FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS MATTER came to be heard by the Honorable Philip Smith on June 1, 2022 for final hearing on Petitioner's Complaint for Divorce. Present at the hearing were Petitioner and her counsel. Respondent did not appear. After reviewing the record as a whole, hearing testimony of Petitioner and oral argument, this Honorable Court hereby enters the following FINDINGS and ORDERS:

1. Petitioner filed a Complaint for Divorce on November 16, 2021 on the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct and abandonment.
2. Respondent was properly noticed of the Complaint for Divorce and filed an Answer on March 24, 2022, which was the day before default judgment was to be granted by this Court.
3. Respondent was also properly notified of the final hearing but failed to appear and as such, any counterclaim by Respondent should be dismissed.
4. Respondent, without cause, abandoned the marital residence after being hospitalized for a psychotic break.
5. Prior to abandoning the residence, Respondent did commit a physical assault

EFILED 06/27/22 12:37 PM CASE NO. 21D1621 Richard R. Rooker, Clerk

on Mrs. Eid. Respondent was involuntarily admitted to Centennial Medical Center for psychosis.

6. The Court further finds that Mr. Chin continued to live in a state of paranoia and delusion, as evidenced by Mr. Chin's repeated and unfounded accusations that Mrs. Eid was abusing their minor child.

7. After Mr. Chin abandoned the residence, the Court finds that Mr. Chin moved to an unknown location in Florida where he was arrested and jailed for multiple charges on multiple occasions.

8. The Court finds that Mr. Chin has provided no support for the parties' minor child and has not made any inquiries as to the child's well-being.

9. The Court finds that all of the above constitutes inappropriate marital conduct which is unrebutted and is grounds for awarding an absolute divorce to Mrs. Eid.

10. Additionally, the Court finds that, based on testimony of continued threatening phone calls, even after Mr. Chin was served with the Order of Protection, there is just cause to extend said Order of Protection for one (1) year with the parties' minor child being included in that Order.

11. In regard to the parties' Permanent Parenting Plan, the Court finds great concern regarding the actions of Mr. Chin. Mr. Chin stood by while the child ended up in a pool and made no effort to rescue the two (2) year old, but rather watched as Mrs. Eid had to jump in the pool fully clothed to save the child. Additionally, the Court has grave concern regarding Mr. Chin's violent behavior toward the child, as evidenced by the incident testified to by Mrs. Eid wherein Mr. Chin threw the small child down on the couch during an altercation.

12. The Court will find that Mr. Chin is an unfit parent to have custody or parenting time until he addresses his psychosis.

13. Mrs. Eid will be vested with primary residential parent status, be given 365 days of parenting time, and awarded sole decision making in all areas. Additionally, the Court will impute Mr. Chin with an annual income of $98,974.00 which was his income at his last known workplace, Alliance Bernstein LP. Mrs. Eid will be imputed with an income of minimum wage. Mrs. Eid will have the right to claim the minor child every year for tax purposes. The Court will allow parties to mediate in the future should it be necessary. Mrs. Eid will be required to obtain health insurance when affordable to her and uncovered medical expenses will be divided pro rata.

14. The Court finds that in regard to the real property owned by the parties' located at 1512 Hayden Drive, Nashville, TN, it was purchased on August 2, 2021 and Mr. Chin vacated the home on August 22, 2021 and as such, has made no financial commitment to the home. Mrs. Eid was forced to provide for the home despite Mrs. Eid essentially being a stay-at-home mom at the time Mr. Chin abandoned the relationship. As such, the Court finds it appropriate to award all right, title and interest in the real property to Stephanie Eid. Therefore, all interest in the real property located at 1512 Hayden Drive, Nashville, TN shall be divested from Julian R. Chin and vested to Stephanie Eid. A Quitclaim Deed is not possible to be executed because Julian R. Chin is nowhere to be found. Said real property located at 1512 Hayden Drive, Nashville, TN is recorded in Instrument #20210804-

15. The Court also finds that Mrs. Eid has been put in a severe financial situation since she was abandoned and has received no support, therefore, the Court finds it appropriate to award Stephanie Eid 100% of Julian R. Chin's 401k with Alliance Bernstein LP in order to help offset some of the bills and costs that Mrs. Eid has been forced to incur.

