Docket No. 16D2008

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 25th day of August 2020, before the Honorable Philip E. Smith, Judge for the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the Complaint for Divorce filed by Plaintiff.

Based upon the Marital Dissolution Agreement and Permanent Parenting Plan submitted to the Court for approval, testimony offered in open Court, statements of counsel and the entire record as a whole, the Court finds as follows:

1. There exists between the parties such irreconcilable differences as render a further continuation of the marriage impractical and impossible.
2. The Marital Dissolution Agreement submitted to the Court for approval is fair and equitable and should be approved and made the Order of this Court.
3. The Permanent Parenting Plan submitted to the Court for approval provides for the care and support of the parties' minor children and is in their best interests. It should be approved and made the Order of this Court.

IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

vs.
MOLUD H. ALSORAIFY Defendant/Husband	Docket No. 16D2008

MARITAL DISSOLUTION AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made between Farah M. Alsoraify ("Wife") and Molud H. Alsoraify ("Husband").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, these parties are currently married and have lived together as husband and wife in Davidson County, Tennessee, but have been separated from each other since at least July 17, 2016; and,

WHEREAS, of this union the parties have two minor children: Muneer Alsoraify, a male born August 27, 2008, and Reyhana Alsoraify, a female born January 29, 2010. No further children are expected; and,

WHEREAS, the parties and the minor children have all resided in Davidson County, Tennessee, for a period in excess of six months; and,

WHEREAS, Tennessee is the Home State of the minor children under all relevant statutory schemes, including but not necessarily limited to the UCCJEA, UIFSA, and PKPA. No other state has jurisdiction to make an initial custody or support determination; Tennessee is the appropriate state to make an initial determination and/or to modify any such determination; and,

WHEREAS, certain differences have arisen between the parties which appear to be irreconcilable, and there is now pending in the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, a suit for divorce between the parties, being Farah M. Alsoraify vs. Molud H. Alsoraify, bearing Docket No. 16D2008; and,

WHEREAS, both parties have had the opportunity to be represented by counsel. Husband is represented by Derek K. Burks with whom he is satisfied. Wife is represented by Roland T. Hairston, II, with whom she is satisfied. The parties acknowledge they have had the opportunity to be completely and fairly represented and fully advised of all their rights and responsibilities generally and especially hereunder and the opportunity to consult with any lawyers, accountants, tax advisors or financial experts which may be relevant to this Agreement; and,

WHEREAS, the parties desire to enter into an agreement with regard to their respective rights and obligations arising out of their marital relationship in an amicable and mutually acceptable manner, such that said divorce action shall proceed uncontested; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto now consider it in their respective best interests to settle between themselves all matters in issue and all matters that have arisen may arise between them, and now wish to reduce their agreement to writing and desire that it shall constitute the total agreement between them with respect to all matters relative to child custody/visitation, support, equitable distribution, attorney fees and all other matters which were raised, or could have been raised, between the parties, as a part of an action for separate maintenance or divorce; and,

WHEREAS, neither party at the time of this agreement is under the influence of any intoxicant or drug, legal or illegal, nor is any party experiencing any mental problems or conditions that would affect their judgment other than the stress normally to be expected in a divorce; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual and several binding promises, covenants and undertakings herein contained, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby acknowledge full satisfaction with regard to the terms and conditions hereof, and acknowledge the terms and conditions of this Agreement to be fair, just and reasonable to themselves; and further represent that they are fully familiar with the financial condition of the other, and hereby freely and voluntarily agree as follows:

1. SEPARATION:

The parties separated on or about July 17, 2016 and have continued to live separate and apart since that time. The parties agree that in order to promote their own mental health and well-being, they must live separate and apart from each other. The parties shall be free to conduct themselves as if they were unmarried, except as set forth below.

Each party expressly releases all right to share in the estate of the other party, or to serve as Personal Representative or Administrator/Administratrix of the estate of the other party, except only as provided by Will or Codicil executed after the date of this Agreement.

