FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Stanley A. Kweller, on the 26th day of July 2023, upon the Complaint for Divorce filed in this cause by Husband on May 5, 2021, upon the written Marital Dissolution Agreement executed by the parties, upon the Permanent Parenting Plan executed by the parties, and upon the entire record in this cause, from all of which the Court finds that the parties have experienced such irreconcilable differences in their marriage as would render further cohabitation improper, and that the parties should be granted an absolute divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the Plaintiff/Husband, Fady Nagib, and the Defendant/Wife, Marian Ella Lawendy, are absolutely and forever dissolved, that the parties are granted an absolute divorce from each other, and that the parties are restored to all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

The Court affirmatively finds that there is (1) minor child born of this marriage, and by written agreement the parties have made adequate and sufficient provisions for the custody and support of the minor child and the Permanent Parenting Plan is in the child's best interests.

It further appears to the Court that the parties have entered an agreed written and executed Marital Dissolution Agreement and the Court affirmatively finds that the parties have made adequate and sufficient provisions by these written agreements for the fair and equitable settlement and division of any property rights between them.

In addition, the agreed upon and executed Marital Dissolution Agreement and Permanent Parenting Plan are attached to this Final Decree of Divorce and are incorporated herein by reference as if copied verbatim.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all parts and portions of the Marital Dissolution Agreement and the Permanent Parenting Plan executed by the parties are approved by the Court, incorporated into the Final Decree of Divorce and shall become the judgment of the Court:

MARITAL DISSOLUTION AGREEMENT

This Marital Dissolution Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between FADY NAGIB, hereinafter called Husband, and MARIAN ELIA LAWENDY, hereinafter called Wife.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, these parties have been married since January 12, 2020, and there is one (1) minor child of the marriage;

WHEREAS, certain differences and difficulties have arisen between the parties, the above-referenced divorce action has been filed in the Davidson County Circuit Court, and the parties have no expectation of resuming their marital relationship;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to enter into an agreement with regard to their respective rights and obligations arising out of or from their marital relationship in an amicable and mutually acceptable manner;

WHEREAS, the parties desire, by this Agreement, to make an equitable division of all their property; settle and determine all claims for alimony; divide all property, both real and personal, owned by one or both of them; divide responsibility for all current indebtedness incurred during the marriage; and to provide for the care, custody, and control of the minor child; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and undertakings hereinafter more fully set forth, and for other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by both parties, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. DIVORCE. The parties acknowledge that this Marital Dissolution Agreement shall be submitted to the Court for approval, and, if approved, made part of the Court's Final Judgment of Divorce. Husband shall proceed on his Complaint for Divorce and obtain an agreed divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences.

2. CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT. There is one (1) minor child of this marriage. The rights and obligations of each of the parties with respect to the minor child are as outlined in the Permanent Parenting Plan, which is attached hereto, and which is incorporated by reference as fully as if included verbatim herein, and the parties agree that said Permanent Parenting Plan is in the best interest of the minor child. This Marital Dissolution Agreement is entered into in consideration of the simultaneously executed Permanent Parenting Plan being incorporated by reference and as a part of the Marital Dissolution Agreement. If the Permanent Parenting Plan is repudiated, this Marital Dissolution Agreement is repudiated as well and there is no agreement as to the Marital Dissolution Agreement or the Permanent Parenting Plan, as, in the event of repudiation of the Permanent Parenting Plan, the Marital Dissolution Agreement shall automatically become null and void.

F.N

The parties agree that Father's child support obligation shall continue to be $1,900.00 per month during the child's minority, ~~regardless of~~ so long as this meets or exceeds M.L the presumptive child support obligation. The parties intend for this to be a contractual obligation, with the exception that, in the event Father becomes disabled and unable to work or some other unforeseen material change in circumstance arises which makes Father unable to earn a reasonable income, then Father may Petition the Court with regard to a potential modification of his child support obligation. *

3. PERSONAL PROPERTY. The parties have already divided the personal property. Husband is awarded, as his sole and separate property, all of the personal property and household furnishings currently in his possession and/or control, and title to such items is hereby vested in Husband and divested from Wife.

Wife is awarded, as her sole and separate property, all of the personal property and household furnishings currently in her possession and/or control, and title to such items is hereby vested in Wife and divested from Husband.

