ROBIN FORSMAN HAUSKEN Plaintiff/Wife,	)
v.	)	Docket No. 25D734
DOUGLAS ARTHUR HAUSKEN, Defendant/Husband.	)

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came to be heard, by Honorable Judge Bethany P. Glandorf, Third Circuit Judge for Davidson County on the 10th day of December 2025, upon the original Complaint for Absolute Divorce filed by the Plaintiff/Wife, Robin Forsman Hausken on March 15, 2025; upon the Marital Dissolution Agreement entered into by the parties; upon the Permanent Parenting Plan entered into the by the parties; and upon the entire record of this cause, from all of which the Court affirmatively finds that there exists such irreconcilable differences between the parties as would entitle Wife to an absolute divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences; that Wife is represented by Missy Rolseth of Welty Law Office; that Husband is represented by Melanie M. Rosen of McCracken Kuhn Marks, PLLC; and that the 90 day waiting period, as required by statute, has elapsed.

It appears to the Court that the Marital Dissolution Agreement, executed by the parties, and upon the entire record of this cause, from all of which the Court finds that the parties have experienced irreconcilable differences and a divorce should be granted to the Plaintiff/Wife, Robin Forsman Hausken.

EFILED 12/10/25 09:37 AM CASE NO. 25D734 Joseph P. Day, Clerk

It further appears to the Court that there is one (1) minor child born of this marriage and the parties have entered into a Permanent Parenting Plan order that has been filed with the Court and provides for the care and support of the child. The Court finds that the plan is in the best interest of the child.

Further the time prescribed by law has lapsed since the filing of the original Complaint for Divorce.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the Marital Dissolution Agreement entered into by and between the parties and reviewed by the Court, represents a fair and equitable division of the property and settlement of all property rights and debts between the parties and the same is hereby approved and ordered and made part of this Final Decree of Divorce and incorporated herein.

It is, further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the Agreed Permanent Parenting Plan Order is in the child's best interest and provides for the care and support of the minor child and is hereby approved and ordered and made a part of this Final Decree of Divorce and incorporated herein.

Said Marital Dissolution Agreement and Permanent Parenting Plan are incorporated by reference as follows:

MARITAL DISSOLUTION AGREEMENT

This Marital Dissolution Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between Robin Forsman Hausken (hereinafter referred to as "Wife"), and Douglas Arthur Hausken (hereinafter referred to as "Husband").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, these parties have been married since March 1, 2003, and one adult child and one minor child are the products of this marriage;

WHEREAS, certain differences and difficulties have arisen between the parties, and a divorce action in which irreconcilable differences is alleged as a ground has been instituted in the Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, and the parties have no expectation of resuming their marital relationship;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to enter into an agreement with regard to their respective rights and obligations arising out of or from their marital relationship in an amicable and mutually acceptable manner, such that said divorce action shall proceed uncontested;

WHEREAS, the parties desire, by this Agreement, to make an equitable division of all their property that settles and determines all claims; divides all property, both real and personal, owned by one or both of them; which divides responsibility for all current indebtedness incurred during the marriage; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and undertakings hereinafter more fully set forth, and for other good and valuable consideration, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. DIVORCE. The parties agree that Wife will obtain a divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences and that this Marital Dissolution Agreement shall be submitted to the Court for approval, and, if approved, made a part of the Court's Final Decree of Divorce.

2. MINOR CHILD. There is one (1) minor child born during this marriage, namely: C.A.H. born 2012. All matters involving the minor child are addressed in the parties' Parenting Plan, which is incorporated by reference and made a part of this Agreement as if referenced verbatim herein.

3. VEHICLES. Wife is awarded the 2006 Audi A3 (VIN #: WAUNF78P56A097260), free and clear of any claims from Husband. Wife shall be responsible for any and all expenses associated with this vehicle, including but not limited to debts, insurance and maintenance, and hold Husband harmless thereon. The Audi is currently titled in Wife's name only.

Husband is awarded the 2011 Ford F150 (VIN #: 1FTEW1CMXBFA95739), free and clear of any claims from Wife. Husband shall be responsible for any and all expenses associated with this vehicle, including but not limited to debts, insurance and maintenance, and hold Wife harmless thereon. The Ford is currently titled in Husband's name only.

