LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

PAULA PATRICIA BUSH

Dated: May 10, 2002

Prepared by:

Office of Command Counsel, U.S. Army Space Command

PAULA PATRICIA BUSH

I, Paula Patricia Bush, a resident of the State of Colorado, make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, revoking all wills and codicils at any time heretofore made by me. I am a dependent of a person who is retired from the military service of the United States.

FIRST: I direct that the expenses of my last illness and funeral, the expenses of the administration of my estate, and all estate, inheritance and similar taxes payable with respect to property included in my estate, whether or not passing under this will, and any interest or penalties thereon, shall be paid out of my residuary estate, without apportionment and with no right of reimbursement from any recipient of any such property (including reimbursement under Section 2207B of the Internal Revenue Code).

SECOND: I give all real estate owned by me at the time of my death, and all rights that I have under any related insurance policies, to my husband James Daniel Bush, if he survives me.

THIRD: I give all tangible personal property owned by me at the time of my death, including without limitation personal effects, clothing, jewelry, furniture, furnishings, household goods, automobiles and other vehicles, together with all insurance policies relating thereto, to my husband James Daniel Bush, if he survives me, or if he does not survive me, in accordance with a written memorandum which I intend to prepare and sign, disposing of such property or any part thereof, as permitted by Colorado law. If I sign more than one such memorandum, the memorandum which bears a date later than that of any other such memorandum shall govern. I intend to leave such a memorandum at my death, but if no such memorandum is found and identified as such by my personal representative within thirty days after the probate of this will, any such memorandum thereafter found shall be deemed null and void. In the absence of such a memorandum, or to the extent that such memorandum fails to effectively dispose of any such property for any reason, including the death of any beneficiary, I give such property or the portion not effectively disposed of to those of my children (Jennifer Ann Bush, Andrea Marie Bush, David James Bush, Mary Kathleen Bush and Laura Danielle Bush and any other children which I hereafter may have) who survive me, in substantially equal shares, to be divided among them as they shall agree, or if they cannot agree, or if any of them shall be under the age of twenty-one (21) years, as my personal representative shall determine. If any of said children shall be under the age of twenty-one (21) years at my death, my personal representative may sell any property bequeathed to said child under this Article THIRD, as my personal representative may deem appropriate, or my personal representative may hold such property or any proceeds thereof, without bond, surety or other security, until said child attains said age or such earlier time as my personal representative may deem proper to deliver any such property or proceeds to said child, or to said child's guardian or any person with whom said child resides for the use of said child, or, if there is a separate trust for the benefit of said child, to my trustee to be administered as a part of said trust. All costs incurred by my personal representative in connection with obtaining possession, appraising, safeguarding, delivering or selling such property shall be paid as expenses of administering my estate.

FOURTH: I give all the rest, residue and remainder of my property and estate, both real and personal, of whatever kind and wherever located, that I own or to which I shall be in any manner entitled at the time of my death (collectively referred to as my "residuary estate"), as follows:

(a) If my husband James Daniel Bush survives me, to my husband outright.

(b) If my husband does not survive me, then to those of my children who survive me and to the issue who survive me of those of my children who shall not survive me, by representation. If, however, any such child then shall be under the age of twenty-five (25) years (each such child being hereinafter referred to as a "Beneficiary"), the share of such Beneficiary shall not be paid or distributed to such Beneficiary but instead shall be given to my trustee and held by my trustee, IN TRUST, pursuant to the following provisions:

(i) My trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest each share set aside for each Beneficiary in a separate trust for the benefit of such Beneficiary and may pay all or any part of the net income from each such trust to or for the benefit of the Beneficiary thereof, for the health, education, maintenance and support of the Beneficiary, to such extent and at such time or times and in such manner as may be determined in the absolute discretion of my trustee. Any net income not so paid shall be accumulated and added to principal at least annually and thereafter shall be held, administered and disposed of as a part thereof.

