A. Severability - If any provision of this Will is held to be unenforceable or invalid, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permissible under governing law.

B. Survivorship - No beneficiary shall be deemed to have survived me unless such beneficiary remains alive or remains in existence, as the case may be, on the thirtieth (30th) day after my death. Any person who is prohibited by law from inheriting property from me shall be treated as having failed to survive me.

C. Payment of Taxes - All estate, inheritance, or similar taxes (including interest and penalties thereon) arising in connection with my death with respect to any property included in my gross estate for the purpose of calculating such taxes, whether or not such property passes under my Will, shall be paid out of the residue of my estate without apportionment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no portion of any estate, inheritance or similar taxes arising in connection with my death shall be apportioned or charged to property qualifying fully for the charitable deduction for federal estate tax purposes; provided, however, to the extent that the assets passing by reason of my death that do not qualify for the charitable deduction are insufficient for the payment of such taxes, then any excess taxes shall be paid on a pro rata basis from the assets that qualify for the charitable deduction. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this Will, references to a "descendant" or "descendants" shall mean the lineal blood descendants of any degree of the ancestor designated; provided, however, that such references shall include as then living descendants, with respect to any provision of this Will, descendants who have been conceived at any specific point in time relevant to such provision and who thereafter survive birth. Except as provided in this Subdivision, below, an adopted child and such adopted child's descendants by blood or adoption shall be considered under this Will to be descendants of the adopting parent or of either of the adopting parents. Notwithstanding anything in this Will to the contrary, the following persons shall not be included in the definition of "descendants" for any purposes: (i) any person who is adopted (by anyone other than me) after reaching age eighteen (18), and (ii) any person who is the descendant (whether by blood or adoption) of such person.
2. References to "Heirs" shall refer to those persons who would inherit separate personal property from the person designated under the statutes of descent and distribution of the state in which my Will is probated, if such person had died intestate and unmarried at such time. A distribution to "Heirs" is a distribution in the shares and manner prescribed under such statutes.
3. When a distribution is to be made to a person's descendants "by right of representation," property shall be divided into as many equal shares as there are (i) members of the nearest generation of descendants who survive such person, and (ii) deceased members of that generation who left descendants who survive such person. This division into shares shall begin at the generation nearest to such person that has a surviving member. Each surviving member of the nearest generation of descendants with a member who survives such person shall receive one share, and the share that would have passed to each deceased member of that generation who left descendants who survive such person shall be divided in a similar manner (by reapplying the preceding rule) among his or her descendants who survive such person. For example, if a person has deceased children and surviving children when a distribution is to be made, the assets will be divided into equal shares at the child level and distributed by right of representation below that level; however, if the person has no surviving children at such time, that equal division will be made at the grandchild level (or lower, if appropriate) and distributed by right of representation below that level. This definition is intended to override any conflicting or contrary statutory or common law definition.
4. The term "executor" in this Will is synonymous with and includes the terms "personal representative", "executrix", "trustee", and "independent executor", and the context shall dictate.

G. Discretion - Whenever in this Will an action is authorized in the discretion of my Executor or Digital Executor, the term "discretion" shall mean the reasonable discretion of such Executor or Digital Executor.

H. Spendthrift Provisions - Prior to the actual receipt of property by any beneficiary, no property (income or principal) distributable under this Will shall, voluntarily or involuntarily, be subject to anticipation or assignment by any beneficiary, or to the attachment by or to the interference or control of any creditor or assignee of any beneficiary, or taken or reached by any legal or equitable process in satisfaction of any debt or liability of any beneficiary, and any attempted transfer or encumbrance of any interest in such property by any beneficiary hereunder prior to distribution shall be void.

I. Beneficiary Receiving Public Benefits - If any beneficiary (the "Beneficiary") under my Will is receiving or, in the sole determination of my Executor, is likely eligible to receive, within twelve (12) months, public benefits based on financial need or disability, my Executor is authorized to withhold outright distribution to the Beneficiary. Instead, the Beneficiary's share shall pass in a separate trust to be held and administered, as follows:

1. My Executor shall select an appropriate trustee for any trust hereunder, including themself. In no event shall the trustee of any trust hereunder be the Beneficiary of such trust.

2. The trustee shall have the sole discretion to pay to (or apply for the benefit of) the Beneficiary as much of the net income and/or principal of the trust as the trustee deems necessary or advisable for assistance with support, care, education, and activities that supplement other government benefits which would ordinarily be received by or are being or will be received by the Beneficiary. The trustee shall have the sole discretion to determine what disbursements shall be made for the benefit of the Beneficiary. This trust shall not be considered a general support trust. Any net income not distributed shall be accumulated and added to principal. The trustee's discretion shall include the discretion to withhold any distributions to (or for the benefit of) the Beneficiary, if any such distribution would jeopardize eligibility for, or limit the types or amounts of assistance available to, the Beneficiary under Medicaid, the Supplemental Security Income Program, the TANF program, or other government programs based on the Beneficiary's financial need or disability.

3. The trustee shall terminate the trust upon the Beneficiary's death or upon the trustee's sole determination that it would be in the best interest of the Beneficiary to terminate the trust. Upon the trust's termination, the trustee shall distribute the remaining trust estate to the Beneficiary if the Beneficiary is then living. If the trust terminates upon the Beneficiary's death, the trustee shall distribute the balance of the trust as though the Beneficiary had died before me.

J. No Contest - If any beneficiary of my estate in any manner, directly or indirectly, contests the probate or validity of this Will or any of its provisions, or institutes or joins in, except as a party defendant, any proceeding to contest the probate or validity of this Will or to prevent any provision hereof from being carried out in accordance with the terms hereof, then all benefits provided for such beneficiary are revoked and shall pass as if that contesting beneficiary had failed to survive me. The provisions of this Paragraph J shall be enforceable unless in a court action determining whether this no contest clause should be enforced, the party bringing the contest establishes that the contest was brought and maintained in good faith and that probable cause existed for bringing the contest. Each benefit conferred herein is made on the condition precedent that the beneficiary receiving such benefit shall accept and agree to all of the provisions of this Will, and the provisions of this Paragraph J are an essential part of each and every benefit. My Executor shall be reimbursed for the reasonable costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with the defense of any such contest. Such reimbursement shall be made from my estate.