Further, each of the parties shall receive as his or her sole and separate property all furniture, furnishings, books, papers, photographs, class rings, sports memorabilia, and other personal property, which he or she owned, respectively, at the time of their marriage to each other.

Moreover, each of the parties shall receive as his or her sole or separate property any non-monetary gifts of personal property which were given to him or her individually (not jointly) during their marriage. Each of the parties shall receive as his or her separate property his or her clothing, decorative jewelry, and other personal effects.

4. AUTOMOBILES. Husband is vested with sole right, title and interest in and to the 2008 Mercedes vehicle, and Wife is divested of any interest she may have therein. Husband shall be fully responsible for the timely payment of any and all indebtedness, insurance, maintenance, repairs and all other expenses associated with said vehicle, and he shall indemnify and hold Wife harmless with regard to same.

Wife does not maintain an ownership interest in any vehicle.

5. REAL PROPERTY. The marital residence is located at 7265 Santeelah Way, Antioch TN 37013 ("Property"). The Property is more specifically described as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 70 on the Plan of Section One of Phase One, Addition to Indian Creek, RS-10 Subdivision- Cluster Lot Option of record in Plat at Instrument No. 20060330-0035946, in the Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, to which Plan reference is hereby made for a more complete description of the property.
> Being the same property conveyed to Fady Nagib, by Warranty Deed from Latissha M. Acey, of record at Instrument No. 20190911-0092046, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, dated August 29, 2019 and recorded on September 11, 2019.
> Said property is commonly known as 7265 Santeelah Way, Antioch, Tennessee 37013.

The mortgage on the Property is in Husband's name and he owes approximately ($253,000.00) as of June 28, 2023. The parties acknowledge that no title search has been conducted; however, Husband represents that there are no outstanding liens against the Property other than for the mortgage referenced herein. Wife previously vacated the Property, such that Husband shall have exclusive possession of the same, pending its sale. Husband shall be solely responsible for the timely payment of any and all indebtedness, insurance, repairs, maintenance and any other expenses associated with the Property, pending its sale, and he shall hold Wife harmless and indemnify her thereon. Husband shall receive all tax deductions associated with the Property for future tax years. Husband shall not further encumber the Property.

Husband shall list the Property for sale with agent Hany Attaallah on or before July 7, 2023, at a list price of $499,000.00. The parties shall follow the reasonable recommendations of the real estate agent concerning any modifications to the list price and shall mutually agree upon any modifications to the list price prior to any change being made. Husband shall keep the Property in good and showable condition. Both parties shall be included in communications with the real estate agent and shall be informed of all offers on the Property and shall mutually agree upon the acceptance of any offer and/or the substance of any counteroffer. The parties shall not unreasonably withhold consent to a reasonable offer. The transfer of the Property shall be an arms-length transaction between unrelated and unaffiliated parties and shall be for the fair market value of the Property. After payoff of all mortgage indebtedness associated with the Property, payment of real estate commissions, and any closing costs, the net proceeds shall be applied as follows: (1) as property division, to be considered as alimony in solido, Wife shall receive the first Eighty Thousand Dollars ($80,000.00) via cashier's check payable to Wife's counsel at "Karla Hewitt, IOLTA Account," in the sum of Eighty Thousand Dollars ($80,000.00) and Wife's counsel shall then distribute funds to Wife, after payment of the remaining balance of attorney fees then owed by Wife; (2) cashier's check payable to Husband's counsel at "Jill Hudson, Attorney At Law" in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00); and (3) any remaining net proceeds shall be awarded to Husband. Wife shall have a lien against the Property in the amount of $80,000.00 pending the sale of the same, which the Wife may secure by filing the same with the Register of Deeds Office. The Court shall retain jurisdiction in regard to any issues which may arise in regard to the sale of the Property. In the event the Property has not sold within four (4) months of being listed for sale, then either party may file a motion with the Court for the Property to be sold at auction, with a reserve price such that Wife will receive her $80,000.00 after the payoff of the mortgage, payment of any fees/commissions and any closing costs.

6. DEBT. The parties represent that there are no joint marital debts.

Husband shall pay any debts which were incurred in his separate name before or during the marriage, including but not limited to any credit card indebtedness, and he shall indemnify and hold Wife harmless thereon.

