or nonexercise of powers and discretions in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons. No person paying money or delivering property to any trustee hereunder shall be required or privileged to see to its application. The certificate of the trustee that the trustee is acting in compliance with this instrument shall fully protect all persons dealing with a trustee.

E. This instrument and all dispositions hereunder shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Tennessee.

F. The compensation of a corporate trustee shall be in accordance with its published schedule of fees as in effect at the time the services are rendered. Such compensation may be charged to principal or to income or partly to each in the discretion of the corporate trustee.

ARTICLE IX

A. Any Trustee may resign at any time by giving ninety (90) days written notice sent by certified mail to the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the current trust income is distributable.

B. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph E of this Article, if Third National Bank or any other named trustee fails or ceases to act as a trustee hereunder for any reason, or if any successor trustee or co-trustee appointed as hereinafter provided in this or any subsequent paragraph ceases to act as trustee hereunder for any reason, the person or persons indicated in paragraph F of this Article shall, by written instrument, appoint any person (other than my spouse or a descendant of mine), or any bank or trust company within the continental United States having combined trust assets under administration of at least $200 million, as successor trustee or co-trustee.

C. The person or persons indicated in paragraph F of this Article may at any time, by written instrument, approve the accounts of the trustee with the same effect as if the accounts had been approved by a court having jurisdiction of the trust or trusts.

D. My spouse may at any time and from time to time, without assigning cause, remove the corporate trustee named in my Will and appoint a successor corporate trustee. In the event of the death or incapacity of my spouse, this right of removal and reappointment may be exercised by a majority of my children, with the guardian of the person of any minor child representing such child's interest. The corporate trustee named in my Will, and any successor appointed thereafter, by its acceptance of this trust, shall be deemed to have agreed that, upon termination of the trust, or upon change of the corporate trustee, it will impose no severance, succession, or termination charge by reason of the discontinuance of its services as trustee.

E. If any corporate trustee designated to act or at any time acting hereunder is merged with or transfers substantially all of its assets to another corporation, or is in any other manner reorganized or reincorporated, the resulting or transferee corporation shall become trustee in place of its corporate predecessor.

F. A successor trustee or co-trustee may be appointed pursuant to paragraph B of this Article and the accounts of the trustee may be approved pursuant to paragraph C of this Article by my spouse, if then living, or, after the death of the last to die of my spouse and me, by a majority in number of the beneficiaries to whom the current trust income may or must then be distributed; except that, if my spouse is acting as a trustee hereunder, then the accounts of the trustee shall be approved by those persons who would be entitled to approve them if my spouse were then deceased. If any person so entitled to act is then under legal disability, the instrument of appointment or approval may be signed by the lawful guardian of such person on his or her behalf.

G. The incumbent trustee shall have all of the title, powers, and discretion granted to the original trustee, without court order or act of transfer. No successor trustee shall be personally liable for any act or failure to act of a predecessor trustee. With the approval of the person or persons indicated in paragraph F of this Article who may approve the accounts of the trustee, a successor trustee may accept the account furnished, if any, and the property delivered by or for a predecessor trustee without liability for so doing, and such acceptance shall be a full and complete discharge to the predecessor trustee.

H. Wherever used in this instrument (unless the context otherwise indicates):

1. The terms "trustee" and "trustees" and any pronoun referring to those terms designate the trustee or trustees at any time acting hereunder, without regard to number; and

2. The term "advisers" and any pronoun referring to that term designate the adviser or advisers at any time acting hereunder, without regard to number.

I. While two trustees are acting, the following provisions shall apply where the context admits:

1. The corporate trustee, if any, shall have custody of the trust property and of the books and records of the trustees;

2. With respect to any matter as to which the trustees have joint authority, a trustee from time to time may delegate any or all of that trustee's rights, powers, duties, and discretion as trustee to the other trustee, with the consent of the latter;

3. The trustees may establish bank accounts and may authorize that checks or drafts may be drawn on, or withdrawal made from, any such account on the individual signature of either trustee;

4. A trustee shall be presumed to have approved a proposed act or decision to refrain from acting if that trustee fails to indicate approval or disapproval thereof within fifteen days after a written request for approval, and a trustee shall not be required to continue to make a proposal which has been disapproved on at least two occasions if that trustee has informed the disapproving co-trustee that continued disapproval will be assumed until notice to the contrary has been received; and

5. The trustees may execute documents by jointly signing one document or separately signing concurrent counterpart documents.

ARTICLE X

A. In addition to all powers granted by law, my personal representatives shall have all the powers and discretion with respect to my estate during administration that are set forth or referred to with respect to the trustee hereunder (including the power to sell real or personal property at public or private sales for any purpose and to hold title to property in the name of a nominee), to be exercised without court order.

