4th Circuit Court Davidson County, Tennessee	2012 AUG 15 AM 9:56 RICHARD R. ROOKER, CLERK FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE ~~(WITH MARITAL~~ DISSOLUTION AGREEMENT)	Case Number 12D-975
Lenora A. Elliott (Plaintiff(s)) vs. Celester T. Elliott (Defendant(s))

This case was heard on August 15, 2012 [date]. The Court finds that the parties have made adequate and sufficient provision in a Marital Dissolution Agreement for the equitable division of all property and debts between them. It is attached and incorporated as part of this Decree. On the basis of the Complaint, the Marital Dissolution Agreement, and the entire record, the Court finds good cause to enter this Final Decree.

Therefore, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

DISSOLUTION OF THE MARRIAGE

The marriage of the parties is dissolved because of irreconcilable differences. Plaintiff is granted an absolute divorce from the Defendant and the parties are restored to the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

NOTICE

This Final Decree does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor from proceeding against either party or their property, even though one party may no longer be responsible under this decree for an account or debt. It may be in either party's best interest to cancel, close, or freeze any jointly held accounts.

CHILD OR CHILDREN

Select one of the following:

☐ There is no child under age 18 or disabled and dependent on the parties.

☒ The Court has jurisdiction over each child under age 18 or disabled and dependent on the parties. The Court finds that the parties have made adequate and sufficient provision by a Permanent Parenting Plan for the custody and maintenance of each child. It is attached and incorporated as part of this Decree. Child support provisions are found in Section 3 of the Plan.

Enforcement of Child Support Obligations by the State of Tennessee

☒ Neither parent is receiving assistance from the State of Tennessee on behalf of a child. Title IV-D of the Social Security Act does not apply.

☐ A parent is receiving assistance from the State of Tennessee on behalf of a child. Title IV-D of the Social Security Act does apply. A Title IV-D Information Sheet is attached and made a part of this Decree.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. §36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations;

(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not open or censor;

(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any event of hospitalization, major illness or death of the child;

(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any school records customarily made available to parents. (The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and upon payment of reasonable costs of duplicating.) These include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical health or other treatment records directly from the physician or health care provider who provided treatment or health care. (The keeper of the records may require a written request which contains a current mailing address and the payment of reasonable costs of duplication.) No person who receives the mailing address of a parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about the parent or his or her family by the other parent to the child or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extra-curricular activities, and the opportunity to participate or observe them. These include the following: school activities, athletic activities, church activities and other activities where parental participation or observation would be appropriate;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than two (2) days, an itinerary including telephone numbers for use in the event of an emergency;

(9) The right to access and participation in education on the same basis that is provided to all parents. This includes the right of access to the child for lunch and other activities. However, participation or access must be reasonable and not interfere with day-to-day operations or with the child's educational performance.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. §36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

If a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than one hundred (100) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that the other parent may file a petition in opposition to the move within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by ☐ both parents ☐ mother ☐ father ☒ neither. Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Asking to be exempt as divorce complaint is uncontested due to irreconcilable differences.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. (A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent rather than one agreed by both parents.)