Wife shall pay any debts which were incurred in her separate name before or during the marriage, including but not limited to any credit card indebtedness, and she shall indemnify and hold Husband harmless thereon.

Neither party shall incur any indebtedness in the parties' joint names or in the other party's name. After the execution of this Agreement, the primary cardholder for each open credit card account shall remove the other party, if listed as an authorized user, from the account. Further, after the execution of this Agreement, neither party shall place any charges on a credit card account for which the other party is the primary cardholder. Neither party shall contract any indebtedness on the credit of, or secured by the property of, the other from and after the date of the execution of this Agreement. In the event additional indebtedness is incurred on the credit of the other party after the date of the execution of this Agreement, then the party who incurred the debt shall be solely responsible for the debt itself and any and all liability associated with the debt, and the responsible party shall hold the other party harmless and indemnify the other from any and all liability related thereto.

In the event a creditor of either party seeks to compel the other party to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible, either by law, contract or pursuant to the terms of the parties' agreement announced to the Court at the hearing of this cause, and set forth herein, the party against whom the claim is made will be entitled to recover from the other party the amount of any payment he or she makes, including interest and any expenses incurred in defending the creditor's claim, including reasonable attorney's fees.

Pursuant to T.C.A. §36-4-134, both parties understand that this Agreement does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor to proceed against a party or a party's property, even though the party is not responsible under the terms of the Agreement for an account, any debt associated with an account, or any debt. Further, it may be in a party's best interest to cancel, close or freeze any jointly held accounts.

7. BANKING ACCOUNTS. The parties represent that they do not maintain any joint banking accounts.

Husband is awarded any and all banking accounts maintained in his name, free and clear of any claim of Wife. Husband is vested with all right, title, and interest in and to all such banking accounts and all funds maintained therein, and Wife is divested of any interest therein.

Wife is awarded any and all banking accounts maintained in her name, free and clear of any claim of Husband. Wife is vested with all right, title, and interest in and to all such banking accounts and all funds maintained therein, and Husband is divested of any interest therein.

8. RETIREMENT BENEFITS. Neither party maintains any interest in any retirement benefits.

9. BUSINESS. Husband maintains an ownership interest in a business by the name of Goldstar International, LLC. Husband is awarded all of his interest in and to Goldstar International, LLC, as well as all assets held by Goldstar International, LLC, and Wife is divested of any interest therein. Further, Husband shall be solely responsible for all indebtedness owed by or related to Goldstar International, LLC, including but not limited to any and all Small Business Administration Loans, PPP loans, and any other loans, and Husband shall hold Wife harmless and indemnify her with regard to any such indebtedness, sureties, or liabilities, whether in tort or contract.

Husband's father maintains an ownership interest in a business by the name of FHMY Realty Investors, LLC (FHMY). The parties acknowledge that Wife has no interest in FHMY or any assets held by FHMY. Further, the parties acknowledge that Wife owes no debt related to FHMY and that Husband shall indemnify Wife with regard to any and all such indebtedness, sureties, or liabilities, whether in tort or contract.

10. HOTEL, AIRLINE, AND CREDIT CARD POINTS. Each party shall be awarded all right, title and interest in any and all hotel, airline and credit card points listed in his or her name, free and clear of any and all claims by the other party.

11. LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES. Each party shall be awarded any life insurance policy(ies) currently held in his or her name, including any cash surrender values, free and clear of any claim of the other party.

12. MEDICAL INSURANCE. Neither party is currently covered under the other party's medical insurance coverage. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own uncovered medical or dental expenses incurred after the execution of this Agreement, and each party shall hold the other harmless from any liability therefor.

13. CELLULAR TELEPHONE PLAN. Within ten (10) days of the execution of this Agreement, the parties shall separate telephone services by whatever means necessary. Each party shall retain his or her current device(s), free and clear of any claim of the other party and shall be responsible for any remining payments due and owing thereon. Each party shall execute any and all necessary documentation in order to release the other's telephone number to the other party within ten (10) days of such a request being made by the other party.