4. REAL PROPERTY. The parties jointly owned real property located at 4857 Lynn Drive Nashville, TN 37211. Pursuant to the Agreed Order entered on July 22, 2025, this property was transferred to Husband via Quitclaim Deed on July 24, 2025. The mortgage was also transferred to Husband's individual name and the debt with CrossCountry Mortgage is his sole debt, which he shall indemnify and hold Wife harmless on. Husband shall receive all right, title and interest to the Marital Home free and clear of any claim from the Wife and shall be granted all equity in the home pursuant to the below provision. Husband shall have exclusive possession of the Marital Home from the date of execution of this Agreement. Husband shall be solely responsible for the timely payment of any mortgage, HELOC liabilities, utilities, insurance, property and any other taxes associated with this residence and shall indemnify and hold Wife harmless thereon upon execution of this Agreement.

If Husband should choose to sell the Marital Home prior to the minor child graduating high school or within five (5) years of execution of this Agreement, whichever occurs first, then Wife shall receive twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500.00) of the equity from the sale of the home. After payment of the mortgage indebtedness, Realtor's fees, and all other closing costs, the remaining net proceeds shall be divided such that any outstanding legal fees owed by Husband to McCracken Kuhn Marks PLLC, shall be paid first pursuant to an authorized attorney's lien, after which Wife shall receive the next twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500.00), and then Husband shall receive the remaining net proceeds. Should Wife choose to take out a lien on the Marital Home, said lien shall be removed within three (3) business days of the minor child graduating high school or within five (5) years of execution of this Agreement, whichever occurs first.

Should Husband choose to sell the Marital Home after the minor child graduates high school or after five (5) years of execution of this Agreement, whichever occurs first, then after payment of the mortgage indebtedness, Realtor's fees, and all other closing costs, Husband shall be granted all equity in the home, except that any outstanding legal fees owed by Husband to McCracken Kuhn Marks PLLC, shall be paid first pursuant to an authorized attorney's lien.

5. CLOTHES AND JEWELRY. Each party shall retain their clothes, jewelry and wearing apparel, free and clear of claims from the other party.

6. FURNITURE AND FURNISHINGS. The parties have divided all marital furniture and furnishings by agreement. Each party is awarded all right, title, and interest in and to the property currently in his or her possession. Each party is responsible for any and all debts associated with the furniture and furnishings awarded to him or her and shall hold the other party harmless.

7. PERSONAL PROPERTY AND EFFECTS. Each party shall receive all right, title and interest in and to all personal property and effects in their possession free and clear of any claim from the other party.

8. FIREARMS. Husband is awarded the firearms listed in Exhibit A, including ammunition, and firearm paraphernalia, free and clear of any claims by Wife. Husband shall remove and release Wife from any ownership interest in these firearms, ammunition, and firearm paraphernalia, including removing her personal identification information and social security number from any and all registries that these firearms are registered to, within thirty (30) days of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce. The parties will execute any documents necessary to transfer Wife's interest in the firearms to Husband within thirty (30) days of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce, if applicable.

Husband is also currently in possession of several of Wife's father's firearms for the parties' minor children. The parties agree that the firearms listed in Exhibit B, including ammunition, and firearm paraphernalia, shall remain in Husband's possession for the benefit of the parties' children, free and clear of any claims by Wife. At such time as Husband deems appropriate, he shall transfer possession of these firearms to the minor children. At such time. Wife's father and/or Wife agree to assist in the transfer of title of these firearms. Should neither child desire to keep these firearms, than Husband shall be awarded them, free and clear of any claims from Wife.

Husband is also currently storing G.M.H.'s firearm for him. The parties agree that the firearm listed in Exhibit C, including ammunition, and firearm paraphernalia, shall remain in Husband's possession for the benefit of G.M.H., free and clear of any claims by Wife, until such time as Husband deems it appropriate to transfer title, ownership, and possession to G.M.H.

9. DEBTS. Unless otherwise specified herein, each party shall be solely responsible for his or her own respective individual indebtedness that each has incurred in his or her own name and shall indemnify and hold harmless the other party for such debts. Neither party shall incur any indebtedness in the parties' joint names.

The following debt shall be the sole responsibility of Wife and Wife shall indemnify and hold Husband harmless for such debts:

- Wife's Bank of America Allegiant credit card ending in 4792;
- Wife's Capital One Venture One credit card ending in 3346; any debts in connection with the pets.

18. ADULT CHILD(REN)'S EXPENSES. Husband currently has a family insurance plan, which he shall maintain the parties' adult son, G.M.H. (born 2007) on until he is no longer eligible or receives his own health insurance, whichever occurs first. However, if Husband's employment changes, then he is only obligated to maintain G.M.H. so long as he has the option to include G.M.H. at a similar price.

