FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came to be heard on the 16th day of July 2025 before the Honorable Stephanie Williams, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court, on a complaint for a legal separation filed by the Plaintiff and a counter-complaint for an absolute divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences filed by the Defendant. It appears to the Court from the recored that the parties have no minor children and have reached a marital dissolution agreement. The marital dissolution agreement has been signed by the parties and notarized and filed with the Clerk. The counter-plaintiff, James V. Armstrong, whose complaint prays for a divorce, has filed an affidavit to waive his appearance in court.

It appears from the record that a counter-complaint for an absolute divorce was filed by the counter-plaintiff, James V. Armstrong on December 8, 2022. The parties filed a marital dissolution agreement, signed by the parties and notarized, on July 14, 2025. The parties agree in the marital dissolution agreement that irreconcilable differences exist in the marriage.

The record further reflects that the parties have also filed with the Court the notice

EFILED 07/16/25 07:52 AM CASE NO. 22D1492 Joseph P. Day, Clerk

regarding insurance coverage pursuant to the provisions of T.C.A. §56-7-2366 and notice required by the provisions of T.C.A. §36-4-134 is included in the Marital Dissolution Agreement. The parties have no minor children of the marriage and the required waiting period has been met.

The real property ordered sold in the marital dissolution agreement located at 7571 Rolling River Parkway, Davidson County, Tennessee 37221 is further identified for recordation purposes as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee being Lot No. 339 on the Plan of Rolling River Estates, Phase IV, which is of record in Plat Book 5200, page 184 Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.
> Being the same property conveyed to James V. Armstrong and wife, Christine Edgin Armstrong of record in book 7924, page 183 Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

The parties should be declared divorced pursuant to the provisions of T.C.A. § 36-4-101 (11) and the parties should be restored to all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

The Court is further of the opinion and finds that the marital dissolution agreement entered into by and between the parties and filed with the Court makes a fair and equitable distribution of the property and debts of the marriage and should be approved by the Court and made the order of the Court, to wit:

MARITAL DISSOLUTION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into by and between CHRISTINE E. ARMSTRONG, who hereinafter may be referred to as "Wife" and JAMES V. ARMSTRONG, who hereinafter may be referred to as "Husband."

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, the parties are married, and there are no minor children of the marriage,

WHEREAS, both parties agree and stipulate that this agreement makes fair and equitable provisions for the distribution of the property of the parties; and

WHEREAS, both parties have made full disclosure of all separate and marital assets; and

WHEREAS, neither party at the time of this agreement is under the influence of any intoxicant or drug, legal or illegal, nor is any party experiencing any mental problems or conditions that would affect their judgment other than the stress normally to be expected in a divorce; and

WHEREAS, both parties are voluntarily executing this agreement free of undue influence, duress, and free from any cause, reason, promise, or consideration other than set out in this agreement; and

WHEREAS, both parties realize that had this matter gone to trial, they may have received more or less than they are individually receiving under this agreement; and

WHEREAS, although certain items may be the separate property of a party, they may still be described, transferred, or otherwise dealt with within this agreement to resolve the actual ownership; and

WHEREAS, Wife is represented by R. Linley Richter, Jr., Attorney, and Husband is represented by Dan R. Alexander, Attorney;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein set forth, the parties do agree as follows:

Credit

Neither party shall charge or cause to be charged to the other party any purchases that either of them may make after this agreement is entered into and shall not create any engagements or obligations in the name of or against the other nor shall either party hereafter secure or attempt to secure any credit upon or in connection with the other. Each warrant that there are no charges on the other's credit that have not been fully revealed to the other. If there are any such unrevealed charges, the party making those charges shall be responsible for the payment of those unrevealed charges.

Waiver

Except for the terms and provisions of this Marital Dissolution Agreement, both parties waive and repudiate all right, title, and interest, consummate and inchoate, in and to the property and estate of the other including but not limited to marital, insurance, contractual, dower, homestead exemption, alimony, appointment as executor, or otherwise, in present or in expectancy about any and all property and estate of the other. Both parties waive and repudiate any interest in any will or testamentary writing except for any will or testamentary writing executed after the date of this agreement or as set out in this Marital Dissolution Agreement. Each of the parties does hereby release and discharge the other from any and all control, claims, demands, actions, or causes of action, except for the obligations imposed by this instrument or by the Court's decree. Both parties accept this as the full, final, and complete settlement of the property, marital, and all other rights of the parties.

