DECLARATION OF RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

This Declaration of Restrictive Covenants ("Declaration") is made by the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County ("Metro") by and through the Metro Housing Trust Fund Commission ("Commission"). This Declaration applies to the real property located at 41 A Wharf Avenue, Nashville, TN 37210; ("Property").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Metro has provided funds to develop the Property; and,

WHEREAS, the intent of Metro in providing the funds is to create affordable housing on the Property for persons of low income; and,

WHEREAS, subsequent purchasers will benefit from the limitation on the purchase price which this Covenant requires; and, homeownership developments and does not exceed 60 percent of the Area Median Income for rental developments, as determined by HUD, with adjustments for smaller and larger families as described in greater detail in the Affordability Requirements paragraph, and (ii) whose purchase of the Property meets the requirements to qualify as affordable homeownership housing under the Home Investment Partnerships Program pursuant to 24 CFR §92.254.

2. Requirement of Title. Compliance with the provision of this Declaration shall be deemed to be a requirement of title. The Property may not be transferred to any person or entity other than a Qualified Household except as otherwise provided in this Declaration.

3. Affordability Requirements. Throughout the Affordability Period, no Property shall be sold except to a Qualified Household for use by an Owner solely as a principal residence. Qualified Household determinations shall be made in accordance with 24 CFR §92.2 and §92.217. The 2021 income limits for homebuyer projects adjusted according to family size are provided in the table below for illustrative purposes. These income limits are updated annually by HUD, and the determination of whether an Owner qualifies as a Qualified Household shall be made based on the most recently published annual income limits when qualifying a potential buyer.

2021 INCOME LIMITS

Nashville-Davidson—Murfreesboro—Franklin, TN MSA

	1 person	2 person	3 person	4 person	5 person	6 person	7 person	8 person

During the Affordability Period, an Owner desiring to sell, dispose of or otherwise convey the Property, shall so notify the Developer and the Commission in writing (the "Conveyance Notice"). The Owner is responsible for finding a homebuyer ("Homebuyer") who meets the requirements of a Qualified Household. The sale to the Homebuyer must occur within six (6) months of completion of the income determination. The HUD Exchange web site provides an income eligibility calculator that can be used to perform an initial assessment to determine income eligibility. The link below contains a guide for using this income eligibility calculator:

https://www.hudexchange.info/resources/documents/CPDIncomeEligibilityCalculator_User%20Manual_Version2.0.pdf

During the Affordability Period, and except as otherwise provided in this Declaration, the Property may not be sold for a price that exceeds the Maximum Sale Price.

4. Use During the Affordability Period. During the Affordability Period: (i) compliance with the requirements of this Declaration may be verified by the Commission or its agent or contractor annually, and an Owner shall cooperate fully with such verification; (ii) every residential unit must be occupied for at least 10 months each year except with the Commission's express written consent; (iii) and the Property may only be used as a principal residence of the Owner. The improvements shall be maintained by the Owner in good, clean and livable condition, and Owner shall be responsible for the timely payment of (i) hazard insurance for the full replacement cost of all improvements on the Property, and (ii) all taxes, assessments and fees accruing on the Property.

5. Permitted Structures. Throughout the Affordability Period, only structures permitted in residentially zoned areas of the Metropolitan Government may be built upon the Property.

6. Debt and Refinance Limitations. If an Owner desires to obtain or refinance any loan (a "Loan") to be secured by the Property, and such Loan will cause that Owner's total indebtedness to exceed the original purchase price paid by that Owner for the Property, then not less than 45 days prior to obtaining or refinancing the Loan, Owner shall submit to the Commission a copy of the proposed loan's terms. The Commission will approve the Loan unless The Commission reasonably objects to the terms.

7. Foreclosure. The holder of record of any mortgage or other encumbrance on the Property (each a "Mortgagee") and Owner of the Property shall comply with the following provisions upon foreclosure proceedings or similar remedial action pursuant to its mortgage or other encumbrance:

(a) The Owner shall provide permission to the Mortgagee for the Mortgagee to notify Metro and the Developer in the event of any default for which Mortgagee intends to commence foreclosure proceedings or similar remedial action pursuant to its mortgage (the "Foreclosure Notice"). This notice shall be sent by Mortgagee to Metro and the Developer according to the notice provision of this Agreement, not less than ninety (90) days prior to the foreclosure sale or the acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure. The Owner shall also deliver a copy of the Foreclosure Notice and any other communications and disclosures made by the Mortgagee pursuant to any instrument relating to a mortgage or encumbrance to Metro and the Developer promptly upon receipt.