2. PARENTING RESPONSIBILITIES:

The parties shall support and care for their children as set forth in their Agreed Parenting Plan which is attached hereto and fully incorporated by reference.

3. HEALTH INSURANCE:

Each party shall be individually responsible for their own health insurance, and/or for his or her own non-covered medical, dental and other healthcare costs from the date of the Final Decree of Divorce.

Neither Party has coverage for hospital or medical expenses that also provides coverage to the other. Each party agrees they have notice if they wish to have health insurance, they must obtain such coverage on their own.

4. MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING:

That each of said parties is fully and completely informed of the financial and personal status of the other, and each of the parties has given full and mature thought to the making of this agreement, and all of the obligations contained herein, and that each of said parties understands that the agreements and obligations assumed by the other are assumed with the express understanding and agreement that they are in full satisfaction of all obligations which each of said parties now has or may hereafter or otherwise have toward the other. This Agreement is not made in collusion with each other, and it is understood that in the case of a divorce on fault grounds, proof must be presented to the Court of those grounds sufficient to establish the merits of the claim.

5. NO INTERFERENCE:

The parties agree that there is currently an Order of Protection that was granted to the Wife against the Husband, pending under docket number 16X715, that was continued by operation of law due to the filing of the divorce case. Said Order of Protection shall be immediately dismissed upon entry of the Final Decree of Divorce. Each party shall be free from the interference, authority and control, either directly or indirectly, by the other, as fully as if he or she were single and unmarried. Neither shall molest the other, or compel or endeavor to compel the other to cohabit or dwell with him or her. The parties hereby agree that they shall each be permanently enjoined and restrained from harassing, threatening, assaulting, intimidating, stalking or in any manner interfering with the other party's peacefulness and privacy.

13. BUSINESSES:

Husband shall have the business titled "Ready Auto Sales," found at 1038 4th Avenue South, Nashville, TN 37076, and it shall be considered his sole and separate property. This business shall be free of any claim by Wife. As between Husband and Wife, Husband shall be responsible for any taxes or other debts associated with said business and shall indemnify and hold Wife harmless thereon.

14. ALIMONY:

Neither party shall pay alimony to the other.

15. STATUTORY NOTICE REGARDING CREDITORS:

Pursuant to T.C.A. § 36-4-134(a), you are hereby given notice that the issuance of a Final Decree of Divorce does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor to proceed against a party to the divorce or that party's property. This is the case even though the party is not responsible under the terms of the Final Decree of Divorce for an account or any debt associated with an account. Therefore, you are hereby advised that it may be in a party's best interest to cancel, close, or freeze any jointly held accounts.

16. CREDITOR CLAIMS:

In the event a creditor of either party makes a claim against the other party that is upheld by a court of competent jurisdiction to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible, either by contract or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the party against whom such claim is made shall be entitled to recover from the other party the amount of any payment he or she makes, including interest, and any expenses incurred in defending against the creditor's claim, including reasonable attorney's fees.

17. NON-COMPLIANCE:

Should either party incur any expense or legal fees as a result of the breach of any portion of this Marital Dissolution Agreement by the other party, the Court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and suit expenses to the non-defaulting party. No breach, waiver or default of any terms of this agreement shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of any of the terms of this Agreement.

18. SEVERANCE:

Should the Court hold that any portion of this Agreement is invalid, the remainder shall be in full force and effect and the invalid portion shall be struck for the Agreement of modified as the Court shall order.

19. MODIFICATION:

A modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this Agreement and approved by the Court if such approval is required. Failure of either party to insist upon strict performance of any provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default of the same and similar nature.

20. WAIVER OF DISCOVERY or FURTHER DISCOVERY:

Both Husband and Wife agree that they have had such access to records, documents, accounts, things, experts, and information as they desire prior to entering into this agreement and both parties acknowledge that they have individually decided to enter into this agreement without any discovery being conducted. By signing this agreement, both parties acknowledge their respective rights under the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure, to participate in written interrogatories, requests for production of documents and/or oral depositions as a part of this proceeding. Both Husband and Wife waive their rights in that regard and desire to settle this matter according to the terms set forth in this Agreement, subject to the Court's approval.

