LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOYCE ANN MOSS

BE IT KNOWN ON THIS DAY THAT,

I, JOYCE ANN MOSS, being of legal age and of sound and disposing mind and memory and not acting under duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence of any person, do make, declare, and publish this to be my Last Will and Testament. I hereby revoke any and all prior Wills or Codicils I may have previously made.

ARTICLE ONE
Statement of Family

1.1 Family. I am unmarried at the time of the execution of this Last Will and Testament, and I have two children, James Edward Moss, Jr. and Cynthia Gail Hudson, and I shall refer to them herein as my children. Any reference in this Will to my children is to such children as named in this paragraph.

ARTICLE TWO
Designation of Fiduciaries

2.1 Appointment of Executor. I nominate the following persons to serve as Executor of this Will, with such persons to act successively and in the order named:

I nominate my children, James Edward Moss, Jr. and Cynthia Gail Hudson, to serve together as Co-Executors. In the event that either of my children predeceases me, or for any reason fails to qualify, is unable or unwilling to serve in this capacity, or ceases to act as my Executor, then I nominate the other one of the two of my children to serve individually as Executor.

2.2 Waiver of Bond, Inventory, and Accounting. To the extent permitted by applicable law, no Executor shall be required to furnish bond, file any inventory, or file any accountings with respect to the performance of the Executor's duties.

2.3 Compensation. Any person serving as Executor will render valuable services for which payment of a reasonable fee will be deserved. If any such person desires to be paid a fee, then I do not want any individual serving as Executor to be required to seek approval of a fee from any Court or beneficiary. Accordingly, I authorize any individual serving as Executor to receive and be paid a fee not to exceed the fee that would be charged by a bank or corporate trustee selected by the Executor and located in either my or the Executor's community. If two or more individuals serve at the same time, they shall each receive an equal share of the fee as determined above, unless they agree to divide the fee otherwise. Any person serving as Executor shall also be reimbursed for expenses properly incurred.

ARTICLE THREE
Disposition of Tangible Personal Property

3.1 Tangible Personal Property Definition. "Tangible personal property" includes, but is not limited to, clothing, personal effects, objects of art, collectibles, jewelry, books, glassware, silverware, flatware, other household goods, furniture, furnishings, sports equipment, lawn and farm equipment, motor vehicles, boats, and other similar articles of tangible personal property that I own at my death that are subject to administration by my Executor, including all policies of insurance or the proceeds of policies of insurance that are insuring such property. Tangible personal property does not include money, evidences of indebtedness, securities, tangible personal property used in any trade or business in which I have an interest, or tangible personal property specifically devised in this Will.

3.2 General Bequest of Tangible Personal Property. I bequeath all of my tangible personal property, except for any tangible personal property specifically bequeathed to another in this Will or in any document described below in this Will, to my children in shares of substantially equal value, to be divided among them as they shall agree. To the extent that my children fail to agree as to the division of any one or more items of tangible personal property within a reasonable period of time after my death, or if one or more of my children are disabled or minors, my Executor shall divide the property among my children in as fair, yet practical manner as is appropriate under the circumstances. I bequeath the share for a deceased child to the deceased child's descendants by representation. If a deceased child leaves no descendants, such deceased child's share shall lapse and I bequeath such deceased child's share to my other children or their descendants by representation.

All tangible personal property that I may own at the time of my death, which is not otherwise bequeathed under this Will, shall become a part of my residuary estate, to be distributed as hereinafter provided.

3.3 Memorandum. I may leave a letter or other written document, either in my own handwriting or signed by me or both, addressing the distribution of certain items of my tangible personal property. It is my desire that the wishes expressed in such document be carried out.

3.4 Related Expenses. All reasonable expenses of storing, packing, shipping, delivering, insuring, or selling my tangible personal property shall be paid as an expense of administration and charged against my residuary estate.

ARTICLE FOUR
Disposition of Residuary Estate

4.1 Definition. My residuary estate is all property that is subject to administration by my Executor and not effectively disposed of by the preceding provisions of this Will including, but not limited to, any and all real property or interests in real property subject to administration by my Executor that I may own at the time of my death.

4.2 Residuary Outright to Children. I bequeath all the rest, residue, and remainder of the assets passing under this Will as a result of, or upon, my death to my children in equal shares, outright and free of trust.

I bequeath the share for a deceased child to the deceased child's descendants. If a deceased child leaves no descendants, such deceased child's share shall lapse and I devise and bequeath such deceased child's share to my other children (with, as mentioned previously, the assets for a deceased child to pass to such deceased child's descendants).

ARTICLE FIVE
Administrative Provisions

5.1 Payment of Debts, Taxes, and Administration Expenses. All of my legally enforceable debts (except secured debts, which may be paid or retained in the discretion of the Executor, and if paid shall be without right of contribution from my spouse), my funeral expenses, and the expenses of administration of my estate shall be paid by my Executor when practicable. All debts and expenses shall be paid from funds considered to be in the residue of my estate and shall not reduce any specific gifts, devises, or bequests so long as there are sufficient funds in the residue to pay any required amounts of debts and expenses. If there are not sufficient funds in the residue to pay all required debts and expenses, I direct my Executor to reduce any specific gifts, devises, or bequests on a proportional basis in order to pay all required debts and expenses.