Both parties waive any separate and distinct claim to any retirement or pension benefit of the other party, except as may be set out by this agreement herein, although they are aware of their rights regarding any such pensions or retirement benefits. However, should any provisions made for the payout of retirement benefits prove to be unable to be executed, the property division shall be set aside, and the Court will retain jurisdiction to make an equitable resolution in light of all the facts and issues.

Entire Agreement

This agreement contains the entire understanding and agreement between the parties. There are no representations, warranties, covenants, or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein, and each party enters into this contract voluntarily. The law of the state of Tennessee shall govern this agreement in all respects.

Interpretation

Both parties agree that the usual rule of construction that a document should be construed against the drafter of the document shall not be applied in interpreting this agreement. The headings in this agreement are for convenience only and are not to be used in interpreting this agreement. The singular shall include the plural and vice versa, when the context so requires. Any exhibits to this agreement are hereby incorporated by reference into and made a part of this agreement.

Non-dischargeability

The parties further acknowledge and agree that other obligations herein for payment of certain sums as set out above and below, for payment of liabilities, for indemnification, and for payment of court costs are acknowledge by the parties to be an obligation for the support and maintenance of the party for whose benefit the payments, indemnification and obligations to pay court costs extends and are acknowledged by the parties to be reasonable and necessary to meet that party's expenses of daily living. The obligations outlined in this paragraph would be charged against resources otherwise available to the party for the purpose of daily living, and as such, the same are not dischargeable in bankruptcy pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523. Husband and Wife further agree that the entry of a Final Decree of Divorce in this cause shall constitute a finding and adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction of the obligation's characterization as support and shall constitute res judicata and collateral estoppel as to the questions of non-dischargeability of the obligation in bankruptcy. Further, unless otherwise stated, the parties agree that no payments made by either party to discharge any obligation noted in this paragraph shall be deemed for income tax purposes deductible to the paying party or taxable income to the non-paying party. Should either party incur any legal fees in defending or prosecuting their rights under this provision, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

Necessary Documents and Actions

Each party, at the request of the other, will execute and deliver all documents and take such actions as may be reasonably necessary to give full effect to this agreement.

Noncompliance

Should either party incur any expense or legal fees in a successful effort to enforce any portion of this marital dissolution agreement, the Court SHALL award reasonable attorney's fees and suit expenses to the non-defaulting party. No breach, waiver, failure to seek strict compliance, or default of any of the terms of this agreement shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of any of the terms of this agreement.

Severance

Should the Court hold that any portion of this agreement is invalid, the remainder shall be in full force and effect and the invalid portion shall be struck from the agreement or modified as the Court shall order.

Incorporation, Permanent and Pendente Lite

All such parts of this agreement as might be material, except those that might be lessened or destroyed, shall be incorporated in the Final Decree. Pending the entry of the Final Decree, the parties agree to the filing of this agreement, and by such filing, specifically consent to and authorize the entry of a Consent Order binding them to the terms of this agreement. By signing this agreement, the parties stipulate that these terms shall be enforceable as if they were an Order of this Court at the moment of signing.

Voluntary Execution

Each party acknowledges that this agreement has been entered into of his or her own volition with full knowledge and information, including tax consequences. In some instances, it represents a compromise of disputed issues. Each believes the terms and conditions to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances. No coercion or undue influence has been used by or against either party in making this agreement. Each party acknowledges that no representations of any kind have been made to him or her as an inducement to enter into this agreement, other than the representations set forth herein. The parties agree that this Agreement may be signed in counterparts and each counterpart shall be considered an original, and together, all counterparts form this Agreement between the parties.

Modification

A modification or waiver of any or all of the provisions of this agreement shall be effective only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this agreement, and approved by the Court if such approval is required. Failure of either party to insist upon strict performance of any of the provisions of this agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default of the same or similar nature.

Restraining Provisions

Neither party shall molest, harass, interfere with, or impose any restraint upon the other except as set out in this agreement.

Prior Tax Liabilities

If in any connection with any joint Federal Income Tax Returns heretofore filed by the parties, there is a deficiency assessment, the amount ultimately determined to be due thereon shall be borne by either or both the parties depending on whether the deficiency arose out of the individual income, deduction, or misreporting of one or the other parties (and if so, to what extent), or out of a joint income or deduction. Husband and Wife represent and warrant that all information supplied for all tax returns during the marriage are, in all respects, true, correct and complete and fully and accurately reflect income and deduction for those years.