Additionally, upon the child support obligation terminating for C.A.H. (born 2012), Husband shall continue to maintain health insurance for the child, C.A.H., until she is no longer eligible or she receives her own health insurance, whichever occurs first. However, if Husband's employment changes, then he is only obligated to maintain C.A.H., so long as he has the option to include C.A.H. at a similar price.

The parties agree to share equally (50-50) in the uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses of the adult child(ren) until they graduate college or are no longer maintained on Husband's health insurance plan, whichever occurs first. Uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses, may include, but is not limited to, deductibles or copayments, out of pocket costs, orthodontia, eyeglasses, contact lenses and routine annual physicals. Neither party shall be obligated to contribute more than $500.00 per month without written agreement (email shall suffice), and the parties shall only be responsible for bills that are provided to them by the adult child(ren). After insurance has paid its portion, the party who received the bill will send the relevant bill and receipt evidencing payment to the other party within thirty (30) days. The other party will pay his or her share within thirty (30) days of receipt of bill.

19. EQUALIZATION PAYMENT. The parties agree that Husband was to pay to Wife seventy-nine thousand dollars ($79,000.00) upon refinancing of the mortgage of the Marital Home. Husband made this payment to Wife on July 25, 2025.

20. ALIMONY. Each party hereby waives, releases, and relinquishes any claim for alimony from the other, now and in the future.

21. ATTORNEY FEES. Both parties acknowledge that Husband has been represented by Demi Marks and Melanie Rosen of the law firm McCracken Kuhn Marks PLLC, and that Wife has represented herself, pro se. Each party acknowledges that she/he was entitled to select their own counsel and made such decision based on factors important to them. The parties agree that they shall each be solely and separately responsible for the payment of any and all of his or her unpaid attorney's fees incurred in this matter.

22. COURT COSTS. The parties shall equally split all court costs associated with this case.

23. FULL DISCLOSURE AND DISPOSITION OF ASSETS. The parties acknowledge that there are no assets owned by them, either jointly or individually, and that they have no interest in any assets, which are not reflected by the terms of this Marital Dissolution Agreement. The parties warrant and represent that they have made full disclosure to each other of all assets in which they have an interest. Should it develop that there were undisclosed marital assets; the party to whom the assets were not disclosed shall have a right to an equitable share of same. This claim is specifically reserved to each party and is not discharged by the remaining terms of the Marital Dissolution Agreement.

24. FUTURE INDEBTEDNESS. The parties acknowledge that, to the best of their knowledge, they have no outstanding indebtedness other than that specifically set out herein. Each party covenants with the other that, from the date of the execution of this Agreement, neither will contract any indebtedness upon the credit of the other and that if either shall be compelled to pay future debt of the other, then the party of whose benefit such payments shall be made will indemnify the other to the full extent of the amount paid, inclusive of interest, costs and legal services.

25. ENFORCEMENT AND DEFENSE OF AGREEMENT. In the event it becomes necessary for either party to institute or defend legal proceedings to procure the enforcement of any provision of this Marital Dissolution Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in prosecuting such action.

26. BANKRUPTCY. Whenever one party is required by the terms of this Agreement to assume responsibility for paying certain debts and/or indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any liability therefore, such obligation is intended to be a support obligation under 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(5) which is not dischargeable in bankruptcy as to the other party. The parties acknowledge the determination of any issue arising under this section is in the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States Bankruptcy Court.

In the event a creditor of either party makes a claim against the other party, which is upheld by a Court of competent jurisdiction, to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible, either by contract or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the party against whom such claim is made shall be entitled to recover from the responsible party the amount of any payment he or she makes, including interest, and any expenses incurred in defending the creditor's claim, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

27. VOLUNTARY ACCEPTANCE. The provisions of this Agreement and their legal effect have been fully explained to the parties by counsel and each party acknowledges that the Agreement is equitable; that it is being entered into voluntarily and that it is not the result of any duress or undue influence.

28. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties, and there are no representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein.

29. SEVERABILITY. In the event any provision of this Marital Dissolution Agreement shall be held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such individual provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Marital Dissolution Agreement, said provisions being severable.

30. AMENDMENTS. This Marital Dissolution Agreement may be altered, amended or canceled only by instrument in writing signed by each of the parties, and with respect to spousal support issues, only with approval of the Court, and this requirement cannot be waived by oral agreement.

31. WAIVER OF DISCOVERY AND COMPLETE DISCLOSURE. The parties acknowledge their respective rights, under the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure, to participate in written discovery (Interrogatories, Requests for Production of Documents, Requests for Admissions) and oral discovery (Depositions) as part of this proceeding and hereby agree to waive said rights. Each party has made a full and complete disclosure of his or her assets and liabilities. By signing this document, each party indicates that they do not want to proceed with formal discovery, including completing Interrogatories, Requests for Production of Documents, Requests for Admissions or discovery depositions that are designed to discover assets or debts. The parties further release the attorneys of record from any obligation to further complete the discovery process.