(ii) In addition, my trustee may pay to or for the benefit of each Beneficiary, for the health, education, maintenance and support of each Beneficiary, from the principal of each Beneficiary's trust, such amounts, including the whole thereof, as determined in the absolute discretion of my trustee.

(iii) When any Beneficiary shall attain the age of twenty-five (25) years, the trust for such Beneficiary shall terminate and any remaining principal and income shall be paid and distributed to such Beneficiary, discharged of trust. If such Beneficiary dies before said age, such principal and income shall be paid and distributed to any then living issue of such Beneficiary, by representation, or if such Beneficiary has no issue to my then living issue, by representation. If any such issue is a beneficiary of a trust under this will, the same may be held in accordance with such trust. If there are no then living issue, the same shall be paid and distributed to the beneficiaries of my residuary estate then in being as provided in this will, or if there are none, to those who would take from me as if I were then to die without a will, unmarried and the absolute owner of the same, and a resident of the State of Colorado.

(c) If my husband does not survive me and there shall be no issue of mine then living, I give my residuary estate to those who would take from me as if I were then to die without a will, unmarried and the absolute owner of my residuary estate, and a resident of the State of Colorado.

FIFTH: I authorize my personal representative, in addition to any rights conferred by law and in the absolute discretion of my personal representative, and without the consent of any court having jurisdiction over my estate, to disclaim or renounce, in whole or in part or with respect to specific amounts, parts, fractional shares or assets, any legacy, devise, or interest in or privilege or power over any trust or other disposition provided for my benefit under the will or other instrument of any person at any time within nine months after the date of the transfer (whether by reason of such person's death or otherwise) which created an interest in me.

I authorize any person, in addition to any rights conferred by law, at any time within nine months after my death, to disclaim or renounce, in whole or in part or with respect to specific amounts, parts, fractional shares or assets, any devise, legacy, interest, right, privilege, or power granted to that person by this will. Any such disclaimer or renunciation shall be made by a duly acknowledged, irrevocable, written instrument executed by that person or by his or her conservator, guardian, committee, personal representative, executor, or administrator, delivered to my personal representative and filed in accordance with any requirements of applicable law.

If my husband shall disclaim or renounce all or any part of any bequest to him under this will, or of any property passing to him outside this will, by operation of law, beneficiary designation, or otherwise, I direct that such property shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of clause (b) of Article FOURTH above.

SIXTH: The determination of my trustee as to the amount or advisability of any discretionary payment shall be final and conclusive on all persons, whether or not then in being, having or claiming any interest in such trust.

No disposition, charge or encumbrance on any income or principal of any trust hereunder by any beneficiary thereof shall be valid or binding upon my trustee. No beneficiary shall have the right to assign, transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of any such income or principal until the same shall be paid to such beneficiary by my trustee. No such income or principal shall be subject in any manner to any claim of any creditor of any beneficiary. The right of any beneficiary to any income or principal hereunder shall be subject to all charges or deductions which my personal representative or trustee may make under law or any provision of this will. Upon making any payment of income or principal from any trust hereunder, my trustee shall be released fully from all further liability therefor.

SEVENTH: If any principal or income of my estate or any trust hereunder vests in absolute ownership (free of trust hereunder) in a minor or incompetent, my personal representative or trustee, at any time and without court authorization, may: distribute the whole or any part of such property to the beneficiary; or use the whole or any part for the health, education, maintenance and support of the beneficiary; or distribute the whole or any part to a guardian, committee or other legal representative of the beneficiary, or to a custodian for the beneficiary (including a custodian appointed by my personal representative or trustee without court order) under any gifts to minors or transfers to minors act, or to the person or persons with whom the beneficiary resides. Evidence of any such distribution or the receipt therefor executed by the person to whom the distribution is made shall be a full discharge of my personal representative and trustee from any liability with respect thereto, even though my personal representative or trustee may be such person.