(b) Developer shall have the first right of refusal and option to purchase the Property for a price not to exceed the outstanding balance of the delinquent mortgage, costs associated with collection actions taken up to the purchase date and agreed upon closing costs. At the conclusion of ten (10) days, Developer will provide Metro written notice as to its decision to exercise or refuse its option to purchase the Property. In the event Developer refuses its option to purchase the Property, Metro shall have the second right of refusal and option to purchase the property for a price not to exceed the outstanding balance of the delinquent mortgage, costs associated with collection actions taken up to the purchase date, and agreed upon closing costs. At the conclusion of the sixty (60) days after receipt of the Foreclosure

Notice, if neither Metro nor Developer exercises its option to purchases the Property, Metro will provide written notice thereof to Mortgagee, upon the receipt of which the Mortgagee may proceed with its right of foreclosure or acceptance of a deed or assignment in lieu of foreclosure. After such foreclosure or acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, this declaration shall be forever terminated and shall have no further effect as to the Property or any transferee thereafter.

(c) In the event of purchase of the Property by the Developer, the Developer shall promptly notify Metro in writing of the purchase and diligently seek to sell the Property to a Qualified Household. Should the designee be unable to find a Qualified Household to buy or lease the Property despite a good faith effort, including listing the Property with a licensed real estate agent for at least one hundred twenty (120) days, then Metro shall have the option to purchase the Property from the Developer for the total purchase amount paid by the Developer to the Mortgagee. If Metro declines its option to purchase the Property from the Developer, the Developer may then sell the Property to a household that does not meet the income-based requirements of a Qualified Household ("Ineligible Household").

8. Conveyance by Operation of Law. In the event that an ownership interest in a Property is transferred by operation of law, death, divorce, court order or other similar occurrence, the person or persons ("Transferee") to whom the Property is transferred shall, within 60 days after such transfer becomes effective (the effective date of the transfer being the "Transfer Date"), notify Developer and the Commission in writing of the transfer and either (1) obtain a Certificate of Eligibility, (2) promptly and diligently seek to sell the Property to a Qualified Household, (3) sell the Property to the Developer for a price not to exceed the outstanding balance of the first and second mortgages and agreed upon closing costs. Developer shall notify Metro of its decision to exercise or refuse its option to purchase within ten (10) days of the Transfer Date. In the event Developer declines its option to purchase the Property, Metro shall have a right to purchase the property for a price not to exceed the outstanding balance of the first and second mortgages and agreed upon closing costs. In the event neither Metro nor Developer exercises its option to purchase the Property, Transferee shall be entitled to maintain ownership of the Property or sell the property to a household that does not meet the income-based requirements of a Qualified Household ("Ineligible Household"). Should a Transferee who is required to sell the Property fail to do so within 120 days after the Transfer Date, such Transferee or owner shall notify Metro in writing ("Transfer Notice") of such fact, which shall constitute a breach of this Declaration.

In the event of purchase of the Property by the Developer, the Developer shall promptly notify Metro in writing of the purchase and diligently seek to sell the Property to a Qualified Household. Should the Developer be unable to find a Qualified Household to buy or lease the Property despite a good faith effort, including listing the Property with a licensed real estate agent for at least one hundred twenty (120) days, then Metro shall have the option to purchase the Property from the Developer for the total purchase amount paid by the Developer to the Transferee. If Metro declines its option to purchase the Property from the Developer, the Developer may then sell the Property to an Ineligible Household.

9. Prohibition on Discrimination. No person shall, on the grounds of race, color, sex, religion, sexual orientation or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise subject to discrimination with regard to the sale, lease, rental, use or occupancy of the Property.

10. Severability. The invalidity of any clause, part, provision or section of these Restrictive Covenants shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions herein.

Any such notice, demand or request shall be deemed to have been given on the day it is hand delivered or mailed.

12. Amendment. The Commission shall have the right to amend, modify or release this Declaration by an instrument recorded with the office of the Davidson County Register of Deeds, provided that any amendment or modification shall not impose materially greater obligations on, nor materially diminish the rights of, Developer, Owner, or any Mortgagee. Without limitation, the Metropolitan Government shall have the right to establish or change resale restrictions for any Property subject to this Declaration, subject to the foregoing proviso.

13. Compliance with Applicable Laws. Any person or entity claiming an interest in any Property covered by this Declaration shall comply with all applicable federal, state or local laws, statutes, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations, as may be amended from time to time. For clarification, despite the fact that various HUD regulations and regulations regarding HUD programs, such as the Home Investment Partnership Program, are referenced in this Declaration, said regulations are incorporated only for convenience in establishing commonly understood affordability requirements and do not apply generally to the Property. Instead, such regulations apply only to the extent explicitly set forth in this Declaration.

14. Breach and Enforcement. In the event of a breach or violation of this Declaration, the Commission shall have the right to take such enforcement action as it determines may be necessary, including, without limitation, the right to seek:
    a. injunctive or other equitable relief;
    b. disgorgement of sale proceeds attributable to a sale in violation of this Declaration;
    c. rescission of any sale in violation of this Declaration; and
    d. specific performance.
15. Governing Law and Venue. This Declaration shall be governed by the laws of the State of Tennessee. No action arising out of this Declaration shall be brought except in the Chancery or Circuit Courts of Davidson County, Tennessee.