21. ESTATE WAIVER:

In consideration of this agreement, the Husband and Wife hereby release one another, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns and their property and estate from any and all rights of any kind and character for past and future support, maintenance, homestead dower, or courtesy rights or any statutory successors to such common law rights, any rights under the laws of inheritance, descent and distribution, any claims to alimony or other support payments, pensions, and/or retirement funds, all rights to elect against the other's Will; and each party releases the other form all other rights, claims, demands and obligations of every kind and character arising out of or by virtue of the marital relations of the parties hereto except as expressly provided in this agreement; and each party is forever barred from having or asserting any such right, claim, or demands or obligations at any time hereafter for any purpose except that these parties may assert all rights that are given under this agreement.

22. COMPLETE DISCLOSURE: Each party has made a full and complete disclosure of his or her assets and liabilities.

23. LATER-DISCOVERED ASSETS:

The parties acknowledge that to the best of their knowledge, there are no assets or liabilities that are not reflected by the terms of this Agreement. The parties warrant and represent that they have made full disclosure to each other of all assets and liabilities, regardless of the completion or non-completion of formal discovery in this cause, and that the individual values placed upon the assets and debts addressed herein are fair and accurate. Should it develop that assets of any nature were undisclosed prior to the settlement of this matter, the following provisions shall apply:

A. If it is determined by a preponderance of the evidence that an asset was accidentally undisclosed through no fault of a party, said asset shall be promptly divided between the parties such that Wife receives 50% and Husband receives 50%. The cost to rectify the nondisclosure, including but not limited to attorneys' fees (for both parties' attorneys combined), court costs, and any administrative expenses, will be divided between the parties in the same percentage.

B. If it is determined by a preponderance of the evidence that an asset was negligently undisclosed, the said assets shall be promptly divided between the parties such that the non-disclosing party (who knew or should have known of the existence of the asset) receives 50% and the other party receives 50%. The cost to rectify the nondisclosure, including but not limited to attorneys' fees (for both parties attorneys combined), court costs, and any administrative expenses, will be borne by the non-disclosing party.

C. If it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that an asset was intentionally undisclosed, then said asset shall be divested from the non-disclosing party and vested solely in the other party, free and clear of any claims by the non-disclosing party. The cost to rectify the nondisclosure, including but not limited to attorneys' fees (for both parties' attorneys combined), court costs, and any administrative expenses, will be borne by the non-disclosing party.

The foregoing claims are specifically reserved to each party and are not discharged by the remaining terms of this Agreement.

24. EXECUTION OF INSTRUMENTS: It is agreed that either party shall promptly execute any and all documents of any and every kind and character for the other which may be necessary and proper to carry out the terms of this Agreement.

25. REPRESENTATIONS:

The parties represent to each other as follows:

Each party fully understands the facts and has been fully informed of his or her legal rights and obligations and each is signing this Agreement freely and voluntarily, intending to be bound by it.

Each understands and agrees that this Agreement constitutes the entire contract of the parties. It supersedes any prior understandings or agreements between them upon the subjects covered in this Agreement. There are no representations or warranties other than set forth herein.

Both parties specifically acknowledge that they understand the terms of this Agreement, and that they have either consulted with, or have had the opportunity to consult with, legal counsel prior to entering into this Agreement, and they further acknowledge and represent that they have reviewed this Agreement independently of each other and with their respective counsel.

It is further understood and agreed that the terms and provisions of this Marital Dissolution Agreement may be incorporated into any decree of divorce which may hereafter be obtained by either party, and the issues of property, debts and child support shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings, if necessary. The parties understand that a Court of competent jurisdiction must accept this Agreement as being equitable and fair prior to its having a binding effect as a Court Order. This instrument is being entered into by the parties of their own free will and accord, free from any undue or improper influence, fraud, coercion, duress or misrepresentation.