My Executor shall pay out of my residuary estate all estate, inheritance and other death taxes which shall become payable by reason of my death, whether in respect of property passing under this Will or otherwise, as an expense of administration, without apportionment.

This provision shall not extend the statute of limitations for the payment of debts, or enlarge upon my legal obligation or any statutory duty of my Executor to pay debts.

5.2 Powers of Executor. My Executor, in the exercise of a reasonable discretion with respect to all property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of my estate, may exercise any and all of the powers that an Executor may exercise under the applicable laws of the State of Tennessee including, but not limited to, the powers enumerated in Tennessee Code Annotated Section 35-50-110 which are incorporated by reference as well as any other powers granted in Title 35 of the Tennessee Code, even if such statute is amended or repealed hereafter and even if my estate is administered in a state other than Tennessee. I grant to my Executor the authority to appoint a resident Co-Executor if applicable law requires.

If Multiple Executors serve they are to serve jointly and the signatures of all then-serving Executors are required in order to exercise the powers of such office, subject, however, to the following exceptions: if at any time there are two (2) or more persons serving in a fiduciary capacity hereunder, then, by a sworn written statement, each such person may grant to the other(s) the power and authority to act alone and without the consent of the other person(s) for all purposes or for designated purposes hereunder; and, if at any time there are three (3) or more persons serving in a fiduciary capacity hereunder, and if they are not in unanimous agreement as to any action hereunder, then they shall act by majority consent concerning the action in question.

Any real property I own at my death is to be administered as a part of my probate estate subject to the control of the Executor for purposes of administration, as authorized by Tennessee Code Annotated Section 31-2-103. So long as the Executor serves, the Executor shall have the same power over the title to real property as an absolute owner would have including, but not limited to, the power to sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise convey any interest in any real estate without the signature, consent, or approval of any heir, legatee, devisee, beneficiary, court, or other person, provided that in exercising such power the Executor shall be acting in a fiduciary, not an individual, capacity.

The proceeds of any life insurance payable to my Executor or my estate are to be free from the claims of creditors and are to be held and distributed as provided by the terms of this Will. My Executor may use (but shall not be required to use) any portion of such proceeds as my Executor deems advisable, exercising a reasonable discretion, for the payment of debts, expenses, and taxes, but only if my Executor deems such use of the proceeds to be in the best interests of my legatees and beneficiaries hereunder.

5.3 Choice of Law. The laws of the State of Tennessee shall govern this Will.

5.4 Minority or Incapacity. During the minority or incapacity of any person (the "beneficiary") to whom any trust income or any trust principal or any cash bequest or gift or any other distribution of property is payable, the Executor or Trustee, exercising a reasonable discretion, may make distribution in any one or more of the following ways: (1) directly to such beneficiary such amount as the Executor or Trustee may deem advisable as an allowance; (2) to the guardian, conservator or limited guardian (including the Executor or Trustee) of the person or of the property of such beneficiary; (3) to a custodian (including the Executor or Trustee) in accordance with the Tennessee Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, to hold until such person reaches age 25 or any lower age that such custodian determines appropriate; (4) to a relative (including the Executor or Trustee) of such beneficiary upon the agreement of such relative to expend such income or principal solely for the benefit of the beneficiary; or (5) by expending such income or principal directly for such beneficiary; or (6) to invest in or contribute to a qualified Internal Revenue Code Section 529 plan as an account owner on behalf of a beneficiary and exercise any options under such account consistent with the purposes set forth herein.

If the capacity of any person who is an Executor or Trustee or beneficiary under this Will is in question, the person in question shall be conclusively deemed to be incapacitated for all purposes under this Will upon the first to occur of the following:

(1) a written statement that because of any disability, illness, or other reason the person in question is unable to give prompt and intelligent consideration to his or her financial and/or legal affairs (a legal adjudication of incapacity, or a certification tantamount thereto, shall not be required to invoke this provision), which is signed by such person's personal, attending physician; or

(2) a determination by a court of competent jurisdiction holding the person in question to be legally incapacitated to act in such person's own behalf or the appointment by such court of a guardian or conservator of such person's person or property.

5.5 Casualty Insurance. Each casualty insurance policy covering an item of property passing under this Will passes with such property. The recipient of such property is not to be charged for any unearned premium already paid. If any insured item of property passing under this Will has been destroyed or damaged, the insurance proceeds recovered or recoverable therefrom are to be paid to the recipient of such damaged or destroyed item in place of any destroyed item and in addition to any damaged item.

ARTICLE SIX
Miscellaneous Provisions

6.1 References to Executor. For convenience, any Executor, Trustee, or other fiduciary named or referred to herein (including any alternate or successor) is sometimes referred to in the singular person and masculine gender regardless of the number or gender of those actually named herein.

6.2 Distribution to Descendants. Unless specifically provided otherwise herein, references to descendants shall include natural-born and adopted descendants, and distribution to the descendants of any deceased person under this Will shall be per stirpes.

6.3 Survivorship. If any beneficiary under this Will fails to survive me by one hundred twenty (120) hours, it shall be deemed for all purposes of this Will that such beneficiary did not survive me.

6.4 Headings and Titles. The headings and paragraph titles herein are for reference only and are not intended to have legal effect nor shall they define or limit the provisions contained therein.
