I, Claudine Gaines Watkins, being of sound mind & spirit write this note as my last will & testament. I want all my children to know that you were all my life & love and my great privilege to see you all grown & out on your own, doing well & happy - this was my greatest goal & wish in life.

If Jeffrey Watkins is surviving me - I want him to have my home & contents. I don't want my home to be sold but left to Jeff because he has lived there with me & helped me every day maintaining the home & being with me helping me with most of my needs.

I want David Gaines Jr. to have my cape lot in Lazardia. Should Jeff not be a survivor when I die - I want David to be my son to handle my estates. He can do as he wishes to divide the remaining things I have. I still wish the home not to be sold but rather one of my surviving children or grandchildren live here if they need a place to live. I do not leave anything to Teresa Watkins Kemp or James Haecsee Watkins as they never wanted to recognize me as their step mother who he married to their Father.

My wish is to be placed in Hermitage either beside Mark or in the Mausoleum in Hermitage. (I'm not sure what My insurance policy provides).

My everlasting love to My children.
