FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came to be heard on 7th day of July, 2026, upon the Wife's Complaint for Divorce filed on May 14, 2025, this Court having granted a default judgment to the Wife against the Husband by Order entered on July 14, 2025. Present for this final hearing were the Plaintiff/Wife, FREDA LORELLE HOLT ("Wife"), her counsel, and her two witnesses, Tametre Lawrence and Jacqueline Brock. Husband did not appear in Court, although he was duly noticed. Based upon the testimony of the witnesses, the exhibits admitted into evidence, the argument of counsel, and the entire record herein, the Court finds and orders as follows:

This is a 24-year marriage. This certainly to be considered a long-term marriage. This is a divorce by default wherein the parties have one minor child and there was personal service on the Husband, who has failed to appear and participate.

The divorce shall be granted on the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct, specifically the Husband's inappropriate relationships with other women during the marriage; his physical assault of the Wife, including shoving her; as well as his verbal abuse in making derogatory statements and degrading statements about Wife's body throughout the marriage.

The parties have one minor child, Michael Holt Jr., [redacted] Wife shall be designated as the primary residential parent. Wife shall have 365 days, and Husband will have zero days. Any visitation requested by the Husband will be at the discretion of the Wife until such time as the Husband files a Petition with the court to establish specific parenting time for him. Wife shall be awarded major decision-making in all categories. The Court accepts the proposed child support worksheet based on the Wife's testimony, the Court finding that those numbers are factual. Husband shall pay the sum of seven hundred and ninety-one dollars ($791.00) per month. The child support shall begin on the first day of August 2026 and shall be due on the first day of each month thereafter. A wage assignment order may issue if that is appropriate or possible. Otherwise, the child support shall be paid directly by Husband to the Child Support Receipting Unit. Wife shall claim the tax benefits for the child. Husband shall continue to maintain the health insurance for the child as he has done. Uncovered medical expenses for the child shall be divided pro rata by the parties in accordance with line 3 of the controlling child support worksheet. Both parties shall be restrained and enjoined from using the minor child as a go-between or to communicate between the parents. Any communication regarding any issues, but specifically regarding the child, shall be communicated directly between the parents.

The Court adopts the Wife's proposed division of the property as in Exhibit #4, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, with the addition of the Husband's Riverbend pension, which will be awarded to Husband as his premarital property in accordance with Wife's testimony. The Court finds that the proposed division in Exhibit #4 is an equitable division of the marital estate. Based on the testimony of the Wife, the Court will divide the assets in the manner as Wife has proposed, the Court finding the same to be equitable and fair to both parties. Wife will have 180 days from the date of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce to refinance or assume the mortgage on 4528 Red Bark Court, Cane Ridge, TN 37013 ("Red Bark Court Property"). If there are any tax liens or other liens on the Red Bark Court Property that were the responsibility of the Husband or incurred because of the Husband's debts, Husband shall be responsible for the payment of any of those liens and shall indemnify and hold the Wife harmless thereon, if any liens are discovered on that property. The Ford F-150 (VIN # [redacted] shall be awarded to Wife. Husband shall be divested of any interest therein and Wife shall be vested with all right, title, and interest in said vehicle. Wife will need to obtain title of the Ford F-150 in her name so she can dispose of it.

Each party shall be awarded the personal property that is now in his or her possession, free and clear of any claim or interest of the other party. Husband shall be restrained and enjoined from returning to the Red Bark Court residence for any purpose without the express written permission of the Wife. Husband shall not remove any further items of personal property from that property from today forward.

With regard to alimony, the Court finds based on the proof that the Husband has the ability to pay. Husband actually has paid, pendente lite, more than the requested alimony amount, and the Wife does have a need for alimony based on the discrepancies in the parties' incomes and based on Wife's obligation to pay the remaining mortgage on the property awarded to her. Wife shall be awarded transitional alimony in the amount of $2,000 per month beginning August 1, 2026 and continuing to become due on the first day of each month thereafter, for a period of five (5) years. With regard to the alimony factors at Tenn. Code Ann. §36-5-121, this is a 24-year, long-term marriage. Wife is 56 and Husband is 70. Wife is employed full-time and is a bit younger than Husband. Although the Husband is retired, he is presently earning more monthly income than the Wife, who is employed full time. Husband has guaranteed pension income from two different pensions, Social Security income, and income from his lawn care business. Wife is not vested in her State of Tennessee pension, although she does have some retirement assets. The Court did not hear proof about the relative education of the parties or either party's physical or mental condition. Factor #6 is not applicable. The parties are being awarded quite substantially equal assets in the bottom line division of the marital estate. Both parties have worked during the marriage and have contributed to the acquisition of the marital estate. Wife is being awarded the marital residence, which still has a mortgage payment due on that in the approximate amount of $1,900 per month, whereas Husband is being awarded property that does not have a monthly mortgage obligation. The Court finds that the Wife has a need for alimony and that she will be awarded transitional alimony based on the Court's findings.

The Court will award the Wife her attorney's fees in this matter as alimony in solido based on the previous findings regarding the alimony factors, as well as pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. §36-5-103(c) for her pursuit of support and regarding the minor child. Counsel shall submit an Affidavit of Attorney Fees. The Court award Wife those attorney fees as alimony in solido, which will be due immediately or execution may issue.

Court costs will be assessed to the Husband.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that Wife is awarded a divorce from Husband on the ground of Husband's inappropriate marital conduct, and both parties are hereby restored to all rights and privileged of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Permanent Parenting Plan and child support worksheet, which are attached hereto as Exhibit B and which are incorporated herein by reference, are hereby adopted and made an order of the Court and are binding on the parties in regard to both parties' rights, responsibilities and obligations concerning the minor child, the Court finding the same to be in the best interest of the minor child.