32. ESTATE WAIVER. It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement is intended to be a final settlement of all property rights and support rights and obligations of the respective parties hereto and shall constitute a discharge from all claims arising out of their marital relationship except as provided herein. Each party hereby waives and relinquishes to the other all rights or claims which each may have or hereafter acquire under the law of any jurisdiction with respect to the other's property, including without limitation, dower, curtesy, statutory allowance, homestead rights, right to take against the will of the other, inheritance, descent or distribution, or right to act as administrator or executor of the other's estate except as provided by the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement applies to all property now owned by Husband and Wife, individually or jointly, or any property that either of them may acquire in the future.

33. TORT CLAIMS. It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement is intended to be a final settlement of all property rights and support rights and obligations of the respective parties hereto and shall constitute a discharge from all claims arising out of their marital relationship except as provided herein, or any tort claims which either party may have against the other.

34. ADDITIONAL INSTRUMENTS. Both parties agree to sign any and all deeds, titles, documents, or instruments necessary to carry out the full purpose and intent of this Agreement. Both parties acknowledge that they have read this Agreement in its entirety prior to the signing thereof, and that they have signed same voluntarily.

35. COOPERATION. The parties shall cooperate and take any steps necessary to accomplish the asset transfers detailed herein.

36. NOTICE REGARDING CREDITORS. In the event a creditor of either party makes a claim against the other party, which is upheld by a Court of competent jurisdiction, to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible, either by contract or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the party against whom such claim is made shall be entitled to recovery from the other party the amount of any payment he or she makes including interest, and any expenses incurred in defending the creditors' claim, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

This agreement does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor to proceed against a party, or party's property, even though the party is not responsible under the terms of this decree for the account, any debt associated with the account or any debt. It may be in the party's best interest to cancel, close or freeze any jointly held accounts.

37. WAIVER. Defendant agrees, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. §36-4-103 that signing this Marital Dissolution Agreement constitutes a waiver of service of process and waiver of filing an Answer to the Complaint.

38. TAX PROVISION. The parties herein acknowledge that they have not received any tax advice from their Counsel of record in this divorce action. The parties also acknowledge that their respective attorneys are not tax attorneys nor tax professionals and have not sought tax advice from their attorneys of record in this divorce action. The parties herein also acknowledge that they should seek the advice of a licensed tax professional regarding any and all tax obligations, rights or other tax issues, related to this divorce action.

The parties acknowledge that they will file separate tax returns for 2025. Each party agrees to assume sole and separate responsibility for paying any taxes, penalties and/or interest which may hereafter be finally determined to be due as a result of income earned and/or received by him or her or losses or deductions taken by him or her during any year for which the parties file, or have filed, joint federal or state income tax returns. Further, each party agrees to hold the other party harmless from any liability for such income taxes, penalties and/or interest as may hereinafter be finally determined to be due.

STATE OF TENNESSEE	THIRD CIRCUIT COURT (Must be completed)	DAVIDSON COUNTY (Must be completed)
PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN ORDER ☐ PROPOSED ☒ AGREED ☐ ORDERED BY THE COURT		FILE NO. 25D734 DIVISION _____
PLAINTIFF (Name: First, Middle, Last) ROBIN FORSMAN HAUSKEN ☒ Mother	DEFENDANT (Name: First, Middle, Last) DOUGLAS ARTHUR HAUSKEN ☒ Father

The mother and father will behave with each other and each child so as to provide a loving, stable, consistent and nurturing relationship with the child even though they are divorced. They will not speak badly of each other or the members of the family of the other parent. They will encourage each child to continue to love the other parent and be comfortable in both families.

This plan
- ☒ is a new plan.
- ☐ modifies an existing Parenting Plan dated .
- ☐ modifies an existing Order dated .

Child's Name	Date of Birth
C.A.H.	3/21/2012

I. RESIDENTIAL PARENTING SCHEDULE

A. RESIDENTIAL TIME WITH EACH PARENT

The Parenting Plan must designate the parent with whom the child is scheduled to reside a majority of the time as the Primary Residential Parent of the child. The designation shall not affect either parent's rights and responsibilities under the Parenting Plan.

The Primary Residential Parent is

X Joint Primary Residential Parents

Child must reside an equal amount of time with both parents.

Under the schedule set forth below, each parent will spend the following number of days with the child:

Mother 182.5 days Father 182.5 days.