14. ALIMONY. See Paragraph 5 herein above regarding alimony in solido. However, Husband shall pay to Wife the amount of $700.00 per month in periodic alimony, beginning on the 5th day of the month following entry of the Final Decree of Divorce and continuing to become due on the 5th day of each month therafter, ~~pending~~ and terminating upon Wife's receipt of the Eighty Thousand Dollars ($80,000.00) referenced in Paragraph 5 herein above. Otherwise, no further claim is being made by either party against the other with respect to any type of alimony, and both parties, respectively, by the execution of this Agreement, waive all rights to claim alimony, forevermore.

15. ATTORNEY FEES. Both parties acknowledge that Husband has been represented by attorney Jill Hudson and that Wife has been represented by attorney Rachel S. Upshaw of Miller Upshaw Family Law, PLLC. Each party shall be responsible for the payment of his or her own attorney fees.

16. COURT COSTS. Husband shall be responsible for the payment of the court costs in this matter, for which execution shall issue.

17. PREVIOUS YEARS TAX LIABILITY. If in connection with any joint Federal Income Tax Returns previously filed by the parties, there is a deficiency assessment, the amount ultimately determined to be due shall be borne by either or both of the parties, depending on whether the deficiency arose out of the individual income, deduction, or misreporting of one or the other parties, (and if so, to that extent), or out of a joint income deduction.

In such case, the party responsible for the deficiency, or additional taxes owed, together with interest and penalties assessed shall indemnify and hold harmless from any liability, assessment, deficiency, and other costs, including, but not limited to, attorney fees and accountant fees, arising by reason of the spouse's failure to pay taxes or accurately report same. In addition, each party agrees that he or she will hold the other harmless from any and all financial responsibility to the federal or state taxing authorities for later imposed tax payments, deficiencies, penalties or interest and/or costs related to amendments to the parties' joint tax returns, which may arise from any understatement of income, overstatement of deductions and/or tax credits, loss carryovers, tax shelters, or any other reason relating to income received by or assets controlled by the responsible spouse.

The parties further agree that any costs or fees necessary to defend any deficiency, penalty or interest claim, or any other taxing authority claims with respect to the parties' joint federal or state tax returns shall be assumed and paid by the responsible party. In the event that the parties are entitled to a tax refund for any tax year in which they previously filed a joint tax return, the parties shall equally divide the amount of the refund and shall equally divide the costs, if any, of obtaining the refund.

18. NON-DISCHARGEABILITY. Whenever one party is required by the terms of this agreement to assume responsibility for paying certain debts incurred jointly and/or to indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any liability for any such jointly incurred debts, the parties intend to create a support debt that will be non-dischargeable in the event of the bankruptcy of the obligor spouse pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(5). The parties affirmatively acknowledge that such support is necessary to ensure that all needs of the non-obligor spouse are satisfied and that all support obligation, when viewed as a whole, are neither excessive nor unreasonable, under traditional concepts of support, given the past and future ability of the non-obligor spouse to produce income.

19. TAX EXEMPT STATUS. This Agreement is a transfer of appreciated property between spouses in connection with a divorce and is not a sale or exchange or other disposition but represents a division of property by co-owners.

20. COOPERATION. Each of the parties shall promptly execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all instruments and documents in writing which shall reasonably be required for the purposes of effectuating the provisions and intent of this Agreement. Further, each of the parties shall promptly provide any necessary information to the other party as may be reasonably requested in order to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

21. ENFORCEMENT & WAIVER. In the event it becomes necessary for either party to engage in legal proceedings to procure enforcement of, or the defense of, any provision of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall also be entitled to a judgment for attorney fees and litigation expenses incurred in prosecuting or defending such action including, but not limited to, attorney fees and court costs, including any fees or costs incurred in any contempt action or in any appeals. No breach, waiver, or default of any of the terms of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of the any of the terms of this Agreement.

22. DISCOVERY WAIVER. The parties acknowledge their respective rights pursuant to the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure to participate in both further discovery as part of this proceeding. However, each party affirmatively waives and releases his or her rights to conduct discovery in this matter and, instead, desires to settle this case pursuant to the terms contained in this Agreement, subject to the Court's approval. The parties enter into this Agreement with the belief that he or she has adequate knowledge of his/her own income and financial status, as well as the income and financial status of the other party. The parties further enter into this Agreement with the belief that he or she has adequate knowledge of the assets and liabilities of the marriage and of the separate estate of the other party. Accordingly, the parties hereby release and forever discharge any and all claims they have, may have had or may hereafter have against counsel for either party related to discovery.