If such beneficiary is a minor, my personal representative or trustee may defer the distribution of the whole or any part of such property until the beneficiary attains the age of twenty-one (21) years, and may hold the same as a separate fund for the beneficiary with all of the powers described in Article EIGHTH hereof. If the beneficiary dies before attaining said age, any balance shall be paid and distributed to the estate of the beneficiary.

The word "minor", wherever used in this Article SEVENTH, shall mean any person who shall be under the age of twenty-one (21) years.

EIGHTH: My personal representative and trustee shall have all of the powers provided in the Colorado Probate Code and Fiduciaries' Powers Act, as amended, or any successor thereto, and the powers conferred by law upon fiduciaries in every jurisdiction in which my personal representative and trustee may act. In addition, the following powers are conferred upon both my personal representative and trustee, exercisable in the absolute discretion of my personal representative and trustee, as the case may be:

(a) To retain and hold any property for any period, whether or not the property is of the character permissible for investment by fiduciaries under any applicable law, and without regard to the effect the retention may have upon diversification of investments.

(b) To sell, exchange, grant options on, transfer or otherwise dispose of any property, real or personal, at public or private sale, for cash or on credit, secured or unsecured, at such time or times, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable.

(c) To invest and reinvest in common or preferred stocks, bonds, securities, mortgages or similar instruments, investment trusts, common trust funds, mutual funds, regulated investment companies, evidences of rights or interests, and other property, real or personal, domestic or foreign, whether or not the investments are permissible for fiduciaries under any applicable law and without regard to diversification.

(d) To render liquid my estate or any trust in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, and to hold cash or readily marketable securities of little or no yield for such periods as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable.

(e) To manage, maintain, repair, alter, improve, insure, partition, subdivide, lease for any term (whether or not beyond any period fixed by statute for leases made by fiduciaries or beyond the term of any trust created hereunder), mortgage, encumber, grant security interests in, or otherwise purchase, dispose of, or deal with any real or personal property, as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable.

(f) To abandon any property which my personal representative or trustee shall deem worthless or not of sufficient value to warrant keeping or protecting; to abstain from the payment of taxes, assessments, repairs, maintenance or other upkeep therefor; to permit any property to be lost by tax sale or other proceedings or to convey any such property for no or a nominal consideration.

(g) To form one or more corporations or limited liability companies, alone or with any person, in any jurisdiction, and to transfer assets of my estate or any trust to any new or existing corporation or limited liability company in exchange for stock or membership interests; to form one or more partnerships with any person in any jurisdiction, to have my estate, any trust or a nominee be a general or limited partner, and to transfer assets of my estate or any trust to any new or existing partnership as a capital contribution; to enter into one or more joint ventures or associations with any person in any jurisdiction, and to commit assets of my estate or any trust to the purposes of those ventures or associations; and to retain as an investment for any period any securities, partnership interests or other assets resulting from any such actions.

(h) To enter into, modify or terminate agreements with any person regarding voting rights, management, operation, retention or disposition of interests in corporations, partnerships, joint ventures, associations or other businesses of my estate or any trust, regardless of whether any agreement is in effect when that business interest is received by my personal representative or trustee; to retain and continue to operate, or permit the operation of, any business, on the terms which governed when received by my personal representative or trustee or on different terms; to invest additional sums in any business, even to the extent that my estate or any trust may be invested entirely in any business, without liability for any loss resulting from lack of diversification; to act as or select other persons (including any beneficiary) to act as directors, officers, managers or employees of any business, with reasonable compensation without regard to their being a fiduciary or beneficiary and, in the case of my personal representative or trustee, without regard to the commissions allowed by law; to discontinue any business or sell or otherwise dispose of any interest therein on such terms and conditions as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable; and to make such other arrangements with respect to any business as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable. I exonerate my personal representative and trustee from any loss resulting from the retention or operation of any business or any depreciation in the value thereof, unless such loss shall result from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of my personal representative or trustee.

