LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

CHERYL A. SEHRING

FILED
SEP 20 2023
JOSEPH P. DAY, Clerk
By Deputy

I, Cheryl A. Sehring, of St. Charles, Kane County, Illinois, make this my will and revoke all prior wills and codicils.

ARTICLE 1
TAXES AND EXPENSES

I direct that my debts and obligations which are not paid out of the Cheryl A. Sehring 1998 Trust (also known as the Cheryl A. Sehring Revocable Trust) executed by me on July 16, 1998, and most recently restated on October 4, 2017 ("Revocable Trust"), or any other trust created by me, and the expenses of my last illness and funeral (including all burial costs, honorariums, memorials and other suitable or customary costs associated therewith) which are not paid out of such Revocable Trust or any other trust created by me be paid out of my estate.

My Revocable Trust provides for the payment of taxes, including estate taxes (as such term is defined in my Revocable Trust). I direct that such provisions, including any directions or provisions therein affecting rights of recovery pursuant to Subchapter C of Chapter 11 of the Code, shall control. My executor may rely upon any instructions of the trustee(s) of my Revocable Trust with respect to the payment of such taxes and shall have no liability for relying upon such instructions.

ARTICLE 2
FAMILY IDENTIFICATION

I am not now married; my husband, Louis J. Sehring, having predeceased me. I have two (2) children, both of whom are adults, namely, Molly M. Sehring and Kelly A. Martin-Vegue.

ARTICLE 3
DISPOSITION OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

I give all of my tangible personal property, owned by me or in which I may have an interest at the time of my death, to the trustee then serving of the Revocable Trust, to be held administered and distributed in accordance with the provisions of such Revocable Trust, including any amendments to the Revocable Trust agreement after the date of this will.

ARTICLE 4
DISPOSITION OF RESIDUE OF MY ESTATE

All of the residue of my estate, wherever situated, including lapsed legacies, but expressly excluding any property over which I may have power of appointment at my death, I give to the then acting trustee under the Revocable Trust (namely, the Cheryl A. Sehring 1998 Trust (also known as the Cheryl A. Sehring Revocable Trust)) executed by me before the execution of this will to be added to the trust estate held under that trust agreement as in effect at my death.

ARTICLE 5
APPOINTMENT OF EXECUTOR

I appoint Molly M. Sehring and Kelly A. Martin-Vegue to serve as co-executors of this will. If for any reason either Molly M. Sehring or Kelly A. Martin-Vegue is unwilling or unable to act as executor, I appoint the other as sole executor of this will. If for any reason both of Molly M. Sehring nor Kelly A. Martin-Vegue are unwilling or unable to act as executor, I appoint BMO Harris Bank N.A., of Chicago, Illinois, as executor. The compensation of any corporate executor shall be in accordance with its schedule of fees in effect from time to time.

An individual executor is entitled to receive compensation out of the assets of the estate. The amount of the individual's compensation shall be reasonable in view of the time required of the individual, the nature and value of the assets in the estate and the amount of compensation provided for comparable services for comparable estates in the market where the estate is administered, under the published fee schedules of corporate executors in effect at the time the individual's services are rendered.

ARTICLE 6
EXECUTOR'S POWERS

I give my executor power to retain any property that I may own at my death; to invest in bonds, stocks, notes, bank deposits, shares of investment companies (including ones that receive services from, and pay compensation to, a corporate executor hereunder or a parent or affiliate company), or other property; to retain or make any investment without liability, regardless of type, quality, marketability or any rule requiring diversification; and I understand that investments are subject to risk, including possible loss of principal, and that my executor is not liable for losses which do not result from a violation of the executor's duties; to lease, borrow with or without security from any lender, sell or exchange all or any part of my estate, real or personal, for such prices and upon such terms as my executor deems proper; to enter into mineral transactions; to compromise, contest, prosecute or abandon claims in favor of or against my estate; to distribute income and principal in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to allocate or distribute undivided interests or different assets or disproportionate interests in assets (and no adjustment shall be made to compensate for a disproportionate allocation of unrealized gain for federal income tax purposes), and to value my estate in order to make allocation or distribution, and no action taken by my executor pursuant to this power shall be subject to question by any beneficiary; to determine in cases not covered by applicable state statute the allocation of receipts and disbursements between income and principal; to deal with the fiduciary of any trust or estate in which any beneficiary under the aforementioned trust agreement has an interest, though an executor hereunder is such fiduciary; to deal with a corporate executor hereunder individually or a parent or affiliate company; and to execute and deliver necessary instruments and give full receipts and discharges. My executor may consult with legal counsel and other agents at estate expense and shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted in good faith reliance upon the advice or recommendation of the legal counsel or other agent. My executor shall not be personally liable for acts or omissions done in good faith.

My executor may exercise all powers that an absolute owner would have and any other powers appropriate to achieve the proper investment, management and distribution of: (1) any kind of computing device of mine; (2) any kind of data storage device or medium of mine; (3) any electronically stored information of mine; (4) any user account of mine; and (5) any domain name of mine. My executor may obtain copies of any electronically stored information of mine from any individual or entity that possesses, custodies or controls that information. I hereby authorize any individual or entity that possesses, custodies or controls any electronically stored information of mine or that provides to me an electronic communication service or remote computing service, whether public or private, to divulge to my executor: (1) any electronically stored information of mine; (2) the contents of any communication that is in electronic storage by that service or that is carried or maintained on that service; and (3) any record or other information pertaining to me with respect to that service. This authorization is to be construed to be my lawful consent under the Revised Uniform Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act; the Electronic Communications Privacy Act of 1986, as amended; the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986, as amended; and any other applicable federal or state data privacy law or criminal law. My executor may employ any consultants or agents to advise or assist my executor in decrypting an encrypted electronically stored information of mine or in bypassing, resetting or recovering any password or other kind of authentication or authorization, and I hereby authorize my executor to take any of these actions to access: (1) any kind of computing device of mine; (2) any kind of data storage device or medium of mine; (3) any electronically stored information of mine; and (4) any user account of mine. The terms used in this paragraph are to be construed as broadly as possible, and the term "user account" includes without limitation an established relationship between a user and a computing device or between a user and a provider of Internet or other network access, electronic communication services or remote computing services, whether public or private.

The foregoing powers shall be exercised by my executor without authorization by any court and, as to property subject to administration outside the state of my domicile, only with the approval of my domiciliary executor. No bond or security shall be required of any executor wherever acting. If permitted by law and if not inconsistent with the best interests of the beneficiaries as determined by my executor, the administration of my estate shall be independent of the supervision of any court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed this will, consisting of five (5) pages, the following page included, and for the purpose of identification have placed my signature at the foot of each preceding page, this 4th day of October, 2017.