23. FULL DISCLOSURE. Each party warrants to the other that they have made a full disclosure of all assets and liabilities to one another and, in the event any undisclosed marital assets are later discovered, then the other party shall be entitled to one-half (50%) of the marital portion of said undisclosed marital asset.

24. SUBSEQUENT DEBT. Husband shall not at any time after execution of this Agreement incur any debt or obligation for which Wife or her estate may be or become liable. If Husband does incur such a debt, Husband shall indemnify and hold harmless Wife to the full extent of the amount of the debt, including interest, expenses, legal expenses, and attorney fees. Wife shall not at any time after execution of this Agreement incur any debt or obligation for which Husband or his estate may be or become liable. If Wife does incur such a debt, Wife shall indemnify and hold harmless Husband to the full extent of the amount of the debt, including interest, expenses, legal expenses, and attorney fees.

25. FINAL SETTLEMENT & RELEASE. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided in this Agreement, Husband and Wife hereby waive, release, renounce, relinquish, and quitclaim all claims and rights which either of them ever had, now has, or may hereafter have, to share in any capacity or to any extent whatsoever, in the property or estate of the other, whether by way of statutory allowance, dower, curtesy, distribution in intestacy, right of election against the will of the other, or otherwise under the present or future laws of any jurisdiction. Except as expressly reserved to the parties in this Agreement, each party by these presents does for himself or herself and his or her heirs, legal representatives, executors, administrators, and assigns, remise, release, and forever discharge the other of all claims, causes of action, demands, and rights, in law or equity, including any tort claims, which either party has ever had or now has against the other, except any and all causes of action for divorce.

26. INCORPORATION OF AGREEMENT INTO FINAL DECREE. The parties desire that this Agreement be incorporated as a part of any final judgment of divorce that may hereafter be entered, and to that end agree that it shall be submitted to the Court for its ratification and approval.

27. REVOCATION OR PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED DOCUMENTS. The parties agree that, except as otherwise provided by the terms of this Agreement, all documents heretofore executed by the parties which designates the other party as a beneficiary shall be, and are hereby, revoked. Such documents shall include, but not be limited to, wills, powers of attorney, beneficiary designations under insurance policies, annuities, retirement programs, employee benefit programs, and bank accounts. It is the intent of the parties to this Agreement that neither party shall receive any proceeds as a beneficiary of the other party from and after the execution of this Agreement unless otherwise provided by the terms of this Agreement or unless a new beneficiary designation is hereafter executed designating the other party as the beneficiary.

28. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the parties. There are no agreements or understandings between them, other than those agreements and understandings expressly mentioned in this Agreement. There have been no representations or warranties made by either party to the other party, or by anyone on behalf of them, other than those expressly mentioned in this Agreement. This Agreement supersedes and merges any and all prior agreements between the parties, including both oral and written prior agreements.

29. VOLUNTARY EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT. The parties understand and agree that neither party is under any duress or undue influence at the time of the execution of this Agreement and that this Agreement is entered into freely, knowledgeably, and voluntarily by both parties, without any fraud, coercion, or misrepresentation by either party. Each party acknowledges that he/she has fully read and understands this Agreement prior to the execution of the same, and each party acknowledges that the Agreement is fair and equitable in all respects. Each party agrees to abide by the provisions of this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that this Agreement has been entered into of his or her volition with full knowledge and information. In some instances, it represented a compromise of disputed issues. Each believes the terms and conditions to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances. No coercion or undue influence has been used by or against either party in making this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that no representations of any kind have been made to him or her as an inducement to enter into this Agreement other than the representations set forth herein.

30. NO TAX-ADVICE PROVIDED. Both parties acknowledge that they are not relying upon any tax advice from the attorneys, and that the attorneys have expressed no expertise regarding the tax ramifications or tax consequences which may arise as a result of this Agreement.

The parties have been advised to seek tax counseling regarding the consequences of this Agreement from their own accountant or tax attorney and the parties acknowledge that they have had the opportunity to do so.