26. MAIDEN NAME: Wife shall retain her married legal name.

27. TAX ADVICE: Counsel preparing this Agreement has not advised, nor will advise, the parties as to any consequence of any such transfer of both real and personal property, including but not limited to stock(s), franchise ownership, retirement benefits, 401K plans, IRAs or other pension plans, and have advised each party to seek other independent advice as to tax consequences and penalties of transfer, if any.

28. INCOME TAX:

The parties shall file separately their federal income tax return for tax year 2019 and shall continue to file separately for all years thereafter.

29. ATTORNEY FEES, COURT COSTS, AND MEDIATION FEES:

Each party shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees. Each party shall be responsible for 50% of the UNPAID court costs assessed in this cause.

This waiver and release does not constitute a waiver or release or in any way bar either party from claiming attorney fees, suit money or costs from the other in any action brought subsequent to the signing of this Agreement to enforce the terms and conditions hereof.

30. WITHDRAWAL OF ATTORNEYS: Roland T. Hairston, II, Counsel for the Wife, shall be released as attorney of record for the Wife upon the entry of a Final Decree of Divorce in this matter. Derek K. Burks, Counsel for the Husband, shall be released as attorney of record for the Husband upon the entry of a Final Decree of Divorce in this matter.

31. GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS:

A. Each party acknowledges that he or she is fully informed as to his or her legal rights and obligations; each of them has entered into and executed this Agreement after conferring with his or her independent attorneys, or with the knowledge of such opportunity, and having such knowledge and/or opportunity, and each of them executes this Agreement freely and voluntarily, intending to be bound by it and intending that it should be enforceable by either party by proceedings in the Circuit Courts of the State of Tennessee.

B. In the event it becomes reasonably necessary for either party to institute legal proceedings to procure enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement or any Permanent Parenting Plan incorporated into the Final Decree, he or she will also be entitled to judgment for reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in prosecuting said action.

C. This Agreement expresses the entire agreement between the parties, supersedes any prior understandings or agreements between them, and there are no other representations or warranties other than those expressly set forth herein, but any portion hereof may be altered, removed or added to by written consent duly signed and acknowledged by each of the parties hereto or modified pursuant to Tennessee law.

D. Both parties shall be treated as having drafted this Agreement cooperatively; therefore, neither party shall have any ambiguity construed against him or her, and neither party shall be entitled to claim the benefit of any ambiguity resulting from the drafting of this Agreement.

E. No waiver of any breach by either party of the terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon either of the parties unless reduced to writing and subscribed to by both of the parties.

F. This Agreement was duly executed and delivered in Tennessee, and its terms and conditions shall be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the State of Tennessee.

G. The parties agree that each of them shall hereafter execute and deliver all instruments and documents necessary to carry out the terms of this Agreement.

H. It may be in each party's best interest to cancel, close or freeze any jointly held accounts.

I. This Agreement shall be submitted to the Court, for the purpose of having the Court review, approve and merge the terms and conditions of this Agreement and for the issuance of an appropriate Order approving the terms and conditions hereof and making the same the Order of the Court and merging this Agreement with such Order.

J. Each party solemnly agrees to promulgate and support the Court's approval and merger of this Agreement and do nothing in derogation thereof or in any way attempt to discourage the approval and merger by the Court.

K. Once approved and made the Order of the Court, the Court shall have continuing jurisdiction to enforce the terms and conditions of this Agreement, along with any Order issued with respect thereto, and both parties shall be subject to the contempt powers and jurisdiction of the Court with respect to any breach or violation of this Agreement or Order of the Court.

L. Wife, by executing this Agreement, further acknowledges:

a. That she entered into this settlement agreement freely and voluntarily and without duress and had ample time to review the agreement and understand it completely before signing it.

b. She was not under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time she executed the Agreement.

c. She was not under the influence of any medications that would impair her judgment at the time she executed the Agreement.

d. Once approved by the Court, she understands that the terms of the settlement agreement are of a permanent nature and that the Court may hold her in contempt of Court for failure to abide by the terms of the Agreement.

e. She is represented by Roland T. Hairston, II with whom she is satisfied.

f. She fully and fairly disclosed her financial situation to Husband and she is satisfied with the financial disclosure that he has made to her.