The parties shall file separate income tax returns for the 2025 tax year and all subsequent tax years. Any income from Husband's ongoing business and from any inheritance or money received from any inheritance shall be reported on Husband's tax returns and shall be Husband's sole responsibility. Any dividends or interest received on Husband's accounts or on any joint accounts through the date of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce shall be reported on Husband's tax returns and shall be Husband's sole responsibility. Any income earned by Wife, including but not limited to dividends and interest on Wife's sole accounts, shall be reported on Wife's tax returns and shall be Wife's sole responsibility.

The parties have heretofore paid estimated taxes for the 2025 tax year, and any such payments shall be allocated equally between the parties, with Wife receiving credit for one-half and Husband receiving credit for one-half. If it is not possible to give each party equal credit, then the party receiving the full credit shall pay to the other party one-half (1/2) of the amount paid as of the date of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce. Each party shall be responsible for paying their own estimated taxes from the date of the execution of this agreement.

Both parties realize that they may have liability to the Internal Revenue Service that may transcend any provisions of this agreement and that R. Linley Richter, Jr. nor Dan R. Alexander have served as a tax advisor for either party but have recommended independent tax counsel.

Each party shall pay their respective share of any federal capital gains taxes resulting from the sale of any jointly owned property pursuant to this agreement.

Undisclosed Property

Both parties represent to the other and to the Court that all assets and liabilities of any nature and kind have been fully disclosed to the other party and addressed herein, regardless of the completion or noncompletion of formal discovery in this cause. Therefore, should it develop that assets of any nature were undisclosed prior to the settlement of this matter, then the following provisions shall apply:

(a) If it is shown by a preponderance of the evidence that an asset was accidentally undisclosed through no fault of a party, then said asset shall be promptly divided between the parties, with Wife taking 50% and Husband taking 50%. The costs of the legal work required to correct the accidental non-disclosure, including but not limited to legal fees, court costs, expenses, detective and/or research costs, shall be divided in the same percentage.

(b) If it is shown by clear and convincing evidence that an asset was intentionally undisclosed, then said asset shall be fully disgorged by the non-disclosing party and vested solely in the name of the other party, who shall take 100% thereof. The costs of the legal work required to correct the intentional non-disclosure, including but not limited to legal fees, court costs, expenses, detective and/or research costs, shall be borne by the non-disclosing party.

(c) Any liability not disclosed shall be the sole responsibility of the party who failed to disclose it.

(d) The rights delineated herein are specifically reserved by each party and are not extinguished or discharged by the remaining terms of this Agreement.

Notice on Liability to Creditors

Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. §36-4-134, each party acknowledges that he or she has been advised that a divorce decree does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor to proceed against him or her or his or her property, even though he or she is not responsible under the terms of the decree for an account, any debt associated with an account, or any debt and that it may be in his or her best interest to cancel, close or freeze any jointly held accounts.

Divorce Proceedings Filed

Wife has filed a Complaint for Legal Separation in the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, under Docket No. 22D1492, Husband has filed an Answer and a Counter-Complaint for Divorce, and Wife has filed an Answer to Husband's Counter-Complaint for divorce.

The parties agree that Wife's Complaint for Legal Separation shall be dismissed and the parties shall proceed on Husband's Counter-Complaint for Divorce.

The parties agree that they shall be declared divorced pursuant to T.C.A. § 34-4-129(b) on the grounds of Irreconcilable Differences.

Husband shall be responsible for any remaining Court costs arising out of said divorce proceeding if uncontested.

Neither party currently serves in the United States Military or is otherwise covered under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act.

Debts

The parties agree that neither shall incur any indebtedness on the credit of the other from and after the date of execution of this Agreement. Husband shall be responsible for the Visa Chase credit card ending in 5945, the U.S. Bank Visa Business credit card ending in 5873. Wife shall be responsible for the Citi Mastercard ending in 9897 and the U.S. Bank Visa credit card ending in 9422.

The parties further agree that they will be solely responsible for any other individual indebtedness that each has incurred in their own name, and both parties shall remove the other party from any cards on which the other party is an authorized user or on which the other party is liable.

Alimony

Neither party claims any alimony against the other party, either pendente lite, permanent, periodic, in futuro, in solido, or rehabilitative, and each waives any claim they might have thereto in any divorce action between them except as elsewhere set out in this document.

entry of the Final Decree of Divorce, unless the parties agree on a different time, in which case any such agreement shall be reduced to writing and signed by both parties.

The parties shall agree on a real estate agent to sell the property.