31. NO REAL ESTATE ADVICE PROVIDED. The parties acknowledge that neither received nor relied upon their attorneys in this divorce case for expert legal advice in real estate law. Both parties acknowledge and understand that they had the opportunity to consult with a real estate attorney and knowingly and voluntarily waived the opportunity. Similarly, they understand that a title search and home inspection may reveal information not known to them about their real estate but they have elected to forgo those processes and to nonetheless enter into this Agreement.

32. JURISDICTION AND VENUE. Wife herein was personally served in this matter and filed an Answer to the same. Wife acknowledges that this Court has personal jurisdiction over her for the purpose of granting an agreed divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences. The parties acknowledge that jurisdiction and venue are proper pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-4-104 (a) and § 36-4-105 (a), and both parties waive all complaints as to any defects in jurisdiction or venue.

33. BINDING ON ESTATES. This Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties' respective successors, assigns, heirs, representatives and administrators of the parties hereto.

34. CHOICE OF LAW. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Tennessee.

35. SEVERABILITY. In the event any provision of this Agreement shall be held invalid by a Court of competent jurisdiction, such invalid provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, said provisions being severable.

36. CAPTIONS. The captions appearing herein are inserted only for convenience and in no way define, limit or construe the scope of the paragraphs or in any way effect this Agreement.

37. MODIFICATIONS. No modification or waiver of any of the terms hereof shall be valid unless in writing and signed by both parties. No waiver of any breach or default hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of the same or similar nature.

38. INDEMNIFICATION. In the event a creditor of either party seeks to compel the other party to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible, either by contract or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the party against whom such claim is made shall be entitled to recover from the other party the amount of any payment he or she makes, including interest, and any expenses incurred in defending the creditor's claim, including reasonable attorney's fees.

39. AFTER-ACQUIRED PROPERTY. The parties acknowledge that between the date of execution of this agreement and entry of a final decree of divorce, the parties may acquire additional property, either real, personal or mixed. The parties agree that each shall own such after acquired property as his or her sole property, free and clear of any interest or claim of the other.

PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN ORDER ☐ PROPOSED ☒ AGREED ☐ ORDERED BY THE COURT		FILE No. 21D-749
PLAINTIFF (Name, First, Middle, Last) FADY NAGIB ☐ Mother ☒ Father	DEFENDANT (Name: First, Middle, Last) MARIAN ELIA LAWENDY ☒ Mother ☐ Father

The mother and father will behave with each other and each child so as to provide a loving, stable, consistent and nurturing relationship with the child even though they are divorced. They will not speak badly of each other or the members of the family of the other parent. They will encourage each child to continue to love the other parent and be comfortable in both families.

This plan
- ☒ is a new plan.
- ☐ modifies an existing Parenting Plan dated _____.
- ☐ modifies an existing Order dated _____.

Child's Name	Date of Birth
P. N.	2020

I. RESIDENTIAL PARENTING SCHEDULE

A. RESIDENTIAL TIME WITH EACH PARENT

The Primary Residential Parent is the Mother.

Under the schedule set forth below, each parent will spend the following number of days with the child:

Mother 365 days Father 0 days

B. DAY-TO-DAY SCHEDULE

The Mother shall have responsibility for the care of the child.

Father has not exercised any meaningful parenting time and has not performed parenting responsibilities relating to the minor child in over a year. As such, Father and the minor child lack emotional ties with one another. In addition, Father consistently uses marijuana, which impacts his ability to perform parenting responsibilities. Based upon the above, Father's parenting time shall be limited and supervised as may be reasonably agreed upon by the parties, with such agreed upon time to be exercised at St. Kyrillos Church and to be supervised at all times by Father Pakhom at St. Kyrillos Church. Father may file a Petition to Modify this Permanent Parenting Plan in the event circumstances change.

child's passport, including providing a copy of his/her driver's license or other required identification. Each party shall provide to the other party such properly executed documents, including any required copies of that party's driver's license or other required identification, within thirty (30) days of the other party's written request for the same. Mother shall hold the child's passport.

Due to the circumstances of this case, the parties agree that T.C.A. § 36-6-101 ~~(1), (7), (8), and (9)~~ shall not apply, (a)(3)(B)(i), vii, viii, and ix the parties agreeing the same to be in the best interest of the child.