M. Husband, by executing this Agreement, further acknowledges:

a. That he entered into this settlement agreement freely and voluntarily and without duress and had ample time to review the agreement and understand it completely before signing it.

b. He was not under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time he executed the Agreement.

c. He was not under the influence of any medications that would impair his judgment at the time he executed the Agreement.

d. Once approved by the Court, he understands that the terms of the settlement agreement are of a permanent nature and that the Court may hold him in contempt of Court for his failure to abide by the terms of the Agreement.

e. He fully and fairly disclosed his financial situation to Wife, and he is satisfied with the financial disclosure that she has made to him.

f. He is satisfied with the representation provided to him by Derek K. Burks.

N. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors in interest, assigns, heirs, agents, subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, acquiring entities, acquired entities and any other legal representatives.

I. RESIDENTIAL PARENTING SCHEDULE

A. RESIDENTIAL TIME WITH EACH PARENT

The Primary Residential Parent is the Mother.

Under the schedule set forth below, each parent will spend the following number of days with the children:

Mother 285 days Father 80 days

B. DAY-TO-DAY SCHEDULE

The parties acknowledge that Father has not seen the children in over three years and agree that it is in the children's best interest that the children have two therapeutic visitation sessions with the Father before Father begins exercising parenting time. The parties have identified a preferred therapist and Mother will contact the therapist within the next week to arrange for the children to be seen by the therapist as soon as possible.

Once the children complete two therapeutic visitation sessions with the Father and therapist, the following introductory parenting time shall begin: Mother shall have the children except that Father shall have the children every other weekend from Saturday at 10:00 a.m. until Saturday at 6:00 p.m. and Sunday at 10:00 a.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. for four (4) weekends. Father shall ensure that a third-party family member is present during this parenting time.

After this introductory period, Mother shall have the children except that Father shall have the children every other weekend from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

This parenting schedule begins on the date of the Court's Order.

Payment of long distance transportation costs: Not applicable.
Other arrangements: None.
If a parent does not possess a valid driver's license, he or she must make reasonable transportation arrangements to protect the child or children while in the care of that parent.

I. SUPERVISION OF PARENTING TIME (See §I.B)

J. OTHER

The following special provisions apply:

1. OTHER PARENTING TIMES: The children shall be entitled to spend time with each parent at times other than as stated above as agreed upon by the parties. Both parties are encouraged to have flexibility and reciprocity in arranging other time-sharing periods.
2. Wife is vested with sole authority to apply for, obtain and renew passports for the parties' children as those terms are understood in the United States of America Department of State Form DS-11.
3. Neither party shall not allow anyone to speak about the other parent in a derogatory manner in the presence of the children.
4. Both parties shall comply with the recommendation of the children's therapist regarding therapy.

II. DECISION-MAKING

A. DAY-TO-DAY DECISIONS

Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care of a child while the child is residing with that parent, including any emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of a child.

B. MAJOR DECISIONS

Major decisions regarding each child shall be made as follows:

Educational decisions	Ξ mother	☐ father	☐ joint
Non-emergency health care	Ξ mother	☐ father	☐ joint
Religious upbringing	Ξ mother	☐ father	☐ joint
Extracurricular activities	Ξ mother	☐ father	☐ joint

If this is a deviation from the Child Support Guidelines, explain why:

2. Retroactive Support: A judgment is hereby awarded in the amount of $0.00

3. Payments shall begin on the 1st day of March 2020.

This support shall be paid by direct deposit to the Mother in an account number to be provided to Father.

The parents acknowledge that court approval must be obtained before child support can be reduced or modified.

*Child Support Worksheet can be found on DHS website at http://www.state.tn.us/humanserv/is/isdocuments.html or at your local child support offices.

B. FEDERAL INCOME TAX EXEMPTION*

Mother is the parent receiving child support. Mother shall claim the children each year.