B. DAY-TO-DAY SCHEDULE

Mother shall have responsibility for the care of the child except at the following times when Father shall have responsibility:

From Sunday at 3:00 p.m. to Sunday at 3:00 p.m. every other week.

EFILED 10/31/25 01:32 PM CASE NO. 25D734 Joseph P. Day, Clerk

EFILED 12/10/25 09:37 AM CASE NO. 25D734 Joseph P. Day, Clerk

Additionally, the parent who is not exercising parenting time during a given week shall have the opportunity to exercise optional parenting time with the child on the Wednesday of that week after school (or 3:00 p.m. if no school) until 7:30 p.m. That parent will give the other parent at least seventy-two (72) hours notice if he/she does not intend to exercise this additional time in a given week. The child being in an afterschool program for part of the Wednesday visitation time does not constitute a waiver of the entirety of the time.

The parties further agree that while the terms of this Parenting Plan constitute an Order of the Court that shall be followed, upon an agreement between the parties, the parties may deviate from the parenting time schedule to arrange for different parenting times. The parties agree that neither party shall be required to deviate from the schedule. The parties agree that they will attempt to be flexible, reasonable, and cooperative with one another, taking into consideration each of the parties' work and social schedules and the school, extracurricular and social schedules of the child.

This parenting schedule begins on the date of this Court's Order.

C. HOLIDAY SCHEDULE AND OTHER SCHOOL FREE DAYS

Unless noted below, the parties agree that holidays shall follow the day-to-day schedule.

Mother's Day: Mother shall have parenting time with the minor child every year on Mother's Day from the day before Mother's Day at 6:00 p.m. through Mother's Day at 8:00 p.m., at which time the day-to-day schedule shall resume.

Father's Day: Father shall have parenting time with the minor child every year on Father's Day from the day before Father's Day at 6:00 p.m. through Father's Day at 8:00 p.m., at which time the day-to-day schedule shall resume. Father's Day shall take priority over the summer schedule.

Mother's Birthday: Mother shall have parenting time with the minor child every year on Mother's birthday from the day before Mother's birthday at 6:00 p.m. through Mother's birthday at 8:00 p.m., at which time the day-to-day schedule shall resume.

Father's Birthday: Father shall have parenting time with the minor child every year on Father's birthday from the day before Father's birthday at 6:00 p.m. through Father's birthday at 8:00 p.m., at which time the day-to-day schedule shall resume.

Thanksgiving: Mother in even years and Father in odd years from the day and time school is dismissed for Thanksgiving break until the Sunday after the holiday at 3:00 p.m. The day-to-day schedule shall then resume.

Memorial Day: Mother in even years and Father in odd years from the Friday before Memorial Day at the time school releases (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) through the Tuesday after the holiday at 3:00 p.m., at which time the day-to-day schedule shall resume.

Labor Day: Mother in odd years and Father in even years from the Friday before Labor Day at the time school releases (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) through the Tuesday after the holiday at the time school resumes (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) at which time the day-to-day schedule shall resume.

President's Day: Mother in odd years and Father in even years from the Friday before Memorial Day at the time school releases (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) through the Tuesday after the holiday at the time school resumes (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) at which time the day-to-day schedule shall resume.

Martin Luther King Day: Mother in even years and Father in odd years from the Friday before MLK Day at the time school releases (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) through the Tuesday after the holiday at the time school resumes (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) at which time the day-to-day schedule shall resume.

Child's birthdays: The parties shall share time on the child's birthdays each year, with the parent who is exercising parenting time on the morning of the child's birthday to have parenting time beginning at the time school dismisses (or at 12:00 p.m. when school is not in session) on the day before the child's birthday and ending at the time school dismisses (or at 12:00 p.m. when school is not in session) on the day of the child's birthday. The other parent shall then have the child beginning at 12:00 p.m. on the child's birthday until school resumes (or 12:00 p.m. if school is not in session) the day after the child's birthday, at which point the day-to-day schedule shall resume.

D. FALL VACATION (If applicable)

Mother shall have the child for Fall Vacation during odd years and Father shall have the child for Fall Vacation during even years. For the purposes of this parenting plan, Fall Vacation shall be from when the day and time school is dismissed for the break until the day and time school resumes. The day-to-day schedule shall then resume.