16. The Court also finds that Mr. Chin has incurred an unknown amount of debt since the separation in August 2021 and therefore, all such debt will be his sole responsibility, holding Mrs. Eid harmless on said debt and indemnifying Mrs. Eid, if necessary.

17. This Order does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor to proceed against a party or a party's property, even though the party is not responsible under the terms of the decree for an account, any debt associated with an account or any debt. It may be in a party's best interest to cancel, close or freeze any jointly held accounts.

18. The Court finds an award of appropriate attorney fees and Mr. Chin will be taxed with all costs of this proceeding.

BASED ON THE ABOVE FINDINGS OF FACT IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Wife shall be awarded an absolute divorce on the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct;
2. Wife is awarded 100% of Mr. Chin's 401k with Alliance Bernstein LP. Further, Mrs. Eid's attorney will submit a separate Qualified Domestic Relations Order with no signature from Mr. Chin being required as his whereabouts are unknown;
3. All rights, title and interest in the marital residence and its contents are hereby divested from Julian R. Chin and vested solely to Stephanie Eid. Mr. Chin cannot be located, therefore it is not possible to execute a Quitclaim Deed;

4. The attached Permanent Parenting Plan, which is in compliance with this Court's findings, shall be incorporated into the Final Decree of Divorce and Mr. Chin shall have no visitation or contact with the minor child until such time as he presents himself before this Court and shows that he has addressed his psychosis to the Court's satisfaction and shows that Mr. Chin having any relationship with the minor child is in the child's best interest;
5. The current Order of Protection shall remain in effect and shall be extended for one (1) year and continue to include the minor child;
6. As Mr. Chin failed to appear at the final hearing, any counterclaim by Mr. Chin is hereby dismissed; and
7. Stephanie Eid shall be awarded a judgment for reasonable attorney fees in the amount of $ 6200.00 to be paid by Julian R. Chin, for which execution may issue, if necessary.

C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The parent exercising parenting time shall furnish the other parent with a telephone number where the child may be reached at the days and time specified in a parenting plan or other court order or, where days and times are not specified, at reasonable times;
(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not destroy, deface, open or censor. The parent exercising parenting time shall deliver all letters, packages and other material sent to the child by the other parent as soon as received and shall not interfere with their delivery in any way, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;
(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of the child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;
(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any educational records customarily made available to parents. Upon request from one parent, the parent enrolling the child in school shall provide to the other parent as soon as available each academic year the name, address, telephone number and other contact information for the school. In the case of children who are being homeschooled, the parent providing the homeschooling shall advise the other parent of this fact along with the contact information of any sponsoring entity or other entity involved in the child's education, including access to any individual student records or grades available online. The school or homeschooling entity shall be responsible, upon request, to provide to each parent records customarily made available to parents. The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. These records include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;
(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical, health or other treatment records directly from the treating physician or healthcare provider. Upon request from one parent, the parent who has arranged for such treatment or health care shall provide to the other parent the name, address, telephone number and other contact information of the physician or healthcare provider. The keeper of the records may require a written request including a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. No person who receives the mailing address of a requesting parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;
(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;
(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate, and the opportunity to participate in or observe them. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than forty-eight (48) hours, an itinerary which shall include the planned dates of departure and return, the intended destinations and mode of travel and telephone numbers. The parent traveling with the child or children shall provide this information to the other parent so as to give that parent reasonable notice; and

(9) The right to access and participation in the child's education on the same bases that are provided to all parents including the right of access to the child during lunch and other school activities; provided, that the participation or access is legal and reasonable; however, access must not interfere with the school's day-to-day operations or with the child's educational schedule.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

(a) After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;

(2) Location of proposed new residence;

(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and

(4) Statement that absent agreement between the parents or an objection by the non-relocating parent within thirty (30) days of the date notice is sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with subsection (a), the relocating parent will be permitted to do so by law.

(b) Absent agreement by the parents on a new visitation schedule within thirty (30) days of the notice or upon a timely objection in response to the notice, the relocating parent shall file a petition seeking approval of the relocation. The non-relocating parent has thirty (30) days to file a response in opposition to the petition. In the event no response in opposition is filed within thirty (30) days, the parent proposing to relocate with the child shall be permitted to do so.

(c) (1) If a petition in opposition to relocation is filed, the court shall determine whether relocation is in the best interest of the minor child.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS
