During the Affordability Period, a Grantee desiring to sell, dispose of or otherwise convey the Property, shall so notify the Commission in writing (the "Conveyance Notice"). The sale to the Qualified Property Owner must occur within six (6) months of completion of the Conveyance Notice.

4. Use During the Affordability Period. During the Affordability Period: (i) every residential unit must be occupied for at least 10 months each year except with the Commission's express written consent; (ii) and the Property may only be used as a principal residence of the Homeowner and their heirs.

   (a) The Grantee or Qualified Property Owner shall provide permission to the Mortgagee for the Mortgagee to notify Metro in the event of any default for which Mortgagee intends to commence foreclosure proceedings or similar remedial action pursuant to its mortgage (the "Foreclosure Notice"). This notice shall be sent by Mortgagee to Metro according to the notice provision of this Agreement, not less than ninety (90) days prior to the foreclosure sale or the acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure. The Grantee shall also deliver a copy of the Foreclosure Notice and any other communications and disclosures made by the Mortgagee pursuant to any instrument relating to a mortgage or encumbrance to Metro promptly upon receipt.

   (b) Metro shall have the first right of refusal and option to purchase the Property for a price not to exceed the outstanding balance of the delinquent mortgage, costs associated with collection actions taken up to the purchase date and agreed upon closing costs. At the conclusion of ten (10) days, Metro will provide Mortgagee written notice as to its decision to exercise or refuse its option to purchase the Property. At the conclusion of the sixty (60) days after receipt of the Foreclosure Notice, if Metro does not exercise its option to purchases the Property, Metro will provide written notice thereof to Mortgagee, upon the receipt of which the Mortgagee may proceed with its right of foreclosure or acceptance of a deed or assignment in lieu of foreclosure. After such foreclosure or acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, this declaration shall be forever terminated and shall have no further effect as to the Property or any transferee thereafter.

7. Conveyance by Operation of Law. In the event that an ownership interest in a Property is transferred by operation of law, death, divorce, court order or other similar occurrence, the person or persons ("Transferee") to whom the Property is transferred shall, within 60 days after such transfer becomes effective (the effective date of the transfer being the "Transfer Date"), notify Grantee and the Commission in writing of the transfer and either (1) obtain a Certificate of Eligibility, (2) promptly and diligently seek to sell the Property to a Qualified Property Owner, (3) sell the Property to the Grantee for a price not to exceed the outstanding balance of the first and second mortgages and agreed upon closing costs. Grantee shall notify Metro of its decision to exercise or refuse its option to purchase within ten (10) days of the Transfer Date. In the event Grantee declines its option to purchase the Property, Metro shall have a right to purchase the property for a price not to exceed the outstanding balance of the first and second mortgages and agreed upon closing costs. In the event neither Metro nor Grantee exercises its option to purchase the Property, Transferee shall be entitled to maintain ownership of the Property or sell the property to a household that does not meet the income-based requirements of a Qualified Household ("Ineligible

In the event of purchase of the Property by the Grantee, the Grantee shall promptly notify Metro in writing of the purchase and diligently seek to sell the Property to a Qualified Household. Should the Grantee be unable to find a Qualified Household to buy or lease the Property despite a good faith effort, including listing the Property with a licensed real estate agent for at least one hundred twenty (120) days, then Metro shall have the option to purchase the Property from the Grantee for the total purchase amount paid by the Grantee to the Transferee. If Metro declines its option to purchase the Property from the Grantee, the Grantee may then sell the Property to an Ineligible Household.

8. Prohibition on Discrimination. No person shall, on the grounds of race, color, sex, religion, sexual orientation or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise subject to discrimination with regard to the sale, lease, rental, use or occupancy of the Property.

11. Amendment. The Commission shall have the right to amend, modify or release this Declaration by an instrument recorded with the office of the Davidson County Register of Deeds, provided that any amendment or modification shall not impose materially greater obligations on, nor materially diminish the rights of, Grantee, Qualified Property Owner, Homeowner, or any Mortgagee. 12. Compliance with Applicable Laws.