E. WINTER (CHRISTMAS) VACATION

In odd years, Mother shall have the child for the first half of winter vacation from the time school releases (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) until the halfway point at 3:00 p.m. Father shall have the child for the second half of winter vacation from the halfway point at 3:00 p.m. until the time school resumes (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session). In even years, this schedule shall reverse and Father shall have the child for the first half of winter vacation from the time school releases (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session) until the halfway point at 3:00 p.m. Mother shall have the child for the second half of winter vacation from the halfway point at 3:00 p.m. until the time school resumes (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session). The day-to-day schedule shall then resume.

F. SPRING VACATION (If applicable)

Mother shall have the child for Spring Vacation during even years and Father shall have the child for Spring Vacation during odd years. For the purposes of this parenting plan, Spring Vacation shall be from the day and time school is dismissed for the holiday until the day and time school resumes after the break. The day-to-day schedule shall then resume.

G. SUMMER VACATION

The day-to-day schedule shall apply, except that each party shall also have the option for two (2) consecutive weeks of vacation time while school is out of session. The preference in dates for these vacations shall be given to Mother in the even years and Father in the odd years. The parent who has the preference in a given year must provide written notice to the other parent of the dates selected by April 1st. The parent who does not have preference in a given year must provide written notice to the other parent of the dates selected by April 15th.

H. TRANSPORTATION ARRANGEMENTS

The place of meeting for the exchange of the child shall be at the other parent's residence. The party beginning his/her parenting time shall pick the minor child up from the other parent's residence.

Payment of long-distance transportation costs shall be the responsibility of the parent arranging the long-distance travel.

If a parent does not possess a valid driver's license, he or she must make reasonable transportation arrangements to protect the child while in the care of that parent.

I. SUPERVISION OF PARENTING TIME (If applicable)

Not applicable.

J. OTHER

The following special provisions apply:

1) When Spring Vacation, Fall Vacation, Thanksgiving Break, or Summer Vacation falls so that one parent has parenting time with the minor child for three consecutive weeks in a row, the parties shall divide the third week such that the parent who was not exercising parenting time for the two weeks prior shall have the first half of the third week from Sunday at 3:00 p.m. until Wednesday at the time school is dismissed (or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session), and the other parent shall have the remainder of the week. The day-to-day schedule shall then resume.

2) The parties shall make good faith efforts to cooperate in accommodating events and plans for the child during each other's parenting time. The parent requesting accommodations shall communicate the dates in writing to the parent who would potentially be losing parenting time. Neither parent shall unreasonably withhold consent relating to these accommodations. The parent that loses parenting time shall have the option to make-up this time at a later date. These make-up dates shall be communicated in writing to the other parent.

3) The parents agree that emails shall satisfy any provision herein requiring an agreement "in writing."

4) Any deviations from the Parenting Plan must be agreed to by the parties in writing.

5) The parties shall pay pro rata for agreed upon technology items for the child (i.e., computers, cellphones, tablets, etc.); however, these expenses/purchases must be agreed to in writing. In the event that one parent pays the entire cost of an agreed upon technology item, that parent shall send the other parent a copy of the relevant bill and receipt evidencing payment within thirty (30) days of paying same. The other parent shall reimburse with his or her share within thirty (30) days of receipt of bill directly to the other parent. Should the parties not agree, then the party wishing to move forward shall be solely responsible for the cost and all related expenses.

6) The parties shall pay pro rata for agreed upon automobile expenses for the child; however, these expenses must be agreed to in writing. In the event that one parent pays the entire cost of an automobile expense, that parent shall send the other parent a copy of the relevant bill and receipt evidencing payment within thirty (30) days of paying same. The other parent shall reimburse with his or her share within thirty (30) days of receipt of bill directly to the other parent. Should the parties not agree, then the party wishing to move forward shall be solely responsible for the cost and all related expenses.

7) Both parties agree not to consume any alcohol or mind-altering substances and drive a motor vehicle with the child in the car.

II. DECISION-MAKING

A. DAY-TO-DAY DECISIONS

Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care of a child while the child is residing with that parent, including any emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child.

B. MAJOR DECISIONS*

Major decisions regarding each child shall be made as follows:

Educational decisions	☐ mother	☐ father	☒ joint
Non-emergency health care	☐ mother	☐ father	☒ joint
Religious upbringing	☒ mother	☒ father	☐ joint
Extracurricular activities	☐ mother	☐ father	☒ joint

*Joint Decision-Making: In the event a joint major decision is to be made, the parent seeking to make such a decision shall notify the other parent regarding the substance of the proposed decision in writing by email and request their agreement to the decision. Within five (5) days of said email, the other party shall reply by email to such request. If the party does not respond within five (5) days of receipt of said email, then they shall be deemed to consent and agree to the decision proposed in the email. Neither party shall unreasonably withhold their consent to a decision proposed by the other party. In the event of a disagreement, either party may compel the other party to participate in mediation to resolve the disagreement by giving written notice to the other parent via email, in which case, mediation shall take place within thirty (30) days of such written notice. If mediation is unsuccessful, either party may file a petition with the Court to resolve the dispute and the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and litigation expenses against the non-prevailing party.

Extracurricular activity: If the parties agree to an extracurricular activity, such agreement shall be in writing (email shall suffice). The parent exercising parenting time with the minor child shall transport the minor child to and/or from all mutually agreed upon extracurricular activities or arrange for transportation by another responsible driver and bring along all necessary uniforms and equipment within the parent's possession.

The cost of the agreed upon extracurricular activities, including participation or enrollment fees, dues, uniforms, and equipment shall be paid pro rata by the parties. When possible, each parent shall pay his or her respective portion directly to the billing entity (e.g., school, organization, league, or company which organizes the activity). In the event that one parent pays the entire cost of an extracurricular expense covered by this agreement, that parent shall send the other parent a copy of the relevant bill and receipt evidencing payment within thirty (30) days of paying same. The other parent shall reimburse with his or her share within thirty (30) days of receipt of bill.

III. FINANCIAL SUPPORT

A. CHILD SUPPORT

Father's gross monthly income is $7,141.16
Mother's gross monthly income is $3,000.00

1. The final child support order is as follows:

   a. Father shall pay to Mother as regular child support the sum of $463.00 a month.

   The Child Support Worksheets shall be attached to this Order as an Exhibit A.

2. Payments shall begin on the 1st day of the first month following the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce.

This support shall be paid:

☑ directly to the other parent via Venmo.
☐ to the Central Child Support Receipting Unit, P. O. Box 305200, Nashville, Tennessee 37229, and sent from there to the other parent at:_____.
A Wage Assignment Order is attached to this Parenting Plan
☐ by direct deposit to the other parent at _____for deposit in account no _____.
☐ other:
The parents acknowledge that court approval must be obtained before child support can be reduced or modified.

*Child Support Worksheet can be found on DHS website at http://www.state.tn.us/humanserv/is/incomeshares.htm or at your local child support offices.

B. FEDERAL INCOME TAX EXEMPTION*

The Mother is the parent receiving child support.

* NOTE: The child support schedule assumptions in the guidelines (1240-2-4-.03 (6)(b)) assume that the parent receiving the child support will get the tax exemptions for the child.

EFILED 12/10/25 09:37 AM CASE NO. 25D734 Joseph P. Day, Clerk

As of January 1, 2018, the federal income tax exemption for children has been eliminated until at least the end of 2025.

Mother shall be entitled to any child related tax credits allowed by the Internal Revenue Code and the federal income tax exemption, if it is reinstated, unless she is unable to take advantage of such credits due to her income being too high, in which case she shall inform Father and permit him to use such credits prior to the tax filing deadline if allowed.

The parties will furnish IRS Form 8332 to the parent entitled to the tax credits or exemption by February 15 of the year the tax return is due.

C. PROOF OF INCOME AND WORK-RELATED CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Each parent shall send proof of income to the other parent for the prior calendar year as follows:

- IRS Forms W-2 and 1099 shall be sent to the other parent on or before February 15.
- A copy of his or her federal income tax return shall be sent to the other parent on or before April 15 or any later date when it is due because of an extension of time for filing.
- The completed form required by the Department of Human Services shall be sent to the Department on or before the date the federal income tax return is due by the parent paying child support. This requirement applies only if a parent is receiving benefits from the Department for a child.

The parent paying work-related childcare expenses shall send proof of expenses to the other parent for the prior calendar year and an estimate for the next calendar year, on or before February 15.

D. HEALTH AND DENTAL INSURANCE

Reasonable health insurance on the child will be maintained by Father.

Proof of continuing coverage shall be furnished to the other parent annually or as coverage changes. The parent maintaining coverage shall authorize the other parent to consult with the insurance carrier regarding the coverage in effect.

Uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses, which may include but is not limited to, deductibles or co-payments, orthodontia, eyeglasses, contact lens, and routine annual physicals shall be paid pro rata by the parties. After insurance has paid its portion, the parent receiving the bill will send it to the other parent within thirty (30) days. The other parent will pay his or her share within thirty (30) days of receipt of the bill.

If available through work, Father shall maintain dental, orthodontic, and optical insurance on the minor child.

Upon the child support obligation terminating, Father shall continue to maintain health insurance for the child, until the child is no longer eligible or the child receives their own health insurance, whichever occurs first. However, if Father's employment changes, then he is only obligated to maintain the child, so long as he has the option to include the child at a similar price.