(i) To vote, in person or by general or limited proxy, any shares of stock or other securities; to exercise or dispose of any options, subscription or conversion rights, or other privileges or rights of any other nature; to become a party to, or deposit securities or other property under, or accept securities issued under any voting trust or similar agreement; to assent to or participate in any reorganization, readjustment, recapitalization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, liquidation, sale or purchase of assets, lease, mortgage or similar instrument, election, contract, agreement, or other action or proceeding by any corporation; to deposit securities or other property under, or become a party to, any agreement or plan for any such action or proceeding or for the protection of holders of securities; to subscribe to new securities or exchange property in connection with the foregoing; to delegate discretionary powers to any reorganization, creditors, stockholders or similar committee or protective group; and to pay any assessments or expenses in connection with the foregoing.

(j) To pay, collect, adjust, compromise, settle or refer to arbitration any claim in favor of or against my estate or any trust, and to institute, prosecute or defend such legal proceedings as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable.

(k) To foreclose mortgages or similar instruments and bid for property under foreclosure or take title by conveyance in lieu of foreclosure; to continue investments after maturity; to modify, renew or extend any note, bond, mortgage or similar instrument, security agreement or similar instrument upon such terms and conditions as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable; to release obligors or guarantors or refrain from instituting suits or actions for deficiencies; and to expend any sums or use any property as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable for the protection of any property or interest therein.

(l) To borrow money or assets for any purpose, without personal liability therefor, from any person including my personal representative or trustee, and to secure repayment by mortgage or pledge of any property.

(m) To lend assets to any person, including a beneficiary, the estate of a deceased beneficiary, or an estate or other trust in which a beneficiary has an interest, upon any terms and conditions, with or without security, for any purpose which may or will benefit my estate, any trust or any beneficiary.

(n) To exercise, at such times and in such manner as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable, any right of election or other rights which from time to time may be available under the Internal Revenue Code or any other tax law, and to make such other decisions as my personal representative or trustee may deem appropriate with respect to expenses or deductions for estate or income tax purposes, the valuation of assets, the filing of any joint or other income, gift or other tax returns and the apportionment of any joint tax liability, and the payment of any tax or collection of any refund, regardless of the effect of any such action on the interest of any beneficiary of my estate and without the necessity of making adjustments or reimbursements between principal and income or among the beneficiaries of my estate.

(o) To employ and pay the compensation of accountants, attorneys, experts, investment counselors, custodians, agents and other persons or firms providing services or advice, irrespective of whether my personal representative or trustee may be associated therewith; to delegate discretionary powers to such persons or firms; and to rely upon information or advice furnished thereby or to ignore the same, as my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable.

(p) To pay any and all costs, charges, fees, taxes, interest, penalties or other expenses of the administration of my estate, in installments with interest if desired, and except as expressly provided in Article FIRST hereof or elsewhere herein, to charge the same against the income or principal, or partly against each, of my estate or any trust.

(q) To hold property in their names as personal representative or trustee, or in their names without designation of any fiduciary capacity, or in the name of a nominee or nominees, or unregistered, or in bearer form; to deposit property with a custodian or depository; and to remove property from the State of Colorado and keep property in other jurisdictions, without bond, surety or other security.

(r) To pay any legacy or distribute, divide or partition property in cash or in kind, or partly in kind, and to allocate different kinds of property, disproportionate amounts of property and undivided interests in property among any trusts, parts, funds or shares, and to determine the fair valuation of the property so allocated, with or without regard to tax basis; to distribute directly from my estate to beneficiaries of any trust hereunder whether or not such trust has been funded; to hold the principal of separate trusts (including trusts established under the last will and testament of my husband) in a consolidated fund and to invest the same as a single fund; to split trusts for purposes of allocating generation-skipping transfer tax exemptions (within the meaning of Section 2642(a) of the Internal Revenue Code); and to merge any trusts (including trusts established under the last will and testament of my husband) which have substantially identical terms and beneficiaries, and to hold them as a single trust. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this will, if the value of any trust under this will is less than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), as of the date on which it is to be fully funded or at any time thereafter, my personal representative or trustee may terminate the trust and distribute the trust assets to the income beneficiaries thereof or to the guardian, committee, custodian or other legal representative of the income beneficiaries.

