6. Declaration of Restrictions and Covenants for Stormwater Facilities and Systems of record in Instrument No. 20240924-0074084, said Register's Office.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the Property, with the appurtenances, estate, title and interest thereto belonging to the said Grantee, their heirs and assigns, forever; and Grantor does covenant with the Grantee that Grantor is lawfully seized and possessed of the Property in fee simple, has a good right to convey it, and that the same is unencumbered, unless otherwise herein set out; and Grantor does further covenant and bind itself, its successors and assigns, to warrant and forever defend the title to the Property to the Grantee, their heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons claiming by, through or under Grantor, but not further or otherwise. Wherever used, the singular number shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall be applicable to all genders.

In addition to the encumbrances listed above, this conveyance is made subject to the following covenants and restrictions, which shall be binding upon the Grantee herein, and their heirs, assigns and subsequent grantees, it being the intent of Grantor that these covenants and restrictions run with the Property.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

During such time as the property described herein is used for a purpose for which assistance under the Housing Opportunity Program Extension Act of 1996, P.L. 104-120, was provided or for another proposed involving the provision of similar services or benefits, then no person having an interest in this property shall refuse service for or accommodation or other benefits to any person with respect to the property on account of the person's race, color or national origin or otherwise engage in discrimination conduct of any kind or account of a person's race, color or national origin with respect to the property. This covenant shall run with the land.

OWNER RETENTION

Grantee hereby grants to Grantor a right of first offer to purchase the Property from Grantee in the event that Grantee elects to sell the Property. Grantee must notify Grantor in writing of his or her intent to sell the Property, and Grantor shall have thirty (30) business days in which to (i) offer Grantee a price that represents the fair market value of the Property, taking into consideration any affordability restrictions encumbering the Property, less any expenses required to rehabilitate the Property into a condition ready for a new purchaser of the Property, or (ii) notify Grantee that Grantor does not intend to make an offer to purchase the Property. Grantor shall have the right to inspect the Property, upon 48 hours notice to Grantee, in order to determine whether or not Grantor will exercise Grantor's right of first offer to purchase the Property. In the event that Grantor does not respond within the thirty (30) business day period, Grantee may move forward with the sale of the Property to a third party.

Grantees, for and in consideration of receiving direct subsidy funds from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati's (the FHLB Cincinnati) Affordable Housing Program (AHP), must maintain ownership in this property and reside in this property as their primary residence for a period of five (5) years (Retention Period) from the date of the loan closing or certification of project completion.

(i) The FHLB Cincinnati, whose mailing address is P.O. Box 598; Cincinnati, OH 45201-0598, is to be given written notice of any sale, transfer, assignment of title or deed such as to the Secretary of HUD, foreclosure, or refinancing of the unit by the household occurring during the AHP 5-year Retention Period.

(ii) In the case of a sale, transfer, assignment of title or deed, or refinancing of the unit by the household during the Retention Period, the Bank shall be repaid the lesser of: (A) the AHP subsidy, reduced on a pro rata basis per month until the unit is sold, transferred, or its title or deed transferred, or is refinanced, during the AHP 5-year retention period; or (B) any net proceeds from the sale, transfer, or assignment of title or deed of the unit, or the refinancing, as applicable, minus the AHP-assisted household's investment, unless one of the following exceptions applies:

1. The unit was assisted with a permanent mortgage loan funded by an AHP advance;
2. The subsequent purchaser, transferee, or assignee is a low- or moderate-income household as defined in the applicable Federal Housing Finance Agency regulations for the AHP (in which case the retention period ends with the conveyance to such purchaser);
3. The amount of the AHP subsidy that would be required to be repaid is $2,500 or less; or
4. Following a refinancing, the unit continues to be subject to a deed restriction or other legally enforceable retention agreement or mechanism, incorporating the requirements of clauses (i),(ii), and (iii) contained herein.

(iii) The obligation to repay subsidy to the FHLB Cincinnati shall terminate after any event of foreclosure or conveyance by deed in lieu of foreclosure, assignment of a Federal Housing Administration first mortgage to the Secretary of HUD, or death of the AHP-assisted homeowner.