E. LIFE INSURANCE

Father shall insure his life in the minimum amount of $150,000 by whole life or term insurance. Until the child support obligation has been completed, the policy shall name the child as the sole irrevocable primary beneficiary, with Mother to serve as trustee for the benefit of the child, to serve without bond or accounting. Neither party shall borrow against said life insurances until all child support obligations have been terminated.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The child is scheduled to reside the majority of the time as designated in Section I.A. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to:

- ☒ Mediation by a neutral party chosen by the parents or the Court.
- ☐ Arbitration by a neutral party selected by parents or the Court.
- ☐ The Court DUE TO ORDER OF PROTECTION OR RESTRICTIONS.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by ☒ written request ☐ certified mail ☐ other: _____

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The parent exercising parenting time shall furnish the other parent with a telephone number where the child may be reached at the days and time specified in a parenting plan or other court order or, where days and times are not specified, at reasonable times;

(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not destroy, deface, open or censor. The parent exercising parenting time shall deliver all letters, packages and other material sent to the child by the other parent as soon as received and shall not interfere with their delivery in any way, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of a child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;

(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any educational records customarily made available to parents. Upon request from one parent, the parent enrolling the child in school shall provide to the other parent as soon as available each academic year the name, address, telephone number and other contact information for the school. In the case of child who is being homeschooled, the parent providing the homeschooling shall advise the other parent of this fact along with the contact information of any sponsoring entity or other entity involved in the child's education, including access to any individual student records or grades available online. The school or homeschooling entity shall be responsible, upon request, to provide to each parent records customarily made available to parents. The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. These records include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical, health or other treatment records directly from the treating physician or healthcare provider. Upon request from one parent, the parent who has arranged for such treatment or health care shall provide to the other parent the name, address, telephone number and other contact information of the physician or healthcare provider. The keeper of the records may require a written request including a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. No person who receives the mailing address of a requesting parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate, and the opportunity to participate in or observe them. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child for more than forty-eight (48) hours, an itinerary which shall include the planned dates of departure and return, the intended destinations and mode of travel and telephone numbers. The parent traveling with the child shall provide this information to the other parent so as to give that parent reasonable notice; and

(9) The right to access and participation in the child's education on the same bases that are provided to all parents including the right of access to the child during lunch and other school activities: provided, that the participation or access is legal and reasonable; however, access must not interfere with the school's day-to-day operations or with the child's educational schedule.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

(a) After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;

(2) Location of proposed new residence;

(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and

(4) Statement that absent agreement between the parents or an objection by the non-relocating parent within thirty (30) days of the date notice is sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with subsection (a), the relocating parent will be permitted to do so by law.

(b) Absent agreement by the parents on a new visitation schedule within thirty (30) days of the notice or upon a timely objection in response to the notice, the relocating parent shall file a petition seeking approval of the relocation. The non-relocating parent has thirty (30) days to file a response in opposition to the petition. In the event no response in opposition is filed within thirty (30) days, the parent proposing to relocate with the child shall be permitted to do so.

(c) (1) If a petition in opposition to relocation is filed, the court shall determine whether relocation is in the best interest of the minor child.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by X both parents ☐ mother ☐ father ☐ neither.

Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

EFILED 12/10/25 09:37 AM CASE NO. 25D734 Joseph P. Day, Clerk

The Court further finds that the parties have been put on notice pursuant to T.C.A. §36-4-134, that this Final Decree does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor to proceed against a party or a party's property, even though the party is not responsible under the terms of this decree for an account, any debt associated with an account or any debt and that it may be in a party's best interest to cancel, close or freeze any jointly held accounts.

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the Plaintiff/Wife, Robin Forsman Hausken is hereby granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant/Husband, Douglas Arthur Hausken on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and the bonds of matrimony binding the parties are hereby dissolved and the parties are hereby restored to the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is, further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that after expiration of thirty days from entry of this final decree, Missy Rolseth and Welty Law Office are hereby relieved as attorneys of record for the Plaintiff in this matter.

It is, further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that after expiration of thirty days from entry of this final decree, Melanie M. Rosen and McCracken, Kuhn, Marks, PLLC are hereby relieved as attorneys of record for the Defendant in this matter.

It is, further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED the Defendant's current mailing address is 4857 Lynn Drive, Nashville, TN 37211, and that the Plaintiff's current mailing address is 3704 Park Ave, Unit B, Nashville TN 37209.

It is, further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that any and all court costs for this cause are assessed against the Wife, for which execution may issue if necessary.