(s) To act or refrain from acting in all respects as if financially uninvolved, regardless of any connection with or investment in any business or any conflict of interest between any fiduciary hereunder and my estate or any trust. No personal representative or trustee shall be disqualified or barred from exercising any power or discretion conferred by law or under this will because such fiduciary may be a shareholder, officer, director, member, partner or person in any way interested in a corporation, partnership or other person or entity affected by the exercise of such power or discretion. My personal representative or trustee may contract, in any manner that my personal representative or trustee shall deem advisable, with any such corporation, partnership, person or entity.

(t) To change the situs and/or governing law of any trust hereunder to any State my personal representative or trustee from time to time may deem desirable, and to take such further actions, including without limitation the amendment to the terms of the trust, as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate such change.

(u) To do all acts and execute and deliver all instruments as my personal representative or trustee may deem necessary or advisable to carry out any of the foregoing powers.

No fiduciary shall be liable for acts or omissions in administering my estate or any trust created under this will, except for that fiduciary's own actual fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct. If any fiduciary becomes liable as fiduciary to any other person who is not a beneficiary in connection with any matter not within the fiduciary's control and not due to the fiduciary's actual fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct, such fiduciary shall be fully indemnified and held harmless by my estate or by the trust created hereunder giving rise to such liability, as the case may be, from and against any liability, claim, loss, damage or expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees, that such fiduciary may sustain.

No person who deals with any fiduciary hereunder shall be bound to see to the application of any asset delivered to such fiduciary, or to inquire into the authority for, or propriety of, any action taken or not taken by such fiduciary.

NINTH: In addition to the other powers granted hereunder, my personal representative and trustee shall be entitled to determine the following:

(a) My personal representative or trustee may determine, when there is reasonable doubt or uncertainty as to the applicable law or the relevant facts, which receipts of money or other assets should be credited to income or principal, and which disbursements, commissions, assessments, fees, taxes (except as provided in Article FIRST hereof), and other expenses should be charged to income or principal.

(b) Any distributions or dividends payable in the stock of a corporation, and rights to subscribe to securities or rights other than cash declared or issued by a corporation, shall be dealt with as principal.

(c) The proceeds from the sale, redemption or other disposition, whether at a profit or loss, and regardless of the tax treatment thereof, of any property constituting principal, including mortgages or similar instruments and real estate acquired through foreclosure or otherwise, shall normally be dealt with as principal, but my personal representative or trustee may allocate a portion of any such proceeds to income if the property disposed of produced no income or substantially less than the current rate of return on trust investments, or if my personal representative or trustee shall deem such action advisable for any other reason.

(d) The preceding provisions of this Article NINTH shall not be deemed to authorize any act by my personal representative or trustee which may be a violation of any law prohibiting the accumulation of income.

TENTH: I direct that for purposes of this will a beneficiary shall be deemed to predecease me (or any other person upon whose death the interest of such beneficiary depends) unless such beneficiary survives me (or such other person) by more than thirty days. No bequest or devise hereunder shall be construed as creating a "substitute gift" for the descendants of the beneficiary within the meaning of C.R.S. Sec. 15-11-603 (the Colorado antilapse statute) or any successor thereto.

ELEVENTH: I appoint my husband James Daniel Bush to be my personal representative. If my husband does not survive me, or shall fail to qualify for any reason as my personal representative, or having qualified shall die, resign or cease to act for any reason as my personal representative, I appoint Theodore M. George as my personal representative. If Theodore M. George shall fail to qualify for any reason as my personal representative, or having qualified shall die, resign or cease to act for any reason as my personal representative, I appoint Mark D. George as my personal representative. It is my intention that the probate of my estate be conducted as an administrative, not a judicial, proceeding under the Colorado Probate Code. I therefore direct informal probate of my will, informal appointment of my personal representative, unsupervised administration of my estate, and informal closing of my estate by sworn statement of my personal representative, unless changed circumstances occur which I could not have anticipated and which would necessitate formal or supervised judicial proceedings for the protection of persons interested in my estate.