C. PROOF OF INCOME AND WORK-RELATED CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Each parent shall send proof of income to the other parent for the prior calendar year as follows:

- IRS Forms W-2 and 1099 shall be sent to the other parent on or before February 15.
- A copy of his or her federal income tax return shall be sent to the other parent on or before April 15 or any later date when it is due because of an extension of time for filing.
- The completed form required by the Department of Human Services shall be sent to the Department on or before the date the federal income tax return is due by the parent paying child support. This requirement applies only if a parent is receiving benefits from the Department for a child.

The parent paying work-related child care expenses shall send proof of expenses to the other parent for the prior calendar year and an estimate for the next calendar year, on or before February 15.

D. HEALTH AND DENTAL INSURANCE

DB

Reasonable health insurance on the children will be maintained by the Father. The children may remain on TennCare until August 25, 2021. On or before such time, Father shall provide health insurance for the minor children. Father may petition the Court to modify his child support at that time to reflect the cost of health insurance. Proof of continuing coverage shall be furnished to the other parent annually or as coverage changes. The parent maintaining coverage shall authorize the other parent to consult with the insurance carrier regarding the coverage in effect.

Uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses, which may include but is not limited to, deductibles or co-payments, eyeglasses, contact lens, routine annual physicals, and counseling will be paid pro rata in accordance with their incomes. After insurance has paid its portion, the parent receiving the bill will send it to the other parent within ten days. The other parent will pay his or her share within 30 days of receipt of the bill.

* NOTE: The child support schedule assumptions in the guidelines (1240-2-4-.03 (6)(b)) assume that the parent receiving the child support will get the tax exemptions for the child.

If available through work, the Father shall maintain dental, orthodontic, and optical insurance on the minor child or children.

E. LIFE INSURANCE

Father shall insure his own life in the minimum amount of $100,000.00 by whole life or term insurance. Until the child support obligation has been completed, each policy shall name the children as sole irrevocable primary beneficiary, with the Mother as trustee for the benefit of the children, to serve without bond or accounting.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The children are scheduled to reside the majority of the time with the mother. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to mediation by a neutral party chosen by the parents or the Court.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by certified mail.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The parent exercising parenting time shall furnish the other parent with a telephone number where the child may be reached at the days and time specified in a parenting plan or other court order or, where days and times are not specified, at reasonable times;
(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not destroy, deface, open or censor. The parent exercising parenting time shall deliver all letters, packages and other material sent to the child by the other parent as soon as received and shall not interfere with their delivery in any way, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of the child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;

(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any educational records customarily made available to parents. Upon request from one parent, the parent enrolling the child in school shall provide to the other parent as soon as available each academic year the name, address, telephone number and other contact information for the school. In the case of children who are being homeschooled, the parent providing the homeschooling shall advise the other parent of this fact along with the contact information of any sponsoring entity or other entity involved in the child's education, including access to any individual student records or grades available online. The school or homeschooling entity shall be responsible, upon request, to provide to each parent records customarily made available to parents. The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. These records include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical, health or other treatment records directly from the treating physician or healthcare provider. Upon request from one parent, the parent who has arranged for such treatment or health care shall provide to the other parent the name, address, telephone number and other contact information of the physician or healthcare provider. The keeper of the records may require a written request including a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. No person who receives the mailing address of a requesting parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate, and the opportunity to participate in or observe them. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than forty-eight (48) hours, an itinerary which shall include the planned dates of departure and return, the intended destinations and mode of travel and telephone numbers. The parent traveling with the child or children shall provide this information to the other parent so as to give that parent reasonable notice; and

(9) The right to access and participation in the child's education on the same bases that are provided to all parents including the right of access to the child during lunch and other school activities; provided, that the participation or access is legal and reasonable; however, access must not interfere with the school's day-to-day operations or with the child's educational schedule.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that absent agreement between the parents or an objection by the non-relocating parent within thirty (30) days of the date notice is sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with subsection (a), the relocating parent will be permitted to do so by law.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by ☐ both parents ☐ mother ☐ father ☒ neither.
Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. *(A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent.