Said property will be placed on the market at a price to be determined by the parties or, if the parties cannot agree, then by the real estate agent. If, after sixty (60) days, there is no contract on the property and the property remains unsold, the parties agree to reduce the selling price by an amount to be determined by the "Vote Resolution" provision set forth below. The price will continue to be reduced by an amount to be determined by the "Vote Resolution" provision set forth below every ninety (90) days until the property is sold.

Should repairs or improvements be necessary to prepare the property for sale, the parties agree that the reasonable cost and expenses of those mutually agreed upon repairs or improvements shall be paid by Husband.

When the property is sold, there shall be deducted from the gross sales price the following:

- amount of any mortgage
- brokerage commission
- legal fees incident to the sale of the house
- other mutually agreed costs of sale.

The parties shall divide the remaining proceeds, with Wife receiving 50% and Husband receiving 50% from the sale of the house.

Vote Resolution - Decisions on the sale of the property, including, but not limited to, modification of listing price and acceptance of offer, will be decided in a three-way vote between the parties and the real estate agent, with a majority of two (2) votes deciding the matter. at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the three-way vote. The parties shall authorize the real estate agent to act upon the results of any three-way votes.

Both parties shall continue to reside in the house while the house is on the market. Pending the sale of the house, Husband shall be responsible for the payment of the normal, reasonable, and necessary costs of maintaining the house for up to six (6) months from the date of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce, after which time, if the house is not sold, the parties shall be equally responsible for such costs. Such costs shall include, but not be limited to, the electric, water, gas, cable/internet, property taxes, and homeowners' association fees and assessments.

Mississippi Property

Husband acquired ownership of property located in the state of Mississippi that was inherited from his mother. Said property is located in Alcorn County, Mississippi and consists of three parcels, two of which are located in Sections 21 and 28, Township 2 South, Range 7 East and one parcel located in Section 2, Township 2 South, Range 6 East. The parties agree that said property is Husband's sole and separate property, and Wife hereby waives any interest she may have in said property. Should any documents need to be prepared and executed by the parties to effect the terms of this agreement as it relates to the Mississippi property, Husband shall prepare any such documents at his expense, and Wife agrees to execute any such documents.

Personalty Divided

Husband is hereby awarded all the right, title and interest in the 2005 Buick LeSabre, VIN 1G4HP52K45U196580, vehicle currently in his possession and shall thereafter be responsible for any and all expenses and costs related to said vehicle, including insurance, and shall hold Wife harmless therefrom.

The parties shall endeavor to equally divide the remaining personal marital property not otherwise dealt with elsewhere in this agreement, prior to the listing of the real property for sale. Any personal property that neither party desires shall be donated to charity or sold. After any sale of such property, by auction or otherwise, the remaining proceeds, after deducting the payment of any costs incurred, shall be equally divided between the parties. Should the parties have a dispute as to the division of the personalty, the parties shall submit to binding arbitration with a Rule 31 listed mediator.

Should the real estate agent retained by the parties for the sale of the real property determine that any personal property should be removed from the home prior to listing the real property for sale, any such personal property shall be removed by the party who is to receive the property. The costs of removal and storage of any such property shall be paid by the party who is to receive the property. It is the intent of the parties that any personal property at the home that is deemed by the real estate agent as unnecessary for showing the home to prospective buyers be removed from the home at the expense of the party who has received the property in the division set for above.

Any personal property that neither party claims and that is deemed by the real estate agent as property that should be removed prior to listing, such as scraps of wood and metal that have little or no value, shall be the responsibility of Husband to remove.

As part of the equitable division of the marital estate, upon Husband receiving monthly retirement payments from the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County, Tennessee Pension Plan, Wife, as Alternate Payee, shall be paid 50% of Husband's monthly retirement benefit payable from the Plan. Should Husband elect to receive a Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP) payment, Wife shall be entitled to 50% of Husband's DROP payment.

Husband agrees not to request a refund of contributions and agrees to select a monthly retirement benefit. Husband further agrees to elect the Benefit Payment Option that names Wife as the surviving beneficiary, such that she will receive, for life, the same amount paid to Husband as a retiree.

Wife shall be entitled to a proportionate share of any Cost-of-Living Adjustment received by Husband.

Both parties acknowledge that Husband became eligible to receive benefits on November 1, 2016, but has not yet finalized his application/election of pension benefits, and once the application and election have been finalized, Husband will be due a benefit retroactive to 2016. The parties agree that Wife shall be entitled to 50% of any such retroactive benefit.

Husband agrees to make application and to elect pension benefits in accordance with this agreement, within thirty (30) days of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce.
