FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause was before the Court, the Honorable Muriel Robinson, Special Circuit Court Judge, on September 13, 2022. Plaintiff/wife Maybol Lwandy filed her Complaint for Divorce on July 22, 2021. The defendant was personally served with the Summons and Complaint for Divorce on August 5, 2021. In an Order entered on August 30, 2022, the Court granted plaintiff/wife a judgment by default, waived the requirements for mediation and a parenting seminar, and set this matter for a final hearing on September 13, 2022.

Plaintiff/wife Maybol Lwandy appeared and was represented by counsel. An Arabic interpreter was appointed to aid plaintiff/ wife. Defendant/husband Hakem Gerges, although properly notified of the hearing, did not appear.

The Court considered the sworn testimony of plaintiff/wife Maybol Lwandy and heard the testimony, in chambers, of the parties' daughter Losia Gerges; the Court found the child to be very mature for her age and she understood the meaning of testifying under oath. Her testimony corroborated the testimony given by Ms. Lwandy. Finally, the Court considered the findings and conclusions entered by the Court when granting plaintiff/wife an Order of Protection against her husband on February 26, 2021. The Special Master specifically found that defendant/husband had done the things stated in the Petition seeking an order of protection. Those findings and conclusions are res judicata in this matter. (A copy of the Order of Protection entered on February 26, 2021, was made an exhibit at the hearing.)

Based upon the testimony and the findings and conclusions from the previous Order of Protection proceeding, the Court concludes that plaintiff/wife Maybol Lwandy is entitled to an absolute divorce upon the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct. Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-4-101(a)(11).

The Court further concludes that plaintiff/wife Maybol Lwandy shall be named primary residential parent of the parties' four children. Because defendant/husband is in default and failed to appear at the hearing, defendant/husband Hakem Gerges will not be awarded any parenting time with the children, but he will have the option to move the Court for parenting time if he chooses to do so. When calculating child support, defendant/husband, who is currently unemployed because he is incarcerated, will be imputed to be able to earn a minimum wage working full time, pursuant to the Child Support Guidelines. The Court will adopt the Permanent Parenting Plan submitted by plaintiff/wife Lwandy and incorporate it verbatim into this Final Decree.

The parties jointly own real property at 2903 Sheana Way in Antioch, Tennessee, which property is more specifically described as:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 91-B on the plan of ZONE LOT DIVISION LOT 91, CHELSEA OF PRIEST LAKE, SEC. TWO-A, as shown on plat of record in Book 6250, Page 955, amending Book 6250, Page 423, Register's Office for Davidson County, reference to which is hereby made for a more complete description.
> Being the same property conveyed to Andrew Hamilton, a single man by Warranty Deed dated 02/22/2018 from 1 Public Homes, LLC, a Tennessee Limited Liability Company, of record in Instrument 20180226-0017766, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.
> All matters shown on the plat of record in Book, 6250, Page 423, amended in Book 6250, Page 955, in the Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

Plaintiff/wife Maybol Lwandy is awarded sole title to said real property, with any interest that defendant Hakem Gerges may have in that real property being divested from him.

The parties have divided personal property and plaintiff/wife Lwandy will be awarded full title and interest to all personal property, including personal property of the parties' children, currently in her possession with defendant Gerges being divested of any ownership in that property. Defendant/husband Hakem Gerges is awarded all interest and title to personal property in his possession. The parties have no joint marital debt.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that plaintiff/wife Maybol Lwandy shall be awarded an absolute divorce on the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct. Both parties shall be restored to all rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff/wife Maybol Lwandy shall be named primary residential parent for the parties' four minor children with defendant/husband Hakem Gerges being afforded no parenting time. Defendant may move the Court for parenting time if he so chooses. The attached Permanent Parenting Plan is approved and adopted by the Court and incorporated verbatim into this Final Decree.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The child or children are scheduled to reside the majority of the time as designated in Section I.A. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to:

☐ Mediation by a neutral party chosen by the parents or the Court.
☐ Arbitration by a neutral party selected by parents or the Court.
☒ The Court DUE TO ORDER OF PROTECTION OR RESTRICTIONS.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by ☐ written request ☐ certified mail ☒ other: motion.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) Father has been awarded no parenting time with the children and will not, at this time, have the right to call the children. Father may petition the Court to grant him the right to have reasonable phone calls with the children;
(2) Father has been awarded no parenting time with the children and will not, at this time, have the right to send mail to them. Father may petition the Court to grant him the right to send mail to the children;
(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of the child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;
(4) The father will not, at this time, have the right to access educational records or other educational information about the children. Father may petition the Court to grant him the right to have access to the children's educational records and to participate in the children's educational activities;
(5) Father will not, at this time, have the right to receive copies of any of the children's medical, health or other treatment records. Father may petition the Court to grant him the right to have access to the records;
(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;
(7) Father will not, at this time, have the right to notice of the children's school, athletic, or church activities. Father may petition the Court to grant him that right; and
(8) Father will not, at this time, have the right to access and participation in the Children's education. Father may petition the Court to him the right to access to the children's education.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

(a) After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that absent agreement between the parents or an objection by the non-relocating parent within thirty (30) days of the date notice is sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with subsection (a), the relocating parent will be permitted to do so by law.

(b) Absent agreement by the parents on a new visitation schedule within thirty (30) days of the notice or upon a timely objection in response to the notice, the relocating parent shall file a petition seeking approval of the relocation. The non-relocating parent has thirty (30) days to file a response in opposition to the petition. In the event no response in opposition is filed within thirty (30) days, the parent proposing to relocate with the child shall be permitted to do so.

(c) (1) If a petition in opposition to relocation is filed, the court shall determine whether relocation is in the best interest of the minor child.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by ☐ both parents Ξ mother ☐ father ☐ neither. Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.