I appoint Theodore M. George to be my trustee. If Theodore M. George shall fail to qualify for any reason as my trustee, or having qualified shall die, resign or cease to act for any reason as my trustee, I appoint Mark D. George as my trustee.

I direct that no personal representative or trustee shall be required to file or furnish any bond, surety or other security in any jurisdiction.

Any personal representative or trustee, subject to the judicial or non-judicial settlement of the accounts of such personal representative or trustee, may resign at any time by an instrument in writing, signed and acknowledged in duplicate, one counterpart of which shall be delivered to the court in which this will is admitted to probate and the other counterpart of which shall be delivered to the successor personal representative or the successor trustee, as the case may be.

The term "personal representative" wherever used herein shall mean the personal representatives, executors, executor, executrix or administrator in office from time to time. The term "trustee" wherever used herein shall mean the trustees or trustee in office from time to time. Each personal representative and trustee shall have the same rights, powers, duties, authority and privileges, whether or not discretionary, as if originally appointed hereunder.

The terms "child", "children" and issue, wherever used in this will, include children and issue hereafter born.

Any provision herein which refers to a statute, rule, regulation or other specific legal reference which is no longer in effect at the time said provision is to be applied shall be deemed to refer to the successor, replacement or amendment to such statute, rule, regulation or other reference, if any, and shall be interpreted in such a manner so as to carry out the original intent of said provision.

Wherever used in this will and the context so requires, the masculine includes the feminine and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa.

TWELFTH: If my husband shall not survive me or is adjudged to be incapacitated, I appoint Theodore M. George and Sheri L. George, or the survivor of them, to be the co-guardians of the person of any children of mine who have not attained the age of majority or are adjudged to be incapacitated. If both Theodore M. George and Sheri L. George shall fail or cease to act as guardian, I appoint Mark D. George and Lynn M. George as co-guardians. Any guardian appointed hereunder shall have the rights and responsibilities of a parent regarding the health, education, maintenance and support of the ward, but shall not be liable to third persons by reason of the relationship for acts of the ward.

If my husband shall not survive me or is adjudged to be incapacitated, I appoint Theodore M. George and Sheri L. George to be the co-conservators in connection with the estate and affairs of any children of mine who have not attained the age of majority or any children of mine who are under a disability. If both Theodore M. George and Sheri L. George shall fail or cease to act as conservator, I appoint Mark D. George and Lynn M. George as co-conservators.

As used herein, a child who is "incapacitated" shall mean a child who is or becomes impaired by reason of mental illness or deficiency, physical illness or disability, mental or physical infirmities accompanying advanced age, chronic drug abuse or chronic intoxication, or other cause to the extent of lacking sufficient understanding or capacity to make or communicate reasonable decisions. As used herein, a child who is under a "disability" shall mean a child who is unable to manage property and business affairs effectively by reason of mental illness or deficiency, physical illness or disability, mental or physical infirmities accompanying advanced age, chronic drug abuse or chronic intoxication, confinement, detention by a foreign power, or disappearance.

No guardian or conservator shall be required to file or furnish any bond, surety or other security in any jurisdiction. No guardian or conservator shall be required to file an inventory or account in any jurisdiction, or to obtain the approval of any court before exercising any power or discretion granted hereunder or by applicable law. The guardian or conservator shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered in such capacity. Nothing herein shall be construed as limiting the rights or powers of the guardian or conservator. Any trustee hereunder may, but shall not be required to, make payments directly to the guardian or conservator. If my trustee or any trust hereunder is the beneficiary of any life insurance policy, my trustee shall be entitled to the insurance proceeds rather than the guardian or conservator.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, Paula Patricia Bush, sign my name and publish and declare this instrument as my last will and testament this 10th day of May, 2002.