II. DECISION-MAKING

F.N M.L

A. DAY-TO-DAY DECISIONS

Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care of a child while the child is residing with that parent, including any emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of a child.

B. MAJOR DECISIONS

Major decisions regarding each child shall be made as follows:

Educational decisions	Ξ mother	☐ father	☐ joint
Non-emergency health care	Ξ mother	☐ father	☐ joint
Religious upbringing	Ξ mother	☐ father	☐ joint
Extracurricular activities	Ξ mother	☐ father	☐ joint

III. FINANCIAL SUPPORT

A. CHILD SUPPORT

Father's gross monthly income is $ 6,250.00
Mother's gross monthly income is $ 3,000.00

1. The final child support order is as follows:
   a. The ☐ mother Ξ father shall pay to the other parent as regular child support the sum of $ 1,900.00 ☐ weekly Ξ monthly ☐ twice per month ☐ every two weeks. The Child Support Worksheet shall be attached to this Order as an Exhibit.

F.N M.L

The parties agree that Father's child support obligation shall continue to be $1,900.00 per month during the child's minority, ~~regardless of~~ so long as this meets or exceeds the presumptive child support obligation. The parties intend for this to be a contractual obligation, with the exception that, in the event Father becomes disabled and unable to work or some other unforeseen material change in circumstance arises which makes Father unable to earn a reasonable income, then Father may Petition the Court with regard to a potential modification of his child support obligation. Mother shall enroll the child in Christian school, as the parties acknowledge that is the primary purpose of this upward deviation. The parties agree that such an upward deviation is appropriate to assist Mother financially with the child's expenses such as extracurricular activities, clothing, and, shall include Father's contribution toward the child's private school expenses. The parties agree that, in light of their agreement, strict application of the guidelines is inappropriate and that such an upward deviation

Pursuant to Kessler v. Kessler, 201 S.W. 3d 636 (Tenn. 2006), in the event the presumptive child support obligation exceeds said $1,900 per month, then Father shall pay the presumptive amount.

is in the best interest of the child. Further, the deviation detailed herein does not seriously impair the ability of Father to maintain adequate housing, food, clothing, and/or other basic necessities for the child.

2. Retroactive Support: N/A.

3. Payments shall begin on the 5th day of the month following the date of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce and shall continue to become due on the 5th day of each month thereafter.

This support shall be paid:

☒ directly to the other parent via Zelle or similar mutually agreed upon electronic method.
☐ to the Central Child Support Receipting Unit, P. O. Box 305200, Nashville, Tennessee 37229, and sent from there to the other parent at: _____.
☐ A Wage Assignment Order is attached to this Parenting Plan.
☐ by direct deposit to the other parent at _____ Bank for deposit in account no. _____.
☐ income assignment not required; Explanation:_____.
☐ other:_____.

The parents acknowledge that court approval must be obtained before child support can be reduced or modified.

*Child Support Worksheet can be found on DHS website at http://www.state.tn.us/humanserv/is/isdocuments.html or at your local child support offices.

B. FEDERAL INCOME TAX EXEMPTION*

The ☒ mother ☐ father is the parent receiving child support.

The Mother shall claim the child each year.

C. PROOF OF INCOME AND WORK-RELATED CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Each parent shall send proof of income to the other parent for the prior calendar year as follows:

- IRS Forms W-2 and 1099 shall be sent to the other parent on or before February 15.
- A copy of his or her federal income tax return shall be sent to the other parent on or before April 15 or any later date when it is due because of an extension of time for filing.
- The completed form required by the Department of Human Services shall be sent to the Department on or before the date the federal income tax return is due by the parent paying child support. This requirement applies only if a parent is receiving benefits from the Department for a child.

The parent paying work-related child care expenses shall send proof of expenses to the other parent for the prior calendar year and an estimate for the next calendar year, on or before February 15.

* NOTE: The child support schedule assumptions in the guidelines (1240-2-4-.03 (6)(b)) assume that the parent receiving the child support will get the tax exemptions for the child.