B. I empower my personal representatives (i) to make such elections under the tax laws as my personal representatives deem advisable, including an election to create qualified terminable interest property for both estate and generation-skipping tax purposes or for estate tax purposes alone, and (ii) to allocate the unused portion, if any, of my GST exemption (as defined in this paragraph) to any property with respect to which I am the transferor for generation-skipping purposes (irrespective of whether such property passes under this Will) in such manner as my personal representatives deem advisable, in each case without regard to the relative interests of the beneficiaries; however, my personal representatives shall not make adjustments between principal and income, or in the interests of the beneficiaries, to compensate for the effects of such elections and allocation. Any decision made by my personal representatives with respect to the exercise of any tax election or the allocation of my GST exemption shall be binding and conclusive on all persons. As used in this paragraph, the "GST exemption" means the exemption from generation-skipping tax allowed under Section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended.

C. I direct that the compensation of any corporate personal representative shall be in accordance with its published schedule of fees as in effect at the time the services are rendered.

D. Wherever used in this instrument (unless the context otherwise indicates), the terms "personal representative" and "personal representatives" and any pronoun referring to those terms designate the personal representative or personal representatives at any time acting hereunder, without regard to number.

E. Any property, or portion thereof, given to the trustee of a trust identified in this Will, which trust pursuant to its terms would be immediately subjected to final distribution and termination upon receipt of the property, may be distributed by my personal representative directly to the beneficiaries of the trust in order to avoid the needless transfer of property to the trustee as a preliminary step to distribution to the ultimate beneficiaries.

ARTICLE XI

All beneficiaries and their legal representatives hereunder shall have the right to disclaim any gift in whole or in part by delivering such disclaimer to the personal representative according to Section 2518 of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 31-1-103 of the Tennessee Code Annotated. Such disclaimed property shall be added to the Family Trust established in my Will, to be held, administered, invested and distributed in accordance with its provisions.

ARTICLE XII

In addition to and not in limitation of all powers granted in this instrument, the fiduciaries shall have those specific powers, duties and obligations enumerated in Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 35-50-110, sub-paragraphs (1) to (32) inclusive, which are hereby incorporated by reference into this instrument. These powers, as set out in this statute on the date of the execution of my Will, are granted, notwithstanding that this statute may have been amended or repealed at the time of my death.

ARTICLE XIII

Although my spouse and I are executing our Wills at or about the same time with substantially similar disposition provisions, I wish to make it clear that we have not entered into any contract regarding the disposition of our respective estates, and each of us, including the survivor, is free at any time to alter, amend or revoke our respective Wills.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand on this 31st day of October, 1990.

JAMES FREEMAN

On the date last above written, we saw JAMES FREEMAN, in our presence, sign the foregoing instrument at its end. He then declared it to be his Will, and requested us to act as witnesses to it. We then, in his presence and in the presence of each other, signed our names as attesting witnesses, believing him at all times herein mentioned to be of sound mind and memory and not acting under constraint of any kind.

Melanie Treadeau

Residing at 2108 Enclave Circle
Nashville, TN 37211

Sheila Prince

Residing at 124 Tall Oak Dr
Smyrna TN 37167

Joyce J Ramsey

Residing at 1975 Benton Holland Rd
Mclemville TN 37135

A F F I D A V I T

STATE OF TENNESSEE
COUNTY OF DAVIDSON

MELANIE TRAFICANT, SHEILA PRINCE and JOYCE G. RAMSEY being first duly sworn, make oath that the foregoing Last Will and Testament was signed by JAMES FREEMAN as and for his Last Will and Testament, and at that time acknowledged, published and declared by him to be his Last Will and Testament in the sight and presence of us, the undersigned, who at his request and in his sight and presence and in the sight and presence of each other subscribed our names as attesting witnesses on the 31st day of October, 1990, in Davidson County, Tennessee, and we further make oath that the Testator was of sound mind on said date and was more than eighteen (18) years of age, and that each of the witnesses was more than eighteen (18) years of age.

Melanie Traficant	Nashville, TN 37211
Witness	Address
Sheila Prince	Smyrna TN 37167
Witness	Address
Joyce G Ramsey	Nolensville TN 37135
Witness	Address

STATE OF TENNESSEE
COUNTY OF DAVIDSON

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 31st day of October, 1990.

Gary L. Gatten
Notary Public

My commission expires: July 18, 1992

STATE OF TENNESSEE, COUNTY OF WILSON
I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and perfect copy of the original instrument on file in this case.
26 day of JUNE, 2020
BARBARA WEBB, CLERK & MASTER
, D. C&M

PROBATE COURT OF WILSON COUNTY TENN.

Page 16 of my Last Will and Testament

335