D. HEALTH AND DENTAL INSURANCE

Reasonable health insurance on the child shall be:

- Ξ maintained by the mother
- □ maintained by the father
- □ maintained by both

Proof of continuing coverage shall be furnished to the other parent annually or as coverage changes. The parent maintaining coverage shall authorize the other parent to consult with the insurance carrier regarding the coverage in effect.

Uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses, which may include but is not limited to, deductibles or co-payments, eyeglasses, contact lens, routine annual physicals, dental work, orthodontia, and counseling will be paid by pro rata in accordance with the parties' incomes. After insurance has paid its portion, the parent receiving the bill will send it to the other parent within ten days. The other parent will pay his or her share within 30 days of receipt of the bill.

If available through work at a reasonable cost, the Ξ mother □ father shall maintain dental and optical insurance on the minor child.

E. LIFE INSURANCE

Father shall insure his own life in the minimum amount of $350,000.00 by whole life or term insurance. Until the child support obligation has been completed, each policy shall name the child as sole irrevocable primary beneficiary, with Father Botros Botros, provided he is able and willing to serve in such capacity, as trustee for the exclusive use and benefit of the child, to serve without bond or accounting. In the event Father Botros Botros is unwilling or unable to serve in such capacity, then Father Pakhom, provided he is able and willing to serve in such capacity, as trustee for the exclusive use and benefit of the child, to serve without bond or accounting. In the event Father Pakhom is unwilling or unable to serve in such capacity, then Mother shall be trustee for the exclusive use and benefit of the child, to serve without bond or accounting. Father shall provide proof to Mother of the existence of the policy and the beneficiary designation thereon within sixty (60) days of the date of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce and within ten (10) days of Mother's written request thereafter, with Mother not to exceed one request per calendar year.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The child is scheduled to reside the majority of the time as designated in Section I.A. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to:

- Ξ Mediation by a neutral party chosen by the parents or the Court.
- □ Arbitration by a neutral party selected by parents or the Court.
- □ The Court DUE TO ORDER OF PROTECTION OR RESTRICTIONS.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by ☒ written request ☐ certified mail ☐ other: _____.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The parent exercising parenting time shall furnish the other parent with a telephone number where the child may be reached at the days and time specified in a parenting plan or other court order or, where days and times are not specified, at reasonable times;
(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not destroy, deface, open or censor. The parent exercising parenting time shall deliver all letters, packages and other material sent to the child by the other parent as soon as received and shall not interfere with their delivery in any way, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;
(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of the child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;
(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any educational records customarily made available to parents. Upon request from one parent, the parent enrolling the child in school shall provide to the other parent as soon as available each academic year the name, address, telephone number and other contact information for the school. In the case of children who are being homeschooled, the parent providing the homeschooling shall advise the other parent of this fact along with the contact information of any sponsoring entity or other entity involved in the child's education, including access to any individual student records or grades available online. The school or homeschooling entity shall be responsible, upon request, to provide to each parent records customarily made available to parents. The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. These records include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;
(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical, health or other treatment records directly from the treating physician or healthcare provider. Upon request from one parent, the parent who has arranged for such treatment or health care shall provide to the other parent the name, address, telephone number and other contact information of the physician or healthcare provider The keeper of the records may require a written request including a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. No person who receives the mailing address of a requesting parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate, and the opportunity to participate in or observe them. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than forty-eight (48) hours, an itinerary which shall include the planned dates of departure and return, the intended destinations and mode of travel and telephone numbers. The parent traveling with the child or children shall provide this information to the other parent so as to give that parent reasonable notice; and

(9) The right to access and participation in the child's education on the same bases that are provided to all parents including the right of access to the child during lunch and other school activities; provided, that the participation or access is legal and reasonable; however, access must not interfere with the school's day-to-day operations or with the child's educational schedule.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

(a) After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;

(2) Location of proposed new residence;

(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and

(4) Statement that absent agreement between the parents or an objection by the non-relocating parent within thirty (30) days of the date notice is sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with subsection (a), the relocating parent will be permitted to do so by law.

(b) Absent agreement by the parents on a new visitation schedule within thirty (30) days of the notice or upon a timely objection in response to the notice, the relocating parent shall file a petition seeking approval of the relocation. The non-relocating parent has thirty (30) days to file a response in opposition to the petition. In the event